Section 8 – Other Events

ITEM 8.01 – Other Events

On April 17, 2015, Barington Companies Equity Partners, L.P. (“Barington”) filed a purported class action lawsuit (Barington Companies Equity Partners, L.P. v. The Eastern Company, et. al., Case No. UWY-CV-15-026955-S (the “Action”)) against The Eastern Company (the “Company”) and its board of directors (the “Board”) in the Superior Court of Waterbury, Connecticut (the “Court”). The Action alleged, among other things, that the Eastern Board breached its fiduciary duties by amending the Company’s bylaws to allow the board to fill vacancies resulting from an expansion of the number of board seats without shareholder approval. The Action also challenged the Board’s announced intention to increase the size of the Board and appoint a new director after the May 20, 2015 Annual Meeting without shareholder approval and sought, among other things, injunctive relief preventing the Board from nominating a new director to fill a vacancy that is the result of an expansion of the number of board seats.

On July 13, 2015, the Court approved a Stipulation and Order of Dismissal (the “Stipulation”) entered into by the parties in connection with the Action. The Stipulation requires that notice of its terms be given to shareholders of the Company in the form of this Current Report on Form 8-K. The Stipulation provides for, among other things, the dismissal of the Action after the requisite notice period to shareholders has expired. The text of the Stipulation is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, is incorporated herein by reference and should be read in its entirety.
