CASH AMERICA INTERNATIONAL, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Unaudited)

1. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include all of the accounts of Cash America International, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company”). All significant intercompany accounts and transactions other than those related to Enova International, Inc. (“Enova”), which previously comprised the Company’s e-commerce segment (as discussed further below), have been eliminated in consolidation. Upon completion of the distribution of approximately 80% of the outstanding shares of Enova common stock to the Company’s shareholders on November 13, 2014 (“Enova Spin-off”), the Company reclassified Enova’s financial results to discontinued operations in the Company’s consolidated financial statements as of March 31, 2014 and for the three months ended March 31, 2014. Intercompany accounts and transactions related to Enova are presented separately between the Company’s continuing and discontinued operations. These accounts and transactions were previously eliminated in the Company’s consolidated financial statements. This presentation detail is included in the financial statements due to the significance of these accounts and transactions. The specific elements are reflected in “Note receivable,” “Interest income,” “Interest income from note receivable,” and “Proceeds from note receivable” in the Company’s consolidated financial statements. These reclassifications had no impact on consolidated results previously reported. See Note 2 for further discussion of discontinued operations.

The financial statements presented as of March 31, 2015 and 2014 and December 31, 2014 and for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 are unaudited but, in management’s opinion, include all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair statement of the results for such interim periods. The year-end consolidated balance sheet data was derived from audited financial statements, but does not include all disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America (“GAAP”). Operating results for the three-month period are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full fiscal year.

The Company has one reportable operating segment, which consists of the Company’s continuing operations. The Company’s primary line of business is pawn lending. A related activity of the pawn lending operations is the disposition of collateral from forfeited pawn loans and the liquidation of a smaller volume of merchandise purchased directly from customers or from third parties. Another component of the Company’s business is originating, arranging, guaranteeing or purchasing consumer loans in some of its locations. The Company also offers ancillary products and services through some of its Company-owned lending locations including check cashing, money orders, wire transfers, prepaid debit cards and auto insurance. Most of these ancillary products and services offered are provided through third-party vendors. In addition, the Company’s franchised check cashing business offers check cashing services through its franchised check cashing centers. Because the Company has only one reportable segment, all required financial segment information can be found directly in the consolidated financial statements. The Company evaluates the performance of its reportable segment based on income from operations.

These financial statements and related notes should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014.

Goodwill and Other Indefinite Lived Intangible Assets

Goodwill represents the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired in each business combination. In accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 350-20-35, Goodwill—Subsequent Measurement, the Company tests goodwill and intangible assets with an indefinite life for potential impairment annually as of June 30 and between annual tests if an event occurs or circumstances change that would more likely than not reduce the fair value of a reporting unit below its carrying amount, which would result in impairment.

The Company is considered to be at risk for a future impairment of its goodwill in the event of a decline in general economic, market or business conditions or any significant unfavorable changes in the Company's forecasted revenue, expenses, cash flows, weighted-average cost of capital and/or market transaction multiples. Any of these factors could represent a potential triggering event that would indicate an impairment review should be performed. As of December 31, 2014, the excess fair value over carrying value was approximately 3%, and there were no changes in the factors described above for the three months ended March 31, 2015 that would significantly impact the fair value of the Company and suggest an impairment review should be performed. The Company will continue to monitor for events and circumstances that could negatively impact the key assumptions in determining its fair value.

Accounting Standards to be Adopted in Future Periods

In April 2015, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2015-05, Intangibles—Goodwill and Other—Internal-Use Software (Subtopic 350-40): Customer's Accounting for Fees Paid in a Cloud Computing Arrangement ("ASU 2015-05"), which defines specific criteria that entities must apply to determine if a cloud computing arrangement includes an in-substance software license. The result of the assessment will direct the entity to apply either software licensing or service contract guidance to record the related fees. ASU 2015-05 is effective for annual periods, including interim periods within those annual periods, beginning after December 15, 2015 and can be prospectively or retrospectively applied. Early adoption is permitted. The Company does not expect that the adoption of ASU 2015-05 will have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

In April 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-03, Interest—Imputation of Interest (Subtopic 835-30): Simplifying the Presentation of Debt Issuance Costs ("ASU 2015-03"), which requires that debt issuance costs related to a recognized debt liability be presented in the balance sheet as a direct deduction from the carrying amount of the related debt liability, consistent with debt discounts. ASU 2015-03 applies to all business entities and is effective for public business entities for annual periods, and interim periods within those annual periods, beginning after December 15, 2015. Early adoption is permitted. The Company does not expect that the adoption of ASU 2015-03 will have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

In February 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-02, Consolidation (Topic 810): Amendments to the Consolidation Analysis ("ASU 2015-02"), which provides guidance for reporting entities that are required to evaluate whether they should consolidate certain legal entities. In accordance with ASU 2015-02, all legal entities are subject to reevaluation under the revised consolidation model. ASU 2015-02 is effective for public business entities for annual periods, and interim periods within those annual periods, beginning after December 15, 2015. Early adoption is permitted. The Company does not expect that the adoption of ASU 2015-02 will have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

In January 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-01, Income Statement—Extraordinary and Unusual Items (Subtopic 225-20): Simplifying Income Statement Presentation by Eliminating the Concept of Extraordinary Items (“ASU 2015-01”), which eliminates from GAAP the concept of extraordinary items. While ASU 2015-01 eliminates the requirements for reporting entities to consider whether an underlying event or transaction is extraordinary, the presentation and disclosure guidance for items that are unusual in nature or occur infrequently will be retained and will be expanded to include items that are both unusual in nature and occur infrequently. ASU 2015-01 is effective for annual periods, and interim periods within those annual periods, beginning after December 15, 2015. Early adoption is permitted. The Company does not expect that the adoption of ASU 2015-01 will have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

In August 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-15, Presentation of Financial Statements—Going Concern (Subtopic 205-40): Disclosure of Uncertainties about an Entity’s Ability to Continue as a Going Concern (“ASU 2014-15”), which requires management to evaluate, in connection with financial statement preparation for each annual and interim reporting period, whether there are conditions or events that raise substantial doubt about the entity’s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date the financial statements are issued, and to provide related disclosures. ASU 2014-15 applies to all entities and is effective for annual periods ending after December 15, 2016, and interim periods thereafter. Early adoption is permitted. The Company does not expect that the adoption of ASU 2014-15 will have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606) Section A—Summary and Amendments That Create Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606) and Other Assets and Deferred Costs—Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 340-40) (“ASU 2014-09”), which supersedes the revenue recognition requirements in ASC 605. ASU 2014-09 requires entities to recognize revenue in a way that depicts the transfer of goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. ASU 2014-09 requires additional disclosure about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from customer contracts, including significant judgments and changes in judgments and assets recognized from costs incurred to obtain or fulfill a contract. ASU 2014-09 is effective retrospectively for fiscal years, and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2016. Early adoption is not permitted. The Company is still assessing the potential impact of ASU 2014-09 on its consolidated financial statements.

2. Discontinued Operations

On November 13, 2014, the Company completed the Enova Spin-off as part of the Company’s strategy to focus on its core pawn operations business, and consequently, the net assets, operating results, and cash flows of the Company’s previously-held Enova business are presented separately as discontinued operations for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and as of March 31, 2014.

Enova is now a stand-alone public company that separately reports its financial results. Due to differences between the basis of presentation for discontinued operations and the basis of presentation as a stand-alone company, the financial results of Enova included within discontinued operations for the Company may not be indicative of actual financial results of Enova as a stand-alone company.

3. Credit Quality Information on Pawn Loans

In its pawn loan portfolio, the Company monitors the type and adequacy of collateral compared to historical forfeiture rates, average loan amounts and gross profit margins, among other factors. If a pawn loan defaults, the Company relies on the disposition of pawned property to recover the principal amount of an unpaid pawn loan, plus a yield on the investment, because the Company's pawn loans are non-recourse against the customer. In addition, the customer's creditworthiness does not affect the Company's financial position or results of operations. Generally, forfeited merchandise has historically sold for an amount in excess of the carrying value of the merchandise. Goods pledged to secure pawn loans are tangible personal property items such as jewelry, tools, televisions and other electronics, musical instruments and other miscellaneous items.

