ITEM 1. REPORTS TO STOCKHOLDERS.

The Annual Report to Stockholders follows.

DNP Select
Income Fund Inc

Annual Report

December 31, 2010

Fund Distributions and Managed Distribution Plan: Your Fund has been paying a regular 6.5 cent per share monthly distribution on its common stock since July 1997. In February 2007, the Board of Directors adopted a Managed Distribution Plan, which provides for the Fund to continue to make a monthly distribution on its common stock of 6.5 cents per share. Under the Managed Distribution Plan, the Fund will distribute all available investment income to shareholders, consistent with the Fund's primary investment objective. If and when sufficient investment income is not available on a monthly basis, the Fund will distribute long-term capital gains and/or return capital to its shareholders in order to maintain the 6.5 cent per share distribution level.

To the extent that the Fund uses capital gains and/or returns of capital to supplement its investment income, you should not draw any conclusions about the Fund's investment performance from the amount of the Fund's distributions or from the terms of the Fund's Managed Distribution Plan.

The Fund distributed more than its income and capital gains during the year 2010; therefore, a portion of your distribution was a return of capital. A return of capital may occur, for example, when some or all of the money that you invested in the Fund is paid back to you. A return of capital distribution does not necessarily reflect the Fund's investment performance and should not be confused with yield or income.

The amounts and sources of distributions reported in monthly statements from the Fund are only estimates and are not provided for tax reporting purposes. The actual amounts and sources of the amounts for tax reporting purposes depend upon the Fund's investment experience during its fiscal year and may be subject to changes based on tax regulations. In early 2011, you received a Form 1099-DIV for the calendar year 2010 that tells you how to report these distributions for federal income tax purposes.

The Board may amend, suspend or terminate the Managed Distribution Plan without prior notice to shareholders if it deems such action to be in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders. For example, the Board might take such action if the Plan had the effect of shrinking the Fund's assets to a level that was determined to be detrimental to Fund shareholders. The suspension or termination of the Plan could have the effect of creating a trading discount (if the Fund's stock is trading at or above net asset value), widening an existing trading discount, or decreasing an existing premium.

The Managed Distribution Plan is described in a Question and Answer format on your Fund's website <http://www.dnpselectincome.com>, and discussed in the section of management's letter captioned "About Your Fund's Distribution Policy".

February 22, 2011

Dear Fellow Shareholders:

Performance Review: Consistent with its primary objective of current income and its Managed Distribution Plan, the Fund declared twelve monthly distributions of 6.5 cents per share of common stock during 2010. The 6.5 cent per share monthly rate, without compounding, would be 78 cents annualized, which is equal to 8.53% of the December 31, 2010, closing price of $9.14 per share. Please refer to the inside front cover of this report and the portion of this letter captioned "About Your Fund's Distribution Policy" for important information about the Fund's distributions and Managed Distribution Plan.

Your Fund had a total return (distributions plus change in market price) of 11.4% for the year ended December 31, 2010, outperforming the 6.4% return of the composite of the S&P 500 Utilities Index and the Barclays Capital Utility Bond Index, reflecting the stock and bond ratio of the Fund. In comparison, the S&P 500 Utilities Index—a stock-only index—had a total return of 5.4%.

On a longer-term basis, as of December 31, 2010, your Fund had a five-year cumulative total return of 35.4%, above that of the 27.8% return of the composite of the S&P 500 Utilities Index and the Barclays Capital Utility Bond Index, reflecting the stock and bond ratio of the Fund. In comparison, the S&P 500 Utilities Index had a total return during that period of 21.0%. It is important to note that the composite index includes no fees or expenses.

The table below compares the performance of your Fund to various market benchmarks.

