SUMMARY

Tech Data Corporation

Tech Data Corporation is one of the world's largest wholesale distributors of technology products. We serve as an indispensable link in the technology supply chain by bringing products from the world's leading technology vendors to market, as well as providing our customers with advanced logistics capabilities and value-added services. Our customers include value-added resellers ("VARs"), direct marketers, retailers and corporate resellers who support the diverse technology needs of end users. We sell to customers in more than 100 countries throughout North America, South America, Europe, the Middle East, Africa and Asia Pacific.

Some of our key financial objectives are to gain share in select product areas in the geographies in which we operate and to improve operating income by growing gross profit faster than operating costs. In addition, we focus on deploying the right level of capital that yields solid operating cash flow generation and a return on invested capital that is above our weighted average cost of capital. To achieve this, we are focused on a strategy of execution, diversification and innovation that we believe differentiates our business in the marketplace.

Execution is fundamental to our business success. We have logistics centers where each day, tens of millions of dollars of technology products are received from vendors, picked and packed and shipped to our customers. Products are generally shipped from regionally located logistics centers the same day the orders are received. In addition, execution is marked by a high level of service provided to our customers through our company's technical, sales and marketing support, electronic commerce tools, product integration services and financing programs.

Our diversification strategy seeks to continuously remix our product, customer and services portfolios towards higher growth and higher return market segments through organic growth initiatives and acquisitions. We believe that as converged and hyperconverged infrastructure, data analytics, cloud computing, mobility, the Internet of Things ("IoT") and other potentially disruptive factors transform the way technology is used and delivered, we will leverage our highly efficient infrastructure to capture new market opportunities in our strategic focus areas of data center, software, mobility, consumer electronics, integrated supply chain services and other value-added service offerings. The final tenet of our strategy is innovation. Our IT systems and e-business tools and programs have provided our business with the flexibility to effectively navigate fluctuations in market conditions, structural changes in the technology industry, as well as changes created by products we sell. These IT systems and e-business tools and programs have also worked to strengthen our vendor and customer relationships, while at the same time improving the efficiency of these business partners.

We believe our strategy of execution, diversification and innovation will continue to strengthen our value proposition with vendor partners and reseller customers while positioning us for continued market expansion and profitable growth.

We were incorporated in Florida in 1974. Our principal executive offices are located at 5350 Tech Data Drive, Clearwater, Florida 33760, and our main telephone number is (727) 539 7429.

The Offering

This prospectus relates to the resale of shares of our common stock held by the selling stockholder identified under "Selling Stockholder" or in a supplement to this prospectus. The shares of our common stock that may be offered by the selling stockholder using this prospectus represent shares of our common stock that we issued to the selling stockholder in connection with our acquisition of all the shares of AVT Technology Solutions LLC and TS DivestCo B.V. (the "Acquisition"), which together hold all assets and liabilities primarily relating to the former Technology Solutions business of Avnet, Inc. (the "Acquired Business"). We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of these shares of our common stock by the selling stockholder.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the risk factors described under “Risk Factors” in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2017 filed with the SEC on March 30, 2017 and the other documents that we subsequently file with the SEC, as well as the other information included or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, before making an investment decision.

USE OF PROCEEDS

All of the shares of our common stock being offered hereby are being sold by the selling stockholder identified in this prospectus or a supplement hereto or its pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors in interest. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of shares of our common stock by the selling stockholder. The selling stockholder will receive all of the net proceeds from this offering. See “Selling Stockholder.”

SELLING STOCKHOLDER

This prospectus relates to the resale of shares of our common stock held by the selling stockholder listed below. The selling stockholder acquired these shares from us in a private offering pursuant to an exemption from registration provided under Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act in connection with the Acquisition on February 27, 2017. The registration statement of which this prospectus is a part has been filed pursuant to the registration rights granted to the selling stockholder as part of the Acquisition and pursuant to the Interest Purchase Agreement by and between Tech Data and the selling stockholder dated as of September 19, 2016 (as amended, the “Interest Purchase Agreement”). Under the terms of the Interest Purchase Agreement, we will pay all expenses of the registration of the shares of our common stock (other than underwriting discounts and commissions), and we will reimburse the selling shareholder for any of its reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with this registration (including the reasonable costs and expenses of counsel for the selling shareholder) not to exceed $50,000 in the aggregate.

