2. To ratify the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as EnPro’s external auditors for 2008.

This Proxy Statement is soliciting proxies to elect only our Nominees. Accordingly, the enclosed GOLD proxy card may only be voted for our Nominees and does not confer voting power with respect to any of the Company’s director nominees. Stockholders who return the GOLD proxy card will only be able to vote for Steel Partners’ five Nominees and will not have the opportunity to vote for the three other seats up for election at the Annual Meeting. See “Voting and Proxy Procedures” for additional information. You can only vote for the Company’s director nominees by signing and returning a proxy card provided by the Company. Stockholders should refer to the Company’s proxy statement for the names, backgrounds, qualifications and other information concerning the Company’s nominees. The participants in this solicitation intend to vote all of their shares of Common Stock in favor of the Nominees and will not vote their shares in favor of any of the Company’s nominees.

Steel Partners, Steel Partners II GP LLC (“Steel GP LLC”), Steel Partners II Master Fund L.P. (“Steel Master”), Steel Partners LLC (“Partners LLC”), Warren G. BACKGROUND TO SOLICITATION

- We made our first investment in Shares of EnPro in October 2003.
- By September 2005, we had acquired just under 15% of the outstanding Shares, making us the largest stockholder of Enpro.
- On October 20, 2005, we sent a letter to EnPro expressing our disappointment with the Company's announcement of its proposed $150 million Convertible Debt offering to institutional investors. In the letter, we expressed our belief that the Board was making a tremendous mistake by effectively selling stock at a level below the Company's intrinsic value. We suggested that if EnPro needed capital it should have explored a rights offering to existing stockholders or bank financing.
- On December 8, 2005, we sent a letter to EnPro recommending that the Company implement an aggressive share repurchase program. In the letter, we stated that a share repurchase program was a superior alternative to EnPro's stated strategy of strengthening the mix of its business by strategic acquisitions and that the probability of acquiring a business with attractive margins at a reasonable price was very low in the then current market. We warned EnPro of the substantial financial risks associated with strategic acquisitions and expressed our view that the least risky and highest potential return would be a major share buyback which would be immediately accretive.
- In June 2007, we privately expressed to EnPro our willingness to enter into negotiations to acquire the Company for $47 per Share. EnPro declined our offer.
- On January 30, 2008, we sent a letter to EnPro expressing our disappointment with the precipitous decline in the value of the Shares. We recommended that EnPro capitalize on its operating momentum and utilize the strength of its balance sheet and substantial excess liquidity to pursue a public recapitalization at $30 per Share for at least $150 million of common stock, or approximately 23% of the outstanding Shares. We stated that if EnPro is unwilling to pursue a recapitalization, it should hire a nationally recognized investment banking firm to explore all strategic alternatives to maximize stockholder value, including a sale of the Company. We also stated that we remain interested in purchasing EnPro and would expect to participate in any sales process commenced by the Company. We simultaneously submitted a notification to EnPro nominating the Nominees for election at the Annual Meeting.
- On February 19, 2008, we sent a letter to EnPro expressing our disappointment that the Company had not responded to our proposals set forth in our January 30, 2008 letter other than to publicly state that the Company is evaluating our recommended strategic alternatives and will update the market at the appropriate time. We emphasized our belief that an election contest should be a last resort and hope that the Company would agree to appoint our Nominees to the Board on a voluntary basis.
- On February 28, 2008, Warren G. Lichtenstein, the managing member of Steel GP LLC and the manager of Partners LLC, met with representatives of EnPro to discuss our concerns regarding the Company, which are set forth in detail below. We sought, among other things, to obtain representation on the Board in an effort to avoid a proxy contest. However, the parties were unable to reach a resolution regarding these concerns during this meeting.

REASONS FOR OUR SOLICITATION

We believe that the value of EnPro has not been maximized by the Board and that the election of the Nominees represents the best means for stockholders to have the ability to maximize the present value of their Shares. If elected, the Nominees will, subject to their fiduciary duties, concomitantly explore all available alternatives to maximize stockholder value including, but not limited to:

- A detailed review of capital allocation practices and an immediate recapitalization of EnPro;
- A divestiture of non-core assets of EnPro on a tax efficient basis;
- A more diligent management of EnPro's asbestos liabilities with the objective of minimizing cash outflow, irrespective of the amount of remaining insurance receivables; and / or
 - A sale of the entire Company by means of a merger, tender offer or otherwise.

If elected, the Nominees will retain a nationally recognized investment banking firm as well as other relevant consulting firms to assist in the review and implementation of the alternatives that the Nominees believe will maximize stockholder value for all of the Company's stockholders.