For the period indicated through December 31, 2010	Cumulative Total Return*
	DNP Select Income Fund Inc.		Composite Index	S&P Utilities Index	Barclays Capital Utility Bond Index
	Market	NAV
One year	11.4%	15.7%	6.4%	5.4%	9.2%
Five years	35.4%	44.2%	27.8%	21.0%	40.4%

* Total return includes dividends reinvested in the Fund or index, as applicable. The Composite Index is a composite of the returns of the S&P 500 Utilities Index and the Barclays Capital Utility Bond Index, weighted to reflect the stock and bond ratio of the Fund. Performance returns for the S&P 500 Utilities Index and Barclays Capital Utility Bond Index were obtained from Bloomberg L.P. Fund returns were obtained from the Administrator of the Fund. Past performance is not indicative of future results.

Outlooks: In November 2010 the International Energy Agency (IEA) released its Energy Outlook 2010. The Energy Outlook is an annual presentation of the IEA's projections regarding energy demand, production, and investment regionally and globally out to the year 2050. It includes scenarios that anticipate future actions proposed by governments to meet the commitments they have made, but have not implemented, to address climate change and growing energy security concerns.

The Energy Outlook contains a wealth of interesting energy data points and intriguing speculations regarding the future. According to the IEA:

Edgar Filing: DNP SELECT INCOME FUND INC - Form N-CSR/A

- Nearly 70% of global electricity is generated from fossil fuels, with coal being 42%, gas 21%, hydro 16%, nuclear 14%, oil 6%, and non-hydro-renewables 2%;
- Transportation accounts for about one quarter of global energy use, and transport energy use is projected to increase by nearly 50% by 2030 and by more than 80% by 2050;

- Industry accounts for approximately one-third of global final energy use;
- Information and communication technologies and consumer electronics now account for 15% of global residential electricity consumption and it is estimated that energy use by those devices will double by 2022 and increase threefold by 2030;
- The world's car fleet is expected to triple by 2050 with 80% of this growth occurring in developing economies;
- Beginning in 2007, Russia became the largest single exporter of natural gas, accounting for over 20% of global exports;
- China and India will account for 45% of the increase in global primary energy demand by 2030, with both countries more than doubling their energy use over that period; and
- If IEA recommendations to phase out incandescent light bulbs were implemented globally by 2012, the electricity savings would be equivalent to the output of 80 nuclear plants.

The Paris based IEA was created in 1974 as the result of the 1973 oil crisis, with a mandate of serving as an information resource about the international energy sectors and to coordinate crisis response in times of energy supply emergencies. IEA member countries, which are also members of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), are required to hold oil stocks equivalent to at least 90 days of net oil imports and stand ready to take effective cooperative measures to meet any oil supply emergency. These measures include stock draw-downs and coordinated demand management. As an example of crisis response, when oil production and refining infrastructure in the Gulf of Mexico was destroyed by Hurricane Katrina in 2005, the IEA made 60 million barrels of emergency oil available to the market.

Over time, the scope of IEA concerns has expanded. Since electricity generation in the OECD countries, including the United States, has increased fourfold since 1960, while at the same time substantial new generating capacity will be required in the future, the IEA has broadened its focus beyond power fuel sources to the long-term global environmental aspects of electricity generation. That expansion of scope has opened the IEA to new challenges, and some criticisms. Long term forecasts are inherently unreliable. For example, the IEA predicted in 1998 that global wind electricity generation would total about 47 gigawatts by 2020. That level was actually achieved in 2004. A misestimation of that magnitude leads one to question the entire forecast output of a model.

Nonetheless, we believe that a global forum for energy and environmental issues is beneficial, particularly in providing a global perspective on the utilities industry. Your Fund managers can invest up to 20% of the portfolio in foreign utilities, so we seek to take advantage of as many global information resources as possible. (Fund holdings currently are well below the 20% limit.) In the United States, by contrast, domestic energy policies are critical to domestic economic conditions, and the speed with which energy and environmental policy measures are instituted hinges mostly on non-global domestic concerns. Currently, the United States does not have a long-term model of the energy sectors, nor does it have a well defined energy and environmental policy. Environmental issues have been so contentious that the U.S. Congress has not yet been able to pass legislation regarding green house gas emissions, for example.

