No. Description

3.2 Second Amended and Restated Bylaws of Eastman Kodak Company: Article 5, Section 4, as amended.

Exhibit 3.2

Second Amended and Restated Bylaws of Eastman Kodak Company: Article 5, Section 4, as amended.

Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates.

Where a certificate for shares has been lost, apparently destroyed, or wrongfully taken and its owner fails to so notify the corporation or the transfer agent within a reasonable time after having notice of the fact and the transfer agent or the corporation registers a transfer of the shares before receiving notification, the owner shall be precluded from asserting against the corporation any claim for registering the transfer of the shares or any claim to a new certificate.

Subject to the foregoing, where the owner of shares claims that the certificate representing the shares has been lost, destroyed, or wrongfully taken, the corporation shall issue a new certificate in place of the original certificate if the registered owner thereof, or the owner's legal representative, (a) requests the issue of a new certificate before the corporation has notice that the certificate has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser; (b) makes proof, in the form as the corporation prescribes, of ownership and that the certificate has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken; and (c) satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the corporation including indemnification. Approvals or any requirements pursuant to this section by the corporation may be granted or imposed by the Chairman, the President, any Vice-President, the Secretary, any Assistant Secretary, or any other officer as authorized by the Board.
