PRELIMINARY SUBJECT TO COMPLETION DATED MAY 30, 2008

MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

As we previously announced, the boards of directors of Triarc Companies, Inc. and Wendy's International, Inc. have each approved a definitive merger agreement for an all-stock transaction in which Wendy's shareholders will receive a fixed ratio of 4.25 shares of Triarc Class A common stock for each Wendy's common share they own. When the merger is completed, Triarc will change its name to Wendy's/Arby's Group, Inc., which we refer to as Wendy's/Arby's. In connection with the merger, existing shares of Triarc Class B common stock, Series 1 will be converted into shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock on a one-for-one basis. Existing shares of Triarc Class A common stock will remain outstanding as shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock. Wendy's/Arby's common stock is expected to be quoted on the New York Stock Exchange, which we refer to as the NYSE, under the symbol WEN.

In the merger, approximately 377 million shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock will be issued to Wendy's shareholders. Based on the number of outstanding shares of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock, and the number of outstanding Wendy's common shares as of , 2008, Wendy's shareholders are expected to hold approximately 80.6%, in the aggregate, of the outstanding Wendy's/Arby's common stock following the completion of the merger.

On April 23, 2008, the last full trading day before the merger agreement was signed, the closing sales price of Triarc Class A common stock, which trades on the NYSE under the symbol TRY, was $6.30 per share, the closing sales price of Triarc Class B common stock, which trades on the NYSE under the symbol TRY.B, was $6.50 per share, and the closing sales price of Wendy's common shares, which trade on the NYSE under the symbol WEN, was $25.32 per share.

For a discussion of the risks relating to the merger, see Risk Factors beginning on page 25.

An annual meeting of Triarc's stockholders and a special meeting of Wendy's shareholders are being held to approve the transactions and related matters contemplated by the merger agreement. Triarc's stockholders also will elect directors and act on other matters normally considered at Triarc's annual meeting. Information about these meetings and the merger is contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read this entire joint proxy statement/prospectus carefully, as well as the annexes and information incorporated by reference.

The Triarc board of directors unanimously recommends that the Triarc stockholders vote for the proposals to amend Triarc's certificate of incorporation and to approve the issuance of Wendy's/Arby's common stock, all of which are necessary to effect the merger. The Wendy's board of directors unanimously (with four abstentions due to actual or perceived conflicts of interest) recommends that the Wendy's shareholders vote for the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

Time:

Place:

Purpose:

To adopt the amendment to Triarc's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Triarc Class A common stock to 1,500,000,000, in connection with the merger (shares of Triarc Class A common stock are referred to as Wendy's/Arby's common stock following completion of the merger);

To adopt the amendment to Triarc's certificate of incorporation to convert each issued and outstanding share of Triarc Class B common stock into one share of Wendy's/Arby's common stock and to provide that there shall only be one class of authorized common stock of Wendy's/Arby's, in connection with the merger; and

To adopt certain additional amendments to Triarc's certificate of incorporation, in connection with the merger, to: (a) change the name of Triarc to Wendy's/Arby's Group, Inc., (b) prohibit the issuance of preferred stock of Wendy's/Arby's to affiliates of Wendy's/Arby's unless offered ratably to the holders of Wendy's/Arby's common stock, subject to an exception in the event that Wendy's/Arby's is in financial distress and the issuance is approved by the audit committee of Wendy's/Arby's board of directors, (c) amend the definition of Interested Stockholder, which is used in the certificate of incorporation in connection with requiring increased stockholder approval thresholds for transactions with affiliates, to remove the exception for DWG Acquisition Group L.P., a dissolved partnership formerly controlled by Nelson Peltz and Peter W. May, Triarc's non-executive Chairman and Vice Chairman, respectively, (d) provide that Wendy's/Arby's board of directors shall not have the power or authority to amend, alter or repeal Section 3 of Article I of the Wendy's/Arby's bylaws, which provides that the headquarters of the Wendy's brand will be in the greater Columbus, Ohio area for a ten-year period following the completion of the merger, and (e) provide that the purpose of Wendy's/Arby's is to engage in the restaurant business and complementary, incidental or ancillary businesses.

(A copy of Triarc's current certificate of incorporation and a copy of the form of amendment to Triarc's certificate of incorporation described above are attached as Annexes D and E, respectively, to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. For more details about the proposed amendment, see The Amendment to Triarc's Certificate of Incorporation.)

To approve the issuance of Wendy's/Arby's common stock, pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 23, 2008, among Triarc, Green Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Triarc, and Wendy's, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, in connection with the merger;

To approve any motion to adjourn the Triarc annual meeting to another time or place, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Triarc annual meeting to approve the proposals related to the merger;

To elect twelve directors to hold office as specified in the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus;

To approve an amendment to Triarc's Amended and Restated 2002 Equity Participation Plan to increase the number of shares reserved for issuance under the plan by an additional 7,400,000 shares of Triarc Class B common stock, prohibit the repricing of outstanding awards without prior stockholder approval and eliminate the ability of Triarc to grant reload option awards or stock options or SARs with exercise prices below fair market value on the date of grant;

To ratify the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for 2008; and

To conduct any other business that properly comes before the meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the meeting.

Each of the first four proposals listed above relating to the merger is conditioned upon approval of each of the other three and the approval of each such proposal is required for completion of the merger. None of the three proposals relating to the adoption of the amendment to Triarc's certificate of incorporation or the proposal to issue Wendy's/Arby's common stock in the merger will be implemented unless all four proposals related to the merger are approved by the Triarc stockholders and the merger is completed.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the annexes, contains further information with respect to the business to be transacted at the Triarc annual meeting.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MEETINGS

Q: Why am I receiving this document?

A: We are delivering this document to you as both a joint proxy statement of Triarc and Wendy's and a prospectus of Triarc. It is a joint proxy statement because each of our boards of directors is soliciting proxies from its shareholders/stockholders. It is a prospectus because Triarc will issue shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock in exchange for Wendy's common shares in the merger and convert shares of its Triarc Class B common stock into shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock in connection with the merger.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After carefully reading and considering the information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, please vote your shares as soon as possible to ensure that your shares will be represented at your company's annual or special meeting, as the case may be. You may vote your shares prior to the meeting, even if you plan to attend your company's meeting in person. Please follow the instructions set forth on the proxy card or on the voting instruction form provided by the record holder if your shares are held in the name of your broker or other nominee.

Q: How do I vote?

A: You may vote before your annual or special meeting, as the case may be, in one of the following ways:

use the toll-free number shown on your proxy card; visit the website shown on your proxy card to vote via the Internet; or complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

You may also vote your shares in person at your meeting.

Q: What voting requirements must be met in order for the matters relating to the merger to be approved?

A: For the matters to be approved by Triarc stockholders:

the affirmative vote of a majority of the total voting power of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class A common stock (for purposes of the class vote, holders of Triarc Class A common stock have one full vote for each share of that stock), voting together as a separate class, and the affirmative vote of a majority of the total voting power of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock entitled to vote (for purposes of this vote, holders of Triarc Class B common stock have 1/10 vote for each share of that stock and holders of Triarc Class A common stock have one full vote for each share of that stock), voting together as a single class, are required to adopt the amendment to Triarc's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Triarc Class A common stock;

the affirmative vote of a majority of the total voting power of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class B common stock (for purposes of the class vote, holders of Triarc Class B common stock have one full vote for each share of that stock), voting together as a separate class, and the affirmative vote of a majority of the total voting power of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock entitled to vote (for purposes of this vote, holders of Triarc Class B common stock have 1/10 vote for each share of that stock and holders of Triarc Class A common stock have one full vote for each share of that stock), voting together as a single class, are required to adopt the amendment to Triarc s certificate of incorporation to convert each issued and outstanding share of Triarc Class B common stock into one share of Wendy s/Arby s common stock and provide that there shall only be one class of authorized common stock of Wendy s/Arby s;

the affirmative
vote of a majority of the total voting power of the outstanding shares of Triarc
Class A
common stock and Triarc
Class B
common stock (for purposes of this vote,
holders of Triarc Class B
common stock
have 1/10 vote for each share of that stock and holders of Triarc Class A
common stock
have one full vote for each share of that stock), voting together as a single class, is required to adopt the additional amendments to Triarc's
certificate of incorporation;
and

the affirmative
vote of a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by holders of shares of Triarc
Class A
common stock
and Triarc
Class B
common stock

(for purposes of this vote, holders of Triarc Class B common stock have 1/10 vote for each share of that stock and holders of Class A common stock have one full vote for each share of that stock), voting together as a single class, is required to approve the issuance of Wendy's/Arby's common stock in the merger to Wendy's shareholders, provided that the total votes cast on the proposal represent over 50% of the total voting power of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock (for this purpose, holders of Triarc Class B common stock have 1/10 vote for each share of that stock and holders of Class A common stock have one full vote for each share of that stock), voting together as a single class, entitled to vote on the proposal to approve the issuance of Wendy s/Arby s common stock in the merger to Wendy s shareholders.

For the matters to be approved by Wendy s shareholders:

the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding Wendy s common shares entitled to vote at the Wendy s special meeting is required to adopt the merger agreement.

For more details concerning the voting requirements, see Triarc Annual Meeting Voting Requirements and Wendy s Special Meeting Voting Requirements.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by a broker or other nominee, will my broker or nominee vote my shares for me?

A:

If you are a Wendy's shareholder, your broker or other nominee does not have authority to vote on the merger proposal. If you are a Triarc stockholder, your broker or other nominee does not have authority to vote on the three proposals relating to the adoption of the amendment to Triarc's certificate of incorporation (for a summary of these proposals, see Triarc Annual Meeting Purpose of the Annual Meeting) or the proposal to issue Wendy's/Arby's common stock in the merger. Your broker or other nominee will vote your shares held by it in street name with respect to these matters only if you provide instructions to it on how to vote. You should follow the directions your broker or other nominee provides.

Q: What if I do not vote on the matters relating to the merger?

A: If you are a Wendy's shareholder and you fail to respond with a vote or fail to instruct your broker or other nominee how to vote on the merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the merger agreement. If you respond but do not indicate how you want to vote on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement. If you respond and abstain from voting on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, your proxy will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

If you are a Triarc stockholder and you fail to respond with a vote or fail to instruct your broker or other nominee how to vote on the three proposals relating to the adoption of the amendment to Triarc s certificate of incorporation (for a summary of these proposals, see Triarc Annual Meeting Purpose of the Annual Meeting) or the proposal to issue Wendy s/Arby s common stock in the merger, it will have the same effect as a vote against these proposals, each of which must be approved for the merger to occur. If you respond but do not indicate how you want to vote on the proposals, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of these proposals. If you respond and abstain from voting, your proxy will have the same effect as a vote against these proposals.

Q: May I change my vote after I have delivered my proxy or voting instruction card?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at your annual or special meeting, as the case may be.

You may revoke your proxy by giving notice of revocation in writing, by accessing the internet site stated on the form of proxy, by using the toll-free telephone number stated on the form of proxy, or by attending, and voting at, the annual or special meeting.

Your attendance at the annual or special meeting alone will not revoke any proxy.

If your shares are held in an account at a broker or other nominee, you should contact your broker or other nominee to change your vote.

Q: Do I have dissenters rights?

A: Wendy's shareholders who do not vote in favor of the merger proposal and otherwise comply with the requirements and procedures of Section 1701.85 of the Ohio Revised Code, a copy of which is attached as Annex I to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, are entitled to exercise their dissenters' rights, which generally entitle shareholders to receive a cash payment equal to the fair value of their Wendy's common shares in connection with the merger. A detailed description of the dissenters' rights and procedures available to Wendy's shareholders is included in The Merger Dissenters Rights beginning on page 73.

Triarc stockholders do not have appraisal or dissenters' rights in connection with the merger or any of the proposals to be considered at the annual meeting.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. Please do not send your stock certificates with your proxy card.

If you are a holder of Wendy's common shares, you will receive written instructions from the exchange agent after the merger is completed on how to exchange your stock certificates for the merger consideration.

If you are a Triarc stockholder, you will keep your existing stock certificates, which will continue to represent the number of shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock equal to the number of shares of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock, as the case may be, you now hold. If you wish, you may exchange your existing Triarc stock certificates for certificates with the new Wendy s/Arby s name.

Q: Whom should I call with questions?

A: Triarc s stockholders should call Innisfree M&A Incorporated, Triarc s proxy solicitor, at (888) 750-5834 with any questions about the merger and related transactions. Banks and brokers can call collect at (212) 750-5833.

Wendy s shareholders should call Georgeson Inc., Wendy s proxy solicitor, at (866) 346-1016 with any questions about the merger and related transactions. Banks and brokers can call collect at (212) 440-9800.

The Companies

Triarc Companies, Inc.

1155 Perimeter Center West Atlanta, Georgia 30338
(678) 514-4100

Triarc is a holding company and, through its subsidiary Arby s Restaurant Group, Inc., is the franchisor of Arby s® restaurants. Arby s is the second largest quick service sandwich chain in the U.S. (according to QSR magazine) and specializes in roast beef and Market Fresh® premium sandwiches, subs, wraps and salads. As of April 27, 2008, the Arby s restaurant system consisted of 3,700 restaurants of which 1,159 were company-owned and operated. Of the 2,541 restaurants owned by 462 franchisees, 2,419 are operated within the U.S. and 122 are operated outside of the U.S., principally in Canada.

Wendy s International, Inc.

4288 West Dublin-Granville Road Dublin, Ohio 43017-0256
(614) 764-3100

Wendy s International, Inc. was incorporated in 1969 under the laws of the State of Ohio. Wendy s® is primarily engaged in the business of operating, developing and franchising a system of distinctive quick service restaurants serving high quality food. As of March 30, 2008, there were 6,622 Wendy s restaurants in operation in the United States and in 19 other countries and territories. Of these restaurants, 1,407 were operated by Wendy s and 5,215 by Wendy s franchisees.

The Merger

A copy of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 23, 2008, is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. References throughout this joint proxy statement/prospectus to the merger agreement refer to the Agreement and Plan of Merger. We encourage you to read the entire merger agreement carefully because it is the principal document governing the merger.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger by Wendy s Shareholders

Upon consummation of the merger, each outstanding Wendy s common share will be converted into 4.25 shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock. We refer to the number of shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock to be delivered in respect of each Wendy s common share in the merger as the exchange ratio.

Treatment of Stock Options and Other Stock-based Awards

Triarc

Triarc stock options and other equity-based awards will remain outstanding and will not be affected by the merger, except that, following the merger, the shares of Triarc Class B common stock and Triarc Class A common stock that would otherwise be issuable upon the exercise of stock options and other equity-based awards will instead all be shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock.

Wendy's

In the merger, all outstanding Wendy's employee stock options and other stock-based awards, other than performance units, will be converted into options and stock-based awards of Wendy's/Arby's, and those options and awards will entitle the holder to receive Wendy's/Arby's common stock. The number of shares issuable under those options and awards, and the exercise prices for those options and awards, will be adjusted based on an exchange ratio of 1:4.25.

Wendy's outstanding performance units, whether vested or unvested, will be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash in U.S. dollars equal to the fair market value per share of Wendy's common shares at the time of the merger multiplied by the number of Wendy's common shares that are deemed to have vested in connection with the merger.

For a more complete discussion of the treatment of Wendy's stock options and other stock-based awards, see "The Merger Agreement Treatment of Wendy's Stock Options and Other Stock-based Awards" beginning on page 89.

Directors and Executive Management of Wendy's/Arby's Immediately Following the Merger

The board of directors of Wendy's/Arby's will initially be composed of 12 members, consisting of (i) ten (10) members of Triarc's current board of directors, including Roland C. Smith, the current Chief Executive Officer of Triarc, and Nelson Peltz and Peter W. May, the current Chairman and Vice Chairman of Triarc, respectively, and (ii) two members of Wendy's current board of directors designated by Wendy's and reasonably acceptable to Triarc. At the Triarc annual meeting, Triarc stockholders will elect twelve directors. At the effective time of the merger, two of the Triarc directors elected at the annual meeting will resign and Wendy's/Arby's will take all requisite action to cause the two nominees designated by Wendy's that are reasonably acceptable to Triarc to be appointed to the Wendy's/Arby's board of directors to fill the vacancies caused by the resignations.

Wendy's/Arby's will have a consolidated support center based in Atlanta which will oversee all public company responsibilities of Wendy's/Arby's and shared service functions. The headquarters of the Wendy's brand will remain in the greater Columbus, Ohio area following the merger. The headquarters of the Arby's brand will remain based in Atlanta.

For a more complete discussion of the management of Wendy's/Arby's, including expected directors and senior management, see "The Merger Interests of Triarc Directors and Wendy's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 66.

Recommendations of the Boards of Directors Relating to the Merger

Triarc

The Triarc board of directors unanimously recommends that holders of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock vote for the proposals:

to adopt the amendment to Triarc's
certificate of incorporation to increase the authorized
number of

shares of Triarc
Class A
common stock
to 1,500,000,000
in connection
with the merger (which shares are referred to as Wendy s/Arby s
common stock
following completion of
the merger);

to adopt the amendment to Triarc s
certificate of incorporation to convert each issued and outstanding share of Triarc Class B
common stock
into a share of Wendy s/Arby s
common stock
and provide that there shall only be one class of authorized
common stock
of
Wendy s/Arby s, in connection with the
merger;

to adopt certain additional amendments to Triarc s
certificate of incorporation,
in connection
with the merger,
to: (a) change
the name of

Triarc to Wendy s/Arby s
Group, Inc., (b) prohibit the issuance of preferred stock
of Wendy s/Arby s
to affiliates of Wendy s/Arby s
unless offered ratably to the holders of
Wendy s/Arby s
common stock,
subject to an exception in the event that Wendy s/Arby s is in financial distress and the issuance is approved by the audit committee
of Wendy s/Arby s
board of directors, (c) amend the definition of Interested Stockholder ,

which is used in the certificate of incorporation in connection with requiring increased stockholder
approval thresholds for transactions with affiliates, to remove the exception for

Acquisition Group L.P., a dissolved partnership formerly controlled by Nelson Peltz and Peter W. May,
(d) provide that Wendy s/Arby s
board of directors shall not have the power or authority to amend, alter or repeal Section 3 of Article I of
the Wendy s/Arby s
bylaws, which provides that the headquarters of the Wendy s brand will be in the greater Columbus, Ohio area for a ten-year period following the completion of the merger, and
(e) provide that the purpose of Wendy's/Arby's is to engage in the restaurant business and complementary, incidental or ancillary businesses.

to approve the issuance of Wendy's/Arby's common stock in the merger.

For a more complete description of Triarc's reasons for the merger and the recommendation of the Triarc board of directors, see The Merger Strategic and Financial Rationale and Triarc Board of Directors Recommendation beginning on pages 47 and 49, respectively. For more details about the proposed amendment, see The Amendment to Triarc's Certificate of Incorporation beginning on page 97.

Wendy's

The Wendy's board of directors unanimously recommends (with four abstentions due to actual or perceived conflicts of interest, from Jerry W. Levin, Peter H. Rothschild and Stuart I. Oran, the three members of Wendy's board of directors designated by Triarc Partners Master Fund L.P., Triarc Partners GP, L.P., Triarc Partners, L.P., Triarc Partners Parallel Fund I, L.P., Triarc Partners Parallel Fund II, L.P. and Triarc Fund Management, L.P., which are collectively referred to as the Triarc funds, and Kerri B. Anderson, the current Chief Executive Officer and President of Wendy's) that Wendy's shareholders vote for the adoption of the merger agreement.

For a more complete description of Wendy's reasons for the merger and the recommendation of the Wendy's board of directors, see The Merger Wendy's Board of Directors Recommendation beginning on page 50.

Opinions of Financial Advisors

Triarc's Financial Advisor

In connection with the merger, the Triarc board of directors received an opinion, dated April 23, 2008, from Triarc's financial advisor, Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC, referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Wachovia Securities, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of such opinion, to Triarc of the exchange ratio provided for in the merger. The full text of Wachovia Securities' written opinion, dated April 23, 2008, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with such opinion, is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference in its entirety into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Wachovia Securities provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the Triarc board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the exchange ratio from a financial point of view to Triarc. Wachovia Securities' opinion does not address any other aspect of the merger, does not address the merits of the underlying decision by Triarc to enter into the merger agreement or the relative merits of the merger compared with other business strategies or transactions available or that were or might be considered by Triarc's management or board of directors and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any stockholder should vote or act in connection with the merger or any other matters.

For a more complete description, see The Merger Opinion of Triarc's Financial Advisor beginning on page 52.

