Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

CID Resources Acquisition

On May 2, 2018, Superior Uniform Group, Inc., a Florida corporation (the “Company”), entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) with CID Resources, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Target”), CID Resources Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the “Seller”), and certain of the equityholders of the Seller (such signatories, the “Equityholders”). Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the Company acquired all of the issued and outstanding common stock and Series A preferred stock of the Target effective as of May 2, 2018. The Target, headquartered in Coppell, Texas, manufactures medical uniforms, lab coats, and layers, and sells its products to specialty uniform retailers, ecommerce medical uniform retailers, and other retailers.

The purchase price in the acquisition consists of the following, subject to adjustment in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement: (a) approximately $84.4 million in cash, subject to adjustment for cash on hand, indebtedness, unpaid Seller expenses and working capital (excluding cash), in each case as of the closing date, and (b) the issuance of 150,094 shares of the Company’s common stock (representing approximately $4.0 million) to an Equityholder (the “Buyer Shares”). Any working capital adjustment will be based on the difference between working capital as of the closing date and a target amount of approximately $39.5 million.

The acquisition was funded by the Company with available cash and borrowings under the Credit Facilities described below.

The Purchase Agreement contains negotiated representations, warranties, covenants and indemnification provisions by the parties, which are believed to be customary for transactions of this type utilizing representations and warranties insurance (“R&W Insurance”). The indemnification obligations of the Seller and the Equityholders that arise from breaches of non-fundamental representations or warranties only apply with respect to aggregate liabilities in excess of a specified deductible, are generally subject to an indemnification cap and, with the exceptions of tax-related representations, are only effective for specified periods after closing. Portions of the cash purchase price will be held in escrow to (i) secure purchase price adjustments and (ii) satisfy certain indemnification obligations of the Seller and the Equityholders. The Company has also secured general and excess coverage for certain breaches of representations and warranties of the Seller and the Equityholders and general coverage for unknown pre-closing tax obligations under R&W Insurance policies, subject to certain exclusions and retention amounts.

In connection with the transaction, the Company entered into various related agreements, including without limitation, a registration rights agreement with the recipient of the Buyer Shares providing for piggy-back registration rights, a restrictive covenants agreement with the Equityholders, a support agreement with certain direct and indirect equityholders of the Seller who are not party to the Purchase Agreement, employment agreements and various other agreements. The recipient of the Buyer Shares and its sole equityholder also agreed in the Purchase Agreement to a 180-day lockup restriction on the transfer of Buyer Shares, subject to limited exceptions.

The foregoing summary of the Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

The representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement were made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Purchase Agreement and as of the specified dates noted therein. Furthermore, such representations and warranties may have been qualified by certain disclosures between the parties and a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to shareholders, among other limitations. The Company's shareholders are not third party beneficiaries under the Purchase Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or conditions of the Company or of the Target.

Credit Facilities

Concurrently with the closing of the acquisition described above, the Company entered into an Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of May 2, 2018 (the “Amended and Restated Credit Agreement”), with its existing lender, Branch Banking & Trust Company, a North Carolina banking corporation (the “Lender”), pursuant to which the Company’s existing revolving credit facility was increased from $35 million to $75 million and the Lender provided an additional term loan in the principal amount of $85 million. No principal payments are due on the $85 million term loan prior to its maturity. The term of the revolving credit facility was extended until May 2023 and the $85 million term loan matures in May 2020. The Company’s existing term loan with the Lender in the principal amount of $42 million remains outstanding with a maturity date of February 2024 and with the same amortization schedule. The revolving credit facility, existing term loan and additional term loan are collectively referred to as the “Credit Facilities.”

Obligations outstanding under the revolving credit facility and the $42 million term loan generally have a variable interest rate of LIBOR plus 0.68%. Obligations outstanding under the new $85 million term loan generally have a variable interest rate of LIBOR plus 0.93% for the first twelve months after the effective date, 1.5% for the period from thirteen months through eighteen months after the effective date, and 1.75% thereafter. The Company is obligated to pay a commitment fee of 0.10% per annum on the average unused portion of the commitment under the revolving credit facility and a commitment fee of 0.25% on the outstanding balance of the $85 million term loan on the thirteenth month and nineteenth month following the effective date of such loan. The available balance under the revolving credit facility is reduced by outstanding letters of credit.

The Amended and Restated Credit Agreement contains customary events of default and negative covenants, including but not limited to those governing indebtedness, liens, fundamental changes, investments, restricted payments, and sales of assets. The Amended and Restated Credit Agreement also requires the Company to comply with a fixed charge coverage ratio of at least 1.25:1 and a funded debt to EBITDA ratio not to exceed 4.0:1. The Credit Facilities are secured by substantially all of the operating assets of the Company as collateral, and the Company’s obligations under the Credit Facilities are guaranteed by all of its domestic subsidiaries, including the Target. The Company’s obligations under the Credit Facilities are subject to acceleration upon the occurrence of an event of default as defined in the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement.

The foregoing summary of the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of such agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