A pawn loan is considered delinquent if the customer does not repay or, where allowed by law, renew or extend the loan on or prior to its contractual maturity date plus any applicable grace period. Therefore, the balance of delinquent pawn loans within "Pawn loans" in the consolidated balance sheets represents loans that are in the process of being moved to merchandise held for disposition but have not yet been transferred. Pawn loan fees and service charges do not accrue on delinquent pawn loans. When a pawn loan is considered delinquent, any accrued pawn loan fees and service charges are reversed and no additional pawn loan fees and service charges are accrued. As of March 31, 2015 and 2014 and December 31, 2014, the Company had current pawn loans outstanding of $202.9 million, $210.6 million and $244.1 million, respectively, and delinquent pawn loans outstanding of $7.2 million, $7.5 million and $8.0 million, respectively.

4. Consumer Loans, Credit Quality Information on Consumer Loans, Allowance and Liability for Estimated Losses on Consumer Loans and Guarantees of Consumer Loans

Current and Delinquent Consumer Loans

The Company classifies its consumer loans as either current or delinquent. Short-term loans are considered delinquent when payment of an amount due is not made as of the due date. Installment loans are considered delinquent when a customer misses two payments. The Company allows for normal payment processing time before considering a loan delinquent but does not provide for any additional grace period.

The Company generally does not accrue interest on delinquent consumer loans. In addition, delinquent consumer loans generally may not be renewed, and if, during its attempt to collect on a delinquent consumer loan, the Company allows additional time for payment through a payment plan or a promise to pay, it is still considered delinquent. Generally, all payments received are first applied against accrued but unpaid interest and fees and then against the principal balance of the loan.

Allowance and Liability for Estimated Losses on Consumer Loans

The Company monitors the performance of its consumer loan portfolio and maintains either an allowance or liability for estimated losses on consumer loans (including fees and interest) at a level estimated to be adequate to absorb credit losses inherent in the portfolio. The allowance for losses on the Company's owned consumer loans reduces the outstanding loan balance in the consolidated balance sheets. The liability for estimated losses related to loans guaranteed under its credit services organization and credit access business programs ("CSO programs") is included in "Accounts payable and accrued expenses" in the consolidated balance sheets.

In determining the allowance or liability for estimated losses on consumer loans, the Company applies a documented systematic methodology. In calculating the allowance or liability for loan losses, outstanding loans are divided into discrete groups of short-term loans and installment loans and are analyzed as current or delinquent. Increases in either the allowance or the liability, net of charge-offs and recoveries, are recorded as a “Consumer loan loss provision” in the consolidated statements of income.

Table of Contents

The allowance or liability for short-term loans classified as current is based on historical loss rates adjusted for recent default trends for current loans. For delinquent short-term loans, the allowance or liability is based on a six-month rolling average of loss rates by stage of collection. For installment loans, the Company generally uses a migration analysis to estimate losses inherent in the portfolio. The allowance or liability calculation under the migration analysis is based on historical charge-off experience and the loss emergence period, which represents the average amount of time between the first occurrence of a loss event to the charge-off of a loan. The factors the Company considers to assess the adequacy of the allowance or liability include past due performance, historical behavior of monthly vintages, underwriting changes and recent trends in delinquency in the migration analysis.

The Company fully reserves and generally charges off consumer loans once the loan has been classified as delinquent for 60 days. If a loan is estimated to be uncollectible before it is fully reserved, it is charged off at that point. Consumer loans classified as delinquent generally have an age of one to 59 days from the date the loan became delinquent, as defined above. Recoveries on loans previously charged to the allowance are credited to the allowance when collected.

The components of Company-owned consumer loan portfolio receivables as of March 31, 2015 and 2014 and December 31, 2014 were as follows (dollars in thousands):

Guarantees of Consumer Loans

In connection with its CSO programs, the Company guarantees consumer loan payment obligations to unrelated third-party lenders for short-term loans, unsecured installment loans and installment loans that are secured by a customer's vehicle. The guarantee represents an obligation to purchase specific loans that go into default. Short-term loans that the Company guarantees generally have terms of less than 90 days. Unsecured installment loans that the Company guarantees generally have terms of up to twelve months. Secured installment loans that the Company guarantees have terms of up to 48 months. As of March 31, 2015 and 2014 and December 31, 2014, the amount of consumer loans guaranteed by the Company was $16.2 million, $12.5 million and $9.8 million, respectively, representing amounts due under consumer loans originated by third-party lenders under the CSO programs. The liability for estimated losses on consumer loans guaranteed by the Company of $1.2 million, $1.3 million and $1.1 million, as of March 31, 2015 and 2014 and December 31, 2014, respectively, is included in "Accounts payable and accrued expenses" in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

5. Investment in Enova

Upon completion of the Enova Spin-off, the Company retained approximately 20 percent, or 6,596,927 shares of Enova common stock, and the Company has agreed, pursuant to a private letter ruling it obtained in connection with the Enova Spin-off, to dispose of its retained shares of Enova common stock (other than the shares retained for delivery under the Company's long-term incentive plans as described below) no later than two years after the distribution. The Company has allocated approximately two percent of its retained shares for delivery under long-term incentive plans that existed prior to the Enova Spin-off, making the Company's residual ownership in Enova approximately 18 percent as of March 31, 2015. See table below for additional information.

All of the retained shares of Enova common stock (including shares retained for delivery under the Company's long-term incentive plans as described below) are classified as "available-for-sale securities" in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 320, Investments-Debt and Equity Securities ("ASC 320"). The Company does not have the ability to significantly influence the strategy or the operating or financial policies of Enova. The Company does not share employees or management with Enova and does not participate in any policy-making process of Enova. The Company does not have the right to vote on matters put before Enova stockholders as it has granted Enova a proxy to vote its shares in the same proportion as the other stockholders of Enova on all such matters. The Company has agreed to divest its ownership in Enova in a short period of time (as described above). While the Company's Chief Executive Officer serves as one of seven members of Enova's Board of Directors, he does not serve on any committees of Enova's Board of Directors, and the Company is not able to influence his future election to Enova's Board of Directors because it does not have voting power with respect to the shares of Enova that it owns. Other than routine, arms-length transitional services, the Company does not have any business relationships or inter-company dealings with Enova.

The retained shares of Enova common stock include a portion of shares of Enova common stock that may be delivered by the Company to holders of certain outstanding unvested restricted stock units ("RSUs"), vested deferred RSUs, and unvested deferred RSUs that were granted by the Company to certain of its officers, directors and employees, as well as shares that are deliverable to certain directors who have elected to defer a portion of their director fees to be paid in the form of common stock of the Company ("Director Deferred Shares"), if such equity awards and Director Deferred Shares were outstanding under the Company's long-term incentive plans on the date of the Enova Spin-off.

Such RSU awards and Director Deferred Shares will be payable by the Company in both shares of Company common stock and Enova common stock, subject to the terms of the Company's long-term incentive plans and the applicable award agreement. The delivery of the Enova shares of common stock will occur periodically based on the vesting terms of the award agreements. In the event the award does not vest, the Enova shares will be retained by the Company and sold.