It is the responsibility of the Fund's analysts and portfolio managers to consider the possible effects that both global and domestic policy initiatives could have on the universe of investments available to the Fund. Each year, at the February meeting of the Fund's Board of Directors, the Fund's analysts make a presentation to the Board regarding utility industry trends and outlooks. A review of specific issues highlighted in those presentations will appear in our next quarterly letter to you.

Board of Directors Meeting: At the regular February 2011 Board of Directors meeting, the Board declared the following monthly dividends:

Cents Per Share	Record Date	Payable Date
6.5	March 31	April 11
6.5	April 29	May 10
6.5	May 31	June 10

About Your Fund's Distribution Policy: At the February 2008 Board of Directors meeting, the Board reaffirmed the current 6.5 cent per share monthly distribution rate and formalized the monthly distribution process by adopting a Managed Distribution Plan (MDP). The Board reviews the operation of the MDP on a quarterly basis, with the most recent review having been conducted in February 2011. The MDP is described in a Question and Answer format on your Fund's web site: <http://www.dnpselectincome.com>.

From 2004 to 2008 and in 2010, the Fund made use of realized gains offset by tax loss carryforwards to supplement its investment income. When the Fund utilizes tax loss carryforwards, distributions to shareholders derived from realized gains are treated as ordinary income for tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code. In the absence of tax loss carryforwards, some of the Fund's monthly distributions could be made from either realized gains and treated as taxable gains rather than ordinary income, or return of capital and not taxed. Shareholders are required to reduce the cost basis of their shares by the amount of the return of capital so that, when the shares are ultimately sold, they will have properly accounted for the return of capital. In 2009 and 2010 there was a return of capital.

About Your Fund Leverage: Fund management reports quarterly to the Board about the composition of the Fund's leverage and its contribution to the income available for distribution to common shareholders. As of December 31, 2010 the Fund's leverage consisted of $200 million of Remarketed Preferred Stock (RP), $200 million of Auction Preferred Stock (APS), and $600 million of debt. On that date the total amount of leverage represented approximately 37% of the Fund's total assets.

The use of leverage enables the Fund to borrow at short-term rates and invest at longer-term rates. Currently and historically, the term structure of interest rates is upward sloping (longer-term rates are higher than shorter-term rates). As a result, leverage is currently making a significant contribution to the earnings of the Fund. The use of leverage also can make the Fund's share price more volatile than it would be otherwise.

Early in 2008, disruptions in the short-term fixed income markets resulted in failures in the periodic auctions and remarketings of all closed-end funds' preferred shares, including the preferred shares of your Fund. After reviewing options for resolving preferred share illiquidity, in March 2009 management arranged a $1 billion credit facility with a commercial bank. Subsequently, the Fund utilized the credit facility to redeem $300 million of RP and $300 million of APS.

Fund management is continuing to pursue the goal of ultimately redeeming the preferred stock that remains outstanding in a manner that is consistent with the interests of all shareholders, is long-term oriented, and would not lead to restrictions in the Fund's investment process or reduce the pool of investment alternatives. The Fund is limited in its ability to use debt to refinance all of its outstanding preferred stock because of the asset coverage requirements of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and related Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) rules, and by guidelines established by the rating agencies as a condition of maintaining the AAA rating of the preferred stock. Accordingly, the exact timing of any share redemptions is uncertain, and it is unlikely that all of the Fund's outstanding preferred stock will be retired in the near future. The Fund will announce any redemption through press releases and postings to its website.

Please see the Fund's quarterly shareholder letter included in the Form N-Q filed with the SEC on November 8, 2010 for a discussion of certain changes S&P has recently proposed for public comment regarding its methodology for rating certain securities, including the preferred stock of closed-end investment companies like the Fund.

The percentage shown for each investment category is the total value of that category as a percentage of the net assets applicable to common stock of the Fund.

The Fund's investments are carried at fair value which is defined as the price that the Fund would receive upon selling an investment in a timely transaction to an independent buyer in the principal or most advantageous market of the investment. The three-tier hierarchy of inputs established to classify fair value measurements for disclosure purposes is summarized in the three broad levels listed below.

Level 1 quoted prices in active markets for identical securities

Level 2 other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment spreads, credit risks, etc.)