Review of Capital Allocation and Recapitalization

We believe that one of the main responsibilities of a board of directors of any public company is to properly allocate capital. We believe that EnPro's historical capital allocation strategy and balance sheet management have been inadequate. The maintenance of large cash balances, particularly given EnPro's undrawn credit facility and access to liquidity, is in our view an example of poor capital allocation. Furthermore, we believe EnPro's decision to issue the 3.9375% Convertible Senior Debentures due 2015 (the "Debentures") in 2005 was shortsighted. While the Debentures offer a low fixed interest rate, we believe that the actual cost of capital is considerably higher when taking into account (i) the cost of the associated hedging transactions into which the Company entered to increase the effective conversion price, (ii) the additional cost of the Debentures' equity component and (iii) the additional shares that would need to be issued upon certain change of control transactions. As such, we believe that not only is the cost of capital significantly higher than an otherwise unlevered company would merit, but also that the Debentures in certain ways also serve as an anti-takeover measure by increasing the purchase price a potential buyer would have to pay. Unfortunately, both are at the expense of EnPro's stockholders. We also believe that the Company's recently announced share repurchase, through an agreement with Credit Suisse International ("CSI"), is too little, does not adequately address the need to restructure the Company's balance sheet and subjects the Company to unnecessary risk in the form of a purchase price adjustment that the Company may be required to remit to CSI.

If elected, the Nominees would immediately pursue a recapitalization to address EnPro's inefficient balance sheet. As noted in our letter to the Board dated January 30, 2008, we believe a modest recapitalization utilizing cash on the Company's balance sheet and a portion of its existing debt facilities is highly achievable and offers several benefits to EnPro and its stockholders. First, given EnPro's current market valuation and considering its favorable prospects, we believe it is unlikely that the Company will find any alternatives offering higher returns on investment on an absolute and relative basis. Second, the recapitalization would provide immediate liquidity at a premium to the current Share price for those stockholders who elect to tender. Third, a more efficient balance sheet will lower EnPro's cost of capital and enhance the growth of EnPro's levered free cash and therefore increase the upside to those stockholders who opt not to tender their Shares. After this recapitalization, EnPro will still enjoy a strong and flexible balance sheet that would support the Company's long term strategic vision.

Divestiture of Non-Core Assets

In addition to a recapitalization, we believe that a divestiture of EnPro's Engine Products and Services segment would further enhance stockholder value. In addressing questions regarding this topic on February 6, 2008, management acknowledged that the segment does not fit with the rest of the business and should therefore be sold. However, it does not appear that the Board has pursued such a divestiture with the required level of expediency. If elected, the Nominees would seek to leverage the segment's recent operating performance and accelerate the sale process so as to afford management the opportunity to focus on its core businesses.

Diligent Management of Asbestos Liabilities

According to disclosure in the Company's latest Form 10-K filed with the SEC on February 26, 2008, EnPro has paid approximately $1.3 billion in settlements and judgments and over $400 million in fees and expenses since the first asbestos-related lawsuits were filed against the Garlock Sealing Technologies operation in 1975. Further, EnPro estimates the remaining liabilities for the next ten years to be approximately $519 million (excluding significant fees and expenses) against approximately $382 million of solvent insurance and trust coverage that will be available to cover future asbestos claims and certain expense payments. Given (i) EnPro's significant historical payments, (ii) the magnitude of and the overhang related to the liability which we believe negatively impacts the Company's valuation and access to the capital markets, (iii) the substantial estimate revisions over the last several years, and (iv) the Company's historical shifts in strategy, we believe that a thorough analysis of the Company's current strategy by a third party is critical. If elected, the Nominees will engage third party experts to assess the Company's estimates and strategy as well as potential solutions to minimize and contain the potential liability.

Potential Sale of the Company

In conjunction with the aforementioned initiatives and subject to their fiduciary duties, the Nominees will use their best efforts to maximize stockholder value by pursuing a potential sale of EnPro. The Nominees' priority would be to negotiate and consummate a transaction or transactions on the most favorable terms available to the EnPro stockholders. The Nominees would work to solicit bids from potential acquirors, including competitors of EnPro. Steel Partners intends to participate in any sale process initiated by EnPro. We note that in June 2007, Steel Partners privately expressed to EnPro its willingness to enter into negotiations to acquire the Company. The offer was rebuffed by the Board. In accordance with the Nominees' fiduciary duties to enter into a sale transaction that would have the greatest benefit to EnPro stockholders, bids would be carefully evaluated based on, among other things, the value of the consideration offered, the ability of the bidder to finance the bid, the quality of any non-cash consideration offered (including the financial condition of any bidder offering non-cash consideration), and the timing and likelihood of consummation of the proposed transaction or transactions in light of any required financing or regulatory approvals. If elected, the Nominees would recuse themselves from any vote taken by the Board on any proposal submitted by Steel Partners to acquire the Company.

We wish to provide the stockholders, the true owners of EnPro, with the opportunity to elect directors that are unaffiliated with the existing Board. If all are elected, the Nominees will constitute a majority of the current eight-member Board. Your vote to elect the Nominees does not constitute a vote in favor of our value enhancing plans including pursuing a sale of EnPro. Your vote to elect the Nominees will have the legal effect of replacing five incumbent directors with our Nominees. If the Nominees are elected to the Board and a transaction involving the sale of EnPro is proposed by the Board, stockholders will have an opportunity to vote on such transaction to the extent required by law.

