On January 29, 2019, BlueMountain Capital Management, LLC issued a statement and press release (the “Statement and Press Release”). A copy of the full text of the Statement and Press Release is included below.

STATEMENT

BlueMountain Capital Management, LLC (“BlueMountain” or “we”), a private diversified alternative asset management firm, is deeply disappointed that the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of PG&E Corporation (NYSE: PCG) (“PG&E” or the “Company”) has ignored calls from multiple parties to abandon its reckless and irresponsible plan to file for bankruptcy -- a move that will harm all stakeholders.

Today’s filing is the latest example of how the Board continues to fail the Company, wildfire victims, customers, employees, creditors, shareholders and the people of California. We urge all stakeholders to support change at PG&E and will be proposing a “New Slate” of highly-qualified and impartial directors.

BlueMountain believes a new Board is in the best interest of all PG&E stakeholders.

Bankruptcy does not eliminate shareholders’ corporate governance rights, including, among other things, their ability to nominate and elect directors at annual meetings. We plan to announce a proposed “New Slate” no later than February 21, 2019.
