GERBER SCIENTIFIC SECURES CREDIT FACILITY COVENANT WAIVERS

SOUTH WINDSOR, CT - Gerber Scientific, Inc. (NYSE: GRB) today announced that it has reached an agreement with its bank group for the waiver of certain covenants related to its credit facility for the fourth quarter ending April 30, 2002. In addition, the Company said that it plans to seek, at a future date, an amendment covering the remaining term of the credit facility, which expires in May 2003.

"Working closely with our banks, we have reached an agreement that enables Gerber Scientific to avoid violating any of the terms of our existing credit facility in the fourth quarter," said Marc T. Giles, the Company's recently appointed President and Chief Executive Officer. "As we continue to pay down our indebtedness, which has been reduced by $40 million over the last 12 months, we look forward to a continuing cooperative relationship with our bank group."

Under the waiver agreement reached today, the bank syndicate, led by agent Wachovia Bank, agreed to waive certain covenants for the fiscal fourth quarter which required the Company to maintain certain levels of net worth, certain ratios of total debt to EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) and a minimum fixed charge coverage amount. As announced previously, Gerber Scientific sought the covenant waivers as a consequence of its intention to take in the fourth quarter ending April 30, 2002 a special pre-tax charge of approximately $12 million principally for anticipated inventory write-downs, an action that would have put the Company in violation of the existing covenants for the period.

Gerber Scientific, Inc. (www.gerberscientific.com) is the world's leading supplier of high technology automated manufacturing systems that enable mass customization in the sign making and specialty graphics, apparel and flexible materials, and optical lens processing industries. Headquartered in South Windsor, Connecticut, the Company operates through four wholly-owned subsidiaries: Gerber Scientific Products, Spandex PLC, Gerber Technology and Gerber Coburn Optical.

In addition to the historical information contained herein, there are matters discussed that are considered to be "forward-looking statements." The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a "safe harbor" for forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, economic, competitive, governmental, and technological factors affecting the Company's operations, markets, products, and services, that could significantly affect results in the future.