The table below sets forth certain information known to us, based upon written representations from the selling stockholder, with respect to the beneficial ownership of shares of our common stock held by the selling stockholder as of June 1, 2017, except as described in the notes to such table. Because the selling stockholder may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of all, some or none of the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus, we cannot determine the number of such shares that will be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by the selling stockholder, or the amount or percentage of shares of our common stock that will be held by the selling stockholder upon termination of any particular offering. See “Plan of Distribution.” For purposes of the table below, we assume that the selling stockholder will sell all its shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus.

In the table below, the percentage of shares beneficially owned is based on 38,128,592 shares of our common stock outstanding at May 31, 2017, determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”). Under such rule, beneficial ownership includes any shares over which the selling stockholder has sole or shared voting power or investment power and also any shares that the selling stockholder has the right to acquire within 60 days of such date through the exercise of any options or other rights.

Unless otherwise described below, to our knowledge, neither the selling stockholder nor any of its affiliates have held any position or office with or otherwise had any material relationship with us or our affiliates during the three years prior to the date of this prospectus.

Name of Selling Stockholder	Prior to the offering (1)		After the offering (3)
	Number of shares of our common stock beneficially owned	Percent of shares of our common stock outstanding	Number of shares of our common stock being registered for resale (2)	Percent of shares of our common stock outstanding
Avnet, Inc.	2,785,402	7.3 %	2,785,402	0 %

(1) The amounts set forth in these columns include the shares of our common stock beneficially owned by the selling stockholder as of June 1, 2017 (including any shares that the selling stockholder has the right to acquire within 60 days of the date hereof through the exercise of any options or other rights).

(2) The amounts set forth in this column are the numbers of shares of our common stock that may be offered by the selling stockholder using this prospectus. These amounts do not represent any other shares of our common stock that the selling stockholder may own beneficially or otherwise.

(3) Assumes the selling stockholder will sell all shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The shares of our common stock listed in the table appearing under “Selling Stockholder” are being registered to permit public secondary trading of these shares by the holders of such shares from time to time after the date of this prospectus. Registration of the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus does not mean, however, that those shares of our common stock necessarily will be offered or sold. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the common stock by the selling stockholder.

The selling stockholder and its pledgees, assignees, donees, or other successors-in-interest who acquire its shares of our common stock after the date of this prospectus, may sell such shares of our common stock from time to time directly to purchasers or through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such market prices, at a fixed price or prices subject to change or at negotiated prices, by the methods described below:

- through underwritten public offerings pursuant to an effective registration statement, other than on Form S-4, S-8 or a comparable form, under the Securities Act;
- through the Nasdaq Global Select Market, in an aggregate amount on a trading day that does not exceed 10% of the average daily trading volume of our common stock for the preceding 30 consecutive trading days; or
- through a combination of such methods.

Pursuant to the Interest Purchase Agreement, the selling stockholder has generally agreed not to sell the 2,785,402 shares of our common stock received as the share consideration (the “Share Consideration”) for a period of time following the closing of the Acquisition. The selling stockholder has agreed that it will not, without our written consent, directly or indirectly, transfer, sell or otherwise dispose of (other than in derivative transactions that are not physically settled) (i) any of the shares of common stock received as the Share Consideration prior to August 26, 2017 and (ii) more than 50% of the shares of common stock received as the Share Consideration, in the aggregate, following August 26, 2017 and prior to February 27, 2018; provided that, the selling stockholder is permitted at any time to transfer some or all of the shares of common stock received as the Share Consideration (x) by way of acceptance of an issuer or third-party tender or exchange offer made available to all holders of issued and outstanding shares of our common stock, (y) to an affiliate that agrees to be bound by certain restrictions described in the Interest Purchase Agreement as if it were the selling stockholder, or (z) to us in accordance with certain indemnification provisions in the Interest Purchase Agreement.

In connection with sales of the common stock or otherwise, the selling stockholder may enter into derivative transactions with respect to our common stock that are not physically settled.