Level 3 significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining fair value of investments)

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in these securities. The following is a summary of the inputs used to value each of the Fund's investments at December 31, 2010.

	Level 1	Level 2
Common stocks	$ 1,947,037,854
Preferred stocks	144,132,326
Bonds		$ 651,683,351
Total	$ 2,091,170,180	$ 651,683,351

There were no significant transfers between level 1 and level 2 during the year ended December 31, 2010.

* Percentages are based on total investments rather than total net assets applicable to common stock and include securities pledged as collateral for the Fund's credit facility.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2010

(1) SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

DNP SELECT INCOME FUND INC. (the Fund) was incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland on November 26, 1986. The Fund commenced operations on January 21, 1987, as a closed-end diversified management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940. The primary investment objectives of the Fund are current income and long-term growth of income. Capital appreciation is a secondary objective.

The following are the significant accounting policies of the Fund:

(a) Equity securities traded on a national or foreign securities exchange or traded over-the-counter and quoted on the NASDAQ System are valued at the last reported sale price or, if there was no sale on the pricing date, then the security is valued at the mean of the bid and ask prices as obtained on that day from one or more dealers regularly making a market in that security. Fixed income securities are valued at the mean of bid and ask prices provided by an independent pricing service when such prices are believed to reflect the fair market value of such securities. Such bid and ask prices are determined taking into account securities prices, yields, maturities, call features, ratings, and institutional size trading in similar securities and developments related to specific securities. Any securities for which it is determined that market prices are unavailable or inappropriate are valued at a fair value using a procedure determined in good faith by the Board of Directors. Short-term investments having a maturity of 60 days or less at time of purchase are valued on an amortized cost basis, which approximates fair value.

(b) It is the Fund's policy to comply with requirements of Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute substantially all of its taxable income to its shareholders. Therefore, no provision for Federal income or excise taxes is required. The Fund incurred net capital losses associated with certain securities during the period November 1 through December 31, 2010 of $7,874,412 which will be deferred for tax purposes and treated as if they were incurred on January 1, 2011. The Fund intends to utilize provisions of Federal income tax laws which allow a realized capital loss to be carried forward for eight years following the year of loss. At December 31, 2010, the Fund had tax capital loss carryforwards of $54,140,790 which will expire in 2017. These capital loss carryforwards will be reduced by future realized gains whether or not distributed. (See Note 4). At December 31, 2010, on a tax basis, the Fund had undistributed ordinary income of $0 and undistributed long term capital gains of $0 and based on a $2,549,895,236 tax cost of investments, gross unrealized appreciation of $264,308,100 and unrealized depreciation of $71,349,805. The difference between the book basis and tax basis of distributable earnings and cost of investments is primarily a result of tax deferral of wash sale losses, the accretion of market discount and amortization of premiums and alternative tax treatment of certain securities.

Management of the Fund has concluded that there are no significant uncertain tax positions that would require recognition in the financial statements. Since tax authorities can examine previously filed tax returns, the Fund's tax returns for each of the four years in the period ended December 31, 2010 are subject to such review.

DNP SELECT INCOME FUND INC.
December 31, 2010

(c) Security transactions are recorded on the trade date. Realized gains or losses from sales of securities are determined on the specific identified cost basis. Dividend income is recognized on the ex-dividend date. Interest income and expense are recognized on the accrual basis. Discounts and premiums on securities are amortized over the lives of the respective securities for financial reporting purposes. Discounts and premiums are not amortized for tax purposes.

(d) Investment securities and other assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollar amounts at the date of valuation at the mean of the quoted bid and asked prices of such currencies. Purchases and sales of investment securities and income and expense items denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollar amounts at the rate of exchange prevailing on the respective dates of such transactions.

The Fund does not isolate that portion of the results of operations resulting from changes in foreign exchange rates on investments from the fluctuations arising from changes in market prices of securities held. Such fluctuations are included with the net realized and unrealized gain or loss on investments.

