Dear Vernon:

Subject: Mutually Agreed Upon Separation

This letter agreement (this "Agreement") confirms your acceptance of a separation package from Meritor, Inc. ("Meritor" or the "Company"). The decision was reached after consideration of a number of factors, including your service with Meritor and its predecessor. Both parties expressly agree that your acceptance of this Agreement is completely voluntary. You and the Company have agreed to enter into this Agreement pursuant to the following terms and conditions and consideration:

1. Separation Date. Your last day of work with the Company will be February 15, 2014 (your "Separation Date"). Effective as of your Separation Date, you hereby resign from any and all positions (such as, but not limited to, officer and director positions) that you hold with the Company, with any of the Company's affiliates, or with any other entity at the request of the Company. Upon request from the Company or the applicable affiliate, you will execute any documents necessary to effect such resignations.
2. Vacation Pay. You will receive any unpaid salary and any accrued but unused vacation through your Separation Date in the form of a lump sum within thirty (30) days of your Separation Date, or such earlier date as may be required by law. These amounts are savings plan eligible under the Company's tax-qualified savings plan ("Company Savings Plan").
3. Separation Pay. In accordance with the Employment Agreement between you and the Company dated May 1, 2013 ("Employment Agreement"), you will receive separation pay equal to twenty-four (24) months of your annual salary (at a compensation rate of $515,000.00 annually) ("Separation Pay"). Payments will be made semi-monthly for the period of February 16, 2014 through February 13, 2016 (your "Separation Period"). Your Separation Pay will be paid subject to the terms and conditions of, and in the manner set forth in, the Employment Agreement and in accordance with Section 409A.

Receipt of your Separation Pay and the payments and benefits described in this Agreement (other than vacation pay and benefits that are not otherwise vested under the terms of the applicable benefit plans) will be subject to and conditioned upon your execution and non-revocation of this Agreement and your fulfillment of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

4. Incentive Compensation Pay. Given that your last day of active employment will be February 15, 2014, you will be eligible to receive an incentive compensation plan (ICP) payment for fiscal year 2014 for active time worked. Such payment will be subject to the applicable formula, in accordance with the ICP metrics and program provisions. Any final award may be adjusted based upon final performance rating for the year. Any such final award determination will be subject to approval by the Compensation & Management Development Committee of the Board of Directors. If an award is approved, payment will be in December 2014.

5. Long-Term Incentive Plan. You will be eligible to receive Long-Term Incentive (LTIP) Cash Performance Plan awards based on your grant letter(s) as follows:
  - FY2012-FY2014 LTIP award will be paid in December 2014, pending Board of Directors approval, based upon applicable formulae on a prorated basis (29 months out of 36) for time worked during the performance cycle.
  - FY2013-FY2015 LTIP award will be paid in December 2015, pending Board of Directors approval, based upon applicable formulae on a prorated basis (17 months out of 36) for time worked during the performance cycle.
6. Equity Grants. You will not receive any awards of equity grants after your Separation Date. During the Separation Period, any equity awards will become vested and exercisable in accordance with the terms set forth in the underlying award agreements. Any unvested or unexercised equity awards that remain outstanding at the end of the Separation Period will be forfeited as of the last day of the Separation Period.
7. Financial Planning and Car Allowances. Your Company-provided financial planning benefits and car allowances will cease as of February 16, 2014.
  8. Outplacement. You will receive $10,000 of lieu of Company-sponsored outplacement assistance.
9. Disability Coverage. Your coverage under the Company's short and long term disability plans will cease on February 16, 2014.
10. Savings Benefits. Your active participation in the Company Savings Plan will cease as of February 16, 2014. You are 100% vested in your savings plan deferrals and related company matching contributions.

Based on your years of service with the Company, you are 100% vested in the pension contribution portion of your savings plan account.

You will be able to request a plan distribution upon termination of employment. Please contact T. Rowe Price for information about your Meritor Savings Plan and Pension Contribution accounts at (800) 922-9945.

11. Company Tax-Qualified Pension Benefits. If you are eligible for a pension benefit under the Company's tax-qualified pension plan, please call the Meritor Retirement Center at (877) 449-7461. You must apply for your pension benefits under such plan at least 60 days but not more than 90 days prior to your retirement date. If you are eligible for a pension benefit, please call the Meritor Retirement Center at (877) 449-7461.
12. Company Supplemental Pension, Supplemental Savings and Deferred Compensation Plans. Any benefits to which you are entitled under the Company's supplemental pension, supplemental savings and deferred compensation plans will be payable in accordance with the terms of such plans, including the six (6) month wait for key employees. Please contact Kim Rayce for more detail.

