Item      Entry into a Material Definitive
1.01      Agreement.

On May 7, 2008, Loews Corporation (“Loews”) entered into a Separation Agreement (the “Separation Agreement”) with Lorillard, Inc. (“Lorillard”), its wholly-owned subsidiary, and each of Lorillard’s subsidiaries. The Separation Agreement will become effective on the date on which Loews redeems its outstanding shares of Carolina Group stock for shares of Lorillard common stock (the “Redemption Date”), as described in Lorillard’s Registration Statement No. 333-149051 on Form S-4 (as amended, the “Registration Statement”).

In the Separation Agreement, Lorillard and each of its subsidiaries agreed to indemnify Loews and its officers, directors and employees against all losses based on, arising out of or resulting from the ownership or the operation of Lorillard’s or any of its subsidiaries’ assets and properties, and the operation or conduct of Lorillard’s or any of its subsidiaries’ businesses (including with respect to any smoking and health claims and litigation), among other matters. The indemnification obligations of Lorillard and each of its subsidiaries are binding on their successors.

Lorillard and each of its subsidiaries also agreed in the Separation Agreement to release Loews and its stockholders, officers, directors and employees from any liability owed by any of them to Lorillard and its subsidiaries with respect to acts or events occurring on or prior to the Redemption Date, except with respect to tax matters described in the Separation Agreement.

The Separation Agreement provides that Loews will indemnify Lorillard and its officers, directors and employees against certain losses. In addition, Loews agreed to release Lorillard, its subsidiaries and all of their directors, officers and employees from any liability owed by any of them to Loews with respect to acts or events occurring on or prior to the Redemption Date, except with respect to tax matters described in the Separation Agreement. The form of Separation Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report, and is incorporated by reference into this Item 1.01.