(e) The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in net assets from operations during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(f) The Fund adopted Accounting Standards Update, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (Topic 820): Improving Disclosures about Fair Value Measurements, which provides guidance on how investment assets and liabilities are to be valued and disclosed.

(2) MANAGEMENT ARRANGEMENTS:

The Fund has engaged Duff & Phelps Investment Management Co. (the Adviser) to provide professional investment management services for the Fund and has engaged J. J. B. Hilliard, W. L. Lyons, LLC (the Administrator) to provide administrative and management services for the Fund. The Adviser receives a quarterly fee at an annual rate of .60% of the Average Weekly Managed Assets of the Fund up to $1.5 billion and .50% of Average Weekly Managed Assets in excess thereof. The Administrator receives a quarterly fee at annual rates of .20% of Average Weekly Managed Assets up to $1 billion, and .10% of Average Weekly Managed Assets over $1 billion. For purposes of the foregoing calculations, Average Weekly Managed Assets is defined as the average weekly value of the total assets of the Fund minus the sum of all accrued liabilities of the Fund (other than the aggregate amount of any outstanding borrowings or other indebtedness constituting financial leverage). The Fund pays each director not affiliated with the Adviser an annual fee plus a fee for certain meetings of the board or committees of the board attended. Total fees paid to directors for the year ended December 31, 2010 were $511,750.

DNP SELECT INCOME FUND INC.
December 31, 2010

(3) INDEMNIFICATIONS:

Under the Fund's organizational documents, its Officers and Directors are indemnified against certain liabilities arising out of the performance of their duties to the Fund. In addition, in the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that provide general indemnifications to other parties. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet occurred. However, the Fund has not had prior claims or losses pursuant to these arrangements and expects the risk of loss to be remote.

(4) DIVIDENDS:

The Fund declares and pays monthly dividends on its common shares of a stated amount per share. Subject to approval and oversight by the Fund's Board of Directors, the Fund seeks to maintain a stable distribution level (a Managed Distribution Plan) consistent with the Fund's primary investment objective of current income. If and when sufficient investment income is not available on a monthly basis, the Fund will distribute long-term capital gains and/or return capital in order to maintain the $0.065 per common share distribution level. The amount and timing of distributions are determined in accordance with federal tax regulations, which may differ from U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Ordinary income distributions for federal income tax purposes include distributions from realized gains, until the Fund utilizes all of its tax capital loss carryforwards.

The tax character of Fund distributions to common shareholders in 2010 and 2009 was comprised of the following components:

2010: Ordinary income	$157,862,424	and return of capital	$27,221,564
2009: Ordinary income	$124,991,307	and return of capital	$57,345,712

Due to inherent differences in the recognition and distribution of income and realized gains/losses under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and for federal income tax purposes, permanent differences between book and tax basis reporting have been identified and appropriately reclassified on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities. The reclassifications primarily relate to premium amortization. These reclassifications have no impact on the net asset value of the Fund. At December 31, 2010, the following reclassifications were recorded:

Paid-in Surplus	Accumulated net realized loss on investments	Distributions in excess of net investment income
$(46,679,397)	$(27,383,240)	$74,062,637

(5) PREFERRED STOCK:

In 1988, the Fund issued 5,000 shares of Remarketed Preferred Stock (RP) in five series of 1,000 shares each at a public offering price of $100,000 per share. In 2006, the Fund issued 20,000 shares of Auction Preferred Stock (APS) in five series of 4,000 shares each at a public offering price of $25,000 per share. The underwriting discount and other offering costs incurred in connection with the issuance of the RP and APS were recorded as a reduction of paid-in surplus on common stock.

DNP SELECT INCOME FUND INC.
December 31, 2010

During the year ended December 31, 2009, the Fund redeemed $600,000,000 of its outstanding preferred shares. All shares of Series A, Series B and Series C of RP were redeemed at a redemption price of $100,000 per share plus accrued but unpaid dividends and all shares of Series M, Series T and Series W of APS were redeemed at a redemption price of $25,000 per share plus accrued but unpaid dividends.

