Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

(a) Effective January 1, 2007, Epstein, Weber & Conover, P.L.C. ("Epstein Weber") combined its practice with Moss Adams LLP ("Moss Adams") and therefore resigned as InnSuites Hospitality Trust's (the "Trust") independent registered public accounting firm. According to information provided to the Trust, all of the partners of Epstein Weber have become partners of Moss Adams.

The reports of Epstein Weber on the Trust's financial statements for the fiscal years ended January 31, 2006 and 2005 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. In connection with the audits of the Trust's financial statements for the fiscal years ended January 31, 2006 and 2005, and in the subsequent interim periods through January 1, 2007, there were no disagreements with Epstein Weber on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope and procedure which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Epstein Weber, would have caused Epstein Weber to make reference to the matter in its report. In connection with the audits of the Trust's financial statements for the fiscal years ended January 31, 2006 and 2005, and in the subsequent interim periods through January 1, 2007, there were no "reportable events" as that term is defined in Item 304 of Regulation S-K promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Item 304").

Epstein Weber was provided a copy of the foregoing disclosures and was requested to furnish the Trust with a letter addressed to the United States Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not it agrees with the above disclosures. A copy of the letter furnished pursuant to that request is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

(b) Effective January 1, 2007, the Trust engaged Moss Adams to act as the Trust's principal independent accountant. The Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees of the Trust approved the decision to engage Moss Adams.

During the fiscal years ended January 31, 2006 and 2005, and during all subsequent interim periods through January 1, 2007, the Trust did not consult Moss Adams regarding the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Trust's financial statements or any matter that was the subject of a disagreement with its former accountants or a reportable event as those terms are defined in Item 304.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Exhibits.

Exhibit 16.1 - Letter from Epstein, Weber & Conover, P.L.C. to the United States Securities and Exchange Commission regarding a change in certifying accountant.
