("Applied Signal" or the "Company"), entered into a Membership Interest Purchase Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") with Seismic LLC, a Maryland limited liability company ("Seismic"), Patrick J. Gahan and Scott D. McDonald, as sellers (the "Sellers"), to acquire all of the outstanding membership interests in Seismic (the "Acquisition"). The Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated therein have been approved by the board of directors of the Company, and by all the members of Seismic. In addition, at the expiration of the twelve-month period following the Closing (the "Earn-Out Period”), Sellers shall be eligible to receive additional amounts, not to exceed $2,576,000 (the “Earn-Out”) based upon the performance of the business acquired from Seismic.

The Company expects to retain substantially all of the employees of Seismic, representing approximately 100 additional employees. Seismic has been engaged in cyber security solutions, software engineering, data management, and systems engineering and integration service for the U.S. Department of Defense and Intelligence Community.

MEMBERSHIP INTEREST PURCHASE AGREEMENT

THIS MEMBERSHIP INTEREST PURCHASE AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made as of April 28, 2010 by and among Applied Signal Technology, Inc., a California corporation (“Purchaser”), Seismic LLC, a Maryland limited liability company (the “Company”), individual holders of all interests in the Company as set forth in Schedule of Sellers hereto (each, the “Seller” and collectively, the “Sellers”) and Patrick J. Gahan, an individual, as the Seller Representative (defined hereunder).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Sellers are the owners and holders of record of membership interests in the Company, which membership interests constitute all of the issued and outstanding membership or other equity interests of the Company (the “Interests”);

WHEREAS, the Sellers desire to sell to Purchaser, and Purchaser desires to purchase and acquire from the Sellers, all of the Interests, on the terms and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth;

WHEREAS, the Company, in order to facilitate this transaction on behalf of the Sellers and to induce Purchaser to enter into this Agreement, is joining this Agreement as a party, and is jointly and severally making the representations and warranties in Section 5; and

WHEREAS, ANNEX A of this Agreement contains certain defined terms used herein.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the mutual representations, warranties, promises and agreements herein made, the parties, intending to be legally bound, do hereby agree as follows:

Purchase and Sale of the Interests. Subject to all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Closing, each Seller shall sell, transfer and deliver to Purchaser, and Purchaser shall purchase and acquire from each Seller, all of the issued and outstanding Interests owned by the Sellers, representing all of the issued and outstanding Interests in the Company, free and clear of any and all Encumbrances, for the consideration specified in this Agreement. Together, the Purchaser, Company and Sellers may be referred to herein collectively as the “Parties” and individually each may be referred to herein as a “Party.”

1. Purchase Price.

Consideration. Subject to and upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the aggregate consideration which the Purchase shall pay to the Sellers for all outstanding Interests shall consist of (a) an amount in cash equal to Twenty Five Million Dollars ($25,000,000), plus the actual Transaction Expenses that have been incurred not to exceed the maximum amount thereof to be paid by Purchaser under Section 10.4 hereof, less the amount of any Estimated Working Capital Deficit (as defined in Section 2.2(a) below) (the “Closing Purchase Price”) and (b) the right to receive the Earn-Out Distribution Amount in accordance with terms of Section 2.6 hereof (collectively with the Closing Purchase Price, the “Purchase Price”). On the Closing Date, the Purchaser shall pay to the Sellers, in accordance with Section 2.3 hereof, an amount (the “Seller Closing Payment”) equal to the Closing Purchase Price reduced by the sum of (i) any bonuses or other amounts earned or payable to the Company’s employees (other than pursuant to the Company’s Capital Appreciation Plan, as effective November 4, 2009 and as amended from time to time (the “Capital Appreciation Plan”)) for any period prior to or as of the Closing but not accrued on the balance sheet of the Company (if any), (ii) the Capital Appreciation Payments described in Section 2.3(a) below, and (iv) the Escrow Fund

2.1 to be deposited into escrow pursuant to Section 2.3(b).

2.2 Working Capital Adjustment.

As used herein, the term “Closing Working Capital” shall mean (i) all current assets including but not limited, to cash, accounts receivable, employee advances, prepaid expenses, prepaid Taxes, deferred Tax assets, and net property and equipment deposits, but excluding (x) receivables from any of the Company’s Affiliates, directors, managers, employees, officers or interest holders and any of their Affiliates and, less (ii) all current liabilities including but not limited to, the Line of Credit, loans payable to third parties, pension plan payable, accounts payable, accrued expenses, accrued wages and bonuses, accrued payroll taxes and accrued paid time off, overbillings, current tax liabilities, and deferred tax liabilities but excluding the Capital Appreciation Payments paid in accordance with Section 2.3(a) hereof, in each case as of 11:59 p.m. on the Closing Date. Company shall deliver to Purchaser, at least three (3) days prior to the Closing Date, an estimated balance sheet of the Company as of the Closing Date (the “Estimated Closing Balance Sheet”) and a calculation of the Closing Working Capital in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Estimated Closing Working Capital”). The Estimated Closing Balance Sheet and the Estimated Closing Working Capital shall each be determined and calculated by the Company in good faith based on reasonable assumptions as of the Closing Date in accordance with GAAP as consistently applied and utilized in the preparation of the Financial Statements (the “Accounting Rules”) and the definition of Closing Working Capital contained herein. As provided for in Section 2.1 above, to the extent the Estimated Closing Working Capital delivered by the Company is less than the Target Working Capital (an “Estimated Working Capital Deficit”), the portion of the Closing Purchase Price shall be reduced on a dollar for dollar basis by the entire amount of the Estimated Working Capital Deficit. The term “Target Working Capital” shall mean Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000). For the avoidance of doubt, Taxes payable by the employer with respect to the Capital Appreciation Payments shall be reflected in the Closing Working Capital as a decrease in cash or as an accrued

Within thirty (30) days following the Closing Date (the “Audit Election Date”), Purchaser may notify the Seller Representative that it has elected to conduct a balance sheet audit of the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet (the “Adjustment Audit”). In the event that Purchaser elects to conduct the Adjustment Audit, Purchaser shall deliver to the Seller Representative written notice of such election by the Audit Election Date (the “Purchaser Audit Election Notice”). In the event that an Adjustment Audit has been elected by Purchaser, within forty-five (45) days after such election is made, Purchaser shall prepare and present in detail its calculation of the revised Estimated Closing Balance Sheet (the “Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet”) and the resulting revisions to the Estimated Closing Working Capital (the “Adjusted Closing Working Capital”) to the Seller Representative. The Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet and the calculation of the Adjusted Closing Working Capital will be prepared in accordance with the Accounting Rules and the definition of Working Capital contained herein. Following delivery by Purchaser to the Seller Representative of the Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet and the calculation of Adjusted Closing Working Capital, Purchaser shall give the Seller Representative and any accountants acting on behalf of the Sellers reasonable access during Purchaser’s normal business hours to those books and records of the Company in the possession of Purchaser or the Company and any personnel which relate to the preparation of the Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet for purposes of resolving any disputes concerning the calculation of Adjusted Closing

(b) Working Capital.

The Seller Representative shall have a thirty (30) day period following delivery of the Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet and the calculation of the Adjusted Closing Working Capital during which to notify Purchaser in writing (each a “Notice of Objection”) of any good faith objections to the calculation of the Adjusted Closing Working Capital or the Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet, as it affects such calculations, setting forth a reasonably specific and detailed description of their objections and the dollar amount of each objection. If the Seller Representative objects to either the Adjusted Balance Sheet or Purchaser’s calculation of Adjusted Closing Working Capital as reflected thereon, Purchaser and the Seller Representative shall attempt to resolve any such objections within thirty (30) days of the receipt by Purchaser of a Notice of Objection.

- (c) any such objections within thirty (30) days of the receipt by Purchaser of a Notice of Objection.
- (d) If Purchaser and the Seller Representative are unable to resolve any dispute that arises in connection with the procedure specified in Section 2.2(c) within the thirty (30) day period referred to in Section 2.2(c), Purchaser and the Seller Representative shall submit such dispute for final resolution to Grant Thornton, LLP, or in the event Grant Thornton, LLP is unable to serve or is not independent, such other independent certified public accounting firm of national reputation as may be agreed upon by Purchaser and the Seller Representative or, in the absence of such agreement, as may be selected jointly by Purchaser’s independent certified public accountants and an independent certified public accounting firm designated by the Seller Representative (the “Independent Accounting Firm”). Each of the Parties shall, and shall cause their respective Affiliates and representatives to, provide full cooperation to the Independent Accounting Firm. In the event that Purchaser and the Seller Representative submit any dispute to an Independent Accounting Firm, each such Party may submit a “position paper” to the Independent Accounting Firm setting forth the position of such Party with respect to such dispute, to be considered by such Independent Accounting Firm as it deems fit. The Independent Accounting Firm shall (i) consider only those matters as to which there is a dispute between the Parties, (ii) be bound by the provisions of Section 2.2 hereof, including without limitation this Section 2.2(d) and the definition of Closing Working Capital contained herein, (iii) be instructed to reach its preliminary conclusions (the “Preliminary Report”) regarding any such dispute within ten (10) business days after its appointment and provide a written explanation of its decision and (iv) shall not assign a value to any item greater than the greatest value for such item claimed by either the Seller Representative or the Purchaser, or less than the smallest value for such item claimed by the Seller Representative or the Purchaser. The Parties shall have a five (5) business day period following delivery of the Preliminary Report during which to submit any good faith objections to the Preliminary Report setting forth a reasonably specific and detailed description of their objections and the dollar amount of each objection. The Independent Accounting Firm shall then, within ten (10) business days, prepare its final report (the “Final Report”), including a written explanation of its decision. In the event the Parties fail to submit objections to the Preliminary Report within such five (5) business day period, the Preliminary Report shall be deemed to have been accepted by all Parties and shall be deemed to be the Final Report. All expenses relating to the engagement of the Independent Accounting Firm under this Section 2.2 shall be paid by the Parties based on the percentage which the portion of the disputed amount not awarded to each Party bears to the amount actually disputed by such Party.