As of March 31, 2015, the Company's cost basis in its investment in Enova common stock was $19.9 million, and an unrealized gain of $96.4 million was included in "Accumulated other comprehensive income." For the three months ended March 31, 2015, the Company recognized a gain of approximately $0.1 million for the disposition of Enova Common stock as a result of the issuance of shares under RSU awards. The Company's investment in Enova common stock is included in "Investment in equity securities" in the consolidated balance sheets. Activity during the three months ended March 31, 2015 for the Enova shares retained by the Company is shown below (shares in ones):

Domestic and Multi-Currency Line

The Company and its domestic subsidiaries as guarantors have a credit agreement with a syndicate of financial institutions as lenders that was entered into on March 30, 2011 and later amended (the "Credit Agreement"). The Credit Agreement provides for a domestic and multi-currency line of credit in an aggregate principal amount of up to $280.0 million permitting revolving credit loans, including a multi-currency subfacility that gives the Company the ability to borrow up to $50.0 million that may be in specified foreign currencies, subject to the terms and conditions of the Credit Agreement (the "Domestic and Multi-currency Line of Credit"). The Credit Agreement contains an accordion feature whereby the revolving line of credit may be increased up to an additional $100.0 million with the consent of any increasing lenders.

Interest on the Domestic and Multi-currency Line of Credit is charged, at the Company's option, at either the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") for one week or one-, two-, three- or six-month periods, as selected by the Company, plus a margin varying from 2.00% to 3.25% or at the agent's base rate plus a margin varying from 0.50% to 1.75%. The margin for the Domestic and Multi-currency Line of Credit is dependent on the Company's cash flow leverage ratios as defined in the Credit Agreement. The Company also pays a fee on the unused portion of the Domestic and Multi-currency Line of Credit ranging from 0.25% to 0.50% (0.38% as of March 31, 2015) based on the Company's cash flow leverage ratios.

As of March 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014, the Company had no borrowings outstanding under the Domestic and Multi-currency Line of Credit. As of March 31, 2014, borrowings under the Company's Domestic and Multi-currency Line of Credit consisted of three pricing tranches with maturity dates ranging from one to 30 days. The weighted average interest rate (including margin) on the Domestic and Multi-currency Line of Credit was 3.20% as of March 31, 2014. The Company routinely refinances such borrowings pursuant to the terms of its Domestic and Multi-currency Line of Credit. Therefore, these borrowings are considered part of the applicable line of credit and as long-term debt.

Letter of Credit Facility

When the Company entered into the Credit Agreement, it also entered into a Standby Letter of Credit Agreement (the "LC Agreement") for the issuance of up to $20.0 million in letters of credit (the "Letter of Credit Facility") that is guaranteed by the Company's domestic subsidiaries and matures on March 31, 2018. In the event that an amount is paid by the issuing bank under a stand-by letter of credit, it will be due and payable by the Company on demand, and amounts due by the Company under the LC Agreement will bear interest annually at a rate that is the lesser of (a) 2% above the prime rate for Wells Fargo Bank, National Association or (b) the maximum rate of interest permissible under applicable laws. The LC Agreement also requires the Company to pay quarterly fees equal to the applicable margin set forth in the LC Agreement on the undrawn amount of the credit outstanding. The Company had standby letters of credit of $9.5 million under its Letter of Credit Facility as of March 31, 2015.

$300.0 million 5.75% Senior Unsecured Notes

On May 15, 2013, the Company issued and sold $300.0 million in aggregate principal amount of 5.75% senior notes due 2018 (the "2018 Senior Notes"). The 2018 Senior Notes bear interest at a rate of 5.75% annually on the principal amount, payable semi-annually in arrears on May 15 and November 15 of each year, beginning on November 15, 2013. The 2018 Senior Notes will mature on May 15, 2018. The 2018 Senior Notes were sold to qualified institutional buyers in accordance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act, and outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act. As required by a registration rights agreement that the Company entered into with the initial purchasers when the 2018 Senior Notes were issued, the Company completed an exchange offer with respect to the 2018 Senior Notes in January 2014. All of the unregistered 2018 Senior Notes have been exchanged for identical new notes registered under the Securities Act.

The 2018 Senior Notes are senior unsecured debt obligations of the Company and are guaranteed by all of the Company's subsidiaries (the "Guarantors"). The Guarantors have guaranteed fully and unconditionally, on a joint and several basis, the obligations to pay principal and interest for the 2018 Senior Notes. As of March 31, 2015, Cash America International, Inc., on a stand-alone unconsolidated basis (the "Parent Company"), had no independent assets or operations. As of March 31, 2015, the Guarantors represent all of the subsidiaries of the Company, and all of the Guarantors were 100% owned by the Company. The domestic Guarantors under the 2018 Senior Notes are also guarantors under the Credit Agreement. The 2018 Senior Notes Indenture provides that if any of the Guarantors is released from its guarantees of the Company's borrowings and obligations under the Credit Agreement, that Guarantor's guaranty of the 2018 Senior Notes will also be released.

The 2018 Senior Notes are redeemable at the Company's option, in whole or in part, at any time at 100% of the aggregate principal amount of 2018 Senior Notes redeemed plus the applicable "make whole" redemption price specified in the 2018 Senior Notes Indenture, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the redemption date. In addition, if a change of control occurs, as that term is defined in the 2018 Senior Notes Indenture, the holders of 2018 Senior Notes will have the right, subject to certain conditions, to require the Company to repurchase their 2018 Senior Notes at a purchase price equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of 2018 Senior Notes repurchased plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, as of the date of repurchase.

As of March 31, 2015, the outstanding balance of the 2018 Senior Notes was $196.5 million, compared to $300.0 million as of March 31, 2014. In the third quarter of 2014, the Company repurchased $103.5 million aggregate principal amount of the 2018 Senior Notes for aggregate cash consideration of $107.2 million plus accrued interest.

Debt Agreement Compliance

The debt agreements for the Domestic and Multi-currency Line of Credit and the 2018 Senior Notes require the Company to maintain certain financial ratios. As of March 31, 2015, the Company believes it was in compliance with all covenants or other requirements set forth in the debt agreements.

8. Net Income Per Share

Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share is calculated by giving effect to the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common shares were exercised and converted into common shares during the period. When a net loss exists, all potentially dilutive securities are anti-dilutive and are therefore excluded from the diluted per-share computation.

RSUs issued under the Company's stock-based employee compensation plans are included in diluted shares from the grant date of the award. The dilutive effect of performance-based RSU awards is adjusted at each balance sheet date throughout the requisite service period based on the level of performance that management estimates is the most probable at that date.

The following table sets forth the reconciliation of numerators and denominators of basic and diluted net income per share computations for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 (dollars and shares in thousands, except per share amounts):

On May 15, 2014, the Company called its outstanding 5.25% Convertible Senior Notes due May 15, 2029 that were issued and sold by the Company on May 19, 2009 (the "2029 Convertible Notes"), and the noteholders elected to convert such notes. The Company settled the principal portion of the outstanding 2029 Convertible Notes in cash and issued 747,085 of the Company's common shares related to the conversion spread. Prior to the repayment of the 2029 Convertible Notes, only the shares related to the conversion spread were included in weighted average diluted shares, because the Company intended to pay the principal portion of the notes in cash.

10. Fair Value Measurements

Recurring Fair Value Measurements

In accordance with ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures ("ASC 820"), certain of the Company's assets and liabilities, which are carried at fair value, are classified in one of the following three categories:

Level 1: Quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Observable market-based inputs or unobservable inputs that are corroborated by market data.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs that are not corroborated by market data.

The Company's financial assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of March 31, 2015 and 2014 and December 31, 2014 are as follows (dollars in thousands):

Nonqualified Savings Plan-related assets and Deferred Director Shares have an offsetting liability of equal amount, which is included in “Accounts payable and accrued expenses” in the consolidated balance sheets. The Nonqualified Savings Plan-related assets include marketable equity securities, which are classified as Level 1 and based on net asset values. As of March 31, 2015, as a result of the Enova Spin-off, the portion of the Deferred Director Shares measured at fair value represented shares of Enova common stock. As of March 31, 2015, the Company’s investment in equity securities represents the Company’s available-for-sale shares of Enova common stock that it retained in connection with the Enova Spin-off. See Note 5. The equity securities representing Enova stock, both those included in Deferred Director Shares and investment in equity securities in the table above, are classified as Level 2, as they were not yet registered securities with the SEC as of that date, and accordingly, were not carried at the fair value of the quoted Enova stock prices. The Company valued these shares using the market determined stock price of Enova, less an adjustment factor due to the unregistered nature of the shares.

