Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 15, 2010, The Valspar Corporation, a Delaware corporation ( Valspar or the Company ), and certain of its subsidiaries, entered into a Second Amendment (the Second Amendment ) to that certain Three-Year Credit Agreement dated June 30, 2009 (as earlier amended by the First Amendment to Credit Agreement dated as of August 17, 2009, the Credit Agreement ) by and among the Company, certain of its subsidiaries, certain lenders and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., as administrative agent for the lenders.

The Second Amendment increases the total amount of revolving loans available to Valspar and certain designated foreign and domestic subsidiaries under the Credit Agreement from $475 million to $550 million, and provides Valspar with the right to further increase credit availability in an aggregate amount of up to $100 million. Revolving loans under the Credit Agreement, as amended by the Second Amendment, now bear a maturity date of December 31, 2014. The Second Amendment also decreases the interest and fees payable by the Company with respect to revolving loans obtained under the Credit Agreement, and modifies a restrictive covenant contained in the Credit Agreement which (subject to various exceptions) had earlier prohibited Valspar and certain of its subsidiaries from discontinuing or eliminating a business line or segment representing more than 20% of Valspar s consolidated operating profits (as calculated under the Credit Agreement). The modification effected by the Second Amendment now prohibits Valspar and certain of its subsidiaries from discontinuing or eliminating a business line or segment constituting all of the assets of Valspar or the designated subsidiary.

The description above is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Second Amendment, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by this reference.
