Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On August 7, 2018, Peter J.S. Smith, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Evertec, Inc. (the “Company”), announced his resignation, effective September 6, 2018, to pursue other opportunities. In his resignation letter, Mr. Smith advised us that his resignation is not the result of any disagreement with the Company and/or any of its subsidiaries on any matter relating to its operations, policies and practices.

On August 8, 2018, the Board of Directors of the Company appointed Joaquín Castrillo, Vice President of Finance, to assume the role of interim Chief Financial Officer upon the effective resignation of Mr. Smith.

Mr. Castrillo, age 36, has worked at the Company since 2012 serving in roles of increasing responsibility, most recently as Vice President of Finance. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Castrillo was an Audit Manager in the Banking and Capital Markets group of PwC. Mr. Castrillo holds a B.B.A. with a double concentration in Finance and Accounting from Villanova University. No new compensatory or severance arrangements have been entered into in connection with Mr. Castrillo’s appointment as interim Chief Financial Officer at this time. There are no family relationships between Mr. Castrillo and any director or executive officer of the Company, and Mr. Castrillo is not a party to any transaction required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

The Company has retained an executive search firm and begun a formal search for a successor Chief Financial Officer. The Company plans to evaluate internal and external candidates.

On August 8, 2018, the Company issued a press release announcing the foregoing management transition and interim Chief Financial Officer appointment. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