If underwriters are used in a firm commitment underwriting, the selling stockholder will execute an underwriting agreement with those underwriters relating to the shares of our common stock that the selling stockholder will offer. Unless otherwise set forth in a prospectus supplement, the obligations of the underwriters to purchase the shares of our common stock will be subject to conditions. The underwriters, if any, will purchase such shares on a firm commitment basis and will be obligated to purchase all of such shares.

The shares of our common stock subject to the underwriting agreement will be acquired by the underwriters for their own account and may be resold by them from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. Underwriters may be deemed to have received compensation from the selling stockholder in the form of underwriting discounts or commissions and may also receive commissions from the purchasers of these shares of our common stock for whom they may act as agent. Underwriters may sell these shares to or through dealers. These dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriters and/or commissions from the purchasers for whom they may act as agent. Any public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers may be changed from time to time.

The selling stockholder may authorize underwriters to solicit offers by institutions to purchase the shares of our common stock subject to the underwriting agreement from the selling stockholder at the public offering price stated in a prospectus supplement pursuant to delayed delivery contracts providing for payment and delivery on a specified date in the future. If the selling stockholder sells shares of our common stock pursuant to these delayed delivery contracts, the prospectus supplement will state that as well as the conditions to which these delayed delivery contracts will be subject and the commissions payable for that solicitation.

The applicable prospectus supplement will set forth whether or not underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the market price of the shares of our common stock at levels above those that might otherwise prevail in the open market, including, for example, by entering stabilizing bids, effecting syndicate covering transactions or imposing penalty bids. Underwriters are not required to engage in any of these activities, or to continue such activities if commenced.

In effecting sales, brokers or dealers engaged by the selling stockholder may arrange for other brokers or dealers to participate. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling stockholder (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated. The selling stockholder does not expect these commissions and discounts to exceed what is customary in the types of transactions involved. Broker-dealer transactions may include:

• purchases of the shares of our common stock by a broker-dealer as principal and resales of the shares of our common stock by the broker-dealer for its account pursuant to this prospectus;

• ordinary brokerage transactions; or

• transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers on a best efforts basis.

If dealers are utilized in the sale of shares of our common stock, the names of the dealers and the terms of the transaction will be set forth in a prospectus supplement, if required.

The selling stockholder may also sell shares of our common stock through agents designated by them from time to time. We will name any agent involved in the offer or sale of such shares and will list commissions payable by the selling stockholder to these agents in a prospectus supplement, if required. These agents will be acting on a best efforts basis to solicit purchases for the period of its appointment, unless we state otherwise in any required prospectus supplement.

The selling stockholder may sell any of the shares of our common stock directly to purchasers in private transactions. In this case, the selling stockholder may not engage underwriters or agents in the offer and sale of such shares.

The selling stockholder may indemnify underwriters, dealers or agents who participate in the distribution of the shares of our common stock against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and agree to contribute to payments that these underwriters, dealers or agents may be required to make.

The aggregate proceeds to the selling stockholder from the sale of the shares of our common stock offered by the selling stockholder hereby will be the purchase price of such shares less discounts and commissions, if any. The selling stockholder reserves the right to accept and, together with their agents from time to time, to reject, in whole or in part, any proposed purchase of shares of our common stock to be made directly or through agents.

In order to comply with the securities laws of some states, if applicable, the shares of our common stock may be sold in these jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states such shares may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale or an exemption from registration or qualification requirements is available and is complied with.

The selling stockholder and any underwriters, broker-dealers or agents that participate in the sale of the shares of our common stock may be “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act. Any discounts, commissions, concessions or profit they earn on any resale of such shares may be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. Any selling stockholder who is an “underwriter” within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. We are not aware of any plans, arrangements or understandings between the selling stockholder and any underwriter, broker-dealer or agent regarding the sale of the shares of our common stock by the selling stockholder. We do not assure you that the selling stockholder will sell any or all of the shares of our common stock offered by them pursuant to this prospectus. In addition, we do not assure you that the selling stockholder will not transfer, devise or gift the shares of our common stock by other means not described in this prospectus. Moreover, any securities covered by this prospectus that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