The 2,000 shares of RP outstanding on December 31, 2010 consist of two series, 1,000 shares each of Series D and Series E. The 8,000 shares of APS outstanding on December 31, 2010 consist of 4,000 shares each of Series TH and Series F.

Dividends on the RP and APS are cumulative at a rate which was initially established for each series at the time of its initial offering. Since the initial offering of each series of RP and APS, the dividend rate on each series of RP has been reset every 49 days by a remarketing process and the dividend rate on each series of APS has been reset every seven days by an auction process. Beginning in mid-February 2008, the remarketings and auctions for the RP and APS have experienced successive failures as a result of general dislocations affecting the auction rate securities markets. A failed remarketing or auction occurs when there are more sellers of RP or APS than buyers. The result is that the current holders retain their shares, and the dividend rate for the next dividend period is automatically set to the maximum dividend rate permitted by the Fund's charter. These maximum dividend rates ranged from 0.18% to 0.63% for the RP and 1.46% to 1.58% for the APS during the year ended December 31, 2010. A failed remarketing or auction is not an event of default for the Fund, but it is a liquidity problem for the holders of its preferred stock. It is impossible to predict how long this imbalance will last. A successful remarketing or auction of the Fund's preferred stock may not occur for a long period of time, if ever. Even if the RP and APS markets become more liquid, the holders of the Fund's preferred stock may not have the amount of liquidity they desire or the ability to sell the RP and APS at par.

The RP and APS are redeemable at the option of the Fund on any dividend payment date at a redemption price equal to $100,000 per share for each share of RP and $25,000 per share for each share of APS, plus accumulated and unpaid dividends in each case. The Fund is required to maintain certain asset coverage with respect to the RP and APS, and the RP and APS are subject to mandatory redemption if that asset coverage is not maintained. Each series of RP is also subject to mandatory redemption on a date certain; therefore, the RP is classified as a liability on the statement of assets and liabilities and the related dividends as interest expense on the statement of operations. The mandatory redemption dates are as follows: Series D December 22, 2021; and Series E December 11, 2024.

In general, the holders of the RP and of the Common Stock have equal voting rights of one vote per share and the holders of the APS are entitled to $\frac{1}{4}$ vote per share. Since each share of APS represents a liquidation preference of \$25,000, and each share of RP represents a liquidation preference of \$100,000 per share, the allocation of $\frac{1}{4}$ vote per share to the APS gives all holders of preferred stock equal voting power per dollar of liquidation preference. The holders of the RP and APS, voting together as a class, are entitled to elect two members of the Board of Directors, and separate class votes are required on certain matters that affect the respective interests of the RP and APS and the Common Stock.

December 31, 2010

(6) INVESTMENT TRANSACTIONS:

For the year ended December 31, 2010 purchases and sales of investment securities (excluding short-term securities) were $523,911,697 and $579,406,467 respectively.

(7) BORROWINGS:

On March 9, 2009, the Fund entered into a Committed Facility Agreement (the Facility) with a commercial bank (the Bank) that allows the Fund to borrow cash from the Bank, up to a limit of $1,000,000,000 for the purpose of redeeming shares of preferred stock. Borrowings under the Facility are collateralized by certain assets of the Fund (the Hypothecated Securities). Interest is charged at 3 month LIBOR (London Inter-bank Offered Rate) plus an additional percentage rate on the amount borrowed and on the undrawn balance (the commitment fee). The Fund also incurred a one time arrangement fee that was paid in six equal installments based on a percentage of the total borrowing limit. Total commitment fees paid for the year ended December 31, 2010 were $4,055,555 and are included in interest expense and fees on the Statement of Operations. The Bank has the ability to require repayment of outstanding borrowings under the Facility upon six months notice or following an event of default. For the year ended December 31, 2010, the average daily borrowings under the Facility and the weighted daily average interest rate were $600,000,000 and 1.44%, respectively. As of December 31, 2010, the amount of such outstanding borrowings was $600,000,000. The interest rate applicable to the borrowing on December 31, 2010 was 1.40%. The Bank has the ability to borrow the Hypothecated Securities (Rehypothecated Securities). The Fund is entitled to receive a fee from the Bank in connection with any borrowing of Rehypothecated Securities. The Fund can recall any Rehypothecated Security at any time and if the Bank fails to return it (or an equivalent security) in a timely fashion, the Bank will be liable to the Fund for the ultimate delivery of such security and certain costs associated with delayed delivery. In the event the Bank does not return the security or an equivalent security, the Fund will have the right to, among other things, apply and set off an amount equal to 100% of the then-current fair market value of such Rehypothecated Securities against any amounts owed to the Bank under the Facility. At December 31, 2010, Hypothecated Securities under the Facility had a market value of $1,312,370,469 and Rehypothecated Securities had a market value of $593,411,590.

