Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

The Registrant terminated John Kinross-Kennedy, Certified Public Accountant (“Mr. Kinross-Kennedy”) as the Registrant’s independent auditor effective as of March 18, 2009. This action has been approved by the Registrant’s Board of Directors. Mr. Kinross-Kennedy served as the Registrant's independent auditors for the Registrant's fiscal years ended December 31, 2007, December 31, 2006, and December 31, 2005. Mr. Kinross-Kennedy’s reports on the Registrant's financial statements for the Registrant's fiscal years ended December 31, 2007, December 31, 2006, and December 31, 2005 (the “Reports”) did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles except as follows:

- (1) In Mr. Kinross-Kennedy’s report dated April 5, 2008 for financial statements for the Registrant’s fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, Mr. Kinross-Kennedy indicated that: “The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, the Company has suffered recurring losses and has not yet commenced operations. This raises substantive doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. Management’s plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 2. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.”
- (2) In Mr. Kinross-Kennedy’s report dated April 2, 2006 for financial statements for the Registrant’s fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, Mr. Kinross-Kennedy indicated that: “The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, the Company has suffered recurring losses and has not yet commenced operations. This raises substantive doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. Management’s plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 2. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.”
- (3) In Mr. Kinross-Kennedy’s report dated April 17, 2006 for financial statements for the Registrant’s fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, Mr. Kinross-Kennedy indicated that: “In order to continue as a going concern, develop a reliable source of revenues, and achieve a profitable level of operations the Company will need, among other things, additional capital resources. Management’s plans to continue as a going concern include raising additional capital through sales of common stock. In the interim, shareholders of the Company are committed to meeting its minimal operating expenses. However, management cannot provide any assurances that the Company will be successful in accomplishing any of its plans. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to successfully accomplish the plans described in the preceding paragraph and eventually secure other sources of financing and attain profitable operations. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.”

During the Registrant's former fiscal years ended December 31, 2007, December 31, 2006, and December 31, 2005, and until Mr. Kinross-Kennedy's termination, there were no disagreements with Mr. Kinross-Kennedy within the meaning of Item 304 of Regulation S-K or any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements if not resolved to Mr. Kinross-Kennedy's satisfaction, would have caused Mr. Kinross-Kennedy to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its Reports.

During the Registrant's former fiscal years ended December 31, 2007, December 31, 2006, and December 31, 2005, and until Mr. Kinross-Kennedy's termination, there were no "reportable events" (as such term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K).

The Registrant has requested Mr. Kinross-Kennedy to review the disclosure contained herein and has asked Mr. Kinross-Kennedy to furnish the Registrant with a letter addressed to the Commission containing any new information, clarification of the Registrant's expression of Mr. Kinross-Kennedy's views, or the respects in which Mr. Kinross-Kennedy does not agree with the statements contained herein. A copy of Mr. Kinross-Kennedy's letter will be filed hereto as an Exhibit in an amendment to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

On March 18, 2009, the Registrant engaged Hein & Associates LLP ("Hein") as the Registrant's outside independent accounting firm. This action has also been approved by the Registrant's Board of Directors. During the Registrant's two most recent fiscal years and any subsequent interim period prior to the engagement of Hein, neither the Registrant nor anyone on the Registrant's behalf consulted with Hein regarding either (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either contemplated or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Registrant's financial statements, or (ii) any matter that was the subject of a "disagreement" or a "reportable event."