There can be no assurance that stockholder value will be maximized as a result of this solicitation or the election of the Nominees.

The Board is currently composed of eight directors whose terms expire at the Annual Meeting. We expect that the Board will nominate these incumbent directors for re-election at the Annual Meeting. VOTING AND PROXY PROCEDURES

Only stockholders of record on the Record Date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. Each Share is entitled to one vote. Stockholders who sell Shares before the Record Date (or acquire them without voting rights after the Record Date) may not vote such Shares. Stockholders of record on the Record Date will retain their voting rights in connection with the Annual Meeting even if they sell such Shares after the Record Date. Based on publicly available information, we believe that the only outstanding classes of securities of EnPro entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting are the Shares.

Shares represented by properly executed GOLD proxy cards will be voted at the Annual Meeting as marked and, in the absence of specific instructions, will be voted FOR the election of the Nominees to the Board, FOR the ratification of the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to serve as the Company's external auditors for 2008 and in the discretion of the persons named as proxies on all other matters as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

According to EnPro's proxy statement for the Annual Meeting, the Board intends to nominate eight candidates for election as directors at the Annual Meeting. This Proxy Statement is soliciting proxies to elect only our Nominees. Accordingly, the enclosed GOLD proxy card may only be voted for our Nominees and does not confer voting power with respect to any of the Company's director nominees. Under applicable proxy rules, we are only permitted to solicit proxies for our Nominees. Therefore, stockholders who return the GOLD proxy card will only be able to vote for our five Nominees and will not have the opportunity to vote for the three other seats up for election at the Annual Meeting. You can only vote for EnPro's director nominees by signing and returning a proxy card provided by the Company. Stockholders should refer to EnPro's proxy statement for the names, backgrounds, qualifications and other information concerning the Company's nominees. The participants in this solicitation intend to vote all of their Shares in favor of the Nominees and will not vote their Shares in favor of any of the Company's nominees.

QUORUM

In order to conduct any business at the Annual Meeting, a quorum must be present in person or represented by valid proxies. The presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Abstentions are counted as present for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the meeting.

VOTES REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

Election of Directors. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. The director nominees who receive the largest number of votes cast will be elected, up to the maximum number of directors to be elected at the Annual Meeting. A vote to "withhold authority" for any director nominee will have no impact on the election of directors.

Ratification of Selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. The affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting is necessary to approve the ratification of the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's external auditors for 2008. Abstentions will have no effect on the outcome of the vote for the approval of the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

DISCRETIONARY VOTING

Shares held in "street name" and held of record by banks, brokers or nominees may not be voted by such banks, brokers or nominees unless the beneficial owners of such Shares provide them with instructions on how to vote.

REVOCAION OF PROXIES

Stockholders of EnPro may revoke their proxies at any time prior to exercise by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy) or by delivering a written notice of revocation. The delivery of a subsequently dated proxy which is properly completed will constitute a revocation of any earlier proxy. The revocation may be delivered either to Steel Partners in care of Innisfree M&A Incorporated at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement or to EnPro at 5605 Carnegie Boulevard, Suite 500, Charlotte, North Carolina 28209, or any other address provided by EnPro. Although a revocation is effective if delivered to EnPro, Steel Partners requests that either the original or photostatic copies of all revocations be mailed to Steel Partners in care of Innisfree M&A Incorporated at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement so that Steel Partners will be aware of all revocations and can more accurately determine if and when proxies have been received from the holders of record on the Record Date of a majority of the outstanding Shares. Additionally, Innisfree M&A Incorporated may use this information to contact stockholders who have revoked their proxies in order to solicit later dated proxies for the election of the Nominees.

IF YOU WISH TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES TO THE BOARD OR FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE SELECTION OF PRICEWATERHOUSECOOPERS LLP, PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND RETURN PROMPTLY THE ENCLOSED GOLD PROXY CARD IN THE POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED.

Applicable rules of the SEC govern the submission of stockholder proposals and EnPro's consideration of them for inclusion in the proxy statement and form of proxy for the 2009 annual stockholders' meeting.

The information set forth above regarding the procedures for submitting stockholder nominations and proposals for consideration at EnPro's 2009 annual meeting of stockholders is based on information contained in the Company's proxy statement. The incorporation of this information in this Proxy Statement should not be construed as an admission by us that such procedures are legal, valid or binding.

Although we do not have any knowledge indicating that any statement made by Steel Partners herein is untrue, we do not take any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of statements taken from public documents and records that were not prepared by or on our behalf, or for any failure by EnPro to disclose events that may affect the significance or accuracy of such information. See Schedule II for information regarding persons who beneficially own more than 5% of the Shares and the ownership of the Shares by the directors and management of EnPro.