13. Continued Health Insurance. In accordance with the terms of the Employment Agreement, if you are currently enrolled in the Company's group medical, dental and/or vision plans and are making the payroll deductions associated therewith, your coverage in such plans will remain in force through the earlier of (1) February 29, 2016 or (2) the date that you become subsequently employed and covered by a health insurance plan of a new employer. After the date your coverage ceases in accordance with the preceding sentence, you will be entitled to continue your group medical, dental and vision coverage at your own expense for a period of up to eighteen (18) months through COBRA. Information as to the cost of such coverage will be supplied to you approximately two (2) weeks following the expiration of your Separation Period.

14. Other Company Welfare Benefits.

In accordance with the terms of the Employment Agreement, your coverage under the Company's life and accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D) plans will remain in force through February 29, 2016. Such life insurance coverage may be converted to an individual policy within thirty-one (31) days after termination of coverage by contacting MetLife at (888) 622-6616.

Your enrollment in any voluntary benefits including Supplemental Life and/or Supplemental AD&D for you and/or your dependents, Critical Illness Insurance and/or MetLaw, and the payroll deductions associated therewith, will continue through February 29, 2016. MetLife will contact you by mail following that date with regard to your ability to convert the coverage to an individual policy.

15. Separation Pay Checks. Your compensation checks will be mailed to your home or direct deposited unless you specify otherwise. Please let us know in writing if you change your address.

16. Medicare Reporting. By signing this Agreement, you acknowledge that you have carefully reviewed Attachment A regarding Medicare Reporting and you have fully and accurately completed Attachment A regarding potential Medicare eligibility. You also agree to waive and release any private cause of action for damages pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1395. The parties have not shifted responsibility for medical treatment to Medicare in contravention of 42 U.S.C. 1395 and further acknowledge that any action or decision by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services or Medicare regarding your eligibility or entitlement to Medicare or Medicare payments will not affect the finality of this Agreement or render the release of claims void or ineffective. The parties made every effort to adequately protect Medicare's interest and incorporate such into the settlement terms, and to comply with both federal and state law. You agree you will indemnify, defend and hold the Company harmless from any Medicare conditional payments and right to payment, known or unknown, and all claims or liens related thereto.

17. Withholdings. All payments and benefits under this Agreement are subject to any and all applicable tax and other withholdings.

18. Non-Disparagement. You will not disparage, portray in a negative light, or take any action which would be harmful to, or lead to unfavorable publicity for, the Company or its subsidiaries or divisions, or any of its or their current or former officers, directors, employees, agents, consultants, contractors, owners, divisions, parents or successors, whether public or private, including without limitation, in any and all interviews, oral statements, written materials, electronically displayed materials and materials or information displayed on Internet- or intranet-related sites. In the event of a breach or threatened breach of this paragraph, you agree that the Company will be entitled to injunctive relief in a court of appropriate jurisdiction to remedy any such breach or threatened breach and you acknowledge that damages would be inadequate and insufficient.

The Company will not disparage, portray in a negative light, or take any action which would be harmful to, or lead to unfavorable publicity for, you, including without limitation, in any and all interviews, oral statements, written materials, electronically displayed materials and materials or information displayed on Internet- or intranet-related sites. In the event of a breach or threatened breach of this paragraph, the Company agrees that you will be entitled to injunctive relief in a court of appropriate jurisdiction to remedy any such breach or threatened breach and the Company acknowledges that damages would be inadequate and insufficient.