(e) “Final Closing Working Capital” shall be determined as follows:

If Purchaser fails to deliver the Purchaser Audit Election Notice to the Seller Representative by the Audit Election Date, as provided in Section 2.2(b), the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet (together with the Company’s calculation of Estimated Closing Working Capital) shall be deemed to have been accepted by all of the Parties, and such Estimated Closing Working Capital shall be deemed to be the Final Closing Working Capital;

(i)

If Purchaser fails to deliver the Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet and a calculation of Adjusted Closing Working Capital to the Seller Representative within forty-five (45) days after the Seller Representative’s receipt of the Purchaser Audit Election Notice, the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet (together with the Company’s calculation of Estimated Closing Working Capital) shall be deemed to have been accepted by all of the Parties, and such Estimated Closing Working Capital shall be deemed to be the Final Closing Working Capital;

(ii)

If (a) Purchaser has complied fully with the requirements of Section 2.2(b) and (b) the Seller Representative does not deliver a Notice of Objection in accordance with Section 2.2(c), the Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet (together with Purchaser’s calculation of the Adjusted Closing Working Capital) shall be deemed to have been accepted by all of the Parties, and such Adjusted Closing Working Capital shall be deemed to be the Final Closing Working Capital;

(iii)

If (a) Purchaser has complied fully with the requirements of Section 2.2(b), (b) the Seller Representative delivers a Notice of Objection in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.2(c) and (c) Purchaser and the Seller Representative are able to resolve such dispute by mutual agreement, the Final Closing Working Capital shall be as agreed to by the Parties; or

(iv)

If (a) Purchaser has complied fully with the requirements of Section 2.2(b), (b) the Seller Representative delivers a Notice of Objection in accordance with Section 2.2(c) and (c) Purchaser and the Seller Representative are unable to resolve such dispute by mutual agreement, the determination of the Independent Accounting Firm made in accordance with Section 2.2(d) shall be final and binding on the Parties, and the Final Closing Working Capital shall be as determined by the Independent Accounting Firm.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, the calculation of Final Closing Working Capital shall be conclusive and binding on all of the Parties, no further adjustments shall be made thereto and neither Purchaser nor Sellers shall have any further right to challenge such calculation of the Final Closing Working Capital;

provided, however, that nothing in this Section 2.2(e) shall limit in any manner (whether by time, amount, procedure or otherwise) any remedy at law or in equity to which any Party may be entitled against another Party as a result of actual fraud by such other Party.

After the determination of the Final Closing Working Capital pursuant to the terms of

(f) Section 2.2(e), if pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.2, it is determined that:

the Final Closing Working Capital is less than Estimated Closing Working Capital and less than Target Working Capital, then (x) if Estimated Working Capital was less than or equal to the Target Working Capital, Sellers shall pay to Purchaser an amount equal to the difference between Estimated Closing Working Capital and Final Working Capital and (y) if Estimated Working Capital was equal to or greater than Target Working Capital, Sellers shall pay to Purchaser an amount equal to the difference between Final

(i) Working Capital and Target Working Capital;

the Final Closing Working Capital is greater than Estimated Working Capital and less than or equal to the Target Working Capital, then Purchaser shall pay Sellers an amount equal to the difference between Final Working Capital and Estimated Working Capital;

(ii) or the Final Closing Working Capital is greater than Estimated Closing Working Capital and greater than the Target Working Capital, the Purchaser shall pay Sellers an amount equal

(iii) to the difference between Target Working Capital and Estimated Working Capital.

Any payment to be made by Sellers or Purchaser pursuant to this Section 2.2(f) shall be made in immediately available funds to the other Party or Parties within five (5) business days of the determination of the Final Closing Working Capital.

All payments to be made by Sellers to Purchaser pursuant to Section 2.2(f) shall be made based upon the Sellers' respective pro rata Interests in the Company immediately prior to the Closing,

(g) as set forth on the Schedule I of Sellers hereto.

2.3 Closing Payments. At the Closing, Purchaser shall pay the Closing Purchase Price in the following manner:

- (a) By delivery at the Closing of a wire transfer of immediately available funds in an amount (the "Capital Appreciation Payments") equal to the aggregate amount payable and due at the Closing pursuant to the terms of the Capital Appreciation Plan (which shall equal 6.3044% of Twenty Five Million Dollars ($25,000,000), less any Estimated Working Capital Deficit) to those individuals who are participants in the Capital Appreciation Plan, as set forth in the Schedule II hereto (the "Capital Appreciation Plan Participants"), and who are then entitled in accordance with the terms of such plan to receive a portion of such payments, such wire transfer to be made to a Company bank account set forth by the Company on the Flow of Funds Memorandum for further payment by the Company to such individuals (less any applicable withholdings) under the terms of the Capital Appreciation Plan;

By delivery at the Closing of a wire transfer of immediately available funds in an aggregate amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the Closing Purchase Price (such amount, and any interest or earnings thereon, the “Escrow Fund”) to a bank account to be established with Wells

(b) Fargo Bank, N.A. (the “Escrow Agent”); and

By delivery at the Closing to each Seller of a wire transfer of immediately available funds of an amount equal to such Seller’s pro rata portion

(c) of the Seller Closing Payment.

In addition, at the Closing, the Purchaser shall pay to the Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, on behalf of the Company, an amount equal to the aggregate amount of Indebtedness under the Line of Credit (as set forth on the payoff letter from such bank delivered pursuant to Section 8.1(r)), by delivery of a wire transfer of immediately available funds in accordance with the Flow of Funds Memorandum (as defined below).

The payments under this Section 2.3 and other payments to be made at the Closing shall be made to the recipients as designated on a flow of funds memorandum (with applicable wire transfer instructions for such payments) to be prepared by the Sellers and acceptable to Purchaser (the “Flow of Funds Memorandum”).

Escrow Fund. The Escrow Fund shall be available for the payment of Claims by Purchaser for indemnification pursuant to Section 9 and shall be held pursuant to an escrow agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Escrow Agreement”) to be entered into by and among Purchaser, Escrow Agent and Sellers on or before the Closing. The Escrow Agreement shall provide for the release to Sellers of 50% of any undisputed amounts in the Escrow Fund on the one year anniversary of the Closing Date, with the balance of such undisputed amounts remaining in the Escrow Fund released to 2.4 Sellers on the date that is eighteen months after the Closing Date.

Payment of Transfer Taxes and Fees. All transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp and registration Taxes, and all conveyance fees, recording charges and other fees and charges (including any penalties and interest) incurred in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, shall be payable by the Parties in accordance with Section 10.4 hereof; provided, however, that any applicable sales Tax related to the

2.5 purchase or deemed purchase of equipment hereunder shall be paid by Purchaser.

2.6 Earn-Out Payments.

Following the Closing and as additional consideration for the purchase of the Interests, the Sellers shall be entitled to receive from the Purchaser (subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 2.6) additional amounts based upon the performance of the Company during the period beginning May 1, 2010 and ending April 30, 2011 (the “Earn-Out Period”). The amount paid with respect to the Earn-Out Period (the “Earn-Out Distribution Amount”) shall be determined and paid as follows:

The Earn-Out shall be determined based upon the revenue of the Post-Closing Company Business (as defined below) during the Earn-Out Period (“Target Revenues”). Target Revenues shall mean all revenues of the Post-Closing Company Business recognized by Purchaser in accordance with GAAP, as consistently applied and utilized in the preparation of Purchaser’s financial statements as of the Closing Date (the “Purchaser Accounting Rules”). For purposes of this Agreement, the “Post-Closing Company Business” shall consist of: (1) during the period beginning on the Closing Date and ending on October 31, 2010 (the “Initial Earn-Out Period”), all Target Revenues generated from contracts entered into by the Company before or after the Closing Date, but not including any revenue generated from contracts entered into by Purchaser or any subsidiary of Purchaser (other than the Company) before or after the Closing Date, or in connection with any direct labor charged by an employee of Purchaser who is not employed by the Company; and (2) during the period beginning on November 1, 2010 and ending on the expiration of the Earn-Out Period (the “Subsequent Earn-Out Period”) (i) all Target Revenues generated from contracts entered into by the Company before or after the Closing Date through the Initial Earn-Out Period, including the Company’s VAR contracts, and (ii) to the extent not included in the Target Revenue calculations in immediately preceding subsection (i), sixty percent (60%) of all Revenues generated by any new employee hired by the Company or the Purchaser’s Network Intelligence Division during the Subsequent Earn-Out Period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, revenue generated from the contracts listed on Schedule 2.6(a) shall be apportioned as set forth on such

(a) Schedule 2.6(a)

Notwithstanding the utilization of the Purchaser Accounting Rules with respect to the determination of Target Revenues, in the event that (i) an existing Company contract pursuant to which the Company is providing services is terminated during the service period for the convenience of the customer, (ii) a new, follow-on contract is reasonably expected but not yet awarded or awarded but not yet funded prior to the completion of the Earn-out Period and (iii) the Company continues to provide “at risk” services in order to continue to support the customer during the Earn-out Period in reasonable anticipation of the new contract or funding for the new contract, Seller Representative and Purchaser, acting reasonably and in good faith, will mutually agree, prior to the completion of the Earn-out Period, whether and to what extent revenue and operating income attributable to the “at risk” services will be included for purposes of determination of the Earn-out Distribution Amount, including with respect to inclusion in (x) Target Revenues and (y) Company operating profit and Total Backlog with respect to the Initial Earn-out Period. Factors to be considered as part of such determination will include, without limitation, the perceived likelihood of a new contract being issued and the terms thereof, the acceptability of such terms, the amount of “at-risk” services provided relative to prior services previously provided under the prior contract and relative to the expectation as to terms, the assurances, if any, from the customer that a new contract will be forthcoming and the anticipated length of time prior to issuance of the new contract.