During the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014, there were no transfers of assets in or out of Level 1 or Level 2 fair value measurements.

Fair Value Measurements on a Non-Recurring Basis

The Company measures non-financial assets and liabilities such as property and equipment and intangible assets at fair value on a nonrecurring basis or when events or circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the assets may be impaired.

Financial Assets and Liabilities Not Measured at Fair Value

The Company’s financial assets and liabilities as of March 31, 2015 and 2014 and December 31, 2014 that are not measured at fair value in the consolidated balance sheets are as follows (dollars in thousands):

Pawn loans generally have maturity periods of less than 90 days. Because of this short maturity period, the carrying value of pawn loans approximates the fair value of these loans.

Short-term loans and installment loans, collectively, represent “Consumer loans, net” on the consolidated balance sheet and are carried net of the allowance for estimated loan losses, which is calculated by applying historical loss rates combined with recent default trends to the gross consumer loan balance. The unobservable inputs used to calculate the fair value of these loans include historical loss rates, recent default trends and estimated remaining loan terms; therefore, the carrying value approximates the fair value.

Pawn loan fees and service charges revenue and the related pawn loan fees and service charges receivable is accrued ratably over the term of the loan for the portion of those pawn loans estimated to be collectible. The Company uses historical performance data to determine the collectability of pawn loan fees and service charges receivable. Additionally, pawn loan fee and service charge rates are determined by regulations and bear no valuation relationship to the capital markets' interest rate movements. Therefore, the carrying value approximates the fair value.

In connection with its CSO programs, the Company guarantees consumer loan payment obligations to unrelated third-party lenders for short-term loans, unsecured installment loans and installment loans secured by the customer's vehicle and is required to purchase any defaulted loans it has guaranteed. The Company measures the fair value of its liability for third-party lender-owned consumer loans under Level 3 inputs. The fair value of these liabilities is calculated by applying historical loss rates combined with recent default trends to the gross consumer loan balance. The unobservable inputs used to calculate the fair value of these loans include historical loss rates, recent default trends and estimated remaining loan terms; therefore, the carrying value of these liabilities approximate the fair value.

The Company measures the fair value of long-term debt instruments using Level 2 inputs. The fair values of the Company's long-term debt instruments are estimated based on market values for debt issues with similar characteristics or rates currently available for debt with similar terms. As of March 31, 2015, the 2018 Senior Notes had a higher fair market value than the carrying value due to the difference in yield when compared to recent issuances of similar senior unsecured notes.

11. Reorganization Expenses

In the third quarter of 2014, the Company initiated a reorganization to better align the corporate and operating cost structure with its remaining storefront operations after the Enova Spin-off (the "Reorganization"). The Reorganization continued through the first quarter of 2015. In connection with the Reorganization, the Company has recognized aggregate expenses of $8.4 million for severance and other employee-related costs, of which $0.9 million was recognized as expense during the three months ended March 31, 2015 and is included in "Operations and administration" in the consolidated statements of income. As of March 31, 2015, the Company had made payments of approximately $5.9 million for the Reorganization and had accrued approximately $2.5 million for future payments. Accrued amounts for the Reorganization are included in "Accounts payable and accrued expenses" in the consolidated balance sheets.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS.

The following discussion of financial condition, results of operations, liquidity, capital resources and certain factors that may affect future results of Cash America International, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the "Company") should be read in conjunction with the Company's consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes included under Item 1 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, as well as with the Company's consolidated financial statements, accompanying notes and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014.

GENERAL

The Company provides specialty financial services to individuals through its storefront lending locations and franchised check cashing centers. The Company has one reportable operating segment through which it offers all of its products and services, as described below.

Pawn Lending

The Company offers secured non-recourse loans, commonly referred to as pawn loans, as its primary line of business. Pawn loans are short-term loans made on the pledge of tangible personal property. Pawn loan fees and service charges are generated from the Company's pawn loan portfolio. In relation to the pawn lending operations, the Company also disposes of collateral from forfeited pawn loans and liquidates a smaller volume of merchandise purchased directly from customers or from third parties. The Company previously offered pawn loans in Mexico, but the Company sold its Mexico-based pawn operations in August 2014.

Consumer Loan Activities

Another component of the Company's business is originating, arranging, guaranteeing or purchasing consumer loans in some of its locations. Consumer loans provide customers with cash, typically in exchange for an obligation to repay the amount advanced plus fees and any applicable interest. Consumer loans include short-term loans (commonly referred to as payday loans) and installment loans.

Short-term consumer loans include unsecured short-term loans written by the Company or by a third-party lender through the Company's credit services organization and credit access business programs ("CSO programs") that the Company guarantees. Installment consumer loans are longer-term, multi-payment loans that generally require the pay-down of the outstanding principal balance in multiple installments. Installment loans include unsecured loans and loans secured by a customer's vehicle and can be written by the Company or by a third-party lender through the CSO programs that the Company guarantees.

Through the Company's CSO programs, the Company provides services related to a third-party lender's consumer loan products in some markets by acting as a credit services organization or credit access business on behalf of consumers in accordance with applicable state laws. Services offered under the CSO programs include credit-related services such as arranging loans with independent third-party lenders ("CSO loans"). Under the CSO programs, the Company guarantees consumer loan payment obligations to the third-party lender in the event that the customer defaults on the loan. CSO loans are not included in the Company's consolidated financial statements, but the Company has established a liability for the estimated losses in support of the guarantee on these loans in its consolidated balance sheets. In the event that the customer defaults on a CSO loan, the Company purchases the specific loan, and the outstanding loan balance and related allowance for estimated losses is then included in “Consumer loans, net” in the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

Check Cashing and Other Financial Services

Another small component of the Company's business includes the offering of check cashing and other ancillary products and services through some of its Company-owned lending locations. The ancillary products and services include money orders, wire transfers, prepaid debit cards and auto insurance. Most of these ancillary products and services offered are provided through third-party vendors. In addition, the Company's franchised check cashing business offers check cashing services through its franchised check cashing centers.

Enova Spin-off

On November 13, 2014, the Company completed the distribution of approximately 80% of the outstanding shares of Enova International, Inc. ("Enova") common stock to the Company's shareholders (the "Enova Spin-off"). Enova previously comprised the Company's e-commerce segment. Upon completion of the Enova Spin-off, the Company reclassified the financial results of Enova to discontinued operations in the Company's consolidated financial statements as of March 31, 2014 and for the three months ended March 31, 2014.

Unless stated otherwise, the discussion of the Company's business and financial information throughout this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q refers to the Company's continuing operations and results from continuing operations.

Locations

The following table sets forth the number of locations through which the Company offered pawn lending, consumer lending, and other services and franchised locations offering check cashing services as of March 31, 2015 and 2014. The Company provides these services in the United States primarily under the names "Cash America Pawn," "SuperPawn," "Cash America Payday Advance," "Cashland" and "Mr. Payroll." As of March 31, 2014, these locations also included 47 Mexico-based, pawn-lending-only locations that were sold in August 2014. The Company's domestic pawn and consumer lending locations operated in 21 and 22 states in the United States as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. As of March 31, 2015 and 2014, the franchised check cashing centers operated in 12 and 14 states, respectively.

Recent Developments

Reorganization

In the third quarter of 2014, the Company initiated a reorganization to better align the corporate and operating cost structure with its remaining storefront operations after the Enova Spin-off (the "Reorganization"). The Reorganization continued through the first quarter of 2015. In connection with the Reorganization, the Company has recognized aggregate expenses of $8.4 million for severance and other employee-related costs, of which $0.9 million was recognized as expense during the three months ended March 31, 2015 and is included in "Operations and administration" in the consolidated statements of income. As of March 31, 2015, the Company had made payments of approximately $5.9 million for the Reorganization and had accrued approximately $2.5 million for future payments. Accrued amounts for the Reorganization are included in "Accounts payable and accrued expenses" in the consolidated balance sheets.

