ITEM 1.03 BANKRUPTCY OR RECEIVERSHIP.

On June 19, 2009, Cooperative Bank (the "Bank"), the wholly owned subsidiary of Cooperative Bankshares, Inc. (the "Company"), was closed by the North Carolina Commissioner of Banks and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the "FDIC") was appointed as receiver of the Bank. On that same date, First Bank, Troy, North Carolina, acquired substantially all banking operations, including substantially all of the deposits, of the Bank and purchased most of the Bank's assets in a transaction facilitated by the FDIC.

The Company's principal asset is its ownership of the common stock of the Bank and, as a result of the receivership of the Bank, the Company has very limited remaining tangible assets. As the owner of all of the capital stock of the Bank, the Company would be entitled to the net recoveries, if any, following the liquidation or sale of the Bank or its assets by the FDIC. However, at this time, the Company does not expect that it will realize any such recoveries.

In connection with the receivership of the Bank, both the Company and the Bank expect to receive notices from substantially all of the counterparties (including, without limitation, lenders) to the Company's and/or Bank's material agreements, of alleged events of default under those agreements, and of those counterparties' intentions to terminate those agreements or accelerate the Company's and/or Bank's performance of those agreements. The Company and/or Bank may dispute certain of those notices. However, in the event of a default by the Company and/or Bank under one or more of those material agreements, or in the event of the termination of one or more of the material agreements, the Company and/or Bank may be subject to penalties under those agreements and also may suffer cross-default claims from counterparties under the Company's and/or Bank's other agreements.

As a result of the Bank's receivership, it is highly likely that the Company will be required to cease operations and liquidate or seek bankruptcy protection. If the Company were to liquidate or seek bankruptcy protection, the Company believes that there would be no assets available to holders of the capital stock of the Company.

ITEM 2.01 COMPLETION OF ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS.

ITEM 2.04 TRIGGERING EVENTS THAT ACCELERATE OR INCREASE A DIRECT FINANCIAL

OBLIGATION OR AN OBLIGATION UNDER AN OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENT.

The information included in Item 1.03 of this Current Report on Form 8-K is incorporated herein by reference.

3

ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS.

On June 19, 2009, the FDIC issued a press release announcing the receivership of the Bank and the acquisition of substantially all of the Bank's deposits and assets by First Bank. A copy of the press release is attached to this to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