(b) No Earn-Out Distribution Amount shall be payable unless the Target Revenues for the Earn-Out Period exceed Twenty Three Million Dollars ($23,000,000) (the “Threshold Target Revenues”). The Earn-Out Distribution Amount shall equal $0.515254 of every dollar of Target Revenues generated during the Earn-Out Period that exceed the Threshold Target Revenues, up to a maximum Earn-Out Distribution Amount of Two Million Five Hundred Seventy-Six Thousand Two Hundred Sixty-Eight Dollars ($2,576,268) (the “Maximum Earn-Out Distribution Amount”) if Target Revenues reach Twenty Eight Million Dollars ($28,000,000) or more.

Purchaser shall notify the Seller Representative of the Target Revenues as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the Earn-Out Period and in no event more than sixty (60) days thereafter. Within thirty (30) days of Purchaser’s notification, Seller Representative shall give Purchaser written notice (the “Earn-Out Dispute Notice”) of any objection to the calculation of the Target Revenues, which notice shall specify the factual basis of such objection and the amount at issue. As promptly as practicable following the earlier to occur of (i) the delivery of the Earn-Out Dispute Notice or (ii) the expiration of such thirty (30) day period, Purchaser shall pay all undisputed Earn-Out Distribution Amounts to Sellers. During the thirty (30) day period following Purchaser’s notification of the Target Revenues, upon the written request of the Seller Representative, Purchaser shall allow the Seller Representative and its accountant access to Purchaser’s books and records and work papers relating to the Target Revenues for the limited purpose of reviewing such calculations and evaluating the application of the Purchaser Accounting Rules in determining Target

(d) The Earn-Out Distribution Amount payable to Sellers shall be paid in cash.

Subject to and except as may be required by Law or any listing agreement with the applicable national securities exchange, during the Initial Earn-Out Period,

(i) Purchaser shall, and shall cause the Company to:

a) Maintain the Company as a separate subsidiary and will establish and maintain appropriate systems and controls for the purpose of tracking and recording Target Revenues in each of the Initial Earn-Out Period and the Subsequent Earn-Out Period, as applicable;

b) Conduct the operation of and manage the Company in the usual and ordinary course of business and in a manner reasonably consistent with the past practices of the Company, but taking into account the acquisition of the Company by Purchaser as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Purchaser and any resulting changes that reasonably flow therefrom including, without limitation, obtaining audited financial statements (balance sheet, statement of operations and statement of cash flows) for the four (4) months ended April 28, 2010 prepared in accordance with GAAP and maintaining a system of internal accounting controls designed and administered to provide reasonable assurance that (i) transactions are executed with Sellers’ general or specific authorizations; (ii) transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial information to be included in the financial statements of the Purchaser in accordance with GAAP and to maintain accountability for assets; (iii) access to the Company’s assets will be permitted only in accordance with management’s authorization; and (iv) the recorded accountability for assets will be compared with existing assets at reasonable intervals and appropriate action is taken with respect to any differences;

c) Not, without the prior written consent of the Seller Representative, terminate, transfer or reassign to any other Person, subsidiary or business unit under or affiliated with Purchaser any material contract of the Company;

d) Refrain from assigning responsibilities or other duties, or transferring or re-assigning any of the Sellers and employees set forth in Schedule IV below in any manner that would prevent such individuals from devoting their primary efforts to the business of the Company;

e) Not take any action with the primary purpose or intent of resulting in a reduction in Target Revenue below that which would have been achieved if such action had not been taken, or otherwise take any other action with the primary purpose or intent of impeding the achievement of any portion of the Maximum Earn-out Distribution Amount.

f) Notwithstanding this Section 2.6, if Purchaser reasonably determines, following at least ten (10) days notice to the Seller Representative, which notice shall include the reasons for Purchaser's determination, and subsequent consultation with Seller Representative, that it is impossible for the Company to achieve the Threshold Target Revenues during the Earn-Out Period and for Sellers to be paid any portion of the the Earn-Out Distribution Amount, then Purchaser shall have the right to make such operational changes as Purchaser in its sole judgment shall determine.

g) In the event that a final adjudication of a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the Purchaser's or the Company's breach of operating covenant(s) set forth in Section 2.6(e) hereof was the proximate cause of any reduction in the Target Revenue and directs the Purchaser to pay all or portion of the Earn-Out Distribution Amount payments ("Awarded Earn-Out Distribution Amount") to the Sellers, Purchaser shall pay, in accordance with Section 7.8, the percentage of the Employee Revenue Bonus Amount proportionate to Awarded Earn-Out Distribution Amount on behalf of the Employee Revenue Bonus Participants. For example, in the event the Awarded Earn-Out Distribution Amount is determined to be 80% of the Earn-Out Distribution Amount, the Employee Revenue Bonus Participants shall be entitled to 80% of the Employee Revenue Bonus Amount. For the avoidance of doubt, the Employee Revenue Bonus Participants shall not be entitled to bring a separate cause of action for breach of this Section 2.6(e).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Earn-Out Distribution Amount payable pursuant to this Section 2.6 shall be subject to adjustment (1) if the Company fails to maintain an operating profit of twelve percent (12%) during the Initial Earn-Out Period and (2) if the Company fails to have a Ten Million Dollar ($10,000,000) Total Backlog (as defined below) measured as of the last day of

a) during the Initial Earn-Out Period, if the operating profit is greater than 9.0%, but less than 12.0%, the Earn-Out Distribution Amount would be reduced as follows:

Operating Profit	Reduction	Total Earn-Out Distribution Amount Payable
12.00% and up	0%	100%

11.5% to 11.9%	10%	90%
11.0% to 11.4%	20%	80%
10.5% to 10.9%	30%	70%
10.0% to 10.4 %	40%	60%
9.5% to 9.9%	50%	50%
9.0% to 9.4%	60%	40%
Below 9.0%	100%	0%

If the Company fails to achieve a 9.0% operating profit, no Earn-Out Distribution Amount would be paid. For the purposes of this paragraph, operating profit shall not include (i) any expenses associated with the transactions contemplated hereby, including but not limited to, employee retention payments made to employees of the Company following the Closing or Employee Revenue Bonus Amount pursuant to Section 7.8 hereof, or (ii) any expense allocations to the Company by the Purchaser in excess of the lesser of (x) the amount of the actual expense allocations or (y) $100,000 during the Initial Earn-Out Period.

b) if the Total Backlog measured as of the last day of the Initial Earn-Out Period is greater than $5,000,000 but less than $10,000,000, the Earn-Out Distribution Amount would be reduced as follows:

Backlog	Reduction	Total Earn-Out Distribution Amount Payable
$10,000,000 and up	0%	100%
$9,000,000 to $9,999,999	10%	90%
$8,000,000 to $8,999,999	20%	80%
$7,000,000 to $7,999,999	30%	70%
$6,000,000 to $6,999,999	40%	60%
$5,000,000 to $5,999,999	50%	50%

If the Seller Representative timely delivers an Earn-Out Dispute Notice, Purchaser's Chief Financial Officer or his or her designee shall promptly meet with the Seller Representative and attempt in good faith to reach a resolution of such disagreement. Any dispute with respect to the Target Revenues that is not resolved by Purchaser and the Seller Representative and their respective accountants within 30 days after delivery of the Earn-Out Dispute Notice, upon written request by either Purchaser or the Seller Representative delivered to the other Party, shall be submitted for final resolution to the Independent Accounting Firm. Each Party shall, within 10 business days after submission of such dispute, deliver to the Independent Accounting Firm the information such Party wishes to have considered by the Independent Accounting Firm in making its determination. Each Party shall also provide the Independent Accounting Firm with access to such Party's books and records as such firm shall reasonably request and that shall be relevant to the resolution of such dispute. Such accounting firm shall be instructed to complete its determination and resolution of any dispute and deliver notice thereof to Purchaser and the Seller Representative within twenty (20) days after submission of such dispute to the firm. Such accounting firm shall (i) consider only those matters as to which there is a dispute between the Parties, (ii) be bound by the provisions of Section 2.6 hereof, including without limitation this Section 2.6(f) and the definition of Target Revenues contained herein and (iii) not assign a value to any item greater than the greatest value for such item claimed by either the Seller Representative or Purchaser or less than the smallest value for such item claimed by Seller Representative or Purchaser. In the event that Purchaser and the Seller Representative submit any dispute under this Section 2.6 to the Independent Accounting Firm, each such Party may submit a "position paper" to the Independent Accounting Firm setting forth the position of such Party with respect to such dispute, to be considered by the Independent Accounting Firm as it deems fit. Absent manifest error, the determination and resolution of any such dispute by the Independent Accounting Firm under this Section 2.6 shall be binding and conclusive on Purchaser and Sellers for all purposes of this Agreement. All expenses relating to the engagement of the Independent Accounting Firm under this Section 2.6 shall be paid by each Party based on the percentage which the portion of the disputed amount not awarded to such Party bears to the amount actually disputed by such Party;

If the Parties (a) have complied fully with the requirements of Section 2.6(f) and (b) are able to resolve such dispute by mutual agreement, the Earn-Out Distribution Amount shall be as agreed to by the Parties;

- (ii)

If the Parties (a) have complied fully with the requirements of Section 2.6(f) and (b) are unable to resolve such dispute by mutual agreement, the determination of the Independent Accounting Firm made in accordance with Section 2.6(f) shall be final and binding on all the Parties, and the Earn-Out Distribution Amount shall be as determined by the Independent Accounting Firm and Sellers and Seller Representative shall have no further right to challenge such calculation

- (iii) of the Earn-Out Distribution Amount.