The Company has authorized 200,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.0015 per share. As of May 31, 2017, there were 38,128,592 shares of our common stock outstanding. Holders of the common stock have no pre-emptive, redemption, subscription or conversion rights. Each outstanding share of common stock is entitled to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of the Company's shareholders. Each share of common stock is entitled to participate equally with respect to dividends as may be declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available therefor. In the case of voluntary or involuntary liquidation, distribution or sale of assets, dissolution, or winding up of the Company, holders of our common stock are entitled to receive a pro rata share of the amount distributed after provisions for payment of creditors. The Florida Business Corporation Act, as amended (the “Florida Act”), also may affect the terms of these securities. All outstanding shares of common stock are fully paid and nonassessable.

Shareholder Action by Written Consent and Special Meeting

Our Bylaws provide for action by our shareholders without a meeting with the written consent of shareholders holding the number of shares necessary to approve such action if it were taken at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present. Our Bylaws also provide that shareholder action can be taken at an annual meeting of the shareholders or at a special meeting which may be called, for any purpose or purposes, by the Chief Executive Officer or the Board of Directors and must be called by the Chief Executive Officer or the Secretary if the holders of not less than ten percent or more of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at such special meeting sign, date and deliver to the Secretary one or more written demands for a special meeting, describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Our Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and of Florida Law

Our Restated and Amended Articles of Incorporation require that certain mergers or consolidation of the Company with or into any other corporation, sales of substantially all of our assets, amendments to our Restated and Amended Articles of Incorporation and exchanges of our stock for stock of another corporation pursuant to a vote of shareholders be approved by a majority of all the shares of our common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. Thus, any person that controls at least one-half of any class of stock can block an attempt to merge or sell substantially all of our assets or defeat the approval of certain other transactions. The Company is subject to Section 607.0901 of the Florida Act, which provides that, subject to certain exceptions, an “affiliated transaction” must be approved by the holders of two-thirds of the voting shares other than those beneficially owned by an “interested shareholder.” The Company also is subject to Section 607.0902 of the Florida Act, which generally provides that shares of a public corporation acquired by any person that engages in a “control-share acquisition” that exceed certain thresholds will not possess any voting rights for the acquired shares unless such voting rights are approved by a majority of the outstanding shares of each class or series entitled to vote, voting together as a single class, as well as, in some circumstances, a majority of the outstanding shares of any series or class voting as a separate class, excluding all interested shares. These provisions may discourage attempts to acquire control of Tech Data.

Requirements for Advance Notification of Stockholder Nominations and Proposals

Our Bylaws establish advance notice procedures with respect to stockholder proposals and the nomination of candidates for election as directors. Our Bylaws may have the effect of precluding the conduct of certain business at a meeting if the proper procedures are not followed. These provisions may also discourage or deter a potential acquirer from conducting a solicitation of proxies to elect the acquirer’s own slate of directors or otherwise attempting to obtain control of our company.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for the Company's common stock is Wells Fargo Shareowner Services Incorporated.

LEGAL MATTERS

Unless otherwise indicated in the applicable prospectus supplement, the validity of the shares of our common stock offered hereby will be passed upon for us by David R. Vetter, Executive Vice President, Chief Legal Officer. Mr. Vetter is a full time employee of ours and owns, and has the right to acquire, through the exercise of options or otherwise, shares of our common stock directly and as a participant in various employee benefit plans.

Item 15. Indemnification of Officers and Directors.

The Florida Act provides that, in general, a business corporation may indemnify any person who is or was a party to any proceeding (other than an action by, or in the right of, the corporation) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation, against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, provided certain standards are met, including that such officer or director acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and provided further that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, the officer or director had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In the case of proceedings by or in the right of the corporation, the Florida Act provides that, in general, a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party to any such proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation against expenses and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, provided that such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim as to which such person is adjudged liable unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity. To the extent that any officers or directors are successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any of the proceedings described above, the Florida Act provides that the corporation is required to indemnify such officers or directors against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith. However, the Florida Act further provides that, in general, indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any officer or director if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his or her actions, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute: (i) a violation of the criminal law, unless the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe it was unlawful; (ii) a transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit; (iii) in the case of a director, a circumstance under which the director has voted for or assented to a distribution made in violation of the Florida Act or the corporation's articles of incorporation; or (iv) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of a shareholder.