Wendy s Financial Advisor

In connection with the merger, at the request of the Wendy s special committee, on April 23, 2008, Greenhill & Co., LLC (referred to herein as Greenhill) delivered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, to the Wendy s board of directors that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the limitations and assumptions stated in its opinion, the 4.25 shares of Triarc Class A common stock (as adjusted pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, referred to herein as the consideration) to be received by holders of Wendy s common shares (other than Wendy s or any of its subsidiaries, Triarc or any of its affiliates or dissenting holders) is fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders (referred to herein as unaffiliated holders). The full text of Greenhill s written opinion dated April 23, 2008, which contains the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of Greenhill s opinion in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. You are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. Greenhill s written opinion was addressed to the Wendy s board of directors. It was not a recommendation to the Wendy s board of directors as to whether it should approve the merger or the merger agreement nor is it a recommendation as to how the shareholders of Wendy s should vote with respect to the merger or any other matter. Greenhill s opinion did not address the underlying business decision of Wendy s to engage in the merger or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative transaction, nor did it address the relative merits of or consideration offered in any such transaction as compared to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Greenhill has not expressed any opinion as to any aspect of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement other than the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to the unaffiliated holders.

For a more complete description, see The Merger Opinion of Wendy s Financial Advisor beginning on page 60. See also Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Interests of Triarc Directors and Wendy s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

Triarc

Certain of Triarc s directors have interests in the merger that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of Triarc s stockholders. These interests include the fact that Nelson Peltz, Peter W. May and Edward P. Garden may be deemed to beneficially own % of Wendy s common shares as of the Wendy s record date through their ownership interest in the Triarc funds.

For a further discussion, see The Merger Interests of Triarc Directors and Wendy s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 66.

Wendy s

Wendy s directors and certain executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of Wendy s shareholders. These interests include:

accelerated vesting of options as a result of a change in control for 762,412

Wendy's
common shares with a weighted average exercise
price of $28.705 held by Wendy's
directors and certain
executive officers with an aggregate value of $224,912, based on the closing price per Wendy's
common share of $29.00 on April 30, 2008;

accelerated award and/or vesting of other equity based awards for Wendy's
board of directors and certain executive officers valued at $9,611,414, based on the closing price
per Wendy's
common share of $29.00 on April 30, 2008;

payment of performance

bonuses of up to $2,303,721 for certain
executive officers; and potential severance payments of up to $13,982,085

for certain executive
officers.

The amounts described above are based on an assumed merger completion date of September 28, 2008, which is not necessarily representative of the actual effective time of the merger and do not take into account additional shares that will be acquired in connection with the dividend reinvestment provisions of existing equity awards for dividends payable after April 30, 2008. Stock options with an exercise price above $29.00 per share were excluded from these calculations.

Dissenters Rights

Under Ohio law, if the merger is consummated, any Wendy's shareholder that does not vote for the adoption of the merger agreement may be entitled to seek relief as a dissenting shareholder under Section 1701.85 of the Ohio Revised Code. To perfect dissenters' rights, a record holder must:

not vote
their Wendy's
common shares in favor of
the proposal to approve and adopt
the merger
agreement at the Wendy's
special meeting;

deliver a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of their Wendy's
common shares on or before the tenth day
the Wendy's
special meeting;

otherwise comply with the statute.

Wendy's common shares held by any person who desires to dissent but fails to perfect or who effectively withdraws or loses the right to dissent as of the effective time of the merger under Section 1701.85 of the Ohio Revised Code will be converted into, as of the effective time, the right to receive the merger consideration, without interest. A copy of Section 1701.85 of the Ohio Revised Code is attached as Annex I to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Conversion and the Merger

The conversion of each share of Triarc Class B common stock into one share of Wendy's/Arby's common stock will qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes either as a reorganization, a tax free exchange of stock for stock of the same corporation, or both.

The merger will qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Holders of Wendy's common shares will not recognize income, gain or loss on the exchange of their Wendy's common shares for Wendy's/Arby's common stock, but may recognize income, gain or loss from the receipt of cash in exchange for fractional shares of their Wendy's common shares. It is a condition to each of Triarc's and Wendy's respective obligations to complete the merger that it receive a separate legal opinion, at the effective time of the merger, that confirms that the merger will qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

For a more complete description of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, see "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 75.

The tax consequences of the conversion and the merger to you may depend on your own situation. In addition, you may be subject to state, local or foreign tax laws that are not addressed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. You are urged to consult with your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the conversion and the merger to you.

Regulatory Matters

The merger is also subject to the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the U.S. antitrust laws. The merger agreement requires Triarc and Wendy's to make any required filings with governmental entities and use reasonable best efforts to take any action to resolve any regulatory objection in order to enable the closing of the merger to occur as soon as reasonably possible.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Each party's obligation to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of various conditions, including the following:

receipt of the required stockholder/shareholder approvals;

obtaining all necessary legal and regulatory approvals, consents and waivers, including the expiration or termination of the waiting period applicable to the merger under the Hart-Scott-

Rodino Act and a declaration of effectiveness by the SEC of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part;

no law, judgment, injunction, order or decree by any court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction which prohibits the consummation of the merger shall have been adopted or entered and shall continue to be in effect;

approval for listing on the NYSE of Wendy's/Arby's common stock to be issued in the merger; accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties in the merger agreement; the other party's compliance with its obligations under the merger agreement; receipt of opinions of counsel relating to the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the merger; and the other party having prepared amendments to all of its domestic and international franchise agreements

where required by law and filed registrations for application of each of such amended domestic and international
franchise agreements.

Wendy's obligation to effect the merger is also subject to the satisfaction or waiver of various additional conditions, including the following:

Triarc having deposited with the exchange agent a sufficient amount of Wendy's/Arby's
common stock
to issue the
merger
consideration to Wendy's shareholders
upon consummation
of the merger;
and

effectiveness of an amendment to Triarc's
bylaws providing that the Wendy's
brand shall be headquartered in the greater Columbus, Ohio area for at least ten years
from the date
the merger is consummated.

Triarc's obligation to effect the merger is also subject to the satisfaction or waiver of various additional conditions, including the following:

the total number of Wendy's dissenting shares not exceeding 5% of the aggregate issued and outstanding Wendy's common shares as of the date of the merger.

The merger agreement provides that any or all of these conditions may be waived, in whole or in part, by Triarc or Wendy's, to the extent legally allowed. Neither Triarc nor Wendy's currently expects to waive any material condition to the completion of the merger. For a more complete discussion of the conditions to the merger, see "The Merger Agreement - Conditions to Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 83.

Material Events Following Completion of the Merger

Certain material events may occur as a result of the completion of the merger. These events could have a material effect on Wendy's/Arby's. See "Risk Factors" beginning on page 25. These events include:

Realization of the anticipated benefits in the merger will depend on Wendy's/Arby's ability to successfully integrate corporate and administrative business functions and improve and grow the restaurant operations of Wendy's and Arby's. The resulting company will be required to devote significant management attention and resources to integrating its business practices and support functions.

Triarc stockholders and Wendy's shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Triarc stockholders and Wendy's shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of Triarc and Wendy's, respectively, and on other matters affecting Triarc and Wendy's, respectively.

When the merger occurs, each Wendy's shareholder that receives shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock will become a stockholder of Wendy's/Arby's with a percentage

ownership that is smaller than such shareholder s
percentage
ownership of Wendy s.
Similarly,
when the merger occurs, because each
Wendy s
shareholder
will become a stockholder of Wendy's/Arby's,

the percentage
ownership of a Triarc
stockholder in Wendy's/Arby's
will be smaller than such stockholder's
percentage
ownership of Triarc.

Termination of the Merger

The merger agreement may be terminated by Triarc or Wendy's before completion of the merger in certain circumstances, including after stockholder/shareholder approval is obtained. In addition, the merger agreement provides that Wendy's may be required to pay the expenses of Triarc in an amount equal to $10 million in the circumstances generally described below:

if, prior to receiving the approval of the
Wendy's
shareholders,
Wendy's
terminates the
merger
agreement after its board of directors
approves a superior proposal and promptly following such termination, enters into a definitive agreement in connection with such superior
proposal,
provided that Wendy's shall have complied with its obligations under
the non-solicitation provisions of the

merger
agreement; or

if Triarc terminates the merger
agreement because Wendy s (1) withdraws its recommendation
that the shareholders of Wendy s adopt
the merger
agreement, (2)
fails to include
its recommendation
in the proxy statement, (3) recommends or approves any alternative
takeover proposal of Wendy s, (4) fails to publicly reaffirm its recommendation
following the receipt of an alternative
takeover proposal or (5)
materially breaches its obligations under
the non-solicitation
provisions of the
merger
agreement or fails to hold the meeting of the Wendy s shareholders or to use reasonable best efforts to solicit proxies in favor of the adoption of the

merger
agreement and to obtain the approval of the Wendy s
shareholders.

If the merger agreement is terminated upon the occurrence of certain events, the Triarc funds will be bound for up to three years by certain provisions that, among other things, restrict their ability to directly or indirectly acquire additional securities of Wendy s, enter or propose to enter into any business combination with Wendy s or make, or in any way participate or engage in, any solicitation of proxies or consents to vote with respect to any voting securities of Wendy s. See The Voting Agreements beginning on page 93.

See The Merger Agreement Termination Events; Expense Reimbursement Required and Termination Events; No Expense Reimbursement each beginning on page 88 for a discussion of the circumstances under which the parties may terminate and under which expense reimbursement will be required to be paid.

Voting Agreements

Concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, (i) Nelson Peltz and Peter W. May, entered into a voting agreement with Triarc and (ii) the Triarc funds, entered into a voting agreement with Wendy s.

Mr. Peltz and Mr. May have agreed to vote all of their shares of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock in favor of the proposals relating to the adoption of the amendments to Triarc s certificate of incorporation and in favor of the issuance of the Wendy s/Arby s common stock to be issued in the merger. Mr. Peltz and Mr. May also agreed to certain restrictions on their ability to transfer their shares of Triarc common stock. As of the Triarc record date, Mr. Peltz and Mr. May may be deemed to beneficially own, in the aggregate, approximately % of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class A common stock and % of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class B common stock, representing approximately % of the total voting power of Triarc.

The Triarc funds have agreed to vote their Wendy s shares in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. The Triarc funds have also agreed to certain restrictions on their ability to transfer their Wendy s shares. As of the Wendy s record date, the Triarc funds may be deemed to beneficially own, in the aggregate, approximately % of the total voting power of Wendy s.

The Triarc funds have also agreed that if the merger agreement is terminated upon the occurrence of certain events, the Triarc funds will be bound for up to three years by certain provisions that, among other things, restrict the Triarc funds ability to directly or indirectly acquire additional securities of Wendy s, enter or propose to enter into any business combination with Wendy s or make, or in any way participate or engage in, any solicitation of proxies or consents to vote with respect to any voting securities of Wendy s.

For a more complete description, see The Voting Agreements beginning on page 93.

Comparison of Rights of Stockholders/Shareholders of Triarc, Wendy s and Wendy s/Arby s

Triarc is a Delaware corporation. Wendy s is an Ohio corporation. The shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock that Wendy s shareholders will receive in the merger will be stock of a Delaware corporation. Stockholder rights under Delaware law and shareholder rights under Ohio law are different. In addition, the certificate of incorporation, as amended, and bylaws, as amended, of Wendy s/Arby s will contain provisions that are different from the articles or certificate of incorporation and regulations or bylaws of Wendy s and Triarc, respectively. At the Triarc annual meeting, Triarc stockholders will be asked, among other things, to adopt several amendments to Triarc s certificate of incorporation which, upon consummation of the merger, will be the certificate of incorporation of Wendy s/Arby s. The Wendy s/Arby s certificate of incorporation, as amended, will include material changes to Triarc s certificate of incorporation, which are necessary to effect the merger. For a more detailed description of the terms of Wendy s/Arby s certificate of incorporation, as amended, see Authorized Capital Stock of Wendy s/Arby s beginning on page 193. Triarc stockholders are not being asked to vote on Wendy s/Arby s bylaws. Although Wendy s shareholders will be asked to adopt the merger agreement at the Wendy s special meeting, the approval by Wendy s shareholders of Wendy s/Arby s certificate of incorporation and bylaws, by themselves, is not required.

For a summary of certain differences among the rights of holders of Triarc Class A common stock, Triarc Class B common stock, Wendy s common shares and Wendy s/Arby s common stock, see Comparison of Rights of Stockholders/Shareholders of Triarc, Wendy s and Wendy s/Arby s beginning on page 199.

Matters to be Considered at the Meetings

Triarc Annual Meeting

Triarc stockholders will be asked to vote on the following proposals:

to adopt the amendment to Triarc s certificate of incorporation to increase the authorized number of shares of Triarc Class A common stock to 1,500,000,000 in connection with the merger (which shares of Triarc Class A common stock are referred to as shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock following completion of the merger);

to adopt the amendment to Triarc s certificate of incorporation to convert each issued and outstanding share of Triarc Class B common stock into one share of Wendy s/Arby s common stock and provide that there shall only be one class of authorized common stock of Wendy s/Arby s, in connection with the merger;

to adopt certain additional amendments to Triarc s certificate of incorporation, in connection with the merger, to: (a) change the name of Triarc to Wendy s/Arby s Group, Inc., (b) prohibit the issuance of preferred stock of Wendy s/Arby s to affiliates of Wendy s/Arby s unless offered ratably to the holders of Wendy s/Arby s common stock, subject to an exception in the event that Wendy's/Arby's is in financial distress and the issuance is approved by the audit committee of Wendy's/Arby's board of directors, (c) amend the definition of Interested Stockholder, which is used in the certificate of incorporation in connection with requiring increased stockholder approval thresholds for transactions with affiliates, to remove the exception for DWG Acquisition Group L.P., a dissolved partnership formerly controlled by Nelson Peltz and Peter W. May, (d) provide that Wendy's/Arby's board of directors shall not have the power or authority to amend, alter or repeal Section 3 of Article I of the Wendy's/Arby's bylaws, which provides that the headquarters of the Wendy's brand will be in the greater Columbus, Ohio area for a ten-year period following the completion of the merger, and (e) provide that the purpose of Wendy's/Arby's is to engage in the restaurant business and complementary, incidental or ancillary businesses.

(A copy of Triarc's current certificate of incorporation and a copy of the form of amendment to Triarc's certificate of incorporation described above are attached as Annexes D and E, respectively, to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. For more details about the proposed amendment, see The Amendment to Triarc's Certificate of Incorporation.)

to approve the issuance of Wendy's/Arby's common stock in the merger;

to approve any motion to adjourn the Triarc annual meeting to another time or place, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Triarc annual meeting to approve the proposals related to the merger;

to elect twelve directors to hold office as specified in this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

to approve an amendment to Triarc's Amended and Restated 2002 Equity Participation Plan to increase the number of shares reserved for issuance under the plan by an additional 7,400,000 shares of Triarc Class B common stock, prohibit the repricing of outstanding awards without prior stockholder approval and eliminate the ability of Triarc to grant reload option awards or stock options or SARs with exercise prices below fair market value on the date of grant;

to ratify the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for 2008; and to conduct other business that properly comes before the Triarc annual meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the meeting.

Each of the first four proposals listed above relating to the merger is conditioned upon approval of each of the other three and the approval of each such proposal is required for completion of the merger. None of the three proposals relating to the adoption of the amendment to Triarc's certificate of incorporation or the proposal to issue

Wendy s/Arby s common stock in the merger will be implemented unless all four proposals related to the merger are approved by the Triarc stockholders and the merger is completed.

Recommendation of Triarc s board of directors: The Triarc board of directors unanimously recommends that Triarc stockholders vote to approve all of the proposals set forth above, as more fully described under Triarc Annual Meeting beginning on page 102.

Wendy s Special Meeting

Wendy s shareholders will be asked to vote on the following proposals:

to adopt the merger agreement; and to approve any motion to adjourn the Wendy s special meeting to another time or place, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Wendy s special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

Recommendation of Wendy s board of directors: The Wendy s board of directors unanimously recommends (with four abstentions due to actual or perceived conflicts of interest, from Jerry W. Levin, Peter H. Rothchild and Stuart I. Oran the three members of the Wendy s board of directors designated by the Triarc funds, and Kerri B. Anderson, the current Chief Executive Officer and President of Wendy s) that Wendy s shareholders vote to approve the proposals set forth above, as more fully described under Wendy s Special Meeting beginning on page 170.

Voting by Triarc and Wendy s Directors and Executive Officers

On the Triarc record date, Messrs. Peltz and May, directors of Triarc, were entitled to vote shares of Triarc Class A common stock, representing % of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class A common stock and shares of Triarc Class B common stock, representing % of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class B common stock, and representing in the aggregate, approximately % of the total voting power of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock entitled to vote at the Triarc annual meeting. These comparisons may not provide meaningful information to Triarc stockholders or Wendy's shareholders in determining whether to approve the proposals relating to the merger. Triarc stockholders and Wendy's shareholders are urged to obtain current market quotations for Triarc Class A common stock, Triarc Class B common stock and Wendy's common shares and to review carefully the other information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or incorporated by reference herein before voting at the annual or special meeting, as the case may be.

Dividends and Other Distributions

Triarc paid aggregate cash dividends of $0.32 per share on Triarc Class A common stock and of $0.36 per share on Triarc Class B common stock in 2007. In accordance with the certificate of designation for Triarc Class B common stock, and resolutions adopted by the board of directors on June 5, 2007, Triarc Class B common stock was entitled, through December 30, 2007, to receive regular quarterly cash dividends equal to at least 110% of any regular quarterly cash dividends paid on Triarc Class A common stock. However, the Triarc board of directors determined that for the first and second fiscal quarters of 2008 it would continue to pay regular quarterly cash dividends at that higher rate on Triarc Class B common stock when regular quarterly cash dividends are paid on Triarc Class A common stock. Thereafter, each share of Triarc Class B common stock is entitled to at least 100% of the regular quarterly cash dividend paid on each share of Triarc Class A common stock. In addition, Triarc Class B common stock has a $0.01 per share preference in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Triarc and, after each share of Triarc Class A common stock also receives $0.01 per share in any such liquidation, dissolution or winding up, Triarc Class B common stock would thereafter participate equally on a per share basis with Triarc Class A common stock in any remaining assets of Triarc.

On March 14, 2008, Triarc paid regular quarterly cash dividends of $0.08 and $0.09 per share on Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock, respectively, to holders of record on March 1, 2008. On May 8, 2008, Triarc declared regular quarterly cash dividends of $0.08 and $0.09 per share on Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock, respectively, payable on June 16, 2008 to holders of record as of June 2, 2008. In addition, on April 4, 2008, Triarc paid a special dividend on its Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock consisting of 0.106028 shares of Deerfield Capital Corp. common stock for each share of Triarc Class A common stock outstanding and each share of Triarc Class B common stock outstanding to holders of record on March 29, 2008. This dividend represented the distribution of 9,629,368 shares of Deerfield Capital Corp. common stock Triarc had received in connection with the sale of its majority interest in Deerfield & Company LLC, a Chicago-based asset management firm which we refer to as Deerfield, to Deerfield Capital Corp. and all other shares of Deerfield Capital Corp. common stock held by Triarc.

Wendy's paid aggregate cash dividends of $0.46 per share in 2007. In February 2007, Wendy's announced that based on its cash position and strategic direction, it intended to increase its aggregate annual common stock dividend rate by 47% to $0.50 per share from the aggregate annual rate of $0.34 per share established in the fourth quarter of 2006 following the spin-off of Tim Hortons Inc. Prior to the spin-off, the aggregate annual common stock dividend rate had been $0.68 per share. On May 19, 2008, Wendy's paid a cash dividend of $0.125 per share to shareholders of record as of May 5, 2008.

There can be no assurance that any regular quarterly cash dividends will be declared or paid by Wendy's/Arby's or the amount or timing of such dividends, if any. Any future dividends will be made at the discretion of Wendy's/Arby's board of directors and will be based on such factors as earnings, financial condition, cash requirements and other factors. See Risk Factors Risk Factors Relating to the Merger There can be no assurance regarding whether or to what extent Wendy's/Arby's will pay dividends on its common stock in the future.

SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA OF TRIARC

The following table sets forth selected historical financial data for Triarc. The following data at and for each of the five years ended December 30, 2007 has been derived from Triarc's audited consolidated financial statements. The following data at March 30, 2008 and for the three months ended April 1, 2007 and March 30, 2008 has been derived from Triarc's unaudited consolidated financial statements, which in the opinion of Triarc's management, include all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation. The following information should be read together with Triarc's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 30, 2007 and Triarc's unaudited consolidated financial statements for the three months ended March 30, 2008, and the notes related to those financial statements, which are incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. - (1) Triarc Companies, Inc. and its subsidiaries report on a fiscal year consisting of 52 or 53 weeks ending on the Sunday closest to December 31. Deerfield, in which Triarc held a 63.6% capital interest from July 22, 2004 through its sale on December 21, 2007, Deerfield Opportunities Fund, LLC (the Opportunities Fund), which commenced on October 4, 2004 and in which Triarc's investment was effectively redeemed on September 29, 2006, and DM Fund LLC, which commenced on March 1, 2005 and in which Triarc's investment was effectively redeemed on December 31, 2006, reported on a calendar year ending on December 31 through their respective sale or redemption dates. In accordance with this method, each of Triarc's fiscal years presented above contained 52 weeks except for the 2004 fiscal year which contained 53 weeks. All references to years relate to fiscal years rather than calendar years.