After the determination of the Earn-Out Distribution Amount pursuant to the terms of Section 2.6(f), the Purchaser shall pay the Earn-Out Distribution Amount, if any, as set forth in Sections 2.6(b) and

- (ii)

As promptly as practicable after the date on which Purchaser or its owners enter(s) into a binding contract for an Acceleration Event, but not later than ten (10) days thereafter, Purchaser will deliver to Seller Representative a schedule setting forth in reasonable detail Purchaser's good faith calculation of the Accelerated Earn-Out Amount (the "Proposed Accelerated Earn-Out Amount"). The Proposed Accelerated Earn-Out Amount will be subject to Seller Representative review. In reviewing the Proposed Accelerated Earn-Out Amount, Seller Representative will have the right to communicate with, and to review the work papers, schedules, memoranda and other documents Purchaser prepared or reviewed in determining the Proposed Accelerated Earn-Out Amount for such period and thereafter will have access to all relevant books and records, all to the extent Seller Representative reasonably requires to complete its review of Purchaser's calculation of the Proposed Accelerated Earn-Out Amount. Within ten (10) days after its receipt of Purchaser's calculation of the Proposed Accelerated Earn-Out Amount, Seller Representative will advise Purchaser whether, based on such review, it has any exceptions to such calculation. Unless Seller Representative delivers to Purchaser within such ten (10) day period a letter describing its exceptions to Purchaser's calculation of the proposed Accelerated Earn-Out Amount as set forth in the schedule delivered by Purchaser described in this Section 2.6(h), the Proposed Accelerated Earn-Out Amount will be conclusive and binding on Purchaser and Sellers as the Accelerated Earn-Out Amount.

Within two business days of the determination of the Accelerated Earn-Out Amount under this (iii) Section 2.6(h), Purchaser will pay to Sellers such amount.

If Purchaser and Seller Representative are unable to agree on the Accelerated Earn-Out Amount (the "Disputed Amount"), then (a) for 10 days after the date Purchaser receives the letter describing its exceptions to Purchaser's calculation of the Disputed Amount, Seller Representative and Purchaser will use their best efforts to agree on the calculation of the Disputed Amount and (b) lacking such agreement, the matter will be resolved in accordance with Section 2.6(f), the determination and resolution of which dispute shall be binding and (iv) conclusive on Purchaser and Sellers for all purposes.

No Other Representations. Except for the representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement, the Disclosure Schedules and other Transaction Documents, neither Company, any Seller nor any other Person acting on behalf of the Company or any Seller makes any other representation or warranty, written or oral, express or implied, with respect to the Company, its business, operations, assets, liabilities condition (financial or otherwise) or prospects of Company (including any projections, budgets and/or forecasts) or the negotiation, execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement by Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall in any respect limit or modify the effect of representations and warranties and assumptions and estimates implicit therein, of the Company, any Seller or any other Person acting on behalf of the Company or any Seller.

Representations and Warranties of Purchaser. Purchaser represents and warrants to Sellers and the Company that the statements contained in this Section 6 are true and correct.

Organization and Qualification. Purchaser is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of California, and Purchaser has the requisite corporate power and authority and is in possession of all Approvals necessary to own, lease and operate the properties it purports to own, operate or lease and to carry on its business as it is now being conducted, except where the failure to be so organized, existing and in good standing or to have such power, authority and Approvals would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on Purchaser. Purchaser is duly qualified or licensed as a foreign corporation to do business, and is in good standing, in each jurisdiction where the character of the properties owned, leased or operated by it or the nature of its activities makes such qualification or licensing necessary, except for such failures to be so duly qualified or licensed and in good standing that would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on Purchaser.

Authority Relative to this Agreement. Purchaser has all necessary corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to be executed and delivered by Purchaser hereunder, to perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and such other Transaction Documents by Purchaser and the consummation by Purchaser of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Purchaser, and no other corporate proceedings or approvals on the part of Purchaser or the shareholders of Purchaser are necessary to authorize this Agreement or such other Transaction Documents or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. This Agreement and such other Transaction Documents have been or will be duly and validly executed and delivered by Purchaser and, assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by the other parties thereto, constitute, or upon such execution and delivery by Purchaser will constitute, the legal, valid and binding obligations of Purchaser, enforceable against Purchaser in accordance with their respective terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance or transfer, moratorium or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by general principles of equity relating to enforceability (regardless of whether considered in a proceeding at law or in equity).

No Conflict; Required Filings and Consents. The execution and delivery by Purchaser of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to be executed and delivered by Purchaser hereunder does not, and the performance of this Agreement and such other Transaction Documents by Purchaser will not, (a) conflict with or violate the Articles of Incorporation or bylaws of Purchaser, (b) conflict with or violate any Law, or Order applicable to Purchaser or any of its subsidiaries or by which its or their respective properties are bound or affected, or (c) result in any breach of or constitute a default (or an event that with notice or lapse of time or both would become a default) under, or modification in a manner materially adverse to Purchaser or its subsidiaries of any right or benefit under, or impair Purchaser's or any of its subsidiaries' rights or alter the rights or obligations of any third party under, or give to others any rights of termination, amendment, acceleration, repayment or repurchase, increased payments or cancellation under, or result in the creation of an Encumbrance on any of the properties or assets of Purchaser or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to, any Contract, Law or Order to which Purchaser or any of its subsidiaries or its or any of their respective properties are bound or affected, except for any such conflicts, violations, breaches, defaults or other occurrences that would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on Purchaser. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Purchaser does not, and the performance of this Agreement by Purchaser will not, require any consent, approval, exemption, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any Governmental Entity.

No Other Representations. Except for the representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement, the Disclosure Schedules and other Transaction Documents, neither Purchaser nor any other Person acting on behalf of the Purchaser makes any other representation or warranty, written or oral, express or implied, with respect to the Purchaser or the negotiation, execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement by 6.4 the Purchaser.

7. Additional Agreements.

Employees. The Company will use commercially reasonable efforts in consultation with the Purchaser to retain existing employees of the Company through the Closing Date. Purchaser intends to retain the employment of substantially all employees of the Company effective upon the Closing Date, upon terms and conditions to be agreed between the Purchaser and the Company (the "Continuing Employees").

7.1

Employees Benefits. For the period beginning on the Closing Date and ending on October 31, 2010, Purchaser agrees to maintain levels of Seismic LLC 401K PSP ("Seismic 401K"), "welfare benefit plans" as defined in Section 3(1) of ERISA (the "Welfare Benefit Plans") and, to the extent consistent with the budget of the Company, other employee non-equity based benefits for all employees of the Company, in the aggregate, not to exceed and not less than benefits provided to the Company employees under Seismic 401K, Welfare Benefit Plans and other benefits provided to the Company employees immediately prior to the Closing. With respect to the Welfare Benefit Plans provided to employees of the Company following the Closing, Purchaser will, or will cause the Company to: (i) to the extent waivable, waive any pre-existing condition or exclusion and any applicable waiting periods in any Welfare Benefit Plan in which any employee of the Company as of the Closing Date may be entitled to participate; (ii) provide each such employee with credit for any co-payments and deductibles paid prior to the Closing in satisfying any applicable deductible or out-of-pocket requirements under any Welfare Benefit Plan in which any such employee may be eligible to participate after the Closing and (iii) recognize all continuous service of all such employees with the Company immediately prior to the Closing for purposes of eligibility to participate and vesting credit for future vacation accrual rate and leave accrual, in any Welfare Benefit Plan in which such employees may be eligible to participate after the Closing.

7.3 Public Announcements. Purchaser and the Seller Representative, acting on behalf of the Company and the Sellers, shall consult with each other before issuing any press release with respect to this Agreement, the other Transaction Documents and the transactions contemplated hereby and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement, except as required by Law or any listing agreement with any applicable national securities exchange, without the prior consent of the other Party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. From and after the Closing Date, any press release or public statements with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents shall be made solely at the discretion of the Purchaser, and no other Party shall issue any press release or make any public statements about such transactions without the prior written consent of the Purchaser.

Further Assurances. From time to time, at Purchaser's request, whether on or after the Closing Date and without further consideration, each Party shall execute and deliver or cause to be executed and delivered such further instruments of conveyance and transfer and take such other action as the other Party(ies) reasonably may require more effectively to convey and transfer to Purchaser title to the Interests and to 7.4 effectuate the transactions contemplated hereby.

7.5 Tax Matters.

(a) Tax Returns; Tax Refunds.

The Seller Representative shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, and file, or cause to be filed, all income Tax Returns of the Company for all periods ending on or prior to the Closing Date which are filed after the Closing Date. The Seller Representative shall permit Purchaser to review and comment on each such Tax Return described in the preceding sentence at least ten (10) days prior to filing and shall not file any such Tax Return without the written consent of Purchaser, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed, or conditioned. The Parties agree that any Tax deduction or other Tax benefit resulting from or relating to the making of any Capital Appreciation Payments shall inure to the Company with respect to periods ending on or prior to the Closing Date. The Sellers shall include any income, gain, loss, deduction, or other Tax item resulting from the Section 338(h)(10) Election (as described in Section 7.6) on such Tax Returns to the extent required by applicable law. The Sellers shall also pay any Tax imposed on the Company attributable to the making of the Section 338(h)(10) Election, but shall be reimbursed to the extent of any Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment, as provided in Section 7.6 hereof. The Seller Representative and the Sellers shall not file or cause to be filed any amended Tax Return or claim for Tax refund for any Tax period ending on or before the Closing Date without the written consent of the Purchaser, to the extent that such action would reasonably be expected to change the Tax liability of the Purchaser or the

(i) Company for any Tax period after the Closing Date.