- II. General policy. It is the intention of the Fund to exercise voting stock ownership rights in portfolio holdings in a manner that is reasonably anticipated to further the best economic interests of shareholders of the Fund. Accordingly, the Fund or its Delegate(s) shall endeavor to analyze and vote all proxies that are considered likely to have financial implications, and, where appropriate, to participate in corporate governance, shareholder proposals, management communications and legal proceedings. The Fund and its Delegate(s) must also identify potential or actual conflicts of interests in voting proxies and address any such conflict of interest in accordance with these Policies and Procedures.
- III. Factors to consider when voting.
- A. The Delegate may abstain from voting when it concludes that the effect on shareholders' economic interests or the value of the portfolio holding is indeterminable or insignificant.

Other financial indicators that will be considered include margin analysis, cash flow, and debt levels.

- C. In analyzing proxy contests for control, the Delegate shall vote on a case-by-case basis taking into consideration such factors as long-term financial performance of the target company relative to its industry; management's track record; background to the proxy contest; qualifications of director nominees (both slates); evaluation of what each side is

A review of the corporate governance profile shall be completed highlighting entrenchment devices that may reduce accountability.
- E. IV. Responsibilities of Delegates.

- A. In the absence of a specific direction to the contrary from the Board of Directors of the Fund, the Adviser will be responsible for voting proxies for all portfolio holdings in accordance with these Policies and Procedures, or for delegating such responsibility as described below.
- B. The Adviser may delegate its responsibilities hereunder to a proxy committee established from time to time by the Adviser and may engage one or more qualified, independent organizations to vote proxies on behalf of the Fund. The Adviser shall be responsible for ensuring that any such Delegate is informed of and complies with these Policies and Procedures.
- C. In voting proxies on behalf of the Fund, each Delegate shall have a duty of care to safeguard the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders and to act in accordance with these Policies and Procedures.
- D. No Delegate shall accept direction or inappropriate influence from any other client or third party, or from any director, officer or employee of any affiliated company, and shall not cast any vote inconsistent with these Policies and Procedures without obtaining the prior approval of the Board of Directors of the Fund or its duly authorized representative.

V. Conflicts of interest

- A. The Fund and its Delegate(s) seek to avoid actual or perceived conflicts of interest in the voting of proxies for portfolio holdings between the interests of Fund shareholders, on the one hand, and those of the Adviser or any affiliated person of the Fund or the Adviser, on the other hand. The Board of Directors may take into account a wide array of factors in determining whether such a conflict exists, whether such conflict is material in nature, and how to properly address or resolve the same.

- B. While each conflict situation varies based on the particular facts presented and the requirements of governing law, the Board of Directors or its duly authorized representative may take the following actions, among others, or otherwise give weight to the following factors, in addressing material conflicts of interest in voting (or directing Delegates to vote) proxies pertaining to portfolio holdings: (i) vote pursuant to the recommendation of the proposing Delegate; (ii) abstain from voting; or (iii) rely on the recommendations of an established, independent third party with qualifications to vote proxies, such as Institutional Shareholder Services.
- C. The Adviser shall notify the Board of Directors of the Fund promptly after becoming aware that any actual or potential conflict of interest exists and shall seek the Board of Directors recommendations for protecting the best interests of Fund's shareholders. The Adviser shall not waive any conflict of interest or vote any conflicted proxies without the prior written approval of the Board of Directors or its duly authorized representative.