- (2) Selected financial data reflects the changes related to the adoption of the following new accounting standards:

(a) Triarc adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes (FIN 48) as of January 1, 2007. FIN 48 clarifies how uncertainties in income taxes should be reflected in financial statements in accordance with SFAS 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. FIN 48 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for financial statement recognition and measurement of potential tax benefits associated with tax positions taken or expected to be taken in income tax returns. FIN 48 prescribes a two-step process of evaluating a tax position, whereby an entity first determines if it is more likely than not that a tax position will be sustained upon examination, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. A tax position that meets the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold is then measured for purposes of financial statement recognition as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50 percent likely of being realized upon being effectively settled. There was no effect on the 2007 statement of operations from the adoption of FIN 48. However, there was a net reduction of $2.3 in stockholders equity as of January 1, 2007.

(b) In conjunction with the adoption of the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board Staff Position No. AUG AIR-1, Accounting for Planned Major Maintenance Activities (FSP AIR-1), Triarc now accounts for scheduled major aircraft maintenance overhauls in accordance with the direct expensing method under which the actual cost of such overhauls is recognized as expense in the period it is incurred. Previously, Triarc accounted for scheduled major maintenance activities in accordance with the accrue-in-advance method under which the estimated cost of such overhauls was recognized as expense in periods through the scheduled date of the respective overhaul with any difference between estimated and actual cost recorded in results from operations at the time of the actual overhaul. In accordance with the retroactive application of FSP AIR-1, Triarc has credited (charged)

$0.6, $0.7, ($0.2) and $1.3 to operating profit (loss) and $0.4, $0.5, ($0.1) and $0.8 to income (loss) from continuing operations and net income (loss) for 2006, 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

(c) Triarc adopted SFAS No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment SFAS 123(R), which revised SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation (SFAS 123) effective January 2, 2006. As a result, Triarc measures the cost of employee services received in exchange for an award of equity instruments, including grants of employee stock options and restricted stock, based on the fair value of the award at the date of grant. Triarc previously used the intrinsic value method to measure employee share-based compensation. As Triarc used the modified prospective adoption method under SFAS 123(R), there was no effect from the adoption of this standard on the financial statements for all periods presented prior to the adoption date.

- (3) Selected financial data reflects the operations of RTM Restaurant Group (RTM) commencing with its acquisition by Triarc on July 25, 2005.

- (4) Income (loss) per share amounts reflect the effect of a stock distribution (the Stock Distribution) on September 4, 2003 of two shares of Triarc s Class B common stock, for each share of Triarc s Class A common stock issued as of August 21, 2003, as if the Stock Distribution had occurred at the beginning of the year ended December 28, 2003. For the purposes of calculating income per share, net income subsequent to the date of the Stock Distribution was allocated between the shares of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock based on the actual dividend payment ratio. For the purposes of calculating loss per share, the net loss for any year was allocated equally.

- (5) The weighted average shares outstanding reflect the effect of the Stock Distribution. The number of shares used in the calculation of diluted income (loss) per share are the same as basic income (loss) per share for the years 2003, 2005 and 2006 since all potentially dilutive securities would have had an antidilutive effect based on the loss from continuing operations for each of those years. The number of shares used in the calculation of diluted income per share of Triarc Class A and Triarc Class B common stock for 2004 are 23,415 and 43,206, respectively. The numbers of shares used in the calculation of diluted income per share of Triarc Class A and Triarc Class B common stock for 2007 are 28,965 and 64,282, respectively. These shares used for the calculation of diluted income per share in 2004 and 2007 consist of the weighted average common shares outstanding for each class of common stock and potential common shares reflecting the effect of dilutive stock options and nonvested restricted shares of

1,182 for Triarc Class A common stock and 2,366 for Triarc Class B common stock in 2004 and, in 2007, 129 for Triarc Class A common stock and 759 for Triarc Class B common stock.

- (6) Reflects certain significant charges and credits recorded during 2003 as follows: $22.0 charged to operating loss representing an impairment of goodwill; $11.8 charged to loss from continuing operations representing the aforementioned $22.0 charged to operating loss partially offset by (1) a $5.8 gain on sale of unconsolidated business arising principally from the sale by Triarc of a portion of its investment in an equity method investee and a non-cash gain to Triarc from the public offering by the investee of its common stock and (2) $4.4 of income tax benefit relating to the above net charges; and $9.6 charged to net loss representing the

- (7) Reflects certain significant credits recorded during 2004 as follows: $17.3 credited to income from continuing operations representing (1) $14.6 of income tax benefit due to the release of income tax reserves which were no longer required upon the finalization of the examination of Triarc's Federal income tax returns for the years ended December 31, 2000 and December 30, 2001, the finalization of a state income tax examination and the expiration of the statute of limitations for the examination of certain of Triarc's state income tax returns and (2) a $2.7 credit, net of a $1.6 income tax provision, representing the release of related interest accruals no longer required; and $29.8 credited to net income representing the aforementioned $17.3 credited to income from continuing operations and $12.5 of additional gain on disposal of Triarc's beverage businesses sold in 2000 resulting from the release of income tax reserves related to discontinued operations which were no longer required upon finalization of an Internal Revenue Service examination of the Federal income tax returns for the years ended December 31, 2000 and December 30, 2001 and the expiration of the statute of limitations for examinations of certain of Triarc's state income tax returns.

- (8) Reflects certain significant charges and credits recorded during 2005 as follows: $58.9 charged to operating loss representing (1) share-based compensation charges of $28.3 representing the intrinsic value of stock options which were exercised by the Chairman and then Chief Executive Officer and the Vice Chairman and then President and Chief Operating Officer and subsequently replaced on the date of exercise, the grant of contingently issuable performance-based restricted shares of Triarc Class A and Triarc Class B common stock and the grant of equity interests in two of Triarc's subsidiaries, (2) a $17.2 loss on settlements of unfavorable franchise rights representing the cost of settling franchise agreements acquired as a component of the acquisition of RTM with royalty rates below the current 4% royalty rate that Triarc receives on new franchise agreements and (3) facilities relocation and corporate restructuring charges of $13.5; $67.5 charged to loss from continuing operations representing the aforementioned $58.9 charged to operating loss and a $35.8 loss on early extinguishments of debt upon a debt refinancing in connection with the acquisition of RTM, both partially offset by $27.2 of income tax benefit relating to the above charges; and $64.2 charged to net loss representing the aforementioned $67.5 charged to loss from continuing operations partially offset by income from discontinued operations of $3.3 principally resulting from the release of reserves for state income taxes no longer required.

- (9) Reflects a significant charge recorded during 2006 as follows: $9.0 charged to loss from continuing operations and net loss representing a $14.1 loss on early extinguishments of debt related to conversions or effective conversions of Triarc's 5% convertible notes due 2023 and prepayments of term loans under Triarc's senior secured term loan facility, partially offset by an income tax benefit of $5.1 related to the above charge.

- (10) Reflects certain significant charges and credits recorded during 2007 as follows: $45.2 charged to operating profit; consisting of facilities relocation and corporate restructuring costs of $85.4 less $40.2 from the gain on sale of Triarc's interest in Deerfield; $16.6 charged to income from continuing operations and net income representing the aforementioned $45.2 charged to operating profit offset by $15.8 of income tax benefit related to the above charge; and a $12.8 previously unrecognized prior year contingent tax benefit related to certain severance obligations to certain of Triarc's former executives.

- (11) Reflects a significant charge recorded in the three months ended March 30, 2008 as follows: an other than temporary loss of $68.1 which was charged to loss from continuing operations from the impairment in the carrying value of Triarc's investment in common shares of Deerfield Capital Corp. The majority of the common shares had been received upon the March 11, 2008 conversion of the convertible preferred stock that was included in the non-cash consideration Triarc received in connection with its sale of Deerfield, Triarc's former asset management segment, to Deerfield Capital Corp. on December 21, 2007. The balance of the common shares in the investment had been distributed to Triarc in connection with the sale of Deerfield. All such Deerfield Capital Corp. shares were subsequently distributed to Triarc stockholders of record as of March 29, 2008 as approved by Triarc's board of directors on March 11, 2008. As a result of the dividend, the tax loss that resulted from the decline in value of Triarc's investment is not deductible for tax purposes and no tax benefit was recorded related to this loss.

- (2) During 2006, Wendy's revised its presentation of the sale of kids meal toys to reflect the sales on a gross versus net basis under the provisions of Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) 99-19.

Reporting Revenue Gross as a Principal versus Net as an Agent . The revised presentation had no impact on operating income or net income.

Amounts related to the prior years were not material, but were revised for purposes of comparability. The revisions increased sales and cost of sales by $59.4 million, $61.6 million, $69.1 million and $61.0 million for fiscal years 2006, 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

On September 29, 2006, Wendy's distributed 1.3542759 shares of Tim Hortons Inc. common stock for each outstanding share of Wendy's common stock in the form of a pro rata stock dividend. After the distribution, the market price of Wendy's common shares reflected the value of Wendy's excluding Tim Hortons Inc. After the spin-off of Tim Hortons Inc., Wendy's lowered its annual dividend rate to reflect the reduced earnings of Wendy's excluding Tim Hortons Inc.

SELECTED UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENT DATA OF WENDY S/ARBY S

The following table sets forth certain selected unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statement data of Wendy s/Arby s after giving effect to the merger of Triarc and Wendy s as if the merger occurred on March 30, 2008 for balance sheet data and on December 31, 2006 (the first day of Triarc s 2007 fiscal year) for statement of operations data.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statement data in the table below should be read in conjunction with the historical financial statements and managements discussion and analysis of Triarc and Wendy s, which are incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the selected historical financial data contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the unaudited pro forma combined condensed balance sheet and statements of operation and accompanying notes to the unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements beginning on page 17. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements are provided for informational purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have occurred if the merger had been completed as of the dates set forth above, nor are they indicative of the future results or financial position of the combined company.

WENDY S/ARBY S UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED ADJUSTED EBITDA AND RECONCILIATION TO PRO FORMA NET INCOME FROM CONTINUING OPERATIONS

EBITDA, which is defined as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (which is the same as operating profit plus depreciation and amortization), is used by management as a performance measure for benchmarking against its peers and competitors. Management believes pro forma combined EBITDA, which is being used for purposes of this filing, is useful to Triarc stockholders and Wendy's shareholders because it is frequently used by securities analysts, investors and other interested parties to evaluate companies in the restaurant industry. Management believes that pro forma combined adjusted EBITDA provides a meaningful perspective of the underlying operating performance of the current Triarc and Wendy's businesses combined. Pro forma combined adjusted EBITDA excludes 2007 pro forma amounts related to (1) Triarc and Wendy's corporate restructuring charges and (2) Wendy's special committee charges.

Pro forma combined EBITDA and pro forma combined adjusted EBITDA are not recognized terms under GAAP. Because all companies do not calculate pro forma combined EBITDA, pro forma combined adjusted EBITDA or similarly titled financial measures in the same way, those measures for other companies may not be consistent with the way management calculates them. Neither pro forma combined EBITDA nor pro forma combined adjusted EBITDA should be considered as an alternative to pro forma operating profit or net income (loss) from continuing operations.

The presentation of pro forma combined EBITDA, pro forma combined adjusted EBITDA and other non-GAAP measures is not intended to replace the presentation of pro forma financial results in accordance with GAAP. Additionally, neither pro forma combined EBITDA nor pro forma combined adjusted EBITDA is intended to be a measure of free cash flow for the combined entity's discretionary use, as neither measure considers certain cash requirements, such as capital expenditures, contractual commitments, interest payments, tax payments and debt service requirements.

RISK FACTORS

*Triarc's and Wendy's businesses are, and Wendy's/Arby's business will be, subject to the risks described below relating to the merger. In addition, Triarc and Wendy's are, and Wendy's/Arby's will continue to be, subject to the risks described in Part 1, Item 1 of the Annual Reports on Form 10-K, for the year ended December 30, 2007 filed with the SEC by Triarc and Wendy's, respectively, as updated in any subsequent Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed by Triarc and/or Wendy's. If any of the risks described below or in the annual or quarterly reports of Triarc and/or Wendy's incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus actually occurs, the respective businesses, financial results, financial condition or stock prices of Triarc, Wendy's or Wendy's/Arby's could be materially adversely affected. The risk factors below should be considered along with the other risks described in the annual or quarterly reports of Triarc and/or Wendy's incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 216 for the location of information incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus.*

Risk Factors Relating to the Merger

Because the market price of Triarc's common stock may fluctuate, the value of the Wendy's/Arby's common stock to be issued in the merger will fluctuate.

Upon completion of the merger, each Wendy's common share will be converted into 4.25 shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock. The exchange ratio will not be adjusted due to any increase or decrease in the price of Triarc or Wendy's common shares before completion of the merger. The market price of Wendy's/Arby's common stock will likely be different, and may be lower, on the date Wendy's common shareholders receive shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock than it was on the date the merger agreement was signed, the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus or the date of the stockholder/shareholder meetings. Changes in the price of Wendy's/Arby's common stock before completion of the merger will affect the value that Wendy's common shareholders will receive in the merger. These variations in the market price of Wendy's/Arby's common stock may be caused by a variety of factors including changes in the business, operations and prospects of Triarc and Wendy's, market reaction to the proposed merger, regulatory considerations, general market and economic conditions and other factors, many of which are beyond the control of Triarc and Wendy's. Neither Triarc nor Wendy's is permitted to terminate the merger agreement solely because of changes in the market price of either company's common stock.

The market price of Wendy's/Arby's common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of Triarc or Wendy's currently.

The businesses of Triarc and Wendy's differ in important respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of Wendy's/Arby's common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of Triarc and Wendy's. For a discussion of the businesses of Triarc and Wendy's and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference in this document and referred to under Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 216.

Triarc and Wendy's may be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Triarc and Wendy's and consequently on Wendy's/Arby's. These uncertainties may impair Triarc's and Wendy's ability to retain and motivate key personnel, and could cause franchisees, suppliers and other third parties that deal with Triarc and Wendy's to defer decisions concerning Triarc or Wendy's or seek to change existing business relationships with Triarc or Wendy's. If key employees depart because of uncertainty about their future roles and the potential complexities of integration or third parties adversely change their existing relationship with Wendy's or Triarc, the business of Wendy's/Arby's following the merger could be harmed. In addition, Triarc's and Wendy's franchisees may experience uncertainty about their relationship with their respective franchisors or the combined company following the merger and these uncertainties may impair Triarc's and Wendy's ability to retain or attract franchisees. Further, the merger agreement restricts Triarc and Wendy's from making certain acquisitions and taking other specified actions without the consent of the other until the merger occurs. These restrictions may prevent Triarc and/or Wendy's from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger. Please see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - No Solicitation" beginning on page 86.

If the merger is completed, the resulting company may not be able to successfully consolidate business operations and realize the anticipated benefits of the merger.

Realization of the anticipated benefits of the merger, including anticipated synergies and overhead savings, will depend, in large part, on Wendy's/Arby's ability to successfully eliminate redundant corporate functions and consolidate all public company and shared service responsibilities at the Wendy's/Arby's level. The resulting company will be required to devote significant management attention and resources to the consolidation of its business practices and support functions while maintaining the independence of the Arby's and Wendy's standalone brands. The challenges Wendy's/Arby's may encounter include the following:

preserving
franchisee,
supplier and other important relationships and resolving potential conflicts between the standalone brands that may arise as a result of
the merger;

consolidating redundant operations, including corporate functions;
and addressing differences in business cultures between Arby's and Wendy's,

preserving employee morale and retaining key employees, maintaining focus on providing consistent, high quality customer service, meeting the operational and financial goals of the resulting company and maintaining the operational goals of each of the standalone brands.

The process of consolidating Triarc's and Wendy's corporate level operations could cause an interruption of, or loss of momentum in, the resulting company's business and financial performance. The diversion of management's attention and any delays or difficulties encountered in connection with the merger and the development of corporate synergies through top-level consolidation could have an adverse effect on the business, financial results, financial condition or stock price of the resulting company. The consolidation process may also result in additional and unforeseen expenses. There can be no assurance that the contemplated expense savings, improvements in Wendy's store-level margins and synergies anticipated from the merger will be realized.

Failure to complete the merger could negatively impact the stock prices and the future business and financial results of Triarc and Wendy's because of, among other things, the market disruption that would occur as a result of uncertainties relating to a failure to complete the merger.

Although Triarc and Wendy's have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain stockholder/shareholder approval of the proposals relating to the merger, there is no assurance that these proposals will be approved, and there is no assurance that Triarc and Wendy's will receive the necessary regulatory approvals or satisfy the other conditions to the completion of the merger. If the merger is not completed for any reason, Triarc and Wendy's will be subject to several risks, including the following:

Wendy's will be required to reimburse Triarc for certain out of pocket fees and expenses of $10 million upon termination of the merger agreement under certain circumstances relating to Wendy's receipt and acceptance of a competing acquisition proposal for Wendy's; see The Merger Agreement Termination Events; Expense Reimbursement Required beginning on page 88; and a lack of focus by the management of each company on the core business and strategic development of each respective company as a result of the increased focus by management directed toward the merger and integration planning.

In addition, each company would not realize any of the expected benefits of having completed the merger.

If the merger is not completed, the price of Triarc's common stock and Wendy's common shares may decline to the extent that the current market price of that stock reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed and that the related benefits and synergies will be realized, or as a result of the market's perceptions that the merger was not consummated due to an adverse change in Triarc's or Wendy's business. In addition, Triarc's business and Wendy's business may be harmed, and the prices of their stock may decline as a result, to the extent that employees, franchisees, suppliers and others believe that the companies cannot compete in the marketplace as effectively without the merger or otherwise remain uncertain about the companies' future prospects in the absence of the merger. For example, suppliers may delay or defer decisions, which could negatively affect the business and results of operations of Triarc and Wendy's, regardless of whether the merger is ultimately completed. Similarly, current and prospective employees of Triarc and Wendy's may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the resulting company and choose to pursue other opportunities that could adversely affect Triarc or Wendy's, as applicable, if the merger is not completed. This may adversely affect the ability of Triarc and Wendy's to attract and retain key management, marketing and operations personnel, which could harm the companies' businesses and results.

Triarc stockholders and Wendy's shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Triarc stockholders and Wendy's shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of Triarc and Wendy's, respectively, and on other matters affecting Triarc and Wendy's, respectively. When the merger occurs, each Wendy's shareholder that receives shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock will become a stockholder of Wendy's/Arby's with a percentage ownership that is smaller than the stockholder's percentage ownership of Wendy's. Similarly, when the merger occurs, because each Wendy's shareholder will become a stockholder of Wendy's/Arby's, the percentage ownership of a Triarc stockholder in Wendy's/Arby's will be smaller than the stockholder's percentage ownership of Triarc; and following the conversion of Triarc Class B common stock to Triarc Class A common stock, shares of Triarc Class A common stock will no longer entitle holders to 10 times the voting power of the holders of Triarc Class B common stock on a per share basis. It is expected that the former shareholders of Wendy's as a group will own approximately 80.6% of the outstanding shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock immediately after the merger and the stockholders of Triarc as a group will own approximately 19.4% of the outstanding shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock immediately after the merger. Because of this, Triarc's stockholders and Wendy's shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Wendy's/Arby's than they now have on the management and policies of Triarc and Wendy's, respectively.

The merger agreement limits Triarc's and Wendy's ability to pursue an alternative acquisition proposal to the merger.

The merger agreement contains no shop provisions that, subject to limited exceptions, prohibit each of Triarc and Wendy's from soliciting, initiating or knowingly encouraging certain alternative acquisition proposals with any third party. See The Merger Agreement No Solicitation beginning on page 86. The merger agreement also requires Wendy's to reimburse Triarc for out of pocket fees and expenses of $10 million if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances in connection with a competing takeover proposal for Wendy's. See The Merger Agreement Termination Events; Expense Reimbursement Required beginning on page 88. These provisions could limit each party's ability to pursue offers from third parties that could result in greater value to their stockholders/shareholders. Wendy's obligation to make the expense reimbursement payment described above also may discourage a potential competing acquiror that might have an interest in pursuing an alternative takeover proposal of Wendy's even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than that proposed in the merger agreement, or might result in a potential competing acquiror proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire Wendy's than it might otherwise have proposed to pay.

The merger is subject to the receipt of consent from government entities, which may impose conditions on, jeopardize or delay completion of the merger.

Completion of the merger is conditioned upon filings with and the receipt of required consents, approvals or clearances from the Federal Trade Commission, which we refer to as the FTC, and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice. Triarc and Wendy s have made initial filings with the FTC and the Antitrust Division; the applicable waiting period terminated on May 28, 2008.

There is no assurance that all of these required consents, approvals and clearances will be obtained, and if they are obtained, they may not be obtained before Triarc stockholders and Wendy s shareholders vote on the merger. Moreover, if they are obtained, they may impose conditions on, or require divestitures relating to, the divisions, operations or assets of Triarc or Wendy s. These conditions or divestitures may jeopardize or delay completion of the merger or reduce the anticipated benefits of the merger. The merger agreement requires that Triarc and Wendy s use reasonable best efforts to satisfy any conditions imposed by such regulatory authorities.

Pending shareholder litigation could prevent or delay the closing of the merger or otherwise negatively impact the business and operations of Triarc and Wendy s.