Purchaser shall prepare and file, or cause to be prepared and filed, on a timely basis, all Tax Returns with respect to the Company which are due following the Closing Date, other than the Tax Returns described in Section 7.5(a)(i) above. Such Tax Returns shall be prepared, to the extent permitted by law, in a manner consistent with the prior practice of the Company. At least ten (10) days prior to the filing of any Tax Return with respect to any Tax period beginning prior to the Closing Date but ending after the Closing Date, Purchaser shall submit copies of such Tax Returns, in draft form, to the Seller Representative, for written approval by the Seller

(ii) Representative, which approval shall not be unreasonably delayed, withheld or conditioned.

Any Tax refunds that are received by the Purchaser in respect of the Company, shall be for the account of the Sellers to the extent that such refunds relate to Pre-Closing Tax Periods (as defined in Section 7.5(b) hereof), and the Purchaser shall pay over to the Sellers any such refund as soon as reasonably practicable after receipt thereof to the extent such refund was not

(iii) included as an asset in the Adjusted Closing Working Capital.

(i) Purchaser shall communicate with the Seller Representative regarding the status of any proceedings ("Proceeding") related to Taxes of the Company for any taxable period ending on or prior to the Closing Date and the portion through the end of the Closing Date of any taxable period that includes but does not end on the Closing Date (“Pre-Closing Tax Periods”). The Seller Representative shall have the right to control the conduct and resolution of any Proceeding related to Tax matters for Pre-Closing Tax Periods; provided, however, that if any of the issues raised in such Proceeding could reasonably be expected to have an effect on the Tax liability of the Purchaser or the Company for any taxable period beginning after the Closing Date (the “Post-Closing Tax Period”), then the Seller Representative shall not settle any such Proceeding with respect to such issues without Purchaser’s written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. If the Seller Representative has the right to control the conduct and resolution of such Proceeding but elects in writing not to do so, then Purchaser shall have the right to control the conduct and resolution of such Proceeding, provided that Purchaser shall keep the Seller Representative informed of all developments on a timely basis and Purchaser shall not resolve such Proceeding in a manner that could reasonably be expected to have an adverse effect on the Sellers without the advance written consent of the Seller Representative, which shall be timely and shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

Purchaser, the Company, the Seller Representative and the Sellers shall cooperate fully, as and to the extent reasonably requested by any other party, in connection with the filing of Tax Returns and any audit, litigation or other Proceeding with respect to Taxes. Such cooperation shall include the retention and (upon any other party’s request) the provision of records and information that are reasonably relevant to any such Tax Return filing, audit, litigation or other Proceeding and making employees available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information and explanation of any material provided hereunder. The Company and Purchaser agree (i) to retain all books and records with respect to Taxes pertinent to the Company relating to any taxable period beginning before the Closing Date until the expiration of the statute of limitations (and, to the extent reasonably notified by the Seller Representative, any extensions thereof) of the respective taxable periods, and to abide by all record retention agreements entered into with any taxing authority, and (ii) to give the other parties reasonable written notice prior to transferring, destroying or discarding any such books and records and, if any other party so requests, to allow such other party to take possession of such books and

Purchaser, the Seller Representative, the Company and the Sellers further agree, upon request, to use their best efforts to obtain any certificate or other document from any Governmental Entity or any other Person as may be necessary to mitigate, reduce or eliminate any Tax that could be imposed (including without limitation any Tax with respect to the transactions

Purchaser, the Seller Representative, the Company and Sellers further agree, upon request, to provide the other party with all information that either party may be required to report pursuant to

(c) Section 6043 of the Code, and all Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

7.6 Section 338 Election.

(a) Sellers agree to join with Purchaser in making an election under Code Section 338(h)(10) (and any corresponding elections under state, local, or foreign Tax law) (collectively, a “Section 338(h)(10) Election”) with respect to the purchase and sale of the Interests of the Company hereunder, including executing and filing IRS Form 8023 and all other forms, returns, elections, schedules, and documents required to effect the Section 338(h)(10) Election. The Sellers will pay any Tax, including any liability of Company for Tax, attributable to the making of the Section 338(h)(10) Election and the Sellers will, jointly and severally, indemnify the Purchaser and Company against any Losses arising out of any failure to pay such Tax, but shall be reimbursed to the extent of any Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment, as provided hereinafter in this Section 7.6. The Purchase Price and the liabilities of the Company (plus any other relevant items) shall be allocated to the assets of the Company for all purposes (including Tax and financial accounting purposes) in a manner consistent with the assets' respective fair market values, as set forth on the allocation schedule (the "Allocation Schedule"). The parties agree that for all Tax purposes hereunder, including without limitation the Allocation Schedule and the preparation and filing for Form 8883 hereunder, a maximum aggregate amount of $100,000 shall be allocated to the Noncompetition Agreements. Purchaser shall deliver the Allocation Schedule to the Seller Representative within sixty (60) days of the Closing Date. The Seller Representative shall have the right to review and raise any objections in writing to the Allocation Schedule for fifteen (15) days after the receipt thereof. If the Seller Representative disagrees with respect to any material item in the Allocation Schedule, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to resolve the dispute. If the Purchaser and the Seller Representative are unable, within fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt by the Purchaser of such notice of objections, to resolve the disputed items, such disputed items will be referred to the Independent Accounting Firm, and, except as set forth specifically in this Section 7.6(a), the procedures set forth in Section 2.2(d) shall be followed and apply with respect to such dispute. The Independent Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) calendar days following its selection, deliver to Purchaser and the Seller Representative a written report setting forth its determination as to such disputed items (and only such disputed items), and its determinations will be conclusive and binding upon the parties thereto for purposes of the Allocation Schedule. The fees and disbursements of the Independent Accounting Firm shall be borne equally by each party. Purchaser, Company, the Seller Representative and the Sellers agree to be bound by the Allocation Schedule and act, or cause their respective Affiliates to act, in accordance with the Allocation Schedule in all federal, state and local Tax Returns (including, without limitation, Form 8883).

- (b) The Seller Representative shall deliver to the Purchaser, within sixty (60) days after the Closing Date, a detailed computation of the Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment and the Gross Up Payments and such other schedules and information that may be relevant to such computation (the “Section 338 Tax Notice”). The Seller Representative shall prepare the Section 338 Tax Adjustment in a manner consistent with the Allocation Schedule. The “Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment” is equal to the amount, if any, of any additional cash consideration that is necessary to be paid to the Sellers to make the Sellers whole, for the Company and the Sellers’ additional Taxes attributable to the Section 338(h)(10) Election, but shall not include any Tax imposed on the Company attributable to the making of the Section 338(h)(10) Election which are imposed under Section 1374. The Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment shall equal the sum of (x) the positive excess, if any, of (i) the net after-Tax proceeds that the Sellers would have received and retained had the Sellers sold 100% of the Shares without a Section 338(h)(10) Election over (ii) the net after-Tax proceeds that the Sellers are expected to receive and retain by selling 100% of the Interests pursuant to the terms of this Agreement with the Section 338(h)(10) Election excluding any Taxes imposed under Section 1374, plus (y) the Gross Up Payment. The Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment shall be determined taking into account all appropriate federal, state, and local Tax implications (including taxes imposed on the receipt of any Gross Up Payments) in a transaction in which the installment sale method does not apply. A “Gross Up Payment” shall mean, with respect to the Sellers, a payment by Purchaser to the Sellers of an additional amount such that, after paying all federal, state and local income Taxes attributable to the receipt of amounts pursuant to this Section 7.13, the Sellers have received a net after Tax amount equal to the Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment.

If the Purchaser disagrees with any item or amount set forth in the Section 338 Tax Notice, then the Purchaser shall have thirty (30) days following its receipt of the Section 338 Tax Notice (the “Tax Payment Objection Period”) to deliver written notice to the Seller Representative (the “Tax Payment Objection Notice”) of such disagreement, which Tax Payment Objection Notice shall include an explanation of such disagreement. During the Tax Payment Objection Period, the Purchaser and its accountants will be permitted to examine the work papers and other materials used or generated by the Seller Representative and its Tax advisors in connection with the preparation of the Section 338 Tax Notice and such other documents as the Purchaser may reasonably request in connection with its review of the Section 338 Tax Notice.

If the Purchaser provides written notice to the Seller Representative of Purchaser’s approval of the Section 338 Tax Notice, or if the Purchaser does not timely deliver a Tax Payment Objection Notice before the expiration of the Tax Payment Objection Period with respect to the Section 338 Tax Notice, then the Section 338 Tax Notice shall be deemed to have been accepted and approved by the Purchaser and shall thereafter be final and binding upon the parties to this Agreement for purposes of this Section 7.6. If the Purchaser does not timely deliver a Tax Payment Objection Notice with respect to the Section 338 Tax Notice before the expiration of the Tax Payment Objection Period, then the Section 338 Tax Notice shall not be final and binding until such objections are resolved. In resolving such objections, Purchaser and the Seller Representative if unable, within fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt by the Seller Representative of the Tax Payment Objection Notice, to resolve the disputed items, such disputed items will be referred to the Independent Accounting Firm, and, except as specifically set forth in this Section 7.6, the procedures set forth in Section 2.2(d) shall be followed and apply to such dispute. The Independent Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) calendar days following its selection, deliver to Purchaser and the Seller Representative a written report setting forth its determination as to such disputed items (and only such disputed items), and its determinations will be conclusive and binding upon the Parties for the purposes of the amount of the Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment.