19. Company Property. You will deliver promptly to the Company (and not keep in your possession or deliver to any other person or entity) any and all property belonging to the Company in your possession or under your control, including without limitation, computer hardware/software, credit cards, PDA's, pagers, other electronic equipment, records, data, notes, reports, correspondence, financial information, customer files and information and other documents or information (including any and all copies of such Company property).
20. Executive Release of Claims. You agree, on behalf or yourself, your heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, to release, acquit and forever discharge the Company and its subsidiaries and divisions and its and their respective current and former officers, directors, employees, agents, owners, affiliates, successors and assigns (the "Company Released Parties") of and from any and all manner of actions and causes of action, suits, debts, damages, dues, accounts, bonds, covenants, contracts, agreements, judgments, charges, claims, rights and demands whatsoever, whether known or unknown ("Losses"), which you, your heirs, executors, administrators and assigns ever had, now have or may hereafter have, against the Company Released Parties or any of them arising out of or by reason of any cause, claim, controversy, matter or thing whatsoever, including but not limited to any and all claims arising under the Michigan Elliott-Larsen Civil Rights Act, the Michigan Persons With Disabilities Civil Rights Act, the Michigan Payment of Wages and Fringe Benefits Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA), Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, as amended, the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the Equal Pay Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, the National Labor Relations Act, the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, anti-retaliation laws, "whistleblower" laws, and any other equivalent or similar federal, state, or local constitution, statute, rule, or regulation, and any and all claims or controversies arising out of or relating to your employment by the Company and its predecessors and the cessation thereof, any and all claims or controversies relating to your compensation and/or benefits by or from the Company and its predecessors and any and all matters arising under any federal, state or local statute, rule, regulation or whether based in law or equity. No claim, right or cause of action is reserved, except that the foregoing release shall not apply to your rights under this Agreement, to claims that arise under the ADEA after the date on which you execute this Agreement, and to claims that by law cannot be released or waived.

You understand that as a result of the prior paragraph, you will not have the right to assert that the Company unlawfully terminated your employment or violated any of your rights in connection with your employment.

You affirm that you have not filed, and agree not to initiate or cause to be initiated on your behalf, any complaint, charge, claim or proceeding against the Company Released Parties before any federal, state or local agency, court or other body relating to your employment, the cessation thereof or any other matters covered by the terms described above, and agree not to voluntarily participate in such a proceeding. Further, you hereby waive your right to, and agree, to the maximum extent permitted by law, not to, seek, receive, collective, or benefit from any monetary or other compensatory settlement, award, judgment, or other resolution (including a resolution that would otherwise provide for reinstatement to employment) of any complaint, charge, or claim that any agency or other body pursues against any of the Company Released Parties, whether pursued solely on your behalf or on behalf of a greater class of individuals.

Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude or prevent you from filing a claim with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission that challenges the validity of the release in this paragraph 20 solely with respect to your waiver of any Losses that may arise under the ADEA.

21. Company Release of Claims. The Company agrees on behalf of its subsidiaries and divisions and its and their respective current and former officers, directors, employees, agents, owners, affiliates, successors and assigns (the "Company") to release, acquit and forever discharge you, your heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, of and from any and all manner of actions and causes of action, suits, debts, damages, dues, accounts, bonds, covenants, contracts, agreements, judgments, charges, claims, rights and demands whatsoever, whether known or unknown ("Losses"), which the Company, its subsidiaries and divisions and its and their respective current and former officers, directors, employees, agents, owners, affiliates, successors and assigns, ever had, now have or may hereafter have, against you or any of them arising out of or by reason of any cause, matter or thing whatsoever, excepting any act found to be criminal, by a court of competent jurisdiction, from the beginning of the world to the date hereof, including without limitation, any and all matters relating to your employment by the Company and its predecessors and the cessation thereof, any and all matters relating to your compensation and benefits by or from the Company and its predecessors and any and all matters arising under any federal, state or local statute, rule, regulation or principle of contract law or common law.

The Company understands that as a result of the prior paragraph, the Company will not have the right to assert that you unlawfully terminated your employment or violated any of the Company's rights in connection with your employment.

You will perform all acts and execute and deliver all documents that may be reasonably necessary to fulfill the obligations under this paragraph. You will be reimbursed for any reasonable out-of-pocket and travel expenses incurred by you in connection with your fulfillment of your obligations under this paragraph, provided that such expenses have been approved by the Company, in writing, prior to your incurring the expense.

Such payments and benefits shall instead be provided during the first payroll cycle immediately following the expiration of such six-month period.
- (d) All reimbursements and in-kinds benefits provided under this Agreement will be made or provided in accordance with the requirements of Section 409A to the extent that such reimbursements and in-kind benefits are subject to Section 409A, including, where applicable, the requirements that (i) any reimbursement is for expenses incurred during your employment with the Company or the Separation Period and any in-kind benefit is provided during your employment with the Company or the Separation Period (unless a different time period is stated elsewhere in this Agreement), (ii) the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits to be provided during a calendar year will not affect the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits to be provided in any other calendar year, (iii) any reimbursement will be made on or before the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense is incurred, and (iv) the right to the reimbursement or in-kind benefit is not subject to liquidation or exchange for cash or any other benefit.
- (e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company makes no representation to you about the effect of Section 409A on the provisions of this Agreement.
