On April 29, 2018, Harvest Capital Credit Corporation (the “Company”) entered into a new administration agreement dated as of April 29, 2018 (the “Administration Agreement”), with HCAP Advisors LLC (“HCAP Advisors”), which agreement, as previously disclosed, replaces the administration agreement with JMP Credit Advisors LLC that expired on April 29, 2018. The Administration Agreement has substantially the same terms as the previous administration agreement with JMP Credit Advisors. Under the Administration Agreement, HCAP Advisors will furnish the Company, as necessary, with office facilities, equipment, and clerical, bookkeeping and record keeping services at such facilities. Under the Administration Agreement, HCAP Advisors will also perform, or oversee the performance of, the Company’s required administrative services, which include, among other things, being responsible for the financial records that the Company is required to maintain and preparing reports and other materials required to be filed by the Company with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission or any other regulatory authority. In addition, as the Company’s administrator, HCAP Advisors will assist the Company in determining and publishing the Company’s net asset value, overseeing the preparation and filing of the Company’s tax returns and the printing and dissemination of reports to the Company’s stockholders, and generally overseeing the payment of the Company’s expenses and the performance of administrative and professional services rendered to the Company by others. Payments under the Administration Agreement are equal to an amount based upon the Company’s allocable portion of the administrator’s overhead in performing its obligations under the Administration Agreement, including rent, if any, and the Company’s allocable portion of the cost of the Company’s executive officers and their respective staffs. For the fiscal year ending December 31, 2018, reimbursements required to be made to the administrator under the Administration Agreement are subject to a cap of $1.4 million. The initial term of the Administration Agreement is from April 29, 2018, to April 29, 2020, and thereafter the Administration Agreement will continue automatically for successive annual periods, so long as the continuance is approved at least annually by the board of directors of the Company and a majority of the directors who are not parties to the Administration Agreement or an interested person of any such party.

HCAP Advisors also serves as the Company’s investment adviser. HCAP Advisors is majority owned by JMP Group LLC. Joseph A. Jolson, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and the Chairman of the Company’s board of directors is also the chief executive officer and chairman of the board of directors of JMP Group LLC.