If the Section 338 Tax Notice, as finally determined pursuant to Section 7.5(d) above, shows the Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment of greater than $0.00, then the Purchaser will pay, or cause to be paid, to the Sellers the amount of such Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment; provided, however, that amounts payable by Purchaser as a Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment shall be limited to a maximum amount of Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($350,000). Any Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment payable by the Purchaser to the Sellers pursuant to this Section 7.6 shall be paid by the Purchaser to the Sellers by wire transfer of immediately available funds as soon as reasonably practicable of the final determination thereof to a bank account designated in writing by the Sellers no later than

Manager and Officer Liability and Indemnification. For a period of six (6) years from the Closing Date, the organizational documents of the Company (and any of its successors or assigns) will contain provisions no less favorable than are set forth in the Company Operating Agreement as of the date hereof with respect to indemnification of each person who is a current manager or officer of the Company, unless such modification will be required by Law and then only to the minimum extent required by Law; provided, that, the Sellers shall not be entitled to indemnification for any matter that directly relates to a breach of representation or warranty hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 7.7 shall prevent the Purchaser, from and after the Closing, to cause the Company to merge, transfer any or all of its assets, dissolve or reorganize, in which case, proper provision shall be made so that such successors and assigns shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.7

7.7 only to the extent permitted by Law.

7.8 Employee Revenue Bonuses. Following the Closing, subject to their continued employment for the specified periods described below, certain employees of the Company set forth in the Schedule III hereto (the “Employee Revenue Bonus Participants”) shall be eligible to earn (subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 7.8) a bonus based upon the performance of the Company during the period beginning May 1, 2010 and ending April 30, 2011 (the “Employee Revenue Bonus Period”). The amount of any bonus earned pursuant to this Section 7.8 (the “Employee Revenue Bonus Amount”) shall be determined and paid as follows:

The Employee Revenue Bonus Amount shall be based on the Target Revenue of the Post-Closing Company Business (each as defined in Section 2.6(a) hereof) during the Employee Revenue Bonus Period.

(a) No Employee Revenue Bonus Amount shall become earned or payable unless the Target Revenue of the Post-Closing Company Business during the Employee Revenue Bonus Period exceeds Twenty-Three Million Dollars ($23,000,000). The Employee Revenue Bonus Amount shall equal $0.304746 of every dollar of Target Revenue generated during the Employee Revenue Bonus Period that exceeds Twenty-Three Million Dollars ($23,000,000), up to a maximum Employee Revenue Bonus Amount of One Million Five Hundred Twenty-Three Thousand Seven Hundred Thirty-Two Dollars ($1,773,732) (the “Maximum Employee Revenue Bonus Amount”) if Target Revenue reaches Twenty Eight Million Dollars ($28,000,000) or more. Subject to the terms and conditions in Sections 7.8(c) and 7.8(d) below, the Employee Revenue Bonus Amount shall be payable to the Employee Revenue Bonus Participants in the proportions set forth on Schedule III hereto.

Purchaser shall notify the Seller Representative of the Target Revenue for the Employee Revenue Bonus Period as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the Employee Revenue Bonus Period and in no event more than sixty (60) days thereafter. Within (30) thirty days following the final determination of Target Revenue for the Employee Revenue Bonus Period (including in accordance with Section 7.8(g) below), each Employee Revenue Bonus Participant who remains an employee of the Company or the Purchaser as of such time shall earn and be paid fifty percent (50%) of the undisputed Employee Revenue Bonus Amount payable to such employee. Each Employee Revenue Bonus Participant who remains an employee of the Company or the Purchaser through and including the second anniversary of the Closing Date will earn and be paid the remainder of his/her Employee Revenue Bonus Amount within ten (10) days following the second anniversary of the Closing Date. Should any Employee Revenue Bonus Participant no longer be employed by the Company or the Purchaser on one or both of the payment dates set forth in this subsection (c), such participant shall not earn all or any part of his or her pro rata share of the Employee Revenue Bonus Amount payable on such date or dates, and such pro rata share shall revert to Purchaser and shall not be added to any payments made to any other participant or to the Sellers.

(d) The Employee Revenue Bonus Amount payable to the Employee Revenue Bonus Participants shall be paid in cash, subject to applicable Tax withholdings and deductions

The Employee Revenue Bonus Amount payable pursuant to this Section 7.8 shall be subject to adjustment (1) if the Company fails to maintain an operating profit of twelve percent (12%) during the period beginning May 1, 2010 and ending October 31, 2010 and (2) if the Company fails to have a Ten Million Dollar ($10,000,000) Total Backlog measured as of October 31, 2010, as follows:

during the period beginning May 1, 2010 and ending October 31, 2010, if the operating profit is greater than 9.0%, but less than 12.0%, the Employee Revenue Bonus Amount would be reduced as follows:

Operating Profit	Reduction	Total Employee Revenue Bonus Amount Payable
12.00% and up	0%	100%
11.5% to 11.9%	10%	90%

11.0% to 11.4%	20%	80%
10.5% to 10.9%	30%	70%
10.0% to 10.4 %	40%	60%
9.5% to 9.9%	50%	50%
9.0% to 9.4%	60%	40%
Below 9.0%	100%	0%

If the Company fails to achieve a 9.0% operating profit, no Employee Revenue Bonus Amount would be paid. For the purposes of this paragraph, operating profit shall not include (i) any expenses associated with the transactions contemplated hereby, including but not limited to, employee retention payments made following the Closing or any Employee Revenue Bonus Amount pursuant to Section 7.8 hereof, or (ii) any expense allocations to the Company by the Purchaser in excess of the lesser of (x) the amount of the actual expense allocations or (y) $100,000 during the Initial Earn-Out Period.

if the Total Backlog measured as of the last day of the Initial Earn-Out Period is greater than $5,000,000 but less than $10,000,000, the Employee Revenue Bonus Amount would be reduced (ii) as follows:

Backlog	Reduction	Total Earn-Out Distribution Amount Payable
$10,000,000 and up	0%	100%
$9,000,000 to $9,999,999	10%	90%
$8,000,000 to $8,999,999	20%	80%
$7,000,000 to $7,999,999	30%	70%
$6,000,000 to $6,999,999	40%	60%
$5,000,000 to $5,999,999	50%	50%
Below $5,000,000	100%	0%

If the Total Backlog is below $5,000,000, no Employee Revenue Bonus Amount would be paid.

in the event there is a discrepancy in the reduction percentages calculated pursuant to subsections (i) and (ii) immediately above, the greater reduction percentage shall be applied. For example, if the operating profit equals 11% and results in a 20% reduction and the backlog equals $7,000,000 and results in a 30% reduction, the Employee Revenue Bonus Amount payable hereunder shall be reduced by 30%. If the operating profit equals 11% and results in a 20% reduction and the backlog equals $8,000,000 and results in a 20% reduction, the Employee Revenue Bonus Amount payable hereunder shall be reduced by 20%.

- (g) The final determination of Target Revenues in accordance with Section 2.6 hereof (including a final determination made pursuant to the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Section 2.6(f)) shall apply for purposes of the final determination of Target Revenues under Section 7.8.
- (h) After the determination of the Employee Revenue Bonus Amount pursuant to the terms of Section 7.8, the Purchaser shall pay the Employee Revenue Bonus Amount, if any, as set forth in Sections 7.8(b) and Section 7.8(d) to the applicable employees in the proportions set forth in Schedule III hereto, with such Employee Revenue Bonus Amount reduced by an amount equal to any portion that was not earned by an Employee Revenue Bonus Participant who is no longer employed by the Company or Purchaser on such payment date in accordance with Section 7.8(c).

Capital Appreciation Plan. Prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall, in a manner acceptable to Purchaser, (a) amend the Capital Appreciation Plan so that no benefit shall become payable pursuant to the Capital Appreciation Plan except as provided in Section 2.3(a) hereof and (b) obtain from each Capital Appreciation Plan Participant a written consent to such amendment and waiver of any benefit payable to such individual pursuant to the Capital Appreciation Plan in excess of such individual's interest in the 7.9 Capital Appreciation Payments payable in accordance with Section 2.3(a) hereof.

Conditions to Obligations of Sellers. The obligation of Sellers to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement is subject to the following conditions, any of which may be waived by the Seller Representative (on 8.4 behalf of the Sellers) in its sole discretion:

- (a) Compliance by Purchaser. - (f) No Governmental Litigation. There shall not be pending or threatened any legal proceeding in which a Governmental Entity is or is threatened to become a party or is otherwise involved, and neither Purchaser nor the Company shall have received any communication from any Governmental Entity in which such Governmental Entity indicates the probability of commencing any legal proceeding or taking any other action: (i) challenging or seeking to restrain or prohibit the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; (ii) relating to the purchase of the Interests hereunder and seeking to obtain from Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries, or the Company or the Sellers, any damages or other relief that would be material to Purchaser; or (iii) seeking to prohibit or limit in any material respect Purchaser's ability to vote, receive dividends with respect to or otherwise exercise ownership rights with respect to the Interests.

9. Survival and Indemnification.

Survival of Representations, Warranties and Agreements. All of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements made herein by the Company and Sellers shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement until the date that is eighteen (18) months after the Closing Date, except for (a) Section 5.9, which shall survive until the later to occur of (i) the lapse of the statute of limitations with respect to the assessment of any Taxes to which such representation and warranty relates (including any extensions or waivers thereof) and (ii) sixty (60) days after the final administrative or judicial determination of the Taxes to which such representation and warranty relates, and no claim with respect to Section 5.9 may be asserted thereafter with the exception of claims arising out of any fact, circumstance, action or proceeding to which the Party asserting such claim shall have given notice to the other Parties to this Agreement prior to the termination of such period of reasonable belief that a Tax liability will subsequently arise therefrom, and (b) Sections 4.3, 5.3, 5.15 and 5.20, which shall survive until the lapse of the statute of limitations with respect thereto; provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 9 shall not limit any covenant or agreement of the Parties which by its terms contemplates performance after the Closing Date and which shall survive in accordance with its respective terms.