Since the announcement of the proposed merger on April 24, 2008 through the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, several purported class action lawsuits have been filed by shareholders of Wendy s in Ohio state court. The plaintiffs assert claims of breach of fiduciary duty against Wendy s and against certain of Wendy s officers and directors in connection with the merger. Additionally, one of the complaints adds Triarc as a defendant and alleges that Triarc aided in the breaching of fiduciary duties to Wendy s shareholders. The complaints seek, among other things, injunctive relief against consummation of the merger, declaratory judgments for breach of fiduciary duties, attorney s fees and damages in an unspecified amount. The defendants believe the claims are without merit and intend to vigorously defend against them. However, one of the conditions to the closing of the merger is that no law, injunction, order or decree by any court of any competent jurisdiction which prohibits the consummation of the merger shall have been adopted or entered and shall continue to be in effect. No assurances can be given that this litigation will not result in such an injunction being issued, which could prevent or delay the closing of the merger. It is possible that additional lawsuits may be filed against Wendy s and Triarc asserting similar or different claims. There can be no assurance that Wendy s and Triarc will be successful in the outcome of any of these pending or future lawsuits.

Some of the directors of Triarc and directors and executive officers of Wendy s have interests in the merger that are different from Triarc and Wendy s shareholders.

When considering the recommendation of the Triarc board of directors to approve the proposals relating to the adoption of the amendment of Triarc s certificate of incorporation and the issuance of Wendy s/Arby s common stock required to be issued in the merger, as more fully described under Triarc Annual Meeting beginning on page 102 and Interests of Triarc Directors and Wendy s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 66, stockholders of Triarc should be aware that some members of the Triarc board of directors have arrangements that provide them with interests in the merger that are in addition to the interests of Triarc stockholders. These interests include the beneficial ownership by certain of Triarc s directors of Wendy s common shares.

When considering the recommendation of the Wendy s board of directors with respect to the merger proposal, Wendy s shareholders should be aware that some directors and certain executive officers of Wendy s have interests in the merger that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of the shareholders of Wendy s. These interests include the fact that the completion of the merger results in (i) the accelerated vesting of unvested equity based awards, such as options and restricted stock units for Wendy s directors and for certain executive officers, (ii) the potential payments of severance upon termination in specified circumstances to certain executive officers, and (iii) other payments pursuant to existing plans, agreements and arrangements to which directors and certain executive officers are entitled. Also, Wendy s directors and executive officers, in addition to other officers and employees of Wendy s will be entitled to continuation of indemnification and insurance arrangements pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.

Stockholders/shareholders should consider these interests in conjunction with the recommendations of the directors of Triarc and Wendy s that their respective stockholders/ shareholders vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement.

The Wendy s/Arby s common stock to be received by Wendy s shareholders as a result of the merger will have different rights from Wendy s common shares.

Following completion of the merger, Wendy s shareholders will no longer be shareholders of Wendy s, an Ohio corporation, but will instead be stockholders of Wendy s/Arby s, a Delaware corporation. There will be important differences between your current rights as a Wendy s shareholder and the rights to which you will be entitled as a stockholder of Wendy s/Arby s. See Comparison of Rights of Stockholders/Shareholders of Triarc, Wendy s and Wendy s/Arby s beginning on page 199 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Wendy s/Arby s common stock.

There can be no assurance regarding whether or to what extent Wendy s/Arby s will pay dividends on its common stock in the future.

Holders of Wendy s/Arby s common stock will only be entitled to receive such dividends as the Wendy s/Arby s board of directors may declare out of funds legally available for such payments. Any dividends will be made at the discretion of the Wendy s/Arby s board of directors and will depend on its earnings, financial condition, cash requirements and such other factors as the Wendy s/Arby s board of directors may deem relevant from time to time.

Because Wendy s/Arby s will be a holding company, its ability to declare and pay dividends will be dependent upon cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments on hand and cash flows from its subsidiaries. The ability of any of Wendy s/Arby s subsidiaries to pay cash dividends and/or make loans or advances to Wendy s/Arby s will be dependent upon their respective abilities to achieve sufficient cash flows after satisfying their respective cash requirements, including debt service, to enable the payment of such dividends or the making of such loans or advances. The ability of any of Wendy s/Arby s subsidiaries to pay cash dividends or other payments to Wendy s/Arby s will also be limited by restrictions in debt instruments currently existing or subsequently entered into by such subsidiaries.

Although Triarc and Wendy s have historically declared cash dividends on their shares of common stock and common shares, respectively, Wendy s/Arby s will not be required to do so and may reduce dividends on its common stock from the rates historically paid by Triarc or Wendy s, respectively, or eliminate dividends on its common stock in the future. This could adversely affect the market price of Wendy s/Arby s common stock.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This joint proxy statement/prospectus and the documents that are incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus include forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as expect, estimate, project, budget, forecast, anticipate, intend, plan, may, will, could, should, believes, predicts, potential, continue, and other similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, Triarc's and Wendy's expectations with respect to the future financial or business performance; strategies or expectations; synergies, efficiencies, overhead savings, costs and charges and capitalization and anticipated financial impacts of the merger transaction and related transactions; approval of the merger transaction and related transactions by shareholders; the satisfaction of the closing conditions to the merger transaction and related transactions; and the timing of the completion of the merger transaction and related transactions.

These forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties that could cause the actual results to differ materially from the expected results. Most of these factors are outside our control and difficult to predict. Factors that may cause such differences include, but are not limited to, the possibility that the expected synergies or operating margin improvements will not be realized, or will not be realized within the expected time period, due to, among other things: (1) increasing costs associated with food, supplies, energy, fuel, distribution and labor; (2) competition, including price competition; (3) changes in the quick service restaurant industry; (4) prevailing economic, market and business conditions affecting Triarc and Wendy's; (5) conditions beyond Triarc's or Wendy's control such as weather, natural disasters, disease outbreaks, epidemics or pandemics impacting Triarc's and/or Wendy's customers or food supplies or acts of war or terrorism; (6) changes in the interest rate environment; (7) changes in debt, equity and securities markets; (8) the availability of suitable locations and terms for the sites designated for development; (9) cost and availability of capital; (10) adoption of new, or changes in, accounting policies and practices; and (11) other factors discussed from time to time in Triarc's and Wendy's news releases, public statements and/or filings with the SEC, and those factors listed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus under "Risk Factors" beginning on page 25. Other factors include the possibility that the merger does not close, including due to the failure to receive required stockholder/shareholder or regulatory approvals, or the failure of other closing conditions. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in forward-looking statements are discussed in reports filed with the SEC by Triarc and Wendy's, especially the "Risk Factors" sections of Triarc's and Wendy's Annual and Quarterly Reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 216 for a list of the documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Triarc and Wendy's caution that the foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning Triarc, Wendy's, the merger, the related transactions or other matters and attributable to Triarc or Wendy's or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. Triarc and Wendy's do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement, whether written or oral, relating to the matters discussed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus except to the extent required by federal securities laws.

THE MERGER

The following is a discussion of the merger and the material terms of the merger agreement between Triarc and Wendy's. You are encouraged to read carefully in their entirety the documents which are attached as annexes to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger agreement, which are incorporated by reference herein.

Background of the Merger

Beginning in May 2005 and continuing through late 2007, Triarc's board of directors and management reviewed Triarc's strategic direction. Among the options considered were the separation of Triarc's asset management business from Triarc's restaurant business as well as expanding Triarc's restaurant business through the acquisition of other restaurant companies. As described in this section, Nelson Peltz, Peter W. May and Edward P. Garden's actions on behalf of Triarc were carried out in their capacity as executive officers and directors of Triarc until June 29, 2007 and thereafter were carried out in their capacity as directors of Triarc and under the terms of an agreement entered into between Triarc and Trian Fund Management, L.P. (which we refer to as Trian) in April 2007, pursuant to which Trian provides Triarc with certain professional and strategic services, including services in the areas of mergers and acquisitions/corporate development, capital markets/finance, legal, accounting and investor relations/corporate communications. Trian provided such services to Triarc in connection with its consideration of the merger and related transactions and negotiation and execution of the merger agreement.

On December 13, 2005, Trian, Sandell Asset Management Corp. (which we refer to as Sandell) and certain related persons (which we refer to collectively as the Trian group) filed a Schedule 13D with the SEC, disclosing that on November 4, 2005, Sandell and Trian had entered into an agreement to coordinate their efforts with respect to the purchase of up to a 9.9% beneficial ownership interest in Wendy's and the proposal to Wendy's of certain actions and transactions. The Schedule 13D also disclosed that the members of the Trian group had acquired beneficial ownership of approximately 5.48% of Wendy's common shares. Concurrently with the filing of the Schedule 13D, the Trian Group released Wendy's International, Inc. A Recipe for Successful Value Creation, which set forth an action plan regarding strategic initiatives to be taken by Wendy's, including (i) effecting a tax-free spin-off of Tim Hortons, (ii) selling Wendy's ancillary brands, including Baja Fresh, Café Express and Pasta Pomodoro, (iii) revisiting previously announced strategic initiatives, such as closing certain Wendy's-owned restaurants and the sale of real estate and (iv) significantly reducing the costs of Wendy's business. The Trian group noted its intention to discuss its action plan with Wendy's and, depending upon various factors, noted that it may take certain actions with respect to its investment in Wendy's, including conducting a proxy solicitation in connection with Wendy's next annual meeting to solicit votes in favor of directors designated by Trian that would constitute a minority of Wendy's board of directors.

Wendy's then Chief Executive Officer, John T. Schuessler, and other officers of Wendy's, met with representatives of the Trian group in February 2006. As a result of this and subsequent meetings and communications among Trian representatives and Trian's advisors, and Wendy's and its advisors, on March 2, 2006, Wendy's entered into an agreement with the Trian group (which we refer to as the Standstill Agreement), under which Wendy's agreed to, and did, increase the size of its board of directors by three members and appoint three directors designated by the Trian group (Peter H. Rothschild, Stuart I. Oran and Jerry W. Levin) to the newly-created positions. The Standstill Agreement also provided for certain limitations, to be effective until June 30, 2007, on the Trian group's share ownership of, and ability to take actions with respect to the ownership and governance of, Wendy's.

Beginning in late 2005, Wendy's management implemented a number of initiatives in order to increase shareholder value. In March 2006, Wendy's completed the initial public offering of Tim Hortons. During the one-year period beginning in August 2006, Wendy's disposed of its ownership interests in three of its ancillary businesses in order to focus on the core Wendy's brand. On September 29, 2006, Wendy's distributed to its shareholders on a tax-free basis the remaining shares of Tim Hortons' common stock owned by Wendy's. In November 2006, Wendy's sold Baja Fresh and in July 2007, Wendy's sold its stake in Café Express. During 2005 and 2006 Wendy's sold 237 company-owned restaurants and other real estate sites generating gross proceeds of approximately $211 million. Also during 2006, Wendy's management implemented a cost-cutting program that generated $90 million of annual savings on a run rate basis in general and administrative expenses. In addition, in the fourth quarter of 2006 and the first quarter of 2007, Wendy's repurchased approximately $1.1 billion of its own shares through a modified Dutch Auction tender offer and an accelerated share repurchase program.

In March 2007, a significant franchisee of Wendy's reported to James V. Pickett, the Chairman of Wendy's board of directors, that the franchisee and two significant Wendy's shareholders had recently attended a meeting with officers of Triarc, including Mr. Peltz, at which among other things, the franchisee said, Mr. Peltz stated that Triarc would be considering a range of strategic alternatives for itself that could include an interest in Wendy's following expiration of the standstill period. On April 3, 2007, at a meeting scheduled at Mr. Peltz's request between Mr. Peltz, Mr. May and Mr. Pickett, Mr. Peltz expressed his disappointment in the performance of Wendy's senior management in attempting to improve Wendy's financial performance. Mr. Peltz also expressed an interest in having Triarc acquire Wendy's promptly following the June 30, 2007 expiration of the standstill period in a negotiated transaction, which would be subject to appropriate Triarc board and stockholder approvals.

On April 12, 2007, at a meeting of Triarc's board of directors, Mr. Peltz reported that he had spoken to Mr. Pickett about the possibility of an acquisition of Wendy's by Triarc and that he was waiting to hear whether the Wendy's board of directors would be interested in pursuing such a transaction. On April 20, 2007, following the completion of its strategic review, Triarc announced that it had entered into a definitive agreement for the sale of Deerfield, a Chicago-based fixed income asset manager in which Triarc owned a controlling interest. Triarc also stated that after such sale, Triarc's sole operating business would be the Arby's restaurant business.

Mr. Pickett discussed his April 3, 2007 conversation with Messrs. Peltz and May, and the March 2007 franchisee's report to Mr. Pickett, with Wendy's Chief Executive Officer and President, Kerri B. Anderson, Wendy's Executive Vice President General Counsel and Secretary, Leon McCorkle, Jr., and Wendy's outside counsel, Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, in advance of the Wendy's board of directors' regularly-scheduled April 24, 2007 meeting. Mr. Pickett reported on these matters at that meeting, and expressed the view that Mr. Peltz's communications could adversely impact the direction of Wendy's, and the ability of management to achieve Wendy's strategic plan. Mr. Pickett also discussed significant changes in circumstances from the time of adoption of the strategic plan in the fall of 2006, and stated that each of these matters required careful evaluation. Mr. Pickett and Mr. McCorkle recommended formation of a special committee of the Wendy's board of directors with authority to consider Wendy's strategic options in advance of the expiration of the standstill period.

Following discussion of the scope of the proposed committee's authority, the importance of its members being free from actual and perceived conflicts of interest, the compensation to be paid for committee service and other relevant matters, the Wendy's board of directors appointed James V. Pickett (as Chairman), Thomas F. Keller, David P. Lauer, James F. Millar and John R. Thompson to a committee (which we refer to as the Special Committee, or the committee) charged with investigating strategic options available to Wendy's, including but not limited to changes in the Wendy's capital structure and a possible sale, merger or other business combination. The Special Committee's authority included recommending, rejecting or seeking to modify the terms of any possible transaction and recommending to the Wendy's board of directors what action, if any, should be taken with respect to any strategic option. The board authorized retainers of $50,000 per quarter for the Special Committee's Chairman and $10,000 per quarter for the other committee members, and payment to each committee member of $1,250 for each telephonic or in-person meeting attended plus reimbursement of expenses incurred. Wendy's announced publicly the formation of the Special Committee on April 25, 2007. Pursuant to the Standstill Agreement, Mr. Oran was nominated for re-election to the Wendy's board of directors at Wendy's annual shareholders' meeting held on April 26, 2007, and was so elected.

On April 25, 2007, the Special Committee met with representatives of Goldman Sachs & Co., JPMorgan Securities Inc. and Baker & Hostetler LLP to review the committee's duties generally and those entities' independence and other qualifications for purposes of serving as advisors to the committee. On April 26, 2007, in light of Wendy's announcement that it was exploring strategic options, Mr. Peltz wrote to Mr. Pickett and requested that Wendy's waive any applicable standstill provisions so that Triarc might make an acquisition proposal. On April 30, 2007, Triarc stated that following its sale of Deerfield, Triarc would be a pure-play publicly traded restaurant company and was considering financing opportunities to further its goal of significantly increasing value through the acquisition of other restaurant companies.

Following additional review and discussions with the advisory candidates with which it had met on April 25, 2007 and with other potential advisors, including Lehman Brothers Inc., over the succeeding several days, the Special Committee met on May 14, 2007 and formally engaged JPMorgan and Lehman Brothers as its financial advisors and Baker Hostetler as its counsel. At that meeting, the Special Committee and its advisors reviewed the committee's duties in depth and discussed a range of strategic alternatives to be explored. On May 10, 2007, at a meeting of Triarc's board of directors, Mr. Peltz reported that Wendy's had announced that it was evaluating strategic alternatives and that Mr. Pickett had told him that he would discuss the potential acquisition of Wendy's by Triarc with the Wendy's board of directors. Mr. Garden noted that Triarc's management had entered into preliminary discussions with potential financial advisors regarding a potential acquisition of Wendy's. Bear Stearns subsequently worked with Triarc as its financial advisor.

At a meeting on May 31, 2007, the Special Committee and its advisors reviewed committee members' discussions with certain Wendy's shareholders and franchisees, financial due diligence on Wendy's conducted by JPMorgan and Lehman Brothers, and management's financial forecasts, and discussed at length the following strategic alternatives: continued execution of Wendy's strategic plan, a change in dividend payout policy, the making of strategic acquisitions, refranchising company-owned stores, a sale and leaseback of Wendy's-owned real estate, a leveraged recapitalization, and a sale of the enterprise. Lehman Brothers reviewed the evolution of asset-backed securitization financing (which we refer to as ABS financing) and the prospects for generating value for Wendy's shareholders through ABS financing if the Special Committee determined to pursue a sale or a leveraged recapitalization of Wendy's. Baker Hostetler reviewed the Wendy's charter requirement that, in evaluating a possible sale or similar transaction, the Wendy's board of directors must consider, in addition to the fairness of the price and financial terms of the proposal, the effect of the transaction on Wendy's employees, franchisees, customers and suppliers.

The Special Committee met again on June 4 and June 7, 2007, and determined to explore a possible sale of Wendy's, as one of the strategic alternatives to consider further, and authorized Lehman Brothers and JPMorgan to investigate the viability of a stapled ABS financing package for prospective bidders in light of the possibility of generating incremental value to shareholders via that form of financing.

On June 17, 2007, the Special Committee updated the Wendy's board of directors regarding its June 4 and June 7, 2007 determinations. The board discussed briefly the changing climate in the financial markets, and approved downward-revised earnings guidance in light of input from Wendy's management regarding Wendy's expected financial performance for the balance of 2007. Wendy's announced the Special Committee's decision to explore a possible sale, and the company's revised financial guidance, on June 18, 2007. Following this announcement, the committee's financial advisors contacted 31 potential bidders (both strategic and financial), including Triarc. Between June 18 and July 13, 2007, 15 potential bidder groups executed confidentiality agreements, each of which contained standstill provisions, and received a detailed confidential information memorandum regarding Wendy's. On June 22, 2007, Triarc received a draft confidentiality agreement from JPMorgan. On July 5, 2007, the first of an extended sequence of discussions among the Special Committee's advisors and Triarc's and Triarc's legal advisors commenced regarding the committee's proposed confidentiality agreement, including the committee's request that Triarc and Triarc agree to certain standstill provisions. Triarc expressed the view, in the initial and subsequent discussions, that the standstill provisions, in the form presented, were not appropriate for an existing significant shareholder of Wendy's.

On July 25, 2007, at the Wendy's board of directors' regularly-scheduled meeting, the Special Committee reported that bidders' initial indications of interest in Wendy's were due on July 31, 2007, management presentations and due diligence would be conducted during August and early September, information regarding the availability of stapled ABS financing was expected to be communicated to bidders in early September, and a call for bids should be expected for mid- to late September. As of July 30, 2007, the Special Committee and Triarc and Trian had not reached agreement on the terms of a confidentiality agreement, including standstill provisions and provisions relating to Triarc's ability to pursue alternative financing sources, and Triarc and Trian had not been provided with a confidential information memorandum. On July 30, 2007, Triarc and Trian sent a letter to Mr. Pickett and filed with the SEC an amendment to its Schedule 13D, stating that Triarc presently anticipates that it would be prepared to offer $37 to $41 per share to Wendy's shareholders, subject to satisfactory due diligence, negotiation of definitive documentation and other customary closing conditions. The letter did not specify any proposed form or terms of a transaction, and did not include any indication of sources of funding for a transaction. The letter stated that Triarc's preferred form of a confidentiality agreement would be forthcoming separately and if the Special Committee would like to invite Triarc to participate in the sale process of Wendy's, Triarc suggested that Wendy's execute a confidentiality agreement in the form that Triarc and Trian were prepared to execute by 5:00 p.m. on August 1, 2007 and stated that if they did not receive a favorable response, Triarc and Trian would thereafter continue to review and evaluate their alternatives with respect to Wendy's. In the view of Wendy's advisors, the letter suggested that Triarc would exit the auction process if its deadline was not met.

The Special Committee's financial advisors received indications of interest in an acquisition of Wendy's from four separate bidding groups (which we refer to as Bidders A, B, C and D) on July 31, 2007. The committee and its advisors reviewed the indications of interest at a meeting of the committee held on August 2, 2007. Bidder A's proposal indicated a value of $36 to $40 per share, Bidder B's proposal indicated a value of $37 to $39 per share, Bidder C's proposal indicated a value of $37 to $40 per share, and Bidder D's proposal indicated a value of $39 to $42.50 per share. During the period August 6 through August 20, 2007: Wendy's management made comprehensive presentations to Bidders A, B and C; a due diligence data room was opened to the bidders; and the Special Committee's advisors, Triarc and Trian continued to negotiate the terms of a proposed confidentiality agreement, including standstill provisions and provisions relating to Triarc's access to alternative financing sources. Also during this period, Bidder D declined to participate further because of difficulties in securing financial backing.