Store and Office Closures

In the first quarter of 2015, the Company closed 11 store locations, mostly due to the Company's continued de-emphasis of its consumer lending activities, and the Company also closed certain regional office locations in order to create administrative expense efficiencies in operating activities (collectively, the “Store and Office Closures”). In connection with the Store and Office Closures, the Company incurred $0.5 million in expenses, of which $0.3 million are included in “Operations and administration expenses” and $0.2 million are included in “Depreciation and amortization expenses” in the consolidated statement of income for the three months ended March 31, 2015. In addition, the Company sold one pawn lending location during the first quarter of 2015 and recognized a loss that was immaterial to its financial statements.

Consumer Financial Protection Bureau Considers Proposing New Rules

On March 26, 2015, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (“CFPB”) announced that it is considering proposing rules that would apply to payday loans, vehicle title loans and high-cost installment loans, among other consumer loans, that could impose certain limitations on these types of loans, such as requiring additional underwriting requirements, requiring cooling-off periods between certain loans, and requiring limitations to prevent the sustained use of certain loans, among other things. The CFPB has also indicated that the rules that are proposed could also modify certain collection practices with respect to these types of loans, in particular, providing additional restrictions on a lender’s ability to access a borrower’s account for payments. Except in certain limited circumstances, the Company’s pawn loan products would not be affected by these rules if the rules that are finally adopted are consistent with the proposals being considered by the CFPB. However, the Company’s consumer loan products and the portion of the Company’s pawn loans that are collateralized by a customer’s vehicle or the title thereto could be affected by such rules if the rules that are finally adopted are consistent with the proposals being considered by the CFPB. Consumer loans represented less than 8% of the Company’s total revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2015, and pawn loans collateralized by a customer’s vehicle or the title thereto represented an immaterial amount of the Company’s total revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2015. If the CFPB adopts any such rules or regulations, the Company’s revenue from these products could decline and the continuance of these products could become impractical or unprofitable. The Company does not currently know the extent of the rules the CFPB will adopt, but those rules could be proposed during 2015 or 2016 and, if adopted, would likely become effective in 2016 or 2017.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Except as described below, there have been no changes in critical accounting policies as described in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014.

Goodwill and Other Indefinite Lived Intangible Assets

Goodwill represents the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired in each business combination. In accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 350-20-35, Goodwill—Subsequent Measurement, the Company tests goodwill and intangible assets with an indefinite life for potential impairment annually as of June 30 and between annual tests if an event occurs or circumstances change that would more likely than not reduce the fair value of a reporting unit below its carrying amount, which would result in impairment.

The Company is considered to be at risk for a future impairment of its goodwill in the event of a decline in general economic, market or business conditions or any significant unfavorable changes in the Company's forecasted revenue, expenses, cash flows, weighted-average cost of capital and/or market transaction multiples. Any of these factors could represent a potential triggering event that would indicate an impairment review should be performed. As of December 31, 2014, the excess fair value over carrying value was approximately 3%, and there were no changes in the factors described above for the three months ended March 31, 2015 that would significantly impact the fair value of the Company and suggest an impairment review should be performed. The Company will continue to monitor for events and circumstances that could negatively impact the key assumptions in determining its fair value.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Highlights

Total revenue was $271.8 million, representing a decrease of $12.9 million, or 4.5%, for the current quarter compared to the prior year quarter. Net revenue decreased $5.4 million, or 3.5%, to $147.1 million for the current quarter compared to the prior year quarter.

Income from operations increased $2.3 million, or 16.7%, to $16.2 million in the current quarter compared to $13.9 million in the prior year quarter.

Net income from continuing operations was $7.8 million in the current quarter compared to $3.2 million in the prior year quarter. Diluted net income per share from continuing operations was $0.27 in the current quarter compared to $0.11 in the prior year quarter. Net income and net income per share from continuing operations were affected by certain expense items in the current quarter and prior year quarter. See "Overview—Non-GAAP Disclosure—Adjusted Earnings Measures" for additional information.

OVERVIEW

Net Revenue

Net revenue is composed of total revenue less the cost of disposed merchandise and the consumer loan loss provision. Net revenue is the income available to satisfy all remaining expenses and is the measure management uses to evaluate top-line performance.

The following table shows the components of net revenue for the Company's domestic operations for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 (dollars in thousands):

	Three Months Ended March 31,		2014 ^(a)
	2015	% of	Amount	% of

^(a) Excludes amounts related to the Company's Mexico-based pawn operations, which were sold in August 2014. For the three months ended

March 31, 2014, Mexico-based pawn operations had pawn loan fees and service charges of $1,720, proceeds from disposition of merchandise, net of cost of disposed merchandise, of $979, pawn-related net revenue of $2,699, other revenue of $85 and net revenue of $2,784.

For the current quarter, consolidated net revenue decreased $5.4 million, or 3.5%, compared to the prior year quarter. Excluding the Company's Mexico-based pawn operations, domestic net revenue decreased $2.6

million, or 1.7%, to $147.1 million from $149.7 million for the prior year quarter, almost entirely due to lower levels of consumer loan fees, net of the loss provision, mainly due to the Company's continued strategic reduction of its short-term consumer lending activities. In addition, same-store net revenue for pawn- and consumer loan-related activities decreased 1.2% for the current quarter compared to the prior year quarter.

Domestic pawn-related net revenue accounted for 88.1% and 86.4% of domestic net revenue for the current quarter and prior year quarter, respectively. Domestic pawn-related net revenue increased $0.3 million, or 0.2%, to $129.6 million during the current quarter from the prior year quarter. The increase was primarily attributable to higher gross profit on commercial sales, partially offset by lower gross profit on retail sales and lower pawn loan fees and service charges.

Consumer loan net revenue decreased $2.6 million, or 14.5%, to $15.5 million during the current quarter, almost entirely attributable to the Company's continued strategic reduction of its short-term consumer lending activities. Consumer loan net revenue accounted for 10.6% and 12.1% of domestic net revenue for the current quarter and prior year quarter, respectively.

Non-GAAP Disclosure

In addition to the financial information prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America ("GAAP"), the Company has provided certain non-GAAP measures in the tables below, including (i) adjusted net income from continuing operations, adjusted diluted net income per share from continuing operations, adjusted earnings from continuing operations and adjusted earnings per share from continuing operations (collectively, the "Adjusted Earnings Measures"), and (ii) adjusted EBITDA, which the Company defines as earnings excluding depreciation, amortization, interest, foreign currency transaction gains or losses, loss on early extinguishment of debt, equity in earnings or loss of unconsolidated subsidiary, gain on sale of equity securities, taxes and including the net income or loss attributable to noncontrolling interests.

Management believes that the presentation of these measures provides users of the financial statements with greater transparency and facilitates a more meaningful ability to compare operating results across a broad spectrum of companies with varying capital structures, compensation strategies, derivative instruments and amortization methods. In addition, management believes this information provides a more in-depth and complete view of the Company's financial performance, competitive position and prospects for the future and may highlight trends in the Company's business that may not otherwise be apparent when relying on financial measures calculated in accordance with GAAP. Management also believes that non-GAAP measures, including the Adjusted Earnings Measures and adjusted EBITDA, are frequently used by investors to analyze operating performance, evaluate the Company's ability to incur and service debt and its capacity for making capital investments, and to help assess the Company's estimated enterprise value.