The Company's By Laws include the following provisions:

ARTICLE VI.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section A. GENERAL. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who is or was a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or other type of proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation), whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or otherwise, and whether formal or informal, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against judgments, amounts paid in settlement, penalties, fines (including an excise tax assessed with respect to any employee benefit plan) and expenses (including counsel fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any such action, suit or other proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any such action, suit or other proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that such person did not act in good faith and in a manner that he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section B. ACTIONS BY OR IN THE RIGHT OF THE CORPORATION. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who is or was a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or other type of proceeding (as further described in Section A of this Article VI) by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including counsel fees) and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the estimated expenses of litigating the action, suit or other proceeding to conclusion, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, suit or other proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made under this Section B in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such action, suit or other proceeding was brought, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for such expenses that such court shall deem proper.

Section C. OBLIGATION TO INDEMNIFY. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or other proceeding referred to in Section A or Section B of this Article VI, or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including counsel fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Section D. DETERMINATION THAT INDEMNIFICATION IS PROPER. Indemnification pursuant to Section A or Section B of this Article VI, unless made pursuant to a determination by a court, shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that the indemnification is proper in the circumstances because such person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section A or Section B of this Article VI. Such determination shall be made either (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action, suit or other proceeding to which the indemnification relates; (2) if such a quorum is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the Board of Directors (the designation being one in which directors who are parties may participate) consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to such action, suit or other proceeding; (3) by independent legal counsel (i) selected by the Board of Directors in accordance with the requirements of subsection (1) or by a committee designated under subsection (2) or (ii) if a quorum of the directors cannot be obtained and a committee cannot be designated, selected by majority vote of the full Board of Directors (the vote being one in which directors who are parties may participate); or (4) by the shareholders by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of shareholders who were not parties to such action, suit or other proceeding or, if no such quorum is obtainable, by a majority vote of shareholders who were not parties to such action, suit or other proceeding.

Section E. EVALUATION AND AUTHORIZATION. Evaluation of the reasonableness of expenses and authorization of indemnification shall be made in the same manner as is prescribed in Section D of this Article VI for the determination that indemnification is permissible; provided, however, that if the determination as to whether indemnification is permissible is made by independent legal counsel, the persons who selected such independent legal counsel shall be responsible for evaluating the reasonableness of expenses and may authorize indemnification.

Section F. PREPAYMENT OF EXPENSES. Expenses (including counsel fees) incurred by a director or officer in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or other proceeding referred to in Section A or Section B of this Article VI shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if such person is ultimately found not to be entitled to indemnification by the Corporation pursuant to this Article VI. Expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be paid in advance upon such terms and conditions that the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

Section G. NONEXCLUSIVITY AND LIMITATIONS. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided pursuant to this Article VI shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person may be entitled under any law, by law, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in any other capacity while holding such office. In all cases not specifically provided for in this Article VI, indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any director, officer, employee or agent if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that such person's actions, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute (1) a violation of the criminal law, unless the director, officer, employee or agent had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; (2) a transaction from which the director, officer, employee or agent derived an improper personal benefit; (3) in the case of a director, a circumstance under which liability for unlawful distributions is applicable; (4) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the Corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of a Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of a shareholder; or (5) to the extent that such indemnification or advancement of expenses is expressly prohibited by law.

Section H. CONTINUATION OF INDEMNIFICATION RIGHT. Unless expressly otherwise provided when authorized or ratified by this Corporation, indemnification and advancement of expenses as provided for in this Article VI shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person. For purposes of this Article VI, the term "corporation" includes, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of a constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, is in the same position under this Article VI with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as such person would have been with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

Section I. INSURANCE. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or who is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against the liability under Section A or Section B of this Article VI.

Item 16. Exhibits.

The Exhibit Index filed herewith and appearing immediately before the exhibits hereto is incorporated by reference in this Item 16.

Item 17. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of the securities offered (if the total dollar value of the securities offered would not exceed

(ii) that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after

(ii) effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of the securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report, pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers or controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