On August 20, 2007, the Special Committee met with its advisors to review the status of the ABS financing efforts, and to discuss the viability of a sale and leaseback of certain of Wendy's real estate holdings as financing supplemental to the ABS financing for a possible purchase of Wendy's. Based on that review, the committee authorized JPMorgan and Lehman Brothers to develop a sale and leaseback financing package for consideration by bidders. On August 28, 2007, Triarc and Trian executed a confidentiality agreement with Wendy's containing standstill provisions effective until December 1, 2007, and were given the confidential information memorandum and access to the Wendy's due diligence data room. Triarc and its advisors, including Paul Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison, LLP, Kaufman, Feiner, Yamin, Gildin & Robbins, LLP, Stikeman Elliott LLP, Jones Day and Bear Stearns, began the process of reviewing the due diligence materials provided in the data room.

The Special Committee met for an in-depth review of the ABS financing and an update on the Sale and Leaseback Financing efforts on August 30, 2007, including a detailed financial review and a detailed review of legal considerations presented by Winston & Strawn, which had been engaged by Wendy's with respect to financing and transactional due diligence matters in connection with the Special Committee's efforts. A confidential memorandum with respect to the sale and leaseback financing was distributed the day after that meeting to prospective real estate purchasers who had executed a confidentiality agreement.

During the period September 5 through September 24, 2007, Triarc requested from the Special Committee, and was granted, permission to pursue debt and equity financing from identified sources, subject to the execution by those sources of appropriate confidentiality agreements. Wendy's management made a comprehensive presentation to Triarc and Trian personnel on September 7, 2007. The Special Committee's advisors distributed to Bidders A, B, C and Triarc a draft merger agreement on September 14, 2007, and draft disclosure schedules thereto on September 19, 2007. Triarc and its legal advisors, including Paul Weiss, Kaufmann Feiner, Morris, Nichols, Arshat & Tunnell LLP and Jones Day, began to review potential transaction structures for a proposed transaction between Wendy's and Triarc.

On September 10, 2007, at a meeting of Triarc's board of directors, Mr. Garden reported that Triarc had reached an agreement with Wendy's on the terms of a confidentiality agreement governing Triarc's participation in Wendy's sale process and reported that Triarc representatives had begun conducting due diligence and evaluating potential acquisition financing. Roland C. Smith, a director and Chief Executive Officer of Triarc, provided initial observations regarding the potential acquisition of Wendy's, including some observations from the presentation made by Wendy's management to Triarc on September 7, 2007.

The Special Committee's financial advisors updated the committee on the sale process and on the ABS and sale and leaseback financing efforts on September 25, 2007, at which time the committee approved the engagement of bond insurers to provide credit support for the ABS financing. The Special Committee met on October 5, 2007 for an update on Wendy's financial performance from Mrs. Anderson, and to interview three candidates for the role of independent financial advisor to the committee in light of the possibility that JPMorgan and Lehman Brothers would be providing stapled ABS financing to the acquirer if a transaction occurred. On October 7, 2007, the Special Committee updated the Wendy's board of directors on the committee's activities and on capital markets and other developments relevant to the sale process subsequent to July 25, 2007. During the week of October 8, 2007, the committee selected Greenhill & Co., LLC (which we refer to as Greenhill) as its independent financial advisor.

On October 16, 2007, at a meeting of Triarc's board of directors, Mr. Smith and Stephan E. Hare, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Triarc, provided a detailed presentation of the potential acquisition of Wendy's. The presentation included details regarding the Wendy's sale process, proposed financing sources, on-going due diligence, opportunities for improved operating results at Wendy's, the integration of the Wendy's business within Triarc's organizational structure, potential cost savings and synergies presented by the proposed acquisition and Triarc's pro forma capitalization following the acquisition.

On October 17, 2007, the Special Committee, JPMorgan, Lehman Brothers and Baker Hostetler met and discussed at length the current state of the credit markets, market confidence in the financial strength of bond insurers, the possible terms of the Lehman Brothers and JPMorgan ABS financing and related bridge financing commitments to be delivered to bidders, the scheduled December 1, 2007 expiration of the Triarc/Trian confidentiality agreement's standstill obligations and the importance of maintaining a controlled competitive bidding environment for maximizing the value to Wendy's shareholders of any acquisition proposal. Members of the Special Committee also noted their belief that the continuation of the sale process was straining management resources and undermining focus on normal business operations. The committee and its advisors discussed the relative benefits and detriments, in light of these considerations, of calling for definitive bids without substantial further delay, suspending the sale process, and terminating the sale process. The committee determined tentatively to proceed toward a prompt call for bids.

During the next several days, Mr. Pickett, on behalf of the Special Committee, approached two banks about their willingness to participate in the stapled financing commitment anticipated from Lehman Brothers and JPMorgan, or alternatively to develop its own proposal for ABS or other financing. On October 22, 2007, Triarc announced that its definitive agreement for the sale of Deerfield had been terminated by mutual agreement of the parties.

On October 24, 2007, Lehman Brothers and JPMorgan delivered their ABS financing term sheet and related bridge financing (which we refer to as the stapled financing) commitment terms for review by the Special Committee and its counsel. Numerous discussions ensued during the next several days among the committee, Baker Hostetler, Wendy's management, Mr. McCorkle, Winston & Strawn, Akin Gump, Lehman Brothers, JPMorgan and Greenhill, regarding the proposed terms of the stapled financing. The Special Committee met on October 25, 2007 and discussed at length, separately with Lehman Brothers and JPMorgan, on one hand, and with Greenhill, on the other hand, the advantages and disadvantages, for purposes of maximizing shareholder value, of delivering the stapled financing terms to prospective bidders and calling for final bids by mid-November. Baker Hostetler, Mr. McCorkle, Winston & Strawn, Akin Gump and Greenhill negotiated with Lehman Brothers and JPMorgan regarding the stapled financing during the period October 26 through October 28, 2007, and the committee authorized delivery of the stapled financing terms to bidders on October 29, 2007, together with a communication that other potential financing sources were working to propose financing commitments as alternatives to the stapled financing and that final bids would be due on November 12, 2007.

On November 2, 2007, Mr. Pickett reported to the Special Committee that one of the banks he had approached had declined to proffer alternative financing for a possible transaction, and Messrs. Pickett and Lauer and Baker Hostetler met with representatives of the second bank to discuss its views on ABS financing availability and a timeline for its delivery of a financing commitment. The second bank expressed an interest in providing a financing commitment as an alternative to the stapled financing. On November 6, 2007, the Special Committee and its advisors updated the Wendy's board of directors on developments in the committee's process, including the delivery to bidders of the stapled financing terms, ongoing negotiations with respect to those terms, and the setting of a November 12, 2007 bid deadline, and reviewed generally with the Wendy's board of directors the other strategic alternatives that the committee had identified in May 2007.

In the months leading up to the November 12, 2007 bid deadline, Triarc, working with Bear Stearns and potential lending sources, determined that due to declining credit market conditions, the transaction terms proposed in the July 30, 2007 letter from Triarc and Triarc to Wendy's had become increasingly less attractive and a transaction consisting of a mix of cash and stock consideration provided better certainty of closing. On November 12, 2007, at a meeting of Triarc's board of directors, Mr. Peltz indicated that bids for the acquisition of Wendy's were due by the close of business that day. Triarc's board of directors reviewed the contents of Triarc's proposed bid letter, including the proposed price range per share of Wendy's common stock, the form of the proposed consideration and the conditions to which the offer would be subject. The Triarc board of directors unanimously approved the submission of a bid letter.

On November 12, 2007, JPMorgan received from Bidder A a proposal for a recapitalization valued at $29 per share, with per share consideration to Wendy's shareholders comprising $26.50 in cash as a special dividend, and $2.50 in retained Wendy's common shares. Bidder A proposed transaction funding in the form of $2.3 billion of debt financing and Bidder A's investment of $524 million in exchange for Wendy's common shares, but did not indicate the per share price at which the investment would be made. The proposal was premised on the availability of bridge financing to be provided by Wendy's financing sources and of the sale and leaseback financing, and was conditioned on the satisfactory completion of Bidder A's due diligence and the preparation and execution of acceptable transactional and debt financing documentation.

JPMorgan received from Triarc, on November 12, 2007, a letter proposing a merger of Wendy's into Triarc valued at $32 to $36 per Wendy's common share, comprising $20 to $25 per share in cash with the remaining consideration in the form of Triarc's Class B common stock (with voting rights of 1/10 vote per share), and indicating that if Wendy's wished for a greater percentage of the cash component of the merger consideration to be payable to its shareholders, Triarc would be prepared to work with certain large shareholders of Wendy's to seek to have them agree to convert their shares solely into shares of Triarc Class B common stock. The November 12 letter did not indicate an exchange ratio for the stock portion of the consideration. As to the cash portion of the consideration, the letter stated that Triarc had intended to utilize the proceeds from an ABS transaction that it had finalized for Arby's together with proceeds from the stapled financing but, because the stapled financing had not materialized beyond the term sheet stage, Triarc was working with two major financial institutions on a combined Wendy's/Triarc ABS financing and was also pursuing bank and bond financing, and expressed Triarc's intention to utilize the sale and leaseback financing. The letter indicated that Triarc would need stockholder approval to issue the Class B common stock and that Triarc was continuing to examine the disposition of its interest in Deerfield with a view to conducting only restaurant industry operations in Triarc, and requested that Wendy's conduct discussions exclusively with Triarc for a 15-business day period. Bidders B and C did not submit bids on November 12, 2007, and withdrew from continuing discussions with the Special Committee and its advisors.

The Special Committee met with JPMorgan, Lehman Brothers and Baker Hostetler on November 13, 2007, to review the Bidder A and Triarc proposals. JPMorgan noted that neither bidder had submitted a mark-up of the draft merger agreement or evidenced receipt of an acceptable financing commitment, and that the proposals constituted only confirmed indications of interest, rather than the requested best and final bids. The committee determined not to grant the exclusivity requested by Triarc in light of the current state of its proposal and the value of maintaining a competitive bidding environment, and instructed JPMorgan to obtain clarification from both Bidder A and Triarc regarding details of their respective proposals.

The committee and its advisors met again on November 14, 2007. JPMorgan reported on the additional details that it had obtained regarding the proposals, that both proposals were premised on an ABS financing package that Wendy's was to provide, and that JPMorgan had been informed that Wendy's financing sources would need until mid-December 2007 to deliver its financing commitment. Following a review of these matters and of the considerations assessed by the committee at its October 17, 2007 meeting, the committee instructed JPMorgan to notify Bidder A and Triarc that their respective proposals were not acceptable on their current terms, and that they should complete their due diligence and financing arrangements with Wendy's financing sources and be prepared to submit best and final bids by mid-December. The committee also directed JPMorgan to advise Triarc that the Class B common stock component of its bid was not acceptable and that it should make an all-cash bid.

The Special Committee, JPMorgan and Baker Hostetler met again on November 30 and December 6, 2007. JPMorgan reported that Triarc had repeated its request for exclusive negotiations and indicated that it was close to securing traditional bank and bond financing for its proposal. JPMorgan further reported that Bidder A had been relying on the availability of the ABS financing but that Wendy's financing sources had recently concluded that they would be unable to deliver a financing commitment by mid-December because of credit market conditions. Following discussion of these considerations and of the committee's view regarding the continuing strain on Wendy's operations arising from the sale process, the committee determined to reject Triarc's request for exclusivity and to defer receipt of final bids to the earliest practicable date on which fully-financed bids could be expected from both remaining bidders.

On December 7, 2007, Triarc requested from the Special Committee, and was granted, permission to pursue equity financing from identified Wendy's shareholders, subject to the execution by those shareholders of appropriate confidentiality agreements. On December 18, 2007, JPMorgan, at the Special Committee's direction, delivered to each of Bidder A and Triarc instructions to submit a best and final offer, together with a financing commitment and a mark-up of the draft merger agreement submitted to bidders in September 2007, by January 10, 2008.

On December 18, 2007 Triarc announced that it had entered into a revised definitive agreement to sell its Deerfield asset management business to Deerfield Triarc Capital Corp. (now known as Deerfield Capital Corp.), which transaction was consummated on December 21, 2007, resulting in Triarc's sole operating business being the Arby's restaurant business.

Between December 18, 2007 and January 10, 2008, Bidder A and certain of its potential financing sources conducted substantial due diligence on Wendy's, Wendy's financing sources continued to devote extensive efforts to developing an ABS financing package, and a draft purchase agreement for purposes of the sale and leaseback financing was distributed to qualified bidders. Shortly before January 10, 2008, Wendy's financing sources informed the Special Committee that they would be unable to deliver a viable ABS financing commitment in light of prevailing conditions in the credit markets and the credit standing of certain bond insurers.

Bidder A delivered to the Special Committee, on January 10, 2008, a detailed proposal for a leveraged recapitalization of Wendy's, the principal features of which included: an investment by Bidder A of $500 million in exchange for newly-issued convertible preferred shares (convertible into approximately 28% of Wendy's common shares, assuming immediate conversion at a $24 per share Wendy's common share price); Wendy's incurring a new $700 million term loan and entering into a $100 million revolving credit facility; the appointment of the principal owner and chief executive officer of a significant Wendy's franchisee as the new Chief Executive Officer of Wendy's (who we refer to as the Bidder A Designee); the purchase by Wendy's of that franchisee's business for $165 million in cash and Wendy's common shares (for the stated purpose of eliminating conflicting focus for the Bidder A Designee and aligning his interest with common shareholders); the payment to Wendy's common shareholders of a special dividend of approximately $12.70 per share; and the election to a 15-member Wendy's board of directors of the Bidder A Designee, three additional Bidder A nominees, and four persons to be nominated in 2008 by agreement between Bidder A and Wendy's. Bidder A's proposal included a draft financing commitment from several institutions.

Triarc delivered to the Special Committee, on January 10, 2008, a letter indicating that in light of the state of the credit markets, it was not comfortable with the credit terms available in the bank and fixed income markets. Triarc had explored various financing arrangements with approximately a dozen potential financing sources, including major financial institutions, monoline insurers active in the ABS market, hedge funds and alternative financing sources. Triarc proposed that Wendy's effect a tender offer for up to $1 billion of its outstanding common shares at a price of $30 per share, stating that Triarc had advised Triarc that Triarc would help finance the tender offer, following which Wendy's and Triarc would be combined, with the remaining Wendy's shareholders either receiving cash at a significant premium to the current market price or owning stock in the combined entity. The letter expressed Triarc's belief, based on preliminary conversations that it had conducted (with Wendy's permission) with several large shareholders of Wendy's, that those shareholders would want to convert their Wendy's shares into shares of the combined entity. The letter did not identify the amount or any proposed terms of the tender offer financing assistance and did not indicate any proposed structure for or pricing or other terms of the proposed combination.

The Special Committee, Baker Hostetler and JPMorgan met on January 11, 2008 to review the materials received on January 10. The committee directed JPMorgan to obtain background information and further detail from both Bidder A and Triarc regarding their respective bids. The committee requested that JPMorgan also explore Bidder A's willingness to purchase common rather than preferred shares, and the significance to Bidder A of the Bidder A Designee's appointment as Chief Executive Officer and of the purchase of his franchise business.

The Special Committee and its advisors convened again on January 14, 2008. JPMorgan reported Bidder A's insistence on purchasing preferred rather than common shares, and on teaming with the Bidder A Designee and effecting a purchase of his business for the stated purpose of assuring his sole focus on the Wendy's business. JPMorgan also reported that Triarc had reiterated its desire for a merger with Wendy's but declined to provide any particulars beyond its January 10 letter. The committee determined to meet with Bidder A to obtain a better understanding of its proposal. Following a review of the state of the financial markets and the nature and terms of the financing package included in Bidder A's proposal, consideration of the absence of a definitive proposal for an alternative transaction from Triarc or any third party, and a discussion of the committee's concern about potential damage to Wendy's operations from continuation of the sale process, the committee determined that it would also be advisable to explore alternatives to a sale or recapitalization of Wendy's that could facilitate alignment among Wendy's shareholders, board of directors and management and permit execution of an operating plan without disruption. To that end, the committee directed JPMorgan to meet with Mr. Peltz to gauge his interest in discussing changes in Wendy's board of directors and management if no sale of Wendy's or similar transaction were pursued.

On January 14, 2008, Mr. Peltz expressed to JPMorgan a lack of interest in discussing Wendy's board of directors and management changes. However, in a conversation between Mr. Pickett and Mr. Peltz on January 15, 2008, they engaged in a dialogue regarding Wendy's board of directors and management changes, including a suggestion by Mr. Pickett that Mr. Peltz serve on Wendy's board. of directors in the absence of a transaction. In a subsequent conversation on January 16, 2008, Mr. Peltz declined the opportunity to sit on Wendy's board and reiterated his desire to only complete a Triarc/Wendy's merger. Based on this conversation, Mr. Pickett believed that Triarc would likely conduct a proxy contest with respect to the composition of Wendy's board of directors if a Triarc/Wendy's transaction could not be agreed to. On January 16, 2008, the Special Committee, Baker Hostetler, JPMorgan and Greenhill met with Bidder A for a detailed review of Bidder A's proposal. At the conclusion of this meeting, the committee instructed JPMorgan to examine further the economics of Bidder A's proposal and to seek a more definitive transaction proposal from Triarc.

Between January 19 and January 22, 2008, Baker Hostetler, Akin Gump and JPMorgan developed a response to Bidder A's proposal, and JPMorgan requested definitive information from Triarc regarding Triarc's proposed combination with Wendy's, including the value Triarc ascribed to Wendy's, the structure of the proposed transaction, the form of consideration to be paid, the governance features of the surviving entity, the identity of post-closing management of the Arby's and Wendy's brands, the status and terms of any necessary financing, the transaction's timing, conditions to consummation of the transaction, the impact of the proposed transaction on Wendy's franchisees, and the remaining due diligence to be conducted by Triarc.

On January 23, 2008, JPMorgan, Baker Hostetler and Akin Gump met with Bidder A and its counsel to negotiate the terms of the preferred shares to be issued in Bidder A's proposed transaction. On the same day, Wendy's executed a confidentiality agreement with Triarc to enable Wendy's and the Special Committee and their respective advisors to obtain nonpublic information regarding Triarc for purposes of exploring a possible transaction.

On January 24, 2008, Triarc requested an extension to February 11, 2008 of the original January 27, 2008 deadline for submission of shareholder proposals for the Wendy's 2008 annual meeting. Representatives of Triarc, Triarc and Bear Stearns met with representatives of JPMorgan to discuss a proposed transaction and review the strategic rationale of a Wendy's/Triarc (Arby's) combination. On the Special Committee's recommendation, premised on its desire to develop Triarc's intentions regarding a potential transaction as promptly as possible without the distraction of other initiatives, the Wendy's board of directors acted on January 26, 2008 to grant the requested extension, and JPMorgan requested that Triarc deliver to the Special Committee, in writing, the terms of Triarc's proposal.

Triarc delivered to the Special Committee, on February 1, 2008, a letter proposal to merge a subsidiary of Triarc into Wendy's, with Wendy's surviving as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Triarc. The proposal called for aggregate consideration to Wendy's shareholders consisting of $500 million in cash, and Triarc common stock, without differentiating between Triarc's Class A common stock and its Class B common stock. The proposal indicated consideration of $27.00 per share to Wendy's shareholders, comprising $6.39 in cash (if Triarc, but no other Wendy's shareholders, elected to receive Triarc common stock as consideration) up to $10.00 in cash (if other large shareholders holding approximately 40% of Wendy's outstanding shares also elected to receive only Triarc common stock), with the remainder of the consideration consisting of Triarc common stock valued at $9.50 per share, which the letter stated was the approximate current trading price of Triarc common stock. (The closing price of Triarc Class B common stock was $9.30 on January 31, 2008 and $9.67 on February 1, 2008 and the closing price of Triarc Class A common stock was $9.38 on January 31, 2008 and $9.64 on February 1, 2008.)

The February 1 Triarc proposal was premised on $675 million of debt financing to be secured by Wendy's assets, and was accompanied by draft financing commitment letters from two financing sources. Triarc's proposal letter expressed confidence that Triarc's management team could increase Wendy's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (which we refer to as EBITDA) significantly by improving Wendy's-owned store profit margins, controlling expenses, and rationalizing overhead costs through synergies between the Triarc and Wendy's operations. The proposal contemplated a 15-member post-closing Triarc board of directors, three of whom would be designated by Wendy's, and was conditioned on satisfactory completion of Triarc's due diligence, completion and execution of definitive transactional and financing documentation, approval by Triarc's board of directors, receipt of the proposed financing, and other customary closing conditions.

The proposal letter indicated that the proposal would remain effective only until February 6, 2008, and requested that Wendy's conduct negotiations exclusively with Triarc for a period of 15 business days.

The Special Committee, Baker Hostetler and JPMorgan met on February 2, 2008 to review the February 1, 2008 Triarc proposal in detail. In the context of this discussion, the committee noted that the proposal had not included a mark-up of the draft merger agreement and schedules previously submitted to bidders, and that an important feature of the proposal was its premise that Triarc, including Mr. Smith and other members of his management team, could effect significant improvement in Wendy's operating results. The Special Committee requested that JPMorgan arrange promptly for in-depth interviews by the committee of Mr. Smith and other Triarc management personnel, for an assessment of their capabilities and for a presentation of Triarc's strategic rationale for its proposal and of their views on the opportunities resulting from a combination of Wendy's and Arby's. The committee also requested that JPMorgan arrange for an in-depth interview of the Bidder A Designee in the context of the committee's continuing discussions with Bidder A, and that JPMorgan notify Triarc that the committee had declined its request for exclusive negotiations.

