PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant has been delayed in the filing of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2004 ("Form 10-Q") in order to provide in the Form 10-Q certain disclosures related to its recently completed recapitalization plan whereby the Company is issuing senior notes in exchange for outstanding shares of Series A, Series B and Series C preferred stock, and converting the Series A, Series B, and Series C preferred stock into a new Series D preferred stock and common stock. Due to the timing of the completion of the recapitalization plan, which occurred on May 10, 2004, and the Registrant's presentation of appropriate pro forma information with respect to the recapitalization plan, the Registrant needs additional time to finalize such information for inclusion in the Form 10-Q. Due to the reasons outlined above, the Registrant could not file its Form 10-Q without unreasonable effort or expense by the prescribed due date. The Registrant expects to file its Form 10-Q within five days of May 17, 2004, the prescribed due date.

Yes [X] No []

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As previously disclosed in the Registrant's press release with respect to its financial results for the quarter ended March 31, 2004, net income during the three months ended March 31, 2004 decreased by $7.4 million to a loss of $5.4 million from net income of $2.0 million for the same period in 2003 primarily due to a decrease in net interest margin of $6.4 million, and an increase in general and administrative expense, offset by a decrease in impairment charges. In addition to this decrease in net income, net income per common share also experienced a significant decrease resulting from the recognition, during the three months ended March 31, 2003, of $10.4 million of preferred stock benefit associated with the retirement of Series A, Series B and Series C preferred shares exchanged for senior notes and cash pursuant to a tender offer initiated by the Company. This is in contrast to the $1.2 million of preferred dividend charges for the three-months ended March 31, 2004.