Management has determined that the adjustments to the Adjusted Earnings Measures and adjusted EBITDA, as applicable, included in the tables below are useful to investors in order to allow them to compare the Company's financial results for the current quarter with the prior year quarter without the effect of the following items, which management believes are less frequent in nature:

- the Store and Office Closures;
- the Reorganization;
- the loss on significant strategic divestitures;
- the loss on early extinguishment of debt;

the charges related to the closure of 36 locations in Texas in 2013 that offered consumer loans as their primary source of revenue (the “Texas Consumer Loan Store Closures”);
the adjustments for a penalty paid to the CFPB in connection with the issuance of a consent order by the CFPB (the “Regulatory Penalty”);
the charges related to the Company’s significant litigation settlement in 2013 (the “2013 Litigation Settlement”);

an adjustment made in 2013 (the “Ohio Adjustment”) to decrease the Company’s remaining liability following an assessment of the claims made under a voluntary program initiated in 2012 to reimburse Ohio customers in connection with certain legal collections proceedings initiated by the Company in Ohio (the “Ohio Reimbursement Program”); and a recognized income tax benefit related to a tax deduction included on the Company’s federal income tax return for its tax basis in the stock of Creazione Estilo, S.A. de C.V., a Mexican sociedad anónima de capital variable (the “Creazione Deduction”).

Management believes the non-GAAP measures, including the adjustments described above, provide more information regarding the ongoing operating performance, provide more meaningful period-to-period comparisons of operating results, both internally and against operating results of competitors, enhance investors' understanding of the core operating results of the business and provide a more accurate indication of the Company’s ability to generate cash flows from operations. Therefore, management believes it important to clearly identify these measures for investors. Management provides non-GAAP financial information for informational purposes and to enhance understanding of the Company’s GAAP consolidated financial statements. Readers should consider the information in addition to, but not instead of or superior to, its financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP. This non-GAAP financial information may be determined or calculated differently by other companies, limiting the usefulness of those measures for comparative purposes.

QUARTER ENDED MARCH 31, 2015 COMPARED TO QUARTER ENDED MARCH 31, 2014

Pawn Lending Activities

The average balance of pawn loans outstanding decreased $11.2 million, or 4.6%, from the prior year quarter to the current quarter, partly due to a $4.7 million average balance outstanding decrease related to the sale of the Company's Mexico-based pawn operations in August 2014. Excluding pawn loan balances in the Company's Mexico-based pawn operations, the Company's average domestic pawn loan balances decreased $6.5 million, or 2.8%, to $229.9 million in the current quarter, compared to $236.4 million in the prior year quarter, primarily due to a decrease in the average pawn loan balance in same-store domestic pawn locations. Pawn loan balances at the beginning of the current quarter were below prior year levels and maintained this relationship throughout the current quarter. Same-store domestic pawn loan balances were 0.5% lower on March 31, 2015 compared to March 31, 2014.

Pawn loan fees and services charges decreased $2.9 million, or 3.6%, from the prior year quarter to the current quarter. Excluding the Company's Mexico-based pawn operations, domestic pawn loan fees and service charges decreased by $1.2 million, or 1.5%, from the prior year quarter to the current quarter. This decrease was primarily driven by lower average domestic pawn loan balances during the current quarter as compared to the prior year quarter, partially offset by a higher domestic pawn loan yield of 136.4% in the current quarter compared to 134.6% in the prior year quarter.

The following table sets forth selected data related to the Company's domestic pawn lending activities as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 (dollars in thousands except where otherwise noted).

March 31, 2014, Mexico-based pawn operations had pawn loan fees and service charges of $1,720, an ending pawn loan balance of $5,185, an average pawn loan balance outstanding of $4,670, pawn loans written and renewed of $12,986, an average amount per pawn loan of $87, and an annualized yield on pawn loans of 149.4%.

Merchandise Sales Activities

Proceeds from Disposition of Merchandise and Gross Profit

Profit from the disposition of merchandise represents the proceeds received from the disposition of merchandise in excess of the cost of disposed merchandise, which is generally the principal amount loaned on an item or the amount paid for purchased merchandise. Management separates proceeds from disposition of merchandise and gross profit on disposition of merchandise into two groups, retail sales and commercial sales. Retail sales include the sale of jewelry and general merchandise direct to consumers through the Company's locations or over the internet through auction and other similar sites. Commercial sales include the sale of refined gold, platinum, silver and diamonds to brokers or manufacturers.

Table of Contents

The following table summarizes the proceeds from the disposition of merchandise and the related profit for domestic pawn operations for the current quarter and the prior year quarter (dollars in thousands):

^(a) Excludes amounts related to the Company's Mexico-based pawn operations, which were sold in August 2014. For the three months ended March 31, 2014, Mexico-based pawn operations had proceeds from disposition of $4,285, gross profit on disposition of $979, and gross profit margin of 22.8%.

Proceeds from disposition decreased $4.2 million, or 2.4%, from the prior year quarter to the current quarter. Excluding the Company's Mexico-based pawn operations, proceeds from disposition for domestic pawn operations remained flat at $172.2 million for both the current quarter and the prior year quarter and reflected offsetting movement in the Company's retail and commercial activity. Retail proceeds from disposition increased $9.8 million, or 7.1%, as a result of the Company's emphasis on retail disposition of excess inventory, particularly general merchandise, following the holiday selling season. Offsetting this increase, commercial proceeds from disposition decreased $9.8 million, or 28.9%, as a result of the Company's continued emphasis on retail disposition in stores and efforts to place less reliance on the commercial disposition of merchandise. The move away from commercial disposition also contributed to the decrease in the Company's merchandise turnover ratio from 2.5 times in the prior year quarter to 2.3 times in the current quarter, as commercial dispositions typically have a higher turnover ratio.

Gross profit from disposition increased $0.4 million, or 0.8%, from the prior year quarter to the current quarter. Excluding the Company's Mexico-based pawn operations, gross profit on disposition for domestic pawn operations increased $1.4 million, or 2.8%, from the prior year quarter to the current quarter. The Company experienced an increase in total gross profit margin to 30.4% in the current quarter, compared to 29.6% in the prior year quarter. The increased total gross profit margin was due to a higher gross profit margin on commercial dispositions as a result of favorable gold and diamond yields, partially offset by a lower gross profit margin on retail sales, which declined mainly as a result of discounting prices on aged general merchandise items to enhance retail sales.

Table of Contents

The increased sales of aged general retail merchandise also contributed to a decreased percentage of merchandise held for more than one year compared to total merchandise held for disposition. The table below summarizes the age of merchandise held for disposition related to the Company's domestic pawn lending operations before valuation allowance of $2.4 million, $1.2 million and $2.4 million as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, and December 31, 2014, respectively (dollars in thousands):

^(a) Excludes amounts related to the Company's Mexico-based pawn operations, which were sold in August 2014. As of March 31, 2014, Mexico-based pawn operations had gross merchandise held for disposition of $5,154 and merchandise held for disposition, net of allowance, of $5,045.

The allowance for merchandise held for disposition for domestic operations was $2.4 million as of March 31, 2015, compared to $1.2 million as of March 31, 2014. While the allowance is $1.2 million higher than at the end of the prior year quarter, the allowance increase occurred during the second and third quarters of 2014 and has not changed since that time. The increased allowance is due to the increase in the mix of general merchandise to total merchandise held for disposition. General merchandise typically requires a slightly higher allowance than jewelry due to its higher risk of damage, theft or obsolescence over time.

Consumer Loan Activities

Combined Consumer Loans

In addition to reporting consumer loans owned by the Company and consumer loans guaranteed by the Company, which are either GAAP items or disclosures required by GAAP, the Company has provided combined consumer loans, which is a non-GAAP measure. In addition, the Company has reported consumer loans written and renewed, which is statistical data that is not included in the Company's financial statements. References throughout Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations to renewed consumer loans include both renewals and extensions made by customers to their existing loans in accordance with applicable laws.

Management believes these non-GAAP measures provide investors with important information needed to evaluate the magnitude of potential loan losses and the opportunity for revenue performance of the consumer loan portfolio on an aggregate basis. Management also believes that the comparison of the aggregate amounts from period to period is more meaningful than comparing only the amounts reflected on the Company's balance sheet since both revenue and the loss provision for consumer loans are impacted by the aggregate amount of consumer loans owned by the Company and those guaranteed by the Company as reflected in its financial statements.

