Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On September 10, 2015, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Deckers Outdoor Corporation (the "Company") approved an amendment to the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws (as so amended, the "Bylaws") to add the following language to the Bylaws as a new Article IX:

"Forum Selection: Unless the Corporation consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, to the fullest extent permitted by law, all Internal Corporate Claims shall be brought solely and exclusively in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (or, if such court does not have jurisdiction, the Superior Court of the State of Delaware, or, if such other court does not have jurisdiction, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware). "Internal Corporate Claims" means claims, including claims in the right of the Corporation, brought by a stockholder (including a beneficial owner) (i) that are based upon a violation by a current or former director or officer or stockholder in such capacity or (ii) as to which the DGCL confers jurisdiction upon the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware."

For purposes of the amendment, "Corporation" refers to Deckers Outdoor Corporation, and "DGCL" refers to the Delaware General Corporation Law.

This amendment was adopted in accordance with recent changes to the Delaware General Corporation Law, which explicitly authorize Delaware corporations to adopt exclusive forum selection provisions such as those set forth in the new Article IX. The Board determined that adoption of this provision is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders for a number of reasons, including, among others:

the importance of preventing the unnecessary diversion of the Company's resources to address costly, wasteful and duplicative multi-forum litigation, in particular by reducing the risk of concurrently defending litigation in multiple jurisdictions and mitigating the risk of conflicting outcomes;

facilitating increased consistency and predictability in litigation outcomes for the benefit of the Company and its stockholders, in particular by increasing the probability that litigation matters will be heard by judges with significant experience applying Delaware corporate law; and recent statutory developments in Delaware, and case law developments in other jurisdictions, upholding the Board's authority to adopt such bylaw provisions and confirming their validity.

In addition, in adopting the amendment, the Board considered that the exclusive forum provision expressly preserves the ability of the Company to consent to an alternative forum under appropriate circumstances, and preserves the ability of stockholders to bring the type of claims addressed by the provision, subject to applicable law.

The amendment to the Bylaws was effective immediately upon approval by the Board.

The Amended and Restated Bylaws (as amended to reflect the amendment indicated above) are set forth as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

On September 10, 2015, the Company held its 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting"), at which the Company's stockholders voted on five proposals. The Company had 32,677,890 shares of common stock outstanding on July 14, 2015, the record date for the Annual Meeting. At the Annual Meeting, 29,629,307 shares of common stock were present in person or represented by proxy.

The following sets forth the final results of the voting for the five proposals voted upon at the Annual Meeting. These matters are described in more detail in the Company's definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A, which the Company filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 29, 2015 (the "Proxy Statement").
