Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains, and from time to time our management may make, forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In some cases, you can identify these statements by forward-looking words such as “may”, “might”, “will”, “should”, “expects”, “intends”, “p”, “anticipates”, “believes”, “estimates”, “predicts”, “potential” or “continue”, the negative of these terms and other comparable terminology. These forward-looking statements, which are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions, may include projections of our future financial performance, future expenses, anticipated growth strategies, descriptions of new business initiatives and anticipated trends in our business or financial results. These statements are only predictions based on our current expectations and projections about future events. Among the important factors that could cause actual results, level of activity, performance or achievements to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements are: fluctuations in quarterly and annual results, adverse economic or market conditions, incurrence of net losses, adverse effects of management focusing on implementation of a growth strategy, failure to develop and maintain the Silvercrest brand and other factors disclosed under “Risk Factors” in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 which is accessible on the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or review any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, except as required by law.

Factors that may cause our actual results to differ materially from our forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to:

- our anticipated future results of operations;
- our potential operating performance and efficiency and any related reputational harm or negative perceptions in the market;
- our expectations with respect to future levels of assets under management, inflows and outflows;
- our financing plans, issuance of debt or senior equity securities, cash needs and liquidity position;
- our intention to pay dividends and our expectations about the amount of those dividends;
- our expected levels of compensation of our employees and our expected ability to hire and retain qualified investment professionals;
- our expectations with respect to future expenses and the level of future expenses;
- our expected tax rate, and our expectations with respect to deferred tax assets;
- our estimates of future amounts payable pursuant to our tax receivable agreements and the contingent value rights we have issued;
- our ability to retain clients from whom we derive a substantial portion of our assets under management;
- our ability to maintain our fee structure;
- our particular choices with regard to investment strategies employed;
- our ability to handle market volatility and risk in any and all markets to which we have exposure;
- the cost of complying with current and future regulation, coupled with the cost of defending ourselves from related investigations or litigation;

failure of our operational safeguards against breaches in data security, privacy, conflicts of interest or employee misconduct;

- our ability to compete in an intensely competitive industry; and
- our reliance on prime brokers, custodians, administrators and other agents.
