SEC Guidelines

In connection with the proposed transactions, General Motors, Hughes and EchoStar intend to file relevant materials with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including one or more Registration Statement(s) on Form S-4 that contain a prospectus and proxy/consent solicitation statement. Because those documents will contain important information, holders of GM $1-2/3 and GM Class H common stock are urged to read them, if and when they become available. When filed with the SEC, they will be available for free at the SEC's website, www.sec.gov, and GM stockholders will receive information at an appropriate time on how to obtain transaction-related documents for free from General Motors. Such documents are not currently available.

General Motors and its directors and executive officers, Hughes and certain of its officers, and EchoStar and certain of its executive officers may be deemed to be participants in GM's solicitation of proxies or consents from the holders of GM $1-2/3 common stock and GM Class H common stock in connection with the proposed transactions. Information regarding the participants and their interests in the solicitation was filed pursuant to Rule 425 with the SEC by each of GM and Hughes on November 16, 2001. Investors may obtain additional information regarding the interests of the participants by reading the prospectus and proxy/consent solicitation statement if and when it becomes available.

This communication shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy, nor shall there be any sale of securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. No offering of securities shall be made except by means of a prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

18

Competitive Benefits of the Merger

- o Increased Competition with Cable
 - Cable still has ~80% of the U.S. multichannel subscribers
 - Cable continues to increase prices each year (37% since 1996 vs. CPI of 10%)
 - On-going cable industry consolidation
 - Digital cable and bundled broadband offering increasingly threatens DBS
- o More Services, More Choices and Competitive Prices
 - Local channels covering approximately 85% of TVHH population (versus 60% today)
 - More High Definition TV channels
 - Expanded services: interactive, ethnic, video-on-demand, sports and news
 - Nationwide broadband services at affordable prices

After Merger

New Co(2)	850	85%	12
-----------	-----	-----	----

The New Company Will Provide Local Channels to More Than 85% of TVHHs (Versus Around 60% for 2 Separate Companies) and Will Be Able to Offer Many New HD Channels to Meet Growing Consumer Demand

- (1) Assumes Must-Carry environment
- (2) Assumes minimum post merger local channel offering and population coverage with reallocation of channels duplicated

20

Benefits to Rural America

- o Greater Availability of Digital Quality Local Channels
- o National Pricing Which will be Competitive Against Cable
- o More Services Offered at a Single National Price
 - New Content
 - High Definition TV
 - Interactive
 - Video-on-demand
 - Specialty
 - Foreign language
- o Improved Broadband Services
 - Affordable pricing
 - Expanded services

Regulatory Overview

Market Definition - Relevant Points

Edgar Filing: GENERAL MOTORS CORP - Form 425

- o FCC's Original Allocation of DBS Spectrum Designed to Provide Competition with Cable Monopoly
- o SHVIA Enacted to Help DBS Compete with Cable
- o In the 1998 Primestar/News Corp/MCI Cases, DOJ and FCC Defined Market to be Multichannel Video Programming Distribution (MVPD)
 - DOJ concluded that DBS and cable were in same market
 - FCC endorsed DBS mergers so that DBS could better compete against cable
- o DBS Focuses their Advertising/ Promotions on Cable; Much of Cable's Advertising Attacks DBS

24

Regulatory Overview

Market Concentration - Relevant Points

- o The 2001 Heinz Case Held That Substantial Merger-Specific Efficiencies Could Outweigh an Increase in Concentration
- o Merger Spectrum Efficiencies Will Result in Extraordinary and Verifiable Increase in Output
 - The addition of local channels, HDTV, ethnic services, expanded broadband services, etc. will increase the options for MVPD viewers
 - The merger efficiencies cannot be achieved without combining EchoStar and HUGHES
- o No Likelihood of Collusion as DBS Competes Against Many Local Cable Monopolies

25

GMH Shareholder Protections

- o HUGHES Will Absolutely Manage the Business in an Aggressive and Effective

Edgar Filing: GENERAL MOTORS CORP - Form 425

Fashion

- HUGHES management to remain totally focused on running the business