Consumer Loan Fees

Consumer loan fees, net of loss provision, decreased $2.6 million, or 14.5%, to $15.5 million in the current quarter compared to the prior year quarter, primarily due to a $5.4 million, or 21.1%, decrease in consumer loan fees. The decrease in consumer loan fees was primarily due to the Company's continued strategic reduction of its short-term consumer lending activities, including the discontinuance of short-term consumer lending in 311 of the Company's locations in 2014 and nine of the Company's locations in the first three months of 2015. The impact of the 21.1% decrease in consumer loan fees was partially offset by improved portfolio performance in the remaining consumer loan locations, which contributed to lower loss provision expenses as a percentage of consumer loan fees.

The following table sets forth interest and fees on consumer loans, loan loss provision and consumer loan fees, net of the loss provision, for the current quarter and the prior year quarter (dollars in thousands):

Consumer Loan Loss Provision

The consumer loan loss provision decreased by $2.8 million, or 37.0%, in the current quarter compared to the prior year quarter. The loss provision as a percentage of consumer loan fees decreased to 23.6% in the current quarter compared to 29.5% in the prior year quarter, primarily due to an improvement in short-term loan portfolio performance, decreased charge-offs and increased collections in the current quarter compared to the prior year quarter.

Average Amount Outstanding Per Consumer Loan

The average amount outstanding per consumer loan is calculated as the total amount of combined consumer loans outstanding as of the end of the period divided by the total number of combined consumer loans outstanding as of the end of the period. The decrease in the average amount of installment loans outstanding from the prior year quarter to the current quarter was primarily due to the discontinuation during 2014 of one of the Company's installment loan products that typically carried higher average balances than other loans in the installment loan portfolio. The table below shows the average amount per consumer loan by product as of March 31, 2015 and 2014.

GAAP measure. The consumer loan balances guaranteed by the Company represent loans originated by third-party
(a) lenders through the CSO programs, so these balances are not recorded in the Company's financial statements.

However, the Company has established a liability for estimated losses in support of its guarantee of these loans, which is reflected in the table above and included in its consolidated balance sheets.

(b) Except for allowance and liability for estimated losses, amounts represent non-GAAP measures.

The allowance and liability for losses as a percentage of consumer loan balances, gross, increased to 8.7% as of March 31, 2015, compared to 8.2% as of March 31, 2014. This increase was primarily due to a higher mix of unsecured installment loans in the current quarter as compared to the prior year quarter, primarily due to the introduction of a new unsecured installment loan product in the third quarter of 2014.

Consumer Loan Information by Product

Management evaluates consumer loan loss rates for all of its consumer loan products to determine credit quality and evaluate trends. For short-term loans, the Company evaluates consumer loan losses as a percentage of combined consumer loans written and renewed. For installment loans, the Company evaluates consumer loan losses as a percentage of the combined ending consumer loan balance. The following tables provide additional information related to each of the Company's consumer loan products as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 (dollars in thousands). Operations expenses include expenses incurred for personnel, occupancy, marketing and other charges that are directly related to the Company's business. Operations expenses are incurred at the Company's storefront locations and the Company's call centers for customer service and collections. Administration expenses include expenses related to corporate service functions, such as legal, occupancy, executive oversight, insurance and risk management, public and government relations, internal audit, treasury, payroll, compliance and licensing, finance, accounting, tax and information systems. Beginning in the first quarter of 2015, costs related to management supervision of the Company's locations were reclassified from operations expense to administration expense to better align expenses with the Company's current operating structure. Amounts in all prior periods have been reclassified to conform to this current presentation. These reclassifications had no impact on total operations and administration expenses previously reported.

The table below shows additional detail of the operations and administration expenses for the Company for the current quarter and the prior year quarter (dollars in thousands):

	Three Months Ended March 31,			2014
	2015			2014
	Operations	Administration	Total	Operations	Administration	Total
Personnel	$55,926	$16,226	$72,152	$56,208	$19,683	$75,891
Occupancy	29,601	901	30,502	30,499	886	31,385
Other	9,115	4,569	13,684	10,587	5,556	16,143
Total	$94,642	$21,696	$116,338	$97,294	$26,125	$123,419

Operations and administration expenses decreased $7.1 million, or 5.7%, in the current quarter compared to the prior year quarter. This overall decline in expenses is consistent with management's strategy and related initiatives to decrease the Company's overall cost structure and improve marginal profitability.

Operations expenses were $94.6 million in the current quarter, a decrease of $2.7 million, or 2.7%, compared to the prior year quarter. Operations expenses decreased due to the effects of the Reorganization and the sale of the Company's Mexico-based operations. The decrease in operations expenses was partially offset by $0.3 million of expenses related to the Store and Office Closures in the current quarter.

Administration expenses were $21.7 million in the current quarter, a decrease of $4.4 million, or 17.0%, compared to the prior year quarter. Within administration expenses, personnel expenses decreased $3.5 million, or 17.6%, mainly as a result of a $3.6 million decrease primarily due to the Reorganization, as well as a $0.6 million decrease related to the sale of the Company's Mexico-based operations, partially offset by $0.7 million in Reorganization expenses in the current quarter. Other expenses decreased $1.0 million, or 17.8%, mostly due to decreased legal and travel expenses as a result of the Reorganization.

Depreciation and Amortization Expenses

Consolidated depreciation and amortization expenses decreased $0.6 million to $14.5 million for the current quarter compared to $15.1 million for the prior year quarter, primarily due to the sale of the Company's Mexico-based pawn operations in August 2014 and the Store and Office Closures.

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2015	2014	Change	% Change
Depreciation	$12,885	$13,502	$(617)	(4.6)%

Total	$14,519	$15,143	$(624)	(4.1)%

Interest Expense and Interest Income

The following table shows the Company's interest income and expense for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 (dollars in thousands):

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2015	2014	Change	% Change
Interest expense	$3,644	$10,068	$(6,424)	(63.8)%
Interest income	2	4,764	(4,762)	(100.0)%
Interest expense, net	$3,642	$5,304	$(1,662)	(31.3)%

Interest expense, net of interest income, decreased $1.7 million, or 31.3%, to $3.6 million in the current quarter as compared to $5.3 million in the prior year quarter. The Company's interest income in the prior year quarter related primarily to the Company's note receivable from Enova (the "Enova Note Receivable"). The Enova Note Receivable was repaid in full and terminated in May 2014, resulting in a decrease in interest income of $4.8 million in the current quarter from the prior year quarter. In addition, during the current quarter, interest expense decreased $6.4 million, primarily due to the payments made in connection with several of the Company's debt instruments in 2014. See Note 6 of the consolidated financial statements for additional information regarding the Company's debt instruments.

Income Taxes

The Company's effective tax rate was 38.5% in the current quarter as compared to the effective tax rate of 54.1% in the prior year quarter. The tax rate for the prior year quarter was negatively impacted by the allocation of tax, including tax on allocated overhead expenses, between continuing and discontinued operations based on expected full-year results of these entities. For the year ended December 31, 2014, the effective tax rate returned to more traditional levels, excluding other items that impact the effective tax rate calculation.

Net Income from Discontinued Operations

As a result of the Enova Spin-off, the financial results of Enova are presented as discontinued operations for the three months ended March 31, 2014. Net income from discontinued operations was $42.5 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014.

Cash Flows from Continuing Operating Activities

Net cash provided by continuing operating activities decreased $4.6 million, or 10.3%, from $44.4 million in the prior year quarter to $39.8 million in the current quarter. The decrease was primarily related to changes in operating assets and liabilities, partially offset by an increase in net income for the current quarter. The change in operating assets and liabilities was primarily due to changes in current and deferred income taxes, mainly due to an increase in taxes paid in the current quarter, offset by an increase in cash from accounts payable and accrued expenses as a result of a payment in the prior year quarter for the 2013 Litigation Settlement with no corresponding payment in the current quarter.

Management believes that its expected cash flows from operations and available cash balances and borrowings will be sufficient to fund the Company's operating liquidity needs.