VI. Miscellaneous.

- A. As noted in the table, portfolio managers of the Fund may also manage or be members of management teams for certain other accounts. As of December 31, 2010, the Fund's portfolio managers did not manage any accounts with respect to which the advisory fee is based on the performance of the account, nor do they manage any hedge funds.

(1) Registered Investment Companies include all open and closed-end mutual funds. For Registered Investment Companies, assets represent net assets of all open-end investment companies and gross assets of all closed-end investment companies.

(2) Other Pooled Investment Vehicles include, but are not limited to, securities of issuers exempt from registration under Section 3(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, such as private placements and hedge funds.

- (3) Other Accounts include, but are not limited to, individual managed accounts, separate accounts, institutional accounts, pension funds and collateralized bond obligations.

There may be certain inherent conflicts of interest that arise in connection with the portfolio managers' management of the Fund's investments and the investments of any other accounts they manage. Such conflicts could include aggregation of orders for all accounts managed by a particular portfolio manager, the allocation of purchases across all such accounts, the allocation of IPOs and any soft dollar arrangements that the Adviser may have in place that could benefit the Fund and/or such other accounts. The Adviser has adopted policies and procedures designed to address any such conflicts of interest to ensure that all management time, resources and investment opportunities are allocated equitably. There have been no material compliance issues with respect to any of these policies and procedures during the Fund's most recent fiscal year.

Compensation of the Fund's Portfolio Managers

The following is a description of the compensation structure, as of December 31, 2010, of the Fund's portfolio managers.

The Adviser is a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Virtus Investment Partners, Inc. (Virtus). Virtus and its affiliated investment management firms, including the Adviser, believe that their compensation programs are adequate and competitive to attract and retain high-caliber investment professionals.

The Fund's portfolio managers receive a base salary, an incentive bonus opportunity, and a benefits package, as detailed below. Highly-compensated individuals participate in a long-term incentive compensation program, including potential awards of Virtus restricted stock units (RSUs) with multi-year vesting and options, subject to Virtus board approval, and may also take advantage of opportunities to defer their compensation and potentially defer their current tax liability.

Base Salary: Each portfolio manager is paid a fixed base salary, which is determined by Virtus and the Adviser and is designed to be competitive in light of the individual's experience and responsibilities. Virtus management utilizes results of an investment industry compensation survey conducted by an independent third party in evaluating competitive market compensation for its investment management professionals.

Incentive Bonus: Incentive bonus compensation of the Funds' portfolio managers is currently comprised of two main components:

First, 70% of the incentive bonus is based on: (i) the pre-tax performance of the Funds, as measured by earnings per share and total return over a one-year period; (ii) the success of the individual manager in achieving assigned goals; and (iii) a subjective assessment of the manager's contribution to the efforts of the Adviser's team. It is intentional that the performance portion (i) of portfolio managers' incentive bonus compensation is not based on the value of assets held in the Funds' portfolio (except to the extent that the level of assets in the Funds' portfolio affects the advisory fee received by the Adviser and, thus indirectly, the profitability of the Funds). Instead, the incentive bonus for portfolio managers is based upon performance relative to peers, with further consideration given to the investment risk undertaken by the manager. Specifically, investment personnel are rewarded for managing within the Funds' stated framework and appropriate risk parameters. The intent is to discourage portfolio managers from taking on unnecessary risk to chase performance or assets for personal gain and to ensure that managers remain focused on managing and acquiring securities that correspond to the Funds' mandate and risk profile.

Second, 30% of the target incentive is based on financial measures of Virtus. These financial measures include adjusted EBITDA, gross inflows, and product investment performance. A portion of the total incentive bonus can be paid in restricted stock units (RSU) of Virtus that vest over three years.

Other Benefits: Portfolio managers are eligible to participate in a 401(k) plan, health insurance, and other benefits offered generally to the firm's employees that could include granting of RSUs and options in Virtus stock.

The following table sets forth the dollar range of equity securities in the Fund beneficially owned, as of December 31, 2010, by each of the portfolio managers identified above.
