The E.W. Scripps Co. UBS Media Conference Dec. 10, 2014 Give light and the people will find their own way THE E.W. SCRIPPS COMPANY Filed by The E. W. Scripps Company Pursuant to Rule 425 under the Securities Act of 1933 and deemed filed pursuant to Rule 14a-12 under the Securities Act of 1934 Subject Company: The E. W. Scripps Company Commission File No.: 333- 200388 Date: December 10, 2014

Disclaimer Additional Information and Where to Find It The proposed transactions involving Scripps and Journal will be submitted to the holders of Common Voting shares of Scripps and to the holders of Class A and Class B common stock of Journal for their consideration. In connection with the proposed transactions, on November 20, 2014, Scripps filed a registration statement on Form S-4 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") that included a preliminary joint proxy statement of Scripps and Journal and that also constitutes a preliminary prospectus of Scripps. This registration statement has not yet been declared effective. Each of Scripps and Journal will mail the joint proxy statement/prospectus to their respective shareholders and file other documents regarding the proposed transactions with the SEC. Scripps urges investors and shareholders to read the registration statement and preliminary joint proxy statement/prospectus, as well as other documents filed with the SEC, because they contain important information. Investors and shareholders will be able to obtain the registration statement containing the joint proxy statement/prospectus and other documents free of charge at the SEC's web site, <http://www.sec.gov>, from Scripps Investor Relations, Carolyn Micheli, at carolyn.micheli@scripps.com or 513-977-3732, or from Journal at Jason Graham, Senior Vice President of Finance and Chief

Financial Officer, at 414-224-2884 or jgraham@jrn.com. Forward-Looking Statements This communication contains certain forward-looking statements with respect to the financial condition, results of operations and business of Scripps and the combined businesses of Journal and Scripps and certain plans and objectives of Scripps with respect thereto, including the expected benefits of the proposed spin and merger transactions. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements often use words such as “anticipate”, “target”, “expect”, “estimate”, “intend”, “plan”, “goal”, “believe”, “hope”, “aim”, “continue”, “will”, “may”, “would”, “could” or “should” or other words of similar meaning or the negative thereof. Several factors which could cause actual plans and results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in forward-looking statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to, the expected closing date of the proposed transactions; the possibility that the expected synergies and value creation from the proposed transactions will not be realized, or will not be realized within the expected time period; the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully; disruption from the proposed transactions making it more difficult to maintain business and operational relationships; the risk that unexpected costs will be incurred; changes in economic conditions, political conditions, licensing requirements and tax matters; and the possibility that the proposed transactions do not close, including, but not limited to, due to the failure to satisfy the closing conditions. These forward-looking statements are based on numerous assumptions and assessments made by Scripps in light of its experience and perception of historical trends, current conditions, business strategies, operating environment, future developments and other factors that it believes appropriate. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future. The factors described in the context of such forward-looking statements in this communication could cause actual results, performance or achievements, industry results and developments to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such forward-looking statements. Although it is believed that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, no assurance can be given that such expectations will prove to have been correct and persons reading this communication are therefore cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements which speak only as at the date of this communication. Scripps does not assume any obligation to update the information contained in this communication (whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise), except as required by applicable law. Think of radio... As a high-margin, cash-generating business As local, differentiated audio entertainment and information As local brands that belong to us (not networks and syndicators) As providers of news, talk and information programming that impacts our communities As amplifiers for TV and digital efforts, especially in combo markets As fast-moving idea factories As large developmental sales organizations that bring ideas to the market As high-profile on-air talent and sports play-by-play New Scripps: Radio 9 Acquiring radio means a deeper dive into our markets

10 New Scripps Financial Overview

11 Post-deal, our financial priorities remain the same. Maintain sufficient liquidity and financial flexibility. Strong track record of maintaining conservative leverage. Conservative cash-on-cash investors. Can resume share repurchases after deal while staying within leverage guidelines. $60 million special dividend related to Journal merger; no current plans for a regular dividend; reviewed with board regularly. Financial Overview

¹² Our uses of capital over the last two years include aggressive repurchasing and acquisitions Share Repurchase Program: $100 million was authorized in November 2012 and another $100 million in May 2014. Program suspended until merger closes. $105 million remains. Through Q2 2014, $95 million had been spent to acquire 6.2 million shares. Average purchase price of $17.93 in 2014. Acquisitions = About $350 million. McGraw Hill – 4 ABCs; 5 Aztecas. Granite – 1 ABC; 1 MyNetwork to form Detroit duopoly. Newsy – mobile video news service. Weathersphere – top-ranking paid weather app company. Investment through the P&L – about $20 million a year so far in expense for digital. Financial Overview