On February 6, 2008, Triarc requested an extension of the February 11, 2008 deadline for submission of shareholder proposals for the Wendy's 2008 annual meeting. The Special Committee's interviews with Triarc's management personnel were conducted on February 7 and 8, 2008.

The Special Committee, Baker Hostetler and JPMorgan met again on February 9, 2008, to review the committee members' interviews of Triarc personnel and of the Bidder A Designee. The committee's members reported favorably on their interviews of both the Triarc personnel and the Bidder A Designee. The committee also considered Triarc's February 6, 2008 request for a further extension of the shareholder proposal deadline described above, but declined to make a recommendation to the Wendy's board of directors in favor of the request, in light of the committee's belief that Triarc had not yet fully responded to all due diligence requests of the committee and its advisors and a perceived lack of clarity from Triarc on the brand focus and proposed location of Triarc executives who would be charged with effecting improvements in Wendy's performance. The Wendy's board of directors met to discuss the requested extension but declined to grant it. On February 11, 2008, Triarc submitted a proposal for action at the Wendy's 2008 annual meeting, calling for, among other things, (a) an increase in the size of the Wendy's board of directors to 15 members, (b) the election of six board members in 2008, five in 2009 and four in 2010, and (c) the election to the board in 2008 of six Triarc nominees.

During the next several days, the Special Committee, Baker Hostetler, Winston & Strawn and Akin Gump, and consultants engaged by Wendy's, initiated due diligence, which continued for several weeks, on the Bidder A Designee's business to be acquired in connection with Bidder A's proposal. They also developed and delivered to Bidder A a detailed counterproposal addressing the financial terms of Bidder A's proposed investment and of the preferred shares to be issued, standstill considerations relating to share purchases and corporate governance initiatives, and other governance matters. On February 14 and 15, 2008, Triarc delivered to the committee's advisors further responses to the committee's due diligence requests and provided clarification regarding the Triarc executive team. On February 20, 2008, Bidder A responded in writing to the Special Committee's counterproposal, and the committee's advisors summarized for the committee the Triarc due diligence items that remained outstanding. On February 22, 2008, Bear Stearns submitted to JPMorgan responses to Wendy's due diligence requests.

At a meeting of the Special Committee held on February 22, 2008, the committee noted its continuing concern regarding the effect of the sale process on Wendy's operations. The committee directed its advisors to continue their due diligence with respect to Triarc and to obtain Wendy's management's views on the financial consequences to Wendy's and its shareholders of accepting the Bidder A proposal in its current form. The committee and its advisors also discussed Bidder A's outlook for Wendy's operating and financial performance and discussed Wendy's current strategic options, including a transaction with Bidder A, a transaction with Triarc, or continuing operations in the absence of a transaction.

The Special Committee, Baker Hostetler and JPMorgan met again on March 6, 2008. The meeting participants reviewed the information that had been developed on the experience and track record of the Triarc executive team to be responsible for Wendy's operations, a preliminary Triarc model for Wendy's financial performance, Triarc's analysis of the synergies available in a Triarc/Wendy's combination, corporate governance considerations, and the potential impact of the proposed combination on Wendy's employees and franchisees. JPMorgan responded to questions from the committee regarding, among other things, the assumptions underlying Triarc's financial model and the liquidity of the common stock to be issued in the proposed combination if the consideration was other than cash. After discussion of the relative merits of the Bidder A proposal and the Triarc proposal, the Special Committee instructed JPMorgan and Baker Hostetler to proceed promptly with the steps that would be necessary to bring both the Bidder A proposal and the Triarc proposal into best and final form as soon as practicable.

During the next 10 days, Bidder A and JPMorgan conducted additional due diligence on Wendy's recent financial performance; Triarc delivered to the Special Committee's advisors a draft merger agreement; the committee and its advisors (including JPMorgan and Greenhill in separate sessions with the committee) reviewed the relative advantages and disadvantages of proceeding with Bidder A, proceeding with Triarc, and not undertaking any transaction; negotiations continued with Bidder A on the terms of its proposal (including its proposed debt financing documentation) and with the Bidder A Designee's counsel and executive team on the acquisition of the Bidder A Designee's business; and the committee's advisors delivered to Triarc a comprehensive due diligence request.

During the period March 17 through March 23, 2008, the Special Committee's counsel and financial advisors and Wendy's outside counsel and consultants continued their Triarc due diligence investigation, and Wendy's management team conducted due diligence calls with Triarc regarding Triarc's business plan and model. In addition, in light of the committee's assessment of the current state of the Bidder A and Triarc proposals and the possibility of a proxy contest from Triarc if no Triarc transaction were agreed to, Mr. Pickett undertook exploratory discussions with individuals who had been identified as possible candidates for the Wendy's Chief Executive Officer position and Wendy's board of directors positions, including Chairman, if the Special Committee and Wendy's board of directors were unable ultimately to recommend any transaction for shareholder approval.

At a meeting of the Special Committee, Baker Hostetler and JPMorgan on March 24, 2008, the meeting participants reviewed the Bidder A proposal, with a focus on its financial implications for Wendy's shareholders in light of the terms of the proposal's preferred shares component, and discussed the proposal's debt financing terms and financing fees and whether the proposal could be deleveraged. Mr. Pickett reported that he had met with Mr. May, who was acting on behalf of Triarc, on March 21, 2008, at Mr. May's request, and had requested that Triarc deliver promptly to the committee's advisors and Wendy's management additional detail on Triarc's projected post-transaction cost savings and on the financing of the cash component of Triarc's proposal. Mr. Pickett also reported on his discussions with possible Chief Executive Officer and Wendy's board of director candidates. The committee's advisors updated the committee on their due diligence investigation of Triarc.

During the period March 25 through March 28, 2008, JPMorgan, Baker Hostetler, Akin Gump and Winston & Strawn negotiated with Bidder A and its advisors regarding the terms of the preferred shares to be issued and Bidder A's financing commitment terms and fees, exchanged drafts of and conducted in-person negotiations with Bidder A and its advisors on the purchase agreement and related documentation for the Bidder A proposal, delivered to Triarc's counsel a comprehensive revision of the Triarc draft merger agreement (which did not contain a counter proposal to the economic terms of Triarc's February 1, 2008 proposal), participated in a call among Wendy's management and Bidder A's financing sources regarding Wendy's current business plan, and communicated to Bidder A and Triarc the Special Committee's intention to bring its process to completion in advance of Wendy's regularly-scheduled board of directors meeting during the week of April 21, 2008.

On March 26, 2008, Triarc's legal advisors and Bear Stearns submitted to Wendy's advisors outstanding due diligence items. On March 31, 2008, members of Wendy's management, Wendy's consultants, representatives of JPMorgan and Baker Hostetler, Mr. McCorkle and representatives of Akin Gump attended a Triarc management presentation at Triarc's headquarters in Atlanta regarding Triarc's business plan and its model for improving Wendy's operating and financial performance. Certain members of the Special Committee attended the presentation by telephone, and representatives of Greenhill received and analyzed the presentation materials independently.

During the first 10 days of April 2008, the Special Committee, its advisors and Wendy's management continued discussions with Bidder A on Bidder A's financial forecast for Wendy's, and continued internal discussions on Triarc's financial outlook; the committee, JPMorgan, Baker Hostetler, Akin Gump and Winston & Strawn continued telephonic and in-person negotiations with Bidder A and with the Bidder A Designee's counsel and executive team regarding transaction and financing terms and documentation; and Mr. Pickett and members of Wendy's management interviewed potential candidates to become the Chairman of the board of directors and the Chief Executive Officer of Wendy's if no transaction was recommended by the Special Committee, and began discussions regarding potential employment arrangements with such candidates.

On April 2, 2008, at a meeting of Triarc's board of directors, Mr. Smith provided a report with respect to the presentation made by Triarc management to Wendy's management and advisors on March 31, 2008. On April 3, 2008, Mr. May, on behalf of Triarc, and representatives of JPMorgan met to discuss the possibility of a stock-for-stock transaction to address certain concerns raised by Wendy's regarding Triarc's proposed transaction, including minimizing the effects of uncertain credit markets and providing greater certainty of closing.

The Special Committee, Baker Hostetler and JPMorgan met on April 4, 2008 to review: the risks attendant to closing Bidder A's proposed transaction; the Triarc March 31, 2008 management presentation; issues relating to the Triarc draft merger agreement; the committee's questions regarding Triarc's ability to manage both the Arby's and Wendy's brands; the amount and form of consideration for shareholders in a Triarc transaction; the post-closing liquidity of any common stock to be issued as merger consideration in a Triarc transaction; and the meeting participants' expectations regarding the effect on shareholder value of continuing business in the absence of a transaction, with either the current management team and board configuration or with the addition or substitution of one or more of the candidates engaged in discussions with Mr. Pickett. At the conclusion of this meeting, the Special Committee directed its advisors to formulate, for the committee's review, a counteroffer to Triarc's February 1, 2008 proposal, and requested that they schedule a meeting for Bidder A to present to the committee its best and final proposal.

On April 9, 2008, JPMorgan, Baker Hostetler and Akin Gump met in person with representatives of Bidder A and its counsel to resolve open issues and work toward finalizing the documentation for Bidder A's proposal. On the evening of April 9, 2008, the committee, Baker Hostetler and JPMorgan met to review the remaining open issues with respect to Bidder A's proposal, and to review the proposed counteroffer to Triarc's February 1, 2008 proposal.

At the committee's direction, JPMorgan delivered to Triarc, on April 10, 2008, a term sheet proposing a Triarc/Wendy's merger with consideration to Wendy's shareholders of Triarc common stock valued at $31 per share (with a variable share exchange ratio to ensure a fixed value), a limited number of closing conditions, reciprocal break-up fees, and voting agreements from Triarc and Messrs. Peltz and May with respect to the requisite Triarc and Wendy's shareholder approvals of the transaction. The term sheet also called for, among other things, certain corporate governance and heritage protection measures, including a single class of common stock in the post-closing publicly-traded entity, a charter provision limiting the post-merger entity's business to global restaurant operations, representation on that entity's board of directors of Wendy's designees, preservation of the Wendy's brand headquarters in the Columbus, Ohio area for a specified period, preservation of the Wendy's identity in the traded entity's name, post-signing and pre-closing Triarc interaction with Wendy's shareholders and franchisees, post-closing public disclosure levels and investor relations activities, and a three-year standstill agreement and resignation from Wendy's board of directors of Triarc's designees if the Wendy's shareholders failed to approve the merger. In a related telephone conversation, JPMorgan informed Triarc that the Special Committee was preparing to make a decision during the week of April 14, 2008 on its recommendation to the Wendy's board of directors, that the committee would present its recommendation for action at the Wendy's board of directors meeting on April 22 and 23, 2008, and that the committee believed that it had actionable alternatives to a transaction with Triarc.

On April 11, 2008, Bidder A and the Bidder A Designee met with the Special Committee, Baker Hostetler and representatives of JPMorgan and of Greenhill to review in detail the economic terms of Bidder A's proposal, the anticipated financial returns to Bidder A and to Wendy's common shareholders from the implementation of Bidder A's plans for Wendy's, Bidder A's debt financing terms, its views on Wendy's current operations and the changes it considered necessary, its proposed executive team and that team's experience relative to heading the Wendy's business, and the proposed purchase of the Bidder A Designee's business. In the course of discussion of these matters, Bidder A confirmed its recognition that the implicit immediate premium to Wendy's existing shareholders of its proposed investment was variable and potentially not significant, and that Bidder A would derive a return of six percent on its investment before Wendy's common shareholders derived a return. In that context, Bidder A expressed its belief that its proposal represented a substantial benefit to Wendy's shareholders in the form of enterprise stability, continued current returns and longer-term enterprise and share value appreciation, and stated that it was unwilling to and would be unable to offer economic terms more favorable to Wendy's common shareholders than those reviewed at the meeting.

On April 15, 2008, Trian proposed to JPMorgan an acquisition of Wendy's through Trian Acquisition I Corp., a publicly traded special purpose acquisition corporation affiliated with Trian, with consideration valued at $27 per Wendy's common share and payable in a combination of cash held in Trian Acquisition I Corp. and Trian Acquisition I Corp. common stock. Trian believed this proposal would keep open the possibility of a transaction in which Wendy's shareholders would be able to receive cash as part of the consideration. Following financial and legal analyses of this proposal conducted independently by JPMorgan, Greenhill and Baker Hostetler, which suggested that the proposal was not workable because of certain risks and uncertainties, the Special Committee instructed JPMorgan to advise Trian and Triarc that their best opportunity to effect a transaction with Wendy's in the time available for further action would be to focus on a transaction that did not involve Trian Acquisition I Corp.

On April 16, 2008, Triarc (through Bear Stearns) proposed a Triarc/Wendy's merger, with consideration of 3.2 shares of Triarc common stock for each Wendy's common share, which Triarc believed, based on the historical trading value of Triarc's stock and an assumed range of industry multiples, represented a value for each Wendy's common share ranging from $27.43 to $37.56. Based on the closing price of Triarc's Class A common stock on April 15, 2008, however, the proposed exchange ratio represented a value of $20.70 for each Wendy's common share, and reflected a 9.3% discount to the closing price of Wendy's common shares on that date. JPMorgan informed Bear Stearns promptly that the Special Committee would be voting on its recommendation to the Wendy's board of directors the following day, and inquired whether that Triarc proposal constituted Triarc's best and final offer; Bear Stearns stated that it should be so considered. On the evening of April 16, 2008, the Special Committee met with a Wendy's Chief Executive Officer candidate with whom Mr. Pickett had been conducting discussions.

The Special Committee, Baker Hostetler and representatives of JPMorgan and Greenhill met on April 17, 2008. JPMorgan reviewed in detail the latest Triarc proposal, the preceding Triarc proposal involving Trian Acquisition I Corp., unresolved Triarc corporate governance and Wendy's heritage issues, the potential risk to execution of a Triarc transaction because of possible Wendy's franchisee resistance, and the anticipated consequences of not accepting a Triarc proposal, including the possibility of a proxy contest or hostile acquisition attempt.

Following a discussion of these considerations, JPMorgan reviewed in detail the latest Bidder A proposal, including its economic terms and their financial implications for Wendy's common shareholders; its debt financing terms and related fees; the plan and financial expectations for future operations articulated by Bidder A's principals and the Bidder A Designee; the financial and other terms of the acquisition of the Bidder A Designee's franchise business; the risks to consummating the Bidder A proposal and the amounts that would be payable by Wendy's in connection with a failed transaction; and the issues remaining to be resolved with Bidder A before definitive documentation could be executed. The meeting participants discussed these matters, Triarc's and Bidder A's awareness of the Wendy's first quarter financial results to be announced during the week of April 21, 2008, the potential effect of those results on their respective bids, and the anticipated market reaction and effect on Wendy's shareholder value of recommending neither a Triarc nor Bidder A proposal and proceeding with changes in the composition of the executive team and the Wendy's board of directors.

JPMorgan declined to recommend the April 16, 2008 Triarc proposal, and Greenhill expressed its concurrence with JPMorgan's view. The Special Committee and its advisors then discussed the terms of the Bidder A proposal and the prospects for Wendy's on a stand-alone basis. Following this discussion and based on the committee's analysis of the financial terms of the Bidder A proposal, its belief that the Bidder A proposal would align the largest Wendy's shareholder, Wendy's board of directors and management, and its belief that the Bidder A proposal would generate more Wendy's shareholder value than would a Wendy's stand-alone plan with the executive team and Wendy's board of directors changes that had been discussed, particularly in light of potential shareholder dissatisfaction that would accompany pursuing the latter alternative, the Special Committee determined to recommend to the Wendy's board of directors that it approve the Bidder A proposal. This recommendation was made subject to resolution of the remaining issues and finalization of definitive documentation for execution by the time of the forthcoming April 22 and 23 Wendy's board of directors meeting, and directed its advisors to work with Bidder A and its counsel to complete those matters.

On April 18, 2008, Mr. May sent a letter to Mr. Pickett expressing concern about the current direction of Wendy's and its sale process. On that same day, Mr. Pickett responded to Mr. May in a letter that stated that all proposals received by the Special Committee had been given fair and proper consideration. Also on April 18, 2008, Bear Stearns ceased working as Triarc's financial advisor to avoid any conflict resulting from the pending acquisition of Bear Stearns by JPMorgan, one of Wendy's financial advisors. Triarc subsequently engaged Wachovia Securities as its financial advisor based on, among other things, Wachovia Securities' familiarity with the proposed transaction as a potential financing source to Triarc for the transaction and Wachovia Securities' investment banking experience in the restaurant industry.

On April 19, 2008, the Special Committee delivered to the Wendy's board of directors a written recommendation in favor of the Bidder A proposal, an outline of its terms (including summaries of the material terms of the documentation therefor), a description of the steps the committee had taken in arriving at its recommendation, and the most recent drafts of the principal transaction documentation. Also on that date, Mr. Garden informed JPMorgan that Triarc was interested in making a new proposal. JPMorgan advised Mr. Garden that any further proposal, in order to be considered, must be delivered no later than Monday, April 21, 2008, in executable form, and must include all definitive documentation necessary to implement the proposal.

On April 20, 2008, Mr. Smith submitted to representatives of JPMorgan a letter proposing a merger of a Triarc subsidiary into Wendy's, in exchange for $28.50 per Wendy's common share in the form of 4.0 to 4.1 shares of Triarc common stock for each outstanding Wendy's common share and stating that Triarc was prepared to meet immediately with Wendy's and its advisors to finalize the noneconomic terms of the transaction and negotiate definitive documentation. The proposal was made subject to the execution of definitive documentation, approval by Triarc's board of directors and stockholders, and the satisfactory completion of Triarc's due diligence. By email communication later that day, Baker Hostetler advised Triarc that the committee would require, in order to consider the proposal, definitive transaction documentation early on April 21, 2008; that the transaction protection, corporate governance and heritage protection elements of any proposal would be an important focus for the committee; and that the committee would not accept any proposal conditioned on further due diligence.

At a Special Committee meeting convened early on April 21, 2008, the committee, Baker Hostetler and JPMorgan discussed the merits of the April 20, 2008 Triarc proposal. Because of the factors described above, the committee and its advisors did not consider the Triarc proposal to be actionable at that time. The committee determined to proceed with the scheduled April 22, 2008 presentation to the Wendy's board of directors recommending the Bidder A proposal, with a view to requesting action on that proposal on April 23, 2008, subject to the possibility of a change in the committee's recommendation to the Wendy's board of directors if the Triarc proposal became actionable in that time frame. In separate conversations later that day, Greenhill expressed its support of that approach.

Later on April 21, Mr. Smith supplemented his April 20 letter to JPMorgan, indicating that (among other things) on the closing of the proposed transaction, Triarc would have a shareholder friendly corporate governance structure without a poison pill or classified board of directors, with a single class of common stock, a 12-member board of directors that would include two Wendy's designees and would continue to require independent director approval of related-party transactions. The letter further indicated that the transaction would not be subject to further due diligence, that the post-merger publicly-traded entity would change its name to include Wendy's as its first word, and that the Wendy's brand would continue to be headquartered in the Columbus, Ohio area for at least three years following consummation of the merger. The letter expressed objection to the committee's April 10, 2008 term sheet requirements that Triarc pay a break-up fee to Wendy's, and that Triarc agree to a three-year standstill and cause its Wendy's board of directors designees to resign from the Wendy's board of directors, if Wendy's shareholders failed to approve the proposed merger. In response, JPMorgan reiterated the Special Committee's immediate need for definitive documentation. Late in the afternoon of April 21, 2008, Paul Weiss, on behalf of Triarc, delivered a revised version of the Special Committee's advisors' latest draft merger agreement. Also on April 21, 2008, Wendy's was advised that as an alternative to Triarc's proposal, Triarc Acquisition I Corp. was prepared to offer $30 per Wendy's common share, payable in a combination of cash and Triarc Acquisition I Corp.'s common stock. The Special Committee and its advisors, in light of their reservations about the viability of any transaction with Triarc Acquisition I Corp., determined to focus only on the Triarc proposal.

On April 21 and April 22, 2008, JPMorgan, Baker Hostetler, Akin Gump and Winston & Strawn continued work with Bidder A, the Bidder A Designee's executive team and their respective advisors on finalizing the documentation for the Bidder A proposal. Simultaneously, JPMorgan, Baker Hostetler, Akin Gump and Winston & Strawn worked with Triarc, Triarc, Paul Weiss, Triarc's legal advisor, and Cadwalader, Triarc's legal advisor, and other legal advisors toward completing documentation for the Triarc proposal. The committee met early on the morning of April 22, 2008 for an update on the status of the Triarc proposal, and, in addition to the discussions focused on transaction documentation, the committee's advisors continued negotiations with Triarc, Triarc, Paul Weiss and Cadwalader over the course of the day regarding the merger consideration, the transaction protection, corporate governance and heritage protection issues referred to above, and matters relating to, among other things, the preservation of compensation and benefits for Wendy's employees, and limitations on departures by Triarc or Wendy's from the ordinary course of business and on other actions between the execution of the merger agreement and consummation of the merger.

