 PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

General Motors Corporation ("GM" or "the Company") is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K by March 1, 2007, due to issues regarding the accounting for deferred income tax liabilities under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, and certain hedging activities under SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. GM currently intends to file its Form 10-K as soon as practicable and in any event no later than the fifteenth calendar day (March 16, 2007) following the date on which the Form 10-K was due (March 1, 2007). At that time, GM also intends to report restated results for the years ended December 31, 2002 to December 31, 2005 and for the first three quarters of 2006.

of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceeding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

[X] Yes [] No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

[X] Yes [] No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As disclosed in prior filings the current estimate of the cumulative impact of the accounting adjustments under SFAS No. 133 to retained earnings, as of September 30, 2006, is an increase of approximately $200 million.

In addition, GM previously disclosed that retained earnings as of December 31, 2001 and subsequent periods are understated by a range of $450 million to $600 million due to an overstatement of deferred tax liabilities. GM currently estimates that the deferred income tax liability overstatement is approximately $1 billion. This impact is partially offset by an estimated $500 million adjustment to stockholders' equity related to taxation of foreign currency translation, arising primarily prior to 2002, and affects all periods through the third quarter of 2006. The estimate net effect of such tax adjustments results in an understatement of stockholders' equity as of December 31, 2001 and subsequent periods of approximately $500 million.
