Special Membership Bulletin

[LETTERHEAD OF MARSHALL N. CARTER]

DATE: NOVEMBER 14, 2005
TO: NYSE MEMBERS FROM: MARSHALL N. CARTER
SUBJECT: NYSE HEARING DOCUMENTS

Today, court hearings begin in the motion to enjoin the proposed NYSE/Archipelago merger brought by Mr. William Higgins and nine other Member litigants. During the course of this hearing, John Reed, John Thain, and I will all testify.

We will continue to defend vigorously the right of all Members to exercise their right to vote on the NYSE-Archipelago merger. The plaintiffs' claims are meritless and we regret that Members' cash is being used to defend against litigation seeking to deprive you of your right to vote and to delay the merger proceedings.

We have made public additional pre-hearing information, supplementing the depositions posted on nyse.com November 11. You can find the latest information at:

<http://www.nyse.com/about/newsevents/1131708984703.html>

These links include the briefs of the NYSE, its independent directors and CEO John Thain presenting the factual and legal arguments against the plaintiffs' attempt to stop the merger, as well as affirmations setting forth the facts supporting the arguments in the briefs.

The NYSE Board of Directors and management are committed to transparency and disclosure. We again urge Mr. Higgins and the nine other plaintiffs to make public their depositions, briefs, and related information, including engagement letters he and the other plaintiffs have entered into with their attorneys. We will continue to keep you informed of developments in the merger as the hearing proceeds.

IMPORTANT ACQUISITION INFORMATION WITH RESPECT TO THE MERGER

In connection with the proposed merger of the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. ("NYSE") and Archipelago Holdings, Inc. ("Archipelago"), NYSE Group, Inc. has filed a registration statement on Form S-4 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) containing a joint proxy statement/prospectus regarding the proposed transaction. Additional information regarding the interests of such potential participants will be included in the joint proxy statement/prospectus and the other relevant documents filed with the SEC when they become available. Certain statements in this correspondence may contain forward-looking information regarding the NYSE and Archipelago and the combined company after the completion of the transactions that are intended to be covered by the safe harbor for "forward-looking statements" provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements: the ability to obtain governmental approvals of the transaction on the proposed terms and schedule; the failure of NYSE members or Archipelago shareholders to approve the transaction; the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully; the risk that the cost savings and any other synergies from the transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; disruption from the transaction making it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers, employees or suppliers; competition and its effect on pricing, spending, third-party relationships and revenues; social and political conditions such as war, political unrest or terrorism; general economic conditions and normal business uncertainty. Additional risks and factors are identified in Archipelago's filings with the Securities Exchange Commission, including its Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2004 which is available on Archipelago's website at <http://www.Archipelago.com>, and the Registration Statement on Form S-4 filed by NYSE Group, Inc. with the SEC on July 21, 2005 (and amended on September 24, 2005, October 24, 2005 and November 3, 2005).

You should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this document. Except for any obligation to disclose material information under the Federal securities laws, none of the NYSE, Archipelago or the combined company after the completion of the transactions undertake any obligation to release publicly any revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this document.