At the Wendy's board of directors meeting on April 22, 2008, the Special Committee and its advisors presented to the Wendy's board of directors a description of the Bidder A proposal's components and terms, a financial analysis of the proposal, and the committee's rationale for recommending the proposal in lieu of the other alternatives considered by the committee. The committee and its advisors indicated that they had received a very recent Triarc proposal that had not yet become actionable, that the committee's advisors were working with Triarc with respect to that proposal, and that the committee would advise the board of directors if the proposal became actionable before the board was asked to vote on the Bidder A proposal the next day. The Special Committee and its advisors responded to questions from the board of directors regarding the Bidder A proposal, and following a break in the meeting, principals of Bidder A and the Bidder A Designee made a presentation to, and responded to questions from, the board of directors.

The Special Committee met with its advisors early on the morning of April 23, 2008 for a further update on the Triarc discussions. Negotiations on transaction terms and definitive documentation for the Triarc proposal continued into late morning on April 23, 2008, at which time the merger consideration of 4.25 shares of Triarc Class A common stock for each Wendy's common share was established, and the other terms described under "The Merger Agreement" beginning on page 78 became finalized. The committee then met with its advisors, and, after (a) considering the views of its financial and legal advisors with respect to the merger agreement and the relative financial and nonfinancial advantages and disadvantages of the Triarc proposal, the Bidder A proposal (including confirmation that Bidder A would not improve on the proposal presented to the committee on April 11 and the Wendy's board of directors on April 22), and the other alternatives considered by the committee, (b) determining that the Triarc proposal would create more shareholder value than the other alternatives considered by the committee and would be beneficial for Wendy's other stakeholders, and (c) receiving an indication from Greenhill that Greenhill was prepared to render its written opinion that the consideration to be received from Triarc by holders of Wendy's common shares (other than Wendy's or any of its subsidiaries, Triarc or any of its affiliates or dissenting holders) is fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders, the committee determined unanimously to recommend that the Wendy's board of directors approve the merger agreement negotiated with Triarc and the transactions contemplated thereby, and that the Wendy's board of directors present the agreement to the Wendy's shareholders and recommend that the shareholders adopt the merger agreement.

Immediately following that meeting, the Wendy's board of directors meeting was reconvened and the Special Committee and its advisors presented to the board of directors a description of the price and other merger agreement terms that had been negotiated with Triarc; JPMorgan's and Greenhill's financial analyses of the proposed merger (including a description of the fairness opinion that Greenhill was prepared to deliver to the Wendy's board of directors); a summary of the merger agreement and related documentation; the committee's view that consummation of the proposed merger represented the best alternative available to the Wendy's shareholders and other stakeholders and was in the best interest of shareholders; and the committee's recommendation that the Wendy's board of directors approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and present the agreement and those transactions to the Wendy's shareholders and recommend that the shareholders adopt the merger agreement. The committee and its advisors responded to various questions from the board of directors regarding the matters presented. At the committee's invitation, Triarc's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer and Senior Vice President, Operations then joined the meeting and made a presentation to, and responded to questions from, the Wendy's board of directors regarding their expectations for the operations of the combined entity.

The Triarc executives then left the meeting, following which additional discussion ensued regarding the relative advantages and disadvantages of the Triarc proposal and the other alternatives considered by the Special Committee. At the conclusion of this discussion, the Wendy's board of directors approved the Triarc merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and the presentation of the agreement to Wendy's shareholders and recommendation that the shareholders adopt the merger agreement, by a vote of nine votes in favor of, and no votes against, the action, with abstentions by Mrs. Anderson and Messrs. Levin, Oran and Rothschild based on actual or perceived conflicts of interest with respect to the matter acted upon.

Also on April 23, 2008, Triarc's board of directors convened to discuss advantages and disadvantages of the proposed transaction. At this meeting, Wachovia Securities reviewed with the Triarc board of directors its financial analysis of the exchange ratio and rendered to the Triarc board of directors an oral opinion, which opinion was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated April 23, 2008, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations described in such opinion, the exchange ratio provided for in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Triarc. Also at the meeting, Messrs. Peltz, May and Garden reminded the Triarc board of directors that they have interests in the merger that are in addition to the interests of Triarc stockholders, including that they may be deemed to beneficially own, in the aggregate, approximately 9.8% of Wendy's common shares as a result of their interests in Triarc. At the conclusion of the meeting, Triarc's board of directors unanimously approved the Triarc merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and the presentation to Triarc's stockholders of certain amendments to Triarc's certificate of incorporation and the issuance of Wendy's/Arby's common stock in connection with the merger and the recommendation by Triarc's board of directors that Triarc's stockholders approve such amendment and issuance.

The merger agreement was executed on the afternoon of April 23, 2008, and the parties distributed a press release announcing the merger on the morning of April 24, 2008.

Strategic and Financial Rationale

In the course of their discussions, both Triarc and Wendy's recognized numerous strategic and financial benefits of a proposed merger. This section summarizes the potential strategic and financial benefits that the combined company would expect to realize as a result of the merger. For a discussion of various factors that could prohibit or limit the combined company from realizing some or all of these benefits, see Risk Factors beginning on page 25, Triarc Board of Directors Recommendation beginning on page 49 and Wendy's Board of Directors Recommendation beginning on page 50.

The boards of directors of Triarc and Wendy's believe that the merger will provide stockholders and shareholders an opportunity to realize long-term investment returns above what either company might separately achieve. By leveraging the operating strengths of the Arby's management team and both brands' long traditions of high quality food and service, Wendy's/Arby's expects to execute a focused business plan designed to grow revenues and significantly improve profitability over the long term. In total, the combined company will have over 10,000 restaurant units in its two restaurant systems and annual combined system sales of over $12 billion, positioning it as one of the leading quick service restaurant companies in the world. Wendy's/Arby's expects to capitalize on the following major strategic opportunities:

Revitalize the Wendy's Brand.
The Wendy's brand is iconic and well-established with a strong base of loyal customers. Wendy's premium brand positioning of fresh, never frozen, all-beef hamburgers is differentiated in the marketplace and provides a distinct competitive advantage. In recent years, Wendy's product innovation and advertising campaigns have been less effective in attracting customers. Wendy's/Arby's believes that a creative advertising campaign focused on key target customer groups, supported by successful new product introduction, and a re-definition of value positioning are key elements of its plan to revitalize the brand, improve customer traffic, and increase sales.

Improve Company-Owned Store Margins at Wendy's. The operating margins at Wendy's company-owned restaurants have declined significantly in recent years and are lower than comparable margins generated by many Wendy's franchisees. Although the two companies compete in different segments of the quick service restaurant industry, the operating margins at Arby's company-owned restaurants are higher than Wendy's and superior to most Arby's franchisees. Wendy's/Arby's believes that by applying Arby's successful restaurant management practices, instilling its pay for performance and ownership culture, and drawing upon its track record of improving store level margins, Wendy's/Arby's should be able to realize over time an estimated $100 million increase in annual operating income. This increase would be driven by approximately 500 basis points of potential margin improvement at company-owned restaurants.

Reduce Corporate Costs with a Consolidated Support Center. Wendy's and Triarc are both publicly traded companies with separate corporate headquarters, information systems, infrastructure, programs and staffing. To drive efficiencies of scale, Wendy's/Arby's intends to consolidate redundant administrative functions into a single corporate support center that will manage all public company responsibilities and provide shared services. Cost savings from efficiencies, best management practices, and synergies are estimated to generate approximately $60 million of improved profitability annually by the end of the three year period following the merger.

*Leverage Established
Franchisee
Systems.* 75% of the total combined system-wide restaurants for Wendy's and Arby's are owned by franchisees. This strong base of franchisee ownership and investment in the brands is a competitive strength, and represents a foundation for future growth in both the U.S. and international markets. As Wendy's/Arby's focuses on Wendy's brand revitalization, strategic initiatives to improve marketing and new product development are also expected to enhance franchisee profitability and new unit economics resulting in increased system-wide new unit development.

Maintain Independent Brands Focused on Sales Growth

and Profitability.

The organizational plan for Wendy's/Arby's consists of two independent business units that will separately promote and sustain the two brands and franchise systems. These independent business units will be responsible for brand operations, marketing, growth and profitability. The Wendy's brand headquarters will be in the greater Columbus Ohio area and the Arby's brand headquarters will be in Atlanta, Georgia.

Enhanced Financial

Resources and Flexibility. The merger will result in the nation's third largest quick service restaurant operation. When the merger is completed, the combined company will be moderately leveraged, with significant financial resources and flexibility to support long-term growth.

Improved Operating Cost Structure.

Greater economies of scale of the combined brands are expected to enable Wendy s/Arby s to compete more effectively in the quick service restaurant segment with an improved overall cost structure.

Daypart Expansion.

Both Wendy s and Arby s have begun to explore the national launch of breakfast programs at company-owned and franchisee stores. Recent market studies have demonstrated that breakfast is the fastest growing daypart for quick service restaurants in terms of sales and customer traffic.

Wendy s/Arby s will focus on this national opportunity as a key growth initiative.

Wendy's/Arby's believes that a strong differentiated product offering, capital investment in the restaurants, and daypart advertising are all critical to the successful expansion of breakfast programs.

International Expansion. Less than 5% of Wendy's system-wide restaurants are in international locations other than Canada and Arby's currently has a minimal international market presence outside of Canada.

International markets have been a substantial growth opportunity for other quick service restaurant brands and Wendy's/Arby's believes that there is a significant global franchise growth opportunity for both Wendy's and Arby's given their strong brand recognition and long history of successful operations in the U.S and Canada. Wendy's/Arby's also believes there may be an opportunity to develop dual-branded units in some of these international markets which may improve the return on investment for franchisees, thereby encouraging development even in higher-cost real estate markets.

Reinvest for the Future. Both Wendy's and Arby's generate attractive cash flows which include the long-term stability of high-margin royalty streams from each of the franchise systems in addition to the cash flow from company-owned stores. Wendy's/Arby's anticipates that investment of capital in the brands in areas such as accelerated new unit development, remodeling and upgrading of company-owned stores, restaurant technology, and targeted incentive programs for franchisees, will help produce attractive long-term returns on such investment and support incremental growth of both the Wendy's and Arby's brands.

The foregoing estimates were developed by the senior management of Triarc during its due diligence review of Wendy's. The expected terms for realizing potential sources of synergies and cost savings vary because of the variety of sources within each category, such that some are estimated to affect results of operations in the short term and others over the long term.

The actual synergistic benefits from the merger and costs of integration may vary from the foregoing estimates and these differences could be material. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that any of the potential benefits described above or included in the factors considered by the Triarc board of directors described under Triarc Board of Directors Recommendation beginning on page 49 or the Wendy's board of directors described under Wendy's Board of Directors Recommendation beginning on page 50 will be realized. See Risk Factors Risk Factors Relating to the Merger and Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements beginning on pages 25 and 30, respectively.

Triarc Board of Directors Recommendation

At a meeting on April 23, 2008, the Triarc board of directors unanimously (1) determined that the merger is consistent with and in furtherance of the long-term business strategy of Triarc, and in the best interests of Triarc and its stockholders and has approved, adopted and declared advisable, the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby, (2) recommended that the stockholders of Triarc approve and adopt the amendments to Triarc's certificate of incorporation and declared such amendments advisable, and recommended that the stockholders of Triarc approve the issuance of the Wendy's/Arby's common stock in connection with the merger and (3) approved the voting agreement between Triarc and certain of its stockholders. See The Voting Agreements Triarc Voting Agreement beginning on page 93.

Also at the meeting, Messrs. Peltz, May and Garden reminded the Triarc board of directors that they have interests in the merger that are in addition to the interests of Triarc stockholders, including that they may be deemed to beneficially own, in the aggregate, approximately 9.8% of Wendy's common shares as a result of their interests in Triarc.

In evaluating the merger, the Triarc board of directors consulted with Triarc's management team, as well as Triarc's outside legal and financial advisors, and considered the following material factors in addition to the specific reasons described above under Strategic and Financial Rationale beginning on page 47:

- current industry, economic and market conditions and trends, including escalating food costs and increased competition in the quick service restaurant industry;

- the synergies expected from consolidation at the corporate level resulting in reduced overhead and administrative costs;

- the value of Wendy's brand and opportunities to revitalize that brand, including the application of Arby's quick service restaurant managerial experience to the Wendy's business; the ability of the combined company to compete more effectively than Triarc on a standalone basis against other major quick service restaurant companies because of increased size and financial strength;

improved trading characteristics of the Wendy's/Arby's common stock, such as increased public float, increased trading volumes and increased analyst coverage;

the opportunity for a stock price trading multiple of the combined company that is higher and more consistent with other leading publicly traded quick service restaurant companies than the prevailing multiples of either Triarc or Wendy s prior to their entry into the merger agreement; the judgment, advice and analysis of Triarc s senior management, including their favorable recommendation of the merger based, in part, on their consideration of current market conditions and trends in the quick service restaurant industry and their evaluation of the alternative strategic options available to Triarc;

the oral opinion of Wachovia Securities to the Triarc board of directors, which opinion was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated April 23, 2008, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view as of the date of such opinion and based on and subject to the matters set forth in such opinion, to Triarc of the

In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, the Triarc board of directors did not find it useful to and did not attempt to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to these factors.

In addition, Triarc s board of directors did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to its ultimate determination, but rather the Triarc board of directors conducted an overall assessment of the factors described above, including discussions with Triarc's management team and outside legal and financial advisors. In considering the factors described above, individual members of the Triarc board of directors may have given different weight to different factors.

Wendy's Board of Directors Recommendation

In reaching its decision to approve the merger and the terms of and transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to recommend that the Wendy's shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement, Wendy's board of directors and special committee consulted with management and financial and legal advisors and considered a variety of factors with respect to the merger.

The Wendy's board of directors unanimously recommends (with four abstentions due to actual or perceived conflicts of interest) that the Wendy's shareholders vote for the adoption of the merger agreement.

The reasons for the Wendy's board of directors recommending the merger and the merger agreement included without limitation the following:

based on the

of Wendy's
common

Triarc Class
A common

a premium of approximately 26.7% over the average closing price of Wendy's common shares over the 30 trading days prior to announcement of the execution of the merger agreement;

Greenhill's opinion that the consideration to be received by holders of Wendy's common shares (other than Wendy's or any of its subsidiaries, Triarc or any of its affiliates or

The Wendy s board of directors and special committee were aware of and also considered the following adverse factors associated with the merger, among others:

at various times over the past several years, Wendy s
common shares
have traded in excess of the value of the
merger
consideration

(although the Wendy's board of directors and special committee believed it was unlikely that Wendy's common shares would trade in excess of the value of the merger consideration in the near term and believed that the opportunity for preservation of future upside gains as a result of the stock-for-stock merger consideration mitigated the adverse effects of this factor); that if the merger is not completed under certain circumstances, Wendy's will be required to reimburse Triarc and its contemplated financing sources for certain out of pocket fees and expenses of $10 million. For a more complete description of the circumstances under which

Wendy's would be required to pay certain expenses of Triarc, see Termination Events; Expense Reimbursement Required beginning on page 88;

that failure to complete the merger could negatively impact the stock price and the future business and financial results of Wendy's because of, among other things, the market disruption that would occur as a result of uncertainties relating to a failure to complete the merger;

the risk that the merger might not be completed as a result of the failure of the closing conditions to be satisfied or waived; and certain other risks relating to the merger described in Risk Factors

page 25.

The foregoing discussion and the discussion under "Background of the Merger" are not intended to be exhaustive, but rather include the material factors considered by the Wendy's board of directors and special committee in evaluating the proposed merger. In view of the large number of factors considered by the Wendy's board of directors and special committee in connection with the evaluation of the merger and the merger agreement and the complexity of these matters, the Wendy's board of directors and special committee did not consider it practicable, nor did it attempt, to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision, nor did it evaluate whether these factors were of equal importance. Rather, the Wendy's board of directors made its recommendation on the totality of information presented and the investigation conducted by it. In addition, individual directors may have given different weight to the various factors. For the reasons set forth above, the Wendy's board of directors recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

Opinion of Triarc's Financial Advisor

Triarc retained Wachovia Securities to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger. In connection with this engagement, Triarc requested that Wachovia Securities evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Triarc of the exchange ratio provided for in the merger. In selecting Wachovia Securities as Triarc's financial advisor, Triarc considered, among other things, Wachovia Securities' reputation and experience in similar transactions and its familiarity with Triarc and Wendy's. Wachovia Securities, as part of its investment banking business, is continuously engaged in the evaluation of businesses and debt and equity securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions; underwritings, private placements and other securities offerings; senior credit financings; valuations; and general corporate advisory services.

On April 23, 2008, at a meeting of the Triarc board of directors held to evaluate the merger, Wachovia Securities delivered to the Triarc board of directors an oral opinion, which was confirmed in writing, to the effect that, as of April 23, 2008 and based on and subject to various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, its experience as investment bankers and other factors it deemed relevant, the exchange ratio provided for in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Triarc. The full text of Wachovia Securities' written opinion, dated April 23, 2008, to the Triarc board of directors, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with such opinion, is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference in its entirety into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Wachovia Securities provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the Triarc board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the exchange ratio from a financial point of view to Triarc. Wachovia Securities' opinion does not address any other aspect of the merger, does not address the merits of the underlying decision by Triarc to enter into the merger agreement or the relative merits of the merger compared with other business strategies or transactions available or that were or might be considered by Triarc's management or board of directors and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any stockholder should vote or act in connection with the merger or any other matters.

In arriving at its opinion, Wachovia Securities, among other things:

reviewed the merger agreement, including the financial terms of the merger agreement; reviewed certain business, financial and other information regarding Triarc and Wendy's that was publicly available;

reviewed certain business, financial and other information regarding Triarc that was furnished to Wachovia Securities by Triarc's management, including financial forecasts relating to Triarc and estimated synergies resulting from the merger prepared by Triarc's management;

In connection with its review, Wachovia Securities assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the foregoing financial and other information, including all accounting, tax and legal information, and Wachovia

Securities did not make, and did not assume any responsibility for, any independent verification of such information. Wachovia Securities relied upon assurances of Triarc's management that it was not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information about Triarc or Wendy's inaccurate or misleading in any material respect. In connection with the proposed merger, Wachovia Securities was provided with limited access to Wendy's management and, accordingly, Wachovia Securities relied upon, at Triarc's direction, the assessments of, and financial forecasts and other information provided by, Triarc's management with respect to all matters relevant to Wachovia Securities analyses. With respect to the financial forecasts relating to Triarc and Wendy's and estimated synergies resulting from the merger, Wachovia Securities was advised and, at Triarc's direction, assumed that such forecasts and estimates were reasonably prepared and reflected the best current estimates, judgments and assumptions of Triarc's management (and, in the case of calendar year 2008 forecasts for Wendy's, including adjustments to such forecasts, the best current estimates, judgments and assumptions of the managements of Triarc and Wendy's) as to the future financial performance of Triarc and Wendy's and such synergies. Wachovia Securities further assumed, at Triarc's direction, that such forecasts and estimates, including potential margin enhancements and other growth opportunities for Wendy's reflected in such forecasts and estimates, would be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby. Wachovia Securities assumed no responsibility for, and expressed no view as to, such forecasts or estimates or the judgments or assumptions upon which they were based. In arriving at its opinion, Wachovia Securities did not conduct any physical inspection or assessment of the facilities or assets of Triarc or Wendy's, and Wachovia Securities did not make and was not provided with any evaluations or appraisals of the assets or liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of Triarc or Wendy's.

In rendering its opinion, Wachovia Securities assumed, with Triarc's consent, that the merger would be consummated in accordance with the terms described in the merger agreement and in compliance with all applicable laws, without waiver of any material terms or conditions, and that in the course of obtaining any necessary legal, regulatory or third party consents or approvals, no restrictions would be imposed or action would be taken that would have an adverse effect on Triarc, Wendy's or the merger. Wachovia Securities also assumed, with Triarc's consent, that the merger would qualify for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Wachovia Securities' opinion was necessarily based on economic, market, financial and other conditions and the information made available to Wachovia Securities as of the date of its opinion. Although subsequent developments may affect its opinion, Wachovia Securities does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion.

Wachovia Securities' opinion only addressed the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio to the extent expressly specified in the opinion, and did not address any other terms or aspects of the merger or any related transaction. In addition, Wachovia Securities' opinion did not address the fairness of the amount or nature of, or any other aspects relating to, any compensation to be received by any officers, directors or employees of any parties to the merger, or any class of such persons, relative to the exchange ratio. Wachovia Securities was not requested to, and it did not, participate in the negotiations of the terms of the merger. Wachovia Securities' opinion did not address the merits of the underlying decision by Triarc to enter into the merger agreement or the relative merits of the merger compared with other business strategies or transactions available or that were or might be considered by Triarc's management or board of directors. Wachovia Securities did not consider, and Wachovia Securities expressed no opinion with respect to, the price at which Wendy's common shares might trade following the announcement of the merger or the prices at which shares of Triarc Class A common stock would trade at any time. Except as described above, Triarc imposed no other instructions or limitations on Wachovia Securities with respect to the investigations made or the procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion. The issuance of Wachovia Securities' opinion was approved by an authorized committee of Wachovia Securities.

