General Rate Case Decision

On May 11, 2006, the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) issued a final decisic California Edison Company's (SCE) 2006 general rate case. SCE is a subsidiary of Edison International. The general rate case decision authorized a base rate increase above currently-au rates of approximately $134 million for 2006. The increase authorized by the CPUC is $274 millio above currently-authorized rates, but SCE will offset $140 million of this increase through a one from an existing balancing account. The CPUC also authorized increases of $74 million in 2007, a $104 million in 2008. The decision substantially approved SCE's request to continue its capital for the infrastructure replacement and expansion.

The decision is retroactive to January 12, 2006, when the decision was initially forecast The balance in the account established to record the recovery of the authorized rate increase sin will be recovered in rates over the next 12 months.
