Selected Risk Considerations

- You may not receive any return on your investment in the notes. You will receive a positive return on your investment in the notes only if the underlying shares appreciates from the initial share price to the final share price. If the final share price is equal to or less than the initial share price, you will receive only the stated principal amount for each note you hold at maturity.
- The notes do not pay interest.
- Your potential return on the notes is limited.
- Your payment at maturity depends on the closing price of the underlying shares on a single day.
- Investing in the notes is not equivalent to investing in the underlying shares.
- The notes are subject to the credit risk of Citigroup Global Markets Holdings Inc. and Citigroup Inc. If Citigroup Global Markets Holdings Inc. defaults on its obligations under the notes and Citigroup Inc. defaults on its guarantee obligations, you may not receive anything owed to you under the notes.
- Sale of the notes prior to maturity may result in a loss of principal.
- The notes will not be listed on any securities exchange and you may not be able to sell them prior to maturity.
- The estimated value of the notes on the pricing date will be less than the issue price. For more information about the estimated value of the notes, see the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement.
- The value of the notes prior to maturity will fluctuate based on many unpredictable factors.
- The underlying shares are subject to risks associated with non-U.S. markets.
- Fluctuations in exchange rates will affect the price of the underlying shares.
- The issuer and its affiliates may have conflicts of interest with you.

The above summary of selected risks does not describe all of the risks associated with an investment in the notes. You should read the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement and product supplement for a more complete description of risks relating to the notes.