9.2 Indemnification by Sellers. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 9, from and after the Closing, Sellers, jointly and severally, agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless each of Purchaser, the Company and their Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, managers, agents, employees, subsidiaries, partners, members and controlling Persons (each an "Purchaser Indemnified Party") to the fullest extent permitted by law (but limited by and subject to this Section 9 and the other provisions of this Agreement) from and against any and all Losses based upon, resulting from or arising out of (a) any breach of or default in connection with any representations or warranties given or made by the

Sellers or the Company herein, (b) any failure to perform or breach of any covenants or agreements given or made by the Sellers or the Company herein, and (c) any liability or Losses incurred by Purchaser related to the use of any real or personal property owned by any employee of the Company in the Business

Indemnification by Purchaser. From and after the Closing, Purchaser agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Sellers and their Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, agents, employees, subsidiaries, partners, members and controlling Persons (each an “Seller Indemnified Party”) to the fullest extent permitted by law (but limited by and subject to this Section 9 and the other provisions of this Agreement) from and against any and all Losses based upon, resulting from or arising out of any breach of any representations, warranties, covenants or agreements given or made by Purchaser herein.

9.4 Limitations on Indemnification.

The Sellers shall not be obligated to make any payment for indemnification pursuant to Section 9.2 until the aggregate amount of indemnification payments under such Section exceeds Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000) (the “Threshold Amount”), whereupon Sellers shall be obligated to pay in full all such amounts for Losses incurred on a first dollar basis up to each Seller’s pro rata share of the Escrow Fund. However, this Section 9.4 shall not apply to (i) Losses related to a breach of the representations and warranties contained in Sections 4.3, 5.3, 5.9 and 5.20, or (ii) any willful misrepresentation with intent to defraud, intentional misconduct or criminal activity resulting in a felony conviction for which all appeals have been exhausted, and the Sellers shall be liable for all Losses with respect to such breaches.

Except in the case of willful misrepresentation with intent to defraud, intentional misconduct or criminal activity resulting in a felony conviction from which all appeals have been exhausted, the Parties hereto acknowledge and agree, the indemnification provisions in this Section 9 shall be the exclusive remedy of the Parties with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b)

Maximum Indemnification Limitations. The Sellers shall not be obligated to make any payment pursuant to this Section 9 in an aggregate amount in excess of his or her pro rata portion of the Escrow Fund (the “Indemnification Cap”), provided, however, that the Indemnification Cap shall not apply to (i) any liabilities of Sellers pursuant to representations or warranties in Sections 4.3, 5.3, 5.9 or 5.20, with respect to which the aggregate maximum liability of the Sellers shall be the Purchase Price, or (ii) any willful misrepresentation with intent to defraud, intentional misconduct or criminal activity resulting in a felony conviction for which all appeals have been exhausted, with respect to which the Sellers shall be liable for all Losses. In order to fulfill Sellers’ obligations hereunder, Purchaser shall have recourse (i) first to the Escrow Fund and (ii) second by any further remedies available to Purchasers in law or in equity, provided that the aggregate maximum liability of Sellers set forth in the first sentence of this Section 9.5 is not exceeded. The provisions of this Section 9.5 shall not limit, in any manner, any remedy at law or in equity to which any Party shall be entitled against any other Party as a result of the breach by a Party of any covenant or agreement of such Party which by its terms contemplates performance after the Closing Date and which shall survive in accordance with its respective terms.

9.6 Procedures for Indemnification.

- (a) Indemnified Party(ies) may seek indemnification from the other party(ies) (the “Indemnifying Party”) for any Losses with respect to the indemnification claim of the Indemnifying Party under this Agreement (an “Indemnification Claim”) by providing written notice (a “Claim Notice”) to the Indemnifying Party specifying in reasonable detail the Losses claimed (and a reasonable estimate thereof), the individual items of such Losses included in the amount so stated, the date each such item was paid, or properly accrued or arose, the nature of the misrepresentation, breach of warranty, covenant or Claim to which such item is related and the relevant sections of this Agreement breached and all material facts in the knowledge of such Indemnified Party pertaining to such Indemnification Claim. If such Claim Notice is delivered by an Indemnified Party that is seeking payment from the Escrow Fund for Losses described in such Claim Notice, the Indemnified Party shall deliver a copy of the Claim Notice to the Escrow Agent simultaneously with delivery to the Indemnifying Party. If the Indemnifying Party with respect to such Indemnification Claim: (i) agrees with the Indemnified Party with respect to such Indemnification Claim, a memorandum setting forth such agreement shall be prepared and signed by both parties or (ii) disputes the existence or the amount of such Indemnification Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall notify the Indemnified Party in writing (with reasonable specificity) within 20 business days following the Indemnifying Party's receipt of the Claim Notice (the "Response Notice") and the parties will negotiate in good faith to resolve such Indemnification Claim for up to 20 business days or such other period of time as the parties mutually agree. If the Response Notice is in response to a Claim Notice for Losses for which an Indemnified Party is seeking payment from the Escrow Fund, a copy of such Response Notice shall be delivered to the Escrow Agent simultaneously with delivery to the Indemnified Party. If the parties should then so agree with respect to such Indemnification Claim, a memorandum setting forth such agreement shall be prepared and signed by both parties and, if appropriate, delivered to the Escrow Agent.

If no Response Notice is received by the Indemnified Party within twenty (20) business days after the Indemnifying Party's receipt of the Claim Notice, the matter shall be deemed undisputed and the Indemnifying Party shall indemnify the Indemnified Party for the Losses (and, if applicable, the Escrow Agent shall be entitled to release the amount of the Losses from the Escrow Account). If the parties are unable to agree within the 20 business day negotiation period specified in Section 9.5(a) after the Indemnified Party's receipt of a Response Notice, then either the Indemnified Party or the Indemnifying Party may (but are not required to do so) petition or file an action in a court of competent jurisdiction for resolution of such

(b) dispute.

- 9.7 Third-Party Claims. In the event an Indemnified Party becomes aware of a third-party claim which could result in Losses for which it or any other Indemnified Party may be entitled to indemnification hereunder, such Indemnified Party shall promptly and without delay notify the Indemnifying Party of such third party claim, such notice setting forth such material information with respect to the third-party claim as is reasonably available to the Indemnified Party. The failure of an Indemnified Party to notify the Indemnifying Party in accordance with this Section 9.7 shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party from any liability which it may have to such Indemnified Party under this Section 9 unless, and only to the extent that, such failure to notify results in such Indemnifying Party's loss of substantive or practical rights or defenses or the ability to mitigate damages that may have been mitigated in the event that the Party had been timely notified. If a third party Claim is brought against any Indemnified Party, the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled, upon written notice to the Indemnified Party within 30 business days after the receipt of the Claim Notice, to assume the defense at its own expense with counsel reasonably acceptable to such Indemnified Party (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed); provided, however, the election by such Indemnifying Party to assume such defense shall not preclude the Party against which such claim has been made also from participating or continuing to participate in such defense, so long as such Party bears its own legal fees and expenses for so doing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in any Indemnification Claim in which both an Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and an Indemnified Party, on the other hand, are, or are reasonably likely to become, a party, such Indemnified Party shall have the right, at Indemnifying Party's reasonable expense, to employ separate counsel and to control its own defense of such Indemnification Claim if, in the reasonable opinion of counsel to such Indemnified Party, either (x) one or more defenses are available to the Indemnified Party that are not available to the Indemnifying Party and which cannot be asserted by the Indemnifying Party on behalf of the Indemnified Party or (y) a conflict or potential conflict exists between the Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and such Indemnified Party, on the other hand, that are not waivable and which would make such separate representation advisable under applicable ethical standards; provided, however, that the Indemnifying Party (i) shall not be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one counsel to all Indemnified Parties and (ii) shall reimburse the Indemnified Parties for all of such fees and expenses of such counsel incurred in any action, between the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Parties or between the Indemnified Parties and any third-party, as such expenses are incurred. Each

Indemnifying Party agrees that it will not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), settle, compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment in any pending or threatened Indemnification Claim relating to the matters contemplated hereby unless such settlement, compromise or consent includes an unconditional release of each Indemnified Party from all liability arising or that may arise out of such Indemnification Claim 9.8 Tax Treatment. Unless otherwise required by applicable Law, all indemnification payments will constitute adjustments to the Purchase Price for all Tax purposes, and no party will take any position inconsistent with such characterization.

No Double Recovery; Use of Insurance. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no Party will be entitled to indemnification or reimbursement under any provision of this Agreement for any amount to the extent such party or its Affiliate has been indemnified or reimbursed for such amount under any other provision of this Agreement, the Exhibits or Disclosure Schedules attached hereto, or any document executed in connection with this Agreement or otherwise. Furthermore, in the event any Losses related to a claim by an Indemnified Party are covered by applicable insurance policies of the Company, the Indemnified Party agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to seek recovery under such insurance. If any Indemnified Party actually receives any amounts under such applicable insurance policies subsequent to an indemnification payment by the Indemnifying Party, then such Indemnified Party shall promptly reimburse the Indemnifying Party for any payment made or expense incurred by such Indemnifying Party in connection with providing such indemnification payment up to the amount received by the Indemnified Party, net of (i) any expenses incurred by such Indemnified Party in collecting such amount and (ii) any additional amounts which become payable to the insurer through adjustments to past, present or future premiums or other similar mechanisms within the three (3) year period following the date of the claim giving rise to such adjustments.

9.10 Mitigation. Each party agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts consistent with such party's corporate or other strategies and objectives to mitigate any loss, liability or damage which forms the basis of a claim hereunder.

Subrogation. Upon making any indemnification payment pursuant to this Agreement with respect to a third party claim, the Indemnifying Party will, to the extent of such payment and to the extent permitted under policies or any applicable Laws, be subrogated to all rights of recovery under any insurance policy of the Indemnified Party in respect of the Losses to which the payment relates. The Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party will duly execute upon request all instruments reasonably necessary to evidence and perfect the 9.11 subrogation rights described above.