Cash Flows from Continuing Investing Activities

Net cash provided by continuing investing activities decreased $44.6 million, or 45.0%, from $99.0 million in the prior year quarter to $54.4 million in the current quarter. The decrease was primarily due to the receipt of $55.3 million in proceeds for the Enova Note Receivable in the prior year quarter with no corresponding amount in the current quarter. This decrease was partially offset by a $3.0 million increase in cash provided by consumer loan activities as a result of decreased consumer loans written.

Table of Contents

In addition, expenditures for property and equipment decreased $7.2 million in the current quarter compared to the prior year quarter. Management anticipates that expenditures for property and equipment, excluding acquisitions of stores, for the remainder of 2015 will be between $15 million and $20 million, primarily for the remodeling of stores, facility upgrades and technology infrastructure. The Company has agreed, pursuant to a private letter ruling received from the Internal Revenue Service to dispose of its retained shares of Enova common stock (other than shares retained for delivery under the Company's long-term incentive plans) within two years following the Enova Spin-off, which will increase cash flows from continuing investing activities when sold.

Cash Flows from Continuing Financing Activities

Net cash flows used in continuing financing activities decreased by $115.5 million, from $142.7 million in the prior year quarter to $27.2 million in the current quarter. The decrease was mainly due to decreased debt payments in the current quarter compared to the prior year quarter of $140.2 million, which primarily consisted of $45.1 million in payments made under the Company's line of credit and $89.5 million in payments made to redeem the Company's $115.0 million aggregate principal amount of 5.25% Convertible Senior Notes due May 15, 2029 (the "2029 Convertible Notes") in the prior year quarter. This decrease was partially offset by an increase of $24.4 million in cash used for repurchases of shares of the Company's common stock through open market transactions. See "Share Repurchases" below for additional information related to share repurchase activity.

As of March 31, 2015, the Company had no borrowings outstanding on its Domestic and Multi-currency Line of Credit, and it had $280.0 million of available borrowings. Management believes that the borrowings available under the Company's Domestic and Multi-currency Line of Credit, anticipated cash generated from operations and current working capital of $640.7 million is sufficient to meet the Company's anticipated capital requirements for its business. See Note 6 of the consolidated financial statements for additional information regarding the Company's debt instruments, including the Domestic and Multi-currency Line of Credit.

The Company had standby letters of credit of $9.5 million issued under its $20.0 million standby Letter of Credit Facility as of March 31, 2015.

As of March 31, 2015, the Company believes it was in compliance with all financial ratios, covenants and other requirements set forth in its debt agreements. With respect to the Company's $300.0 million aggregate principal amount of 5.75% senior notes due May 15, 2018 issued and sold by the Company on May 15, 2013 (the "2018 Senior Notes"), representatives of a small number of holders of the 2018 Senior Notes, which the Company believes own less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the 2018 Senior Notes, have indicated that they believe the Enova Spin-off was not permitted by the 2018 Senior Notes Indenture. These noteholders have taken the position that the Company is in default under the Indenture and that a make-whole premium is payable, in addition to principal and accrued interest. The Company disagrees with the assertion that a default exists under the 2018 Senior Notes Indenture and also disagrees that a make-whole premium would be due in the event of a default because, among other things, the 2018 Senior Notes Indenture provides that upon acceleration of the 2018 Senior Notes due to a default, the repayment remedy is the repayment of principal and accrued interest with no provision for a make-whole premium. The Company believes the position taken by these noteholders is without merit and the Company intends to vigorously defend its position on these issues if formally asserted. This claim could be costly to defend, could be damaging to the Company's reputation, could be time consuming for management and could affect the Company's ability to obtain capital in the future. As of March 31, 2015, the Company had ample liquidity and capital resources, including availability under the Company's Domestic and Multi-Currency Line of Credit, to repay the 2018 Senior Notes regardless of the outcome of this claim.

In the event of a significant decline in demand for the Company's products and services or other unexpected changes in financial condition, management would evaluate several alternatives to ensure that it is in a position to meet its liquidity requirements. Such actions could include the sale of assets, including the Enova shares held by the Company, reductions in capital spending and/or the issuance of debt or equity securities, all of which could be expected to generate additional liquidity. The characteristics of the Company's current assets, specifically the ability to rapidly liquidate gold jewelry inventory and adjust outflows of cash in its lending practices, gives the Company flexibility to quickly modify its business strategy to increase cash flow from its business, if necessary.

Share Repurchases

On January 28, 2015, the Board of Directors of the Company authorized a new share repurchase program for the repurchase of up to 4.0 million shares of the Company's common stock (the "2015 Authorization") and canceled the Company's previous share repurchase authorization from January 2013 (the "2013 Authorization"). During the current quarter, the Company purchased 1,148,000 shares in open market transactions under the 2015 Authorization for a total investment of $25.3 million, including commissions. In connection with the repurchase of shares under the 2015 Authorization, on March 20, 2015, the Company entered into a Rule 10b5-1 plan under which the Company's designated broker was authorized to repurchase up to an aggregate of 500,000 shares of the Company's common stock commencing on April 6, 2015 through May 8, 2015. The Company anticipates that it may utilize a Rule 10b5-1 Plan for the repurchase of additional shares under the 2015 Authorization. Rule 10b5-1 plans allow companies to repurchase shares at times when they would not ordinarily be in the market due to their trading policies or the possession of material nonpublic information. The Company's decision to repurchase shares under the 2015 Authorization in the future will be based on its assessment of market characteristics, the liquidity position of the Company and alternative prospects for the investment of capital to expand its business and pursue strategic objectives.

At March 31, 2015, there were 2,852,000 shares remaining under the 2015 Authorization to repurchase shares. Generally, the Company retains the shares upon repurchase in treasury, which are not considered outstanding for earnings per common share computation purposes.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

In certain markets, the Company arranges for consumers to obtain consumer loan products from independent third-party lenders through the CSO programs. For consumer loan products originated by third-party lenders under the CSO programs, each lender is responsible for providing the criteria by which the consumer's application is underwritten and, if approved, determining the amount of the consumer loan. The Company, in turn, is responsible for assessing whether or not it will guarantee such loans. When a consumer executes an agreement with the Company under the CSO programs, the Company agrees, for a fee payable to the Company by the consumer, to provide certain services to the consumer, one of which is to guarantee the consumer's obligation to repay the loan received by the consumer from the third-party lender if the consumer fails to do so. The guarantee represents an obligation to purchase specific loans that go into default. Short-term loans that the Company guarantees generally have terms of less than 90 days. Unsecured installment loans that the Company guarantees generally have terms of up to twelve months. Secured installment loans that the Company guarantees have terms of up to 48 months. As of March 31, 2015 and 2014, the amount of consumer loans guaranteed by the Company was $16.2 million and $12.5 million, respectively, representing amounts due under consumer loans originated by third-party lenders under the CSO programs. The liability for estimated losses on consumer loans guaranteed by the Company of $1.2 million and $1.3 million as of March 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively, is included in "Accounts payable and accrued expenses" in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Market risks relating to the Company's operations result primarily from changes in interest rates and gold prices. The Company does not engage in speculative or leveraged transactions, nor does it hold or issue financial instruments for trading purposes. There have been no material changes to the Company's exposure to market risks since December 31, 2014.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, management of the Company has evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or the "Exchange Act") as of March 31, 2015 (the "Evaluation Date"). Based upon that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of the Evaluation Date, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective and provide reasonable assurance (i) to ensure that information required to be disclosed in reports that the Company files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms; and (ii) to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the reports that the Company files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to management, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures.

There was no change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the quarter ended March 31, 2015 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

The Company's management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, does not expect that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures or internal controls will prevent or detect all possible misstatements due to error or fraud. The Company's disclosure controls and procedures and internal controls are, however, designed to provide reasonable assurance of achieving their objectives, and the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective at that reasonable assurance level.
