Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 29, 2007, Olin Corporation (“Olin”) and its indirectly wholly-owned subsidiary PCI Chemicals Canada Company/Société PCI Chimie Canada (“PCI Chemicals”) entered into a five-year revolving credit facility (the “Revolving Facility”) with a syndicate of lenders and Citibank, N.A., as administrative agent. The total facility amount is $220,000,000, which includes a sublimit for PCI Chemicals. Olin may, pursuant to the terms of the Revolving Facility, increase the total facility amount to $300,000,000.

The obligations under the Revolving Facility are obligations of Olin and PCI Chemicals and are unsecured. The obligations of PCI Chemicals under the Revolving Facility are guaranteed by Olin. Borrowings under the Revolving Facility will bear interest at a per annum rate equal to, a “base rate”, “Eurodollar rate” or “Canadian Prime Rate” plus an interest rate spread determined by reference to a pricing grid based on Olin’s total leverage ratio.

Borrowings under the Revolving Facility are subject to the satisfaction of customary conditions, including the accuracy of representations and warranties and the absence of defaults and, in the case of the initial borrowing, the termination of commitments, and payment in full of all indebtedness, interest, fees and other amounts outstanding under (x) the credit agreement dated as of July 30, 2004 among Olin, the banks named therein and Citibank, as administrative agent (the “Existing Revolving Facility Agreement”) and (y) the credit agreement dated as of June 26, 2007 among Olin, the banks named therein and Citibank, as administrative agent for the $100,000,000 aggregate principal amount 364-day revolving credit facility (the “$100,000,000 Credit Facility Agreement”).

The Revolving Facility contains customary representations, warranties and affirmative and negative covenants which are substantially similar to those included in Olin’s Existing Revolving Facility Agreement. The obligations of Olin and PCI Chemicals under the Revolving Facility may be accelerated upon customary events of default, including non-payment of principal or interest, breaches of covenants, cross-defaults to other material debt and specified bankruptcy events.

Olin intends to use proceeds of borrowings under the Revolving Facility for general corporate purposes. As of the close of business on October 29, 2007, there were no borrowings outstanding under the Revolving Facility.

The Revolving Facility is in addition to Olin’s $150,000,000 aggregate principal amount 364-day revolving credit facility under the credit agreement dated as of June 26, 2007, among Olin, the banks party thereto and Citibank, N.A., as administrative agent, which will remain available to Olin in accordance with its terms (the “$150,000,000 Credit Facility Agreement”).

The foregoing description of the Revolving Facility does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Revolving Facility, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