10. Miscellaneous.

Waivers. Any waiver of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement must be in writing and must be duly executed by or on behalf of a duly authorized officer of the Purchaser or the Seller Representative (in the case of the Company). The failure of a Party to exercise any of its rights hereunder or to insist upon strict adherence to any term or condition hereof on any one occasion shall not be construed as a waiver or deprive that Party of the right thereafter to insist upon strict adherence to the terms and conditions of this Agreement at a later date. Further, no waiver of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be deemed to or shall constitute a waiver of any other term of 10.1 condition hereof (whether or not similar).

Notices. All notices and other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given only if done in the following ways: (i) on the day of delivery if delivered personally, (ii) two business days after the date of mailing if mailed by registered or certified first class mail, postage prepaid, (iii) the next business day following deposit with an overnight air courier service which guarantees next day delivery, or (iv) when sent by facsimile (with a copy promptly sent by registered or certified mail return receipt requested), to the other Party at the following address (or to such person or persons or such other address or addresses as a Party may specify by notice pursuant to this provision):

10.3 Amendments. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by the Parties. Any agreement on the part of Purchaser or Sellers hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such Parties.

10.4 Expenses. Whether or not the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be the responsibility of, and accrued by the Party incurring such expense; provided, however, in the event the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are consummated, the Purchaser shall assume and pay, against invoices reasonably submitted in support thereof, transfer taxes and other fees imposed on the Company and described in Section 2.5 hereof and the Company's reasonable legal, accounting, financial fees and expenses, and internal out-of-pocket travel and incidental expenses of Sellers and the Company incurred in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement up to the sum of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000) (the "Transaction Expenses"). Subject to the limitation as to amount set forth in the previous sentence, the Purchaser agrees to pay or reimburse to Sellers at Closing any Transaction Expenses incurred as of the Closing in accordance with the Flow of Funds Memorandum. To the extent that Purchaser incurs any liability for payment of Transaction Expenses in excess of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000) (the "Excess Transaction Expenses"), that are not paid as of the Closing Date and are not included as part of Final Closing Working Capital, Purchaser shall be reimbursed for such Excess Transaction Expenses from the amounts to be contributed to the Escrow Fund (in accordance with the Sellers' pro rata percentages) Such Excess Transaction Expenses shall constitute Losses for which Purchaser shall be entitled to indemnification against Sellers pursuant to Section 9, and in repayment of which Purchaser shall be entitled to payment from the Escrow Fund.

10.5 Assignment; Third-Party Beneficiaries. Neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations under it are assignable without the prior written consent of the other. There shall be no third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement.

10.6 GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA APPLICABLE TO CONTRACTS EXECUTED AND FULLY PERFORMED WITHIN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, WITHOUT REGARD TO PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICT OF LAWS.

10.7 Waiver of Jury Trial. ALL PARTIES HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE ANY OBJECTIONS WHICH THEY MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE PERSONAL JURISDICTION OR VENUE OF ANY SUIT, ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT AND HEREBY FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVE ANY CLAIM THAT SUCH SUIT, ACTION OR PROCEEDING

BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM. THE PARTIES HEREBY FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL IN ANY ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES HEREBY IRREVOCABLY CONSENT AND AGREE THAT SERVICE OF PROCESS MAY BE EFFECTED HEREUNDER BY DELIVERY OF NECESSARY DOCUMENTATION VIA A COMMON CARRIER WITH INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS AND REPUTATION AND SUCH SERVICE OF PROCESS SHALL BE DEEMED MADE UPON RECEIPT OF CONFIRMATION OF DELIVERY.

10.8 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and by the different Parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. It is the express intent of the Parties to be bound by the exchange of signatures on this Agreement via facsimile or electronic mail.

10.9 No Implied Waiver. No failure or delay on the part of the Parties hereto to exercise any right, power, or privilege hereunder or under any instrument executed pursuant hereto shall operate as a waiver nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power, or privilege.

10.10 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the Exhibits and Schedules attached hereto, sets forth the entire understandings of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and it incorporates and merges any and all previous communications, understandings, oral or written as to the subject matter hereof.

10.11 Actual Waivers. Any agreement on the part of Purchaser or the Seller Representative (on behalf of the Company and the Sellers) hereto to any extension or waiver shall be valid if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such Parties.

10.12 Headings. The headings of the Sections of this Agreement, where employed, are for convenience only and do not form a part hereof and in no way modify, interpret or construe the meanings of the Parties.

10.13 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without invalidating or rendering unenforceable the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

10.14 Specific Performance. The Sellers, Purchaser and the Company each acknowledge that, in view of the uniqueness of the Business and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, each Party would not have an adequate remedy at law for money damages in the event that this Agreement has not been performed in accordance with its terms, and therefore agrees that the other Party shall be entitled to specific enforcement of the terms hereof in addition to any other remedy to which it may be entitled, at law or in equity.

10.15 No Presumption Regarding Drafter. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the terms and provisions of this Agreement have been negotiated and discussed between them, and that this Agreement reflects their mutual agreement regarding the subject matter of this Agreement. Because of the nature of such negotiations and discussions, it would not be appropriate to deem either Purchaser or the Sellers to be the drafter of this Agreement, and therefore no presumption for or against the drafter shall be applicable in interpreting or enforcing this Agreement.

10.16 Seller Representative.

- (a) Appointment. The “Seller Representative” means Mr. Patrick J. Gahan; provided, that in the event of the death or resignation of him as Seller Representative, the “Seller Representative” means Mr. Scott

D. McDonald. Each Seller hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Seller Representative as such Seller's attorney-in-fact and agent to act in such Seller's name, place and stead in connection with all matters arising from and under this Agreement and the Escrow Agreement, and acknowledges that such appointment is coupled with an interest. The Seller Representative hereby accepts such appointment and authorization.

Authority. Each Seller agrees to be bound by all notices received or given by, and all agreements and determinations made by, and all documents executed and delivered by the Seller Representative under this Agreement; authorizes the Seller Representative to assert claims, make demands and commence actions on behalf of the Sellers under this Agreement, dispute or to refrain from disputing any claim made by any Seller, negotiate and compromise any dispute that may arise under, and exercise or refrain from exercising remedies available to Sellers under, this Agreement, and to sign any releases or other documents with respect to such dispute or remedy (and to bind Sellers in so doing), give such instructions and do such other things and refrain from doing such things as the Seller Representative shall deem appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement, give any and all consents and notices under this agreement, and perform all actions, exercise all powers, and fulfill all duties otherwise assigned to the Sellers' in this Agreement. Each Seller hereby expressly acknowledges and agrees that the Seller Representative has the sole and exclusive authority to act on such Sellers' behalf in respect of all matters arising under or in connection with this Agreement after execution of this Agreement, notwithstanding any dispute or disagreement among the Sellers, and that no Seller shall have any authority to act unilaterally or independently of the Seller Representative in respect to any such matter. Purchaser and the Escrow Agent shall be entitled to rely on any and all actions taken or failed to be taken by the Seller Representative in respect of this Agreement and the Escrow Agreement without any liability to, or obligation to inquire of, any of Seller. All notices, counter notices or other instruments or designations delivered by any Sellers in regard to this Agreement shall not be effective unless, but shall be effective if, signed by the Seller Representative, and if not, such document shall have no force or effect whatsoever and Purchaser, the Escrow Agent and any other person or entity may proceed without regard to any such document. Purchaser, the Escrow Agent and any other person or entity are hereby expressly authorized to rely on the genuineness of the signature of the Seller Representative, and upon receipt of any writing that reasonably appears to have been signed by the Seller Representative, they may act upon the same without any further duty of inquiry as to the genuineness of the writing. The authorizations of the Seller Representative shall be irrevocable and effective until the Seller Representative's rights and obligations under this Agreement terminate by virtue of the termination of all obligations of Sellers to Purchaser, and Purchaser to Sellers, under this Agreement. Purchaser shall have no liability for any acts or omissions of the Seller Representative or otherwise with respect to any claim brought by any Seller

(b) against the Seller Representative or another Seller.

Applied Signal Technology, Inc. Acquires Seismic LLC —Enhances Presence in Fast-Growing Cyber Intelligence Market—

SUNNYVALE, California, April 28, 2010– Applied Signal Technology, Inc. (AST) (NASDAQ: APSG), a market leader in advanced intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance (ISR) solutions, today announced that it has completed the acquisition of Seismic LLC, a privately-held company that specializes in cyber security solutions, software engineering, data management, and systems engineering and integration services for the U.S. Department of Defense and Intelligence Community. Seismic is headquartered in Hanover, Maryland and employs approximately 100 people.

William B. Van Vleet, Chief Executive Officer of AST, said, “We believe that the current urgent need for cyber intelligence services will continue to expand into the future. The acquisition of Seismic, a fast growing, profitable, and extremely talented organization, cements our position in that exciting market. We now have the scale, thought leadership, and access to resources to be a significant competitor across a wide range of programs.”

Applied Signal Technology has agreed to acquire Seismic LLC for $25 million in cash, funded from current investments, with an additional earn-out and performance bonus potential of approximately $5 million. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009, Seismic recognized revenues of approximately $15 million. Seismic revenues grew rapidly at a rate of 20–30% to date in 2010 and are expected to provide steady revenue contributions on a quarterly basis.

Patrick Gahan, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Seismic, said, “Together, as part of one company, we become a powerful platform in the cyber intelligence market. We are now positioned to compete for opportunities that were, until now, beyond the capabilities of either company alone. We are very excited to join AST and merge into its Network Intelligence Division to raise the level of our service and capabilities for our customers.”

The Seismic acquisition complements and reinforces AST’s existing software and network services business, its deep understanding of the global telecommunications network, and its exceptional customer relationships in the defense and intelligence communities. Seismic reinforces the Company’s efforts in Cyber Threat Intelligence, Computer Network Defense and Predictive Security, Information Advantage and Computer Network Operations, and Application Security. AST expects to continue to expand its software and network services business and to continue to provide an effective, integrated delivery structure in the Company's Network Intelligence Division.