The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Wachovia Securities, but describes, in summary form, the material analyses performed by Wachovia Securities in connection with Wachovia Securities' opinion. The preparation of an opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Wachovia Securities considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor considered by it. Accordingly, the analyses reflected in the tables and described below must be considered as a whole, and considering any portion of the analyses, without considering all analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying Wachovia Securities' analyses and opinion. For purposes of the financial analyses summarized below, adjusted net income and adjusted EPS of Triarc and the combined company means net income and earnings per share (referred to as EPS), respectively, excluding certain Triarc corporate general and administrative expenses and adjusted EBITDA means, in the case of Wendy's, EBITDA excluding Wendy's non-cash compensation and non-recurring expenses and, in the case of Triarc, EBITDA excluding Triarc's non-cash compensation and non-recurring expenses and certain Triarc corporate general and administrative expenses. For purposes of the Wendy's Financial Analyses summarized below, the implied per share merger consideration refers to the $27.24 implied per share value of the merger consideration based on the exchange ratio provided for in the merger of 4.25x and the closing price of Triarc Class A common stock on April 22, 2008.

Wendy's Financial Analyses

Selected Company Trading Analysis. Using publicly available information, including research analysts' estimates and public filings, Wachovia Securities reviewed financial and stock market information for the following nine selected publicly held companies in the quick-service restaurant industry, five of which had enterprise values, calculated as equity market values based on closing stock prices on April 22, 2008, plus outstanding debt, less cash and cash equivalents, of more than $2.1 billion, referred to below as Larger Quick-Service Restaurant Companies, and four of which had enterprise values of less than $2.1 billion, referred to below as Other Quick-Service Restaurant Companies :

Larger Quick-Service Restaurant Companies

Burger King Holdings, Inc.
Domino's Pizza, Inc.
McDonald's Corporation
Sonic Corp.
Yum! Brands, Inc.

Other Quick Service Restaurant Companies

Jack in the Box Inc.
AFC Enterprises, Inc.
Papa John's International, Inc.

Wachovia Securities reviewed, among other things, enterprise values of the selected companies as a multiple of their latest 12 months EBITDA, and calendar year 2008 projected EBITDA. Wachovia Securities also reviewed closing stock prices of the selected companies on April 22, 2008 as a multiple of calendar year 2009 projected earnings per share, referred to as EPS. Wachovia Securities then applied a range of selected multiples of latest 12 months EBITDA, calendar year 2008 projected EBITDA and calendar year 2009 projected EPS derived from the selected companies to Wendy's last 12 months (LTM) (as of June 30, 2008) projected adjusted EBITDA, calendar year 2008 projected adjusted EBITDA and calendar year 2009 projected EPS, respectively. Financial data of the selected companies were based on publicly available research analysts' estimates, public filings and other publicly available information. Last 12 months (as of June 30, 2008) projected adjusted EBITDA data of Wendy's were based on internal projections of Wendy's management as adjusted by Triarc's management. Other projected financial data of Wendy's were based on internal projections of Triarc's management and, in the case of calendar year 2009 projected EPS, reflects potential margin enhancements and other growth opportunities anticipated by Triarc's management to be achieved in calendar year 2009. This analysis indicated the following implied per share equity reference ranges for Wendy's, as compared to the implied per share merger consideration:

Wendy's Financial Metric	Implied Per Share Equity Reference Ranges for Wendy's	Implied Per Share Merger Consideration
LTM Projected Adjusted EBITDA (as of June 30, 2008)	$35.62 - $39.53
2008 Projected Adjusted EBITDA	$36.31 - $38.30	$27.24
2009 Projected EPS	$23.45 - $26.57

Wachovia Securities reviewed, among other things, transaction values, calculated as the purchase prices paid for the target company's equity, plus outstanding debt, less cash and cash equivalents, in the selected transactions, as a multiple of the target companies' latest 12 months EBITDA. Wachovia Securities then applied a range of selected multiples of latest 12 months EBITDA derived from the selected transactions to Wendy's last 12 months (as of June 30, 2008) projected adjusted EBITDA. Financial data for the selected transactions were based on public filings and publicly available financial information at the time of announcement of the relevant transaction. Last 12 months (as of June 30, 2008) projected adjusted EBITDA data of Wendy's were based on internal projections of Wendy's management as adjusted by Triarc's management. This analysis indicated the following implied per share equity reference range for Wendy's, as compared to the implied per share merger consideration:

Wendy's Financial Metric	Implied Per Share Equity Reference Range for Wendy's	Implied Per Share Merger Consideration
	$31.72 - $35.62	$27.24

LTM Projected Adjusted EBITDA
(as of June 30, 2008)

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Wachovia Securities calculated the estimated present value as of June 30, 2008 of the standalone unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that Wendy's was forecasted to generate during the second half of calendar year 2008 through the full calendar year 2013. Projected financial data of Wendy's were based on internal projections of Wendy's management as adjusted by Triarc's management in the case of the second half of calendar year 2008 and on internal projections of Triarc's management in the case of subsequent periods. For calendar years 2009 through 2013, such projections reflect potential margin enhancements and other growth opportunities anticipated by Triarc's management to be achieved during such years. Wachovia Securities calculated a range of terminal values for Wendy's by applying a range of terminal value multiples of 7.0x to 9.0x to Wendy's calendar year 2013 projected adjusted EBITDA. The terminal values were then discounted to present value as of June 30, 2008 using a range of discount rates of 8.5% to 10.5%. This analysis indicated the following implied per share equity reference range for Wendy's, as compared to the implied per share merger consideration:

Implied Per Share Equity Reference Range for Wendy's	Implied Per Share Merger Consideration
$38.27 - $52.62	$27.24

Triarc Financial Analyses

Selected Company Trading Analysis. Using publicly available information, including research analysts' estimates and public filings, for the selected companies referred to above under Wendy's Financial Analyses Selected Company Trading Analysis, Wachovia Securities reviewed enterprise values of the selected companies as a multiple of their latest 12 months EBITDA and calendar year 2008 projected EBITDA. Wachovia Securities also reviewed closing stock prices of the selected companies on April 22, 2008 as a multiple of calendar year 2009 projected EPS. Wachovia Securities then applied a range of selected multiples of latest 12 months EBITDA, calendar year 2008 projected EBITDA and calendar year 2009 projected EPS derived from the selected companies to Triarc's last 12 months (as of June 30, 2008) projected adjusted EBITDA, calendar year 2008 projected adjusted EBITDA and calendar year 2009 projected adjusted EPS, respectively. Financial data of the selected companies were based on publicly available research analysts' estimates, public filings and other publicly available information. Projected financial data of Triarc were based on internal projections of Triarc's management. This analysis indicated the following implied per share equity reference ranges for Triarc, as compared to the closing price of Triarc Class A common stock on April 22, 2008:

Triarc Financial Metric	Implied Per Share Equity Reference Ranges for Triarc	Closing Price of Triarc Class A Common Stock on April 22, 2008
LTM Projected Adjusted EBITDA (as of June 30, 2008)	$4.86 - $9.06	$6.41
2008 Adjusted EBITDA	$4.68 - $8.81
2009 Adjusted EPS	$7.16 - $7.81

Selected Transactions Analysis. Using publicly available information, including public filings and equity research, for the selected transactions referred to above under Wendy's Financial Analyses Selected Transactions Analysis, Wachovia Securities reviewed transaction values in the selected transactions as a multiple of the target companies' latest 12 months EBITDA. Wachovia Securities then applied a range of selected multiples of latest 12 months EBITDA derived from the selected transactions to Triarc's last 12 months (as of June 30, 2008) projected adjusted EBITDA. Financial data of the selected transactions were based on public filings and publicly available financial information at the time of announcement of the relevant transaction. Last 12 months (as of June 30, 2008) projected adjusted EBITDA data of Triarc were based on internal projections of Triarc's management. This analysis indicated the following implied per share equity reference range for Triarc, as compared to the closing price of Triarc Class A common stock on April 22, 2008:

Triarc Financial Metric	Implied Per Share Equity Reference Range for Triarc	Closing Price of Triarc Class A Common Stock on April 22, 2008
LTM Projected Adjusted EBITDA (as of June 30, 2008)	$11.15 - $13.25	$6.41

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Wachovia Securities calculated the estimated present value as of June 30, 2008 of the standalone unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that Triarc was forecasted to generate during the second half of calendar year 2008 through the full calendar year 2013 based on internal projections of Triarc's management taking into account net operating losses anticipated by Triarc's management to be utilized by Triarc in calendar years 2008 and 2009. Wachovia Securities calculated a range of terminal values for Triarc by applying a range of terminal value multiples of 7.0x to 9.0x to Triarc's calendar year 2013 projected adjusted EBITDA. The terminal values were then discounted to present value as of June 30, 2008 using a range of discount rates of 11.0% to 13.0%. This analysis indicated the following implied per share equity reference range for Triarc, as compared to the closing price of Triarc Class A common stock on April 22, 2008:

Implied Per Share Equity Reference Range for Triarc	Closing Price of Triarc Class A Common Stock on April 22, 2008
$10.13 $15.91	$6.41

Implied Exchange Ratio Analysis

Relative Contribution Analysis. Wachovia Securities reviewed the relative contributions of Wendy's and Triarc to the combined company's projected adjusted EBITDA and adjusted net income before interest and taxes, referred to as adjusted EBIT, for the last 12 months (as of June 30, 2008) and for calendar years 2008, 2009 and 2010. Wachovia Securities also reviewed the relative contributions of Wendy's and Triarc to the combined company's projected adjusted net income for calendar years 2008, 2009 and 2010. Projected financial data of Wendy's and Triarc were based on internal projections of Wendy's management as adjusted by Triarc's management in the case of Wendy's financial data for the last 12 months (as of June 30, 2008) and on internal projections of Triarc's management in the case of other financial data. Projected financial data of Wendy's for calendar years 2009 and 2010 reflected potential margin enhancements and other growth opportunities anticipated by Triarc's management to be achieved during such years. Based on the implied equity ownership percentages of Wendy's shareholders in the combined company derived from the relative contributions of Wendy's and Triarc for each of the periods reviewed, this analysis indicated an overall implied exchange ratio reference range of 1.45x to 2.74x, as compared to the exchange ratio provided for in the merger of 4.25x, as indicated in the following table:

Financial Metric	Implied Exchange Ratio Reference Range		Merger Exchange Ratio Ratio	Reference Range
Adjusted EBITDA	1.86x	2.15x
Adjusted EBIT	1.45x	2.14x	4.25x
Adjusted Net Income	1.75x	2.74x

Wachovia Securities then adjusted the implied relative adjusted EBITDA and adjusted EBIT contributions of Wendy's and Triarc to the combined company for the periods described above to reflect the relative contributions of Wendy's and Triarc to the combined company's estimated net debt, calculated as outstanding debt less cash and cash equivalents. Based on the implied equity ownership percentages of Wendy's shareholders in the combined company derived from the relative contributions of Wendy's and Triarc for each of the periods reviewed, after taking into account relative contributions to the combined company's estimated net debt, this analysis indicated an overall implied exchange ratio reference range of 1.87x to 3.21x, as compared to the exchange ratio provided for in the merger of 4.25x, as indicated in the following table:

Financial Metric	Implied Exchange Ratio Reference Range		Merger Exchange Ratio
	Ratio	Reference Range
Adjusted EBITDA	2.63x	3.21x	4.25x
Adjusted EBIT	1.87x	3.20x

Relative Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Wachovia Securities reviewed the implied per share reference ranges derived for Wendy's and Triarc from the separate discounted cash flow analyses of Wendy's and Triarc described above. Based on such per share reference ranges, this analysis indicated the following implied exchange ratio reference range, as compared to the exchange ratio provided for in the merger:

Implied Exchange Ratio Reference Range	Merger Exchange Ratio
2.34x - 2.37x	4.25x

Relative Trading Exchange Ratio. Wachovia Securities compared the closing stock prices of Triarc Class A common stock and Wendy's common shares on April 22, 2008, which indicated an implied exchange ratio of 3.91x, as compared to the exchange ratio provided for in the merger of 4.25x.

Illustrative Future Stock Price Analysis

Wachovia Securities reviewed hypothetical future stock prices of the combined company assuming, following the consummation of the merger, that the combined company traded at a latest 12 months adjusted EBITDA multiple similar to the latest 12 months EBITDA multiples of the Larger Quick Service Restaurant Companies referred to above under Wendy's Financial Analyses Selected Company Trading Analysis. These hypothetical future stock prices were then compared with hypothetical future stock prices of Triarc on a standalone basis assuming Triarc were to continue to trade at its current last 12 months (as of June 30, 2008) adjusted EBITDA multiple. Hypothetical future stock prices of the combined company were calculated by applying illustrative future trading multiples of 7.0x, 8.5x and 10.5x (derived, respectively, from the last 12 months (as of June 30, 2008) adjusted EBITDA multiple of Triarc, from the last 12 months (as of June 30, 2008) adjusted EBITDA multiple of Wendy's and from the latest 12 months EBITDA multiples of the Larger Quick-Service Restaurant Companies), to the projected adjusted EBITDA of Triarc and Wendy's on a combined basis for calendar years 2010 and 2013 after giving effect to potential synergies anticipated by the management of Triarc to result from the merger. Corresponding hypothetical future stock prices of Triarc on a standalone basis were calculated by applying an illustrative future trading multiple of 7.0x to the projected adjusted EBITDA of Triarc for the relevant period. Projected financial data of Triarc and Wendy's and projected synergies were based on internal projections of Triarc's management. Projected financial data of Wendy's reflected potential margin enhancements and other growth opportunities anticipated by Triarc's management to be achieved in calendar years 2010 and 2013. This analysis indicated the following hypothetical future stock prices of the combined company, as compared to hypothetical future stock prices of Triarc on a standalone basis:

Illustrative Multiple	Hypothetical Future Stock Prices of Combined Company		Hypothetical Future Stock Prices of Triarc
	2010 Adjusted EBITDA	2013 Adjusted EBITDA	2010 Adjusted EBITDA	2013 Adjusted EBITDA
7.0x	$10.55	$18.18	$11.68	$21.42
8.5x	$13.14	$21.83
10.5x	$16.60	$26.69

Miscellaneous

In performing its analyses, Wachovia Securities considered industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond Triarc's and Wendy's control. No company, transaction or business used in the analyses described above is identical to Triarc, Wendy's or the merger. Accordingly, a complete analysis of the results of the foregoing cannot be limited to a quantitative review of such results and involves complex considerations and judgments concerning the differences in the financial characteristics of the selected companies, transactions or businesses and other factors that could affect the value of the selected companies, transactions or businesses. Any projections underlying Wachovia Securities' analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such projections.

The analyses performed were prepared solely as a part of Wachovia Securities' analysis of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio provided for in the merger. These analyses were conducted in connection with the delivery by Wachovia Securities of its opinion dated April 23, 2008 to the Triarc board of directors. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which a company or business might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities have traded or may trade at any time in the future. The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger were determined through negotiations between Triarc and Wendy's. Wachovia Securities did not recommend any specific consideration to the Triarc board of directors or that any given consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the merger. The decision to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of the Triarc board of directors. As described above, Wachovia Securities' opinion and analyses were only one of many factors taken into consideration by the Triarc board of directors in evaluating the merger. Wachovia Securities' analyses summarized above should not be viewed as determinative of the views of Triarc's board of directors or management with respect to the merger or the exchange ratio provided for in the merger.

Wachovia Securities is a trade name of Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC, an investment banking subsidiary and affiliate of Wachovia Corporation. Wachovia Securities has been engaged to act as financial advisor to Triarc in connection with the merger and will receive a fee for its services which was payable upon rendering this opinion and also may receive a fee upon the consummation of the merger. In addition, Triarc has agreed to reimburse certain of Wachovia Securities' expenses and to indemnify it against certain liabilities that may arise out of its engagement. Wachovia Securities and its affiliates provide a full range of financial advisory, securities and lending services in the ordinary course of business, for which Wachovia Securities and such affiliates receive customary fees. In connection with unrelated matters, Wachovia Securities or its affiliates in the past have provided and currently are providing financial services to an affiliate of Triarc and to Wendy's, for which Wachovia Securities and such affiliates have received and will receive fees, including having acted and currently acting as co-documentation agent for, and as a lender under, a credit facility of such affiliate of Triarc and as a lender under a credit facility of Wendy's. In the ordinary course of business, Wachovia Securities and its affiliates may actively trade or hold the securities or financial instruments (including bank loans or other obligations) of Triarc or Wendy's for its and such affiliates' own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities or financial instruments. As of the date of Wachovia Securities' opinion, certain of Wachovia Securities' affiliates held approximately 5.64% of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class A common stock and approximately 8.69% of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class B common stock.

Opinion of Wendy's Financial Advisor

General

Greenhill has acted as financial advisor to the Wendy's special committee in connection with the merger. At the request of the Wendy's special committee, on April 23, 2008, Greenhill delivered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, to the Wendy's board of directors that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the limitations and assumptions stated in its opinion, the consideration to be received by the unaffiliated holders is fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders.

The full text of Greenhill's written opinion dated April 23, 2008, which contains the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of Greenhill's opinion that follows is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. You are urged to read the opinion in its entirety.

In arriving at its opinion, Greenhill, among other things, has:

Greenhill's written opinion was addressed to the Wendy's board of directors. It was not a recommendation to the Wendy's board of directors as to whether it should approve the merger or the merger agreement nor is it a recommendation as to how the shareholders of Wendy's should vote with respect to the merger or any other matter. Greenhill's opinion did not address the underlying business decision of Wendy's to engage in the merger or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative transaction, nor did it address the relative merits of or consideration offered in any such transaction as compared to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Greenhill has not expressed any opinion as to any aspect of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement other than the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to the unaffiliated holders. Greenhill's opinion did not address in any manner the price at which shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock will trade following the consummation of the merger. Greenhill's opinion did not address the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors or employees of Wendy's, or any class of such persons relative to the consideration to be received by the unaffiliated holders or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation.

In conducting its review and analysis and rendering its opinion, Greenhill assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information publicly available, supplied or otherwise made available to or discussed with it by representatives and management of Wendy's and Triarc for the purposes of its opinion and further relied upon the assurances of representatives and management of Wendy's and Triarc, as applicable, that they were not aware of any facts (or omissions of facts) or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. With respect to synergies, the financial forecasts and projections and other data that have been furnished or otherwise provided to it, it assumed that such synergies, forecasts, projections and other data were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the management of Wendy's and Triarc, as applicable, as to those matters, and it relied upon such synergies, forecasts, projections and other data in arriving at its opinion. Greenhill did not express an opinion with respect to such synergies, forecasts, projections and other data or the assumptions on which they are based. Greenhill did not make any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of Wendy's or Triarc, nor was Greenhill furnished with any such appraisals. Greenhill assumed, with the Wendy's board of director's consent, that the merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Greenhill assumed that the merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the final, executed merger agreement, which Greenhill further assumed will be identical in all material respects to the latest draft thereof that Greenhill reviewed, and without any waiver or amendment of any material terms or conditions set forth in the merger agreement. Greenhill further assumed that all material governmental, regulatory and other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the merger will be obtained without any effect on Wendy's, Triarc, the merger or the contemplated benefits of the merger meaningful to its analysis.

Greenhill's opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it, as of the date of its opinion. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect its opinion, and Greenhill does not have any obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm its opinion.

The following is a summary of the material financial and comparative analyses provided by Greenhill to the Wendy's board of directors in connection with rendering its opinion described above. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Greenhill, nor does the order of analyses described represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Greenhill. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and are not alone a complete description of Greenhill's analyses.

The analyses provided to the Wendy's board of directors were based on an assumed exchange ratio of 4.20 shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock for each Wendy's common share, although Greenhill's opinion was given based on the agreed exchange ratio of 4.25 shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock for each Wendy's common share.

Stand-Alone Valuations of Wendy's

Wendy's Comparable Company Analysis. Greenhill reviewed certain financial information for Wendy's and compared such information to corresponding financial information, ratios and public market multiples for the following publicly traded companies:

Burger King
Holdings, Inc.

Chipotle Mexican Grill, Inc.

CKE Restaurants, Inc.

Domino's
Pizza, Inc.

Jack in the Box Inc.

McDonald's Corporation

Red Robin Gourmet Burgers Inc.

Sonic Corp.

Triarc
Companies, Inc.

Yum!
Brands, Inc.

Although no restaurant company is directly comparable to Wendy's, Greenhill selected the above-listed restaurant companies based on their similarities in business and operations relative to Wendy's. Greenhill calculated and compared financial multiples and ratios for these selected companies based on publicly available data, including the Institutional Brokers Estimate System, public filings and other publicly available information. For purposes of this analysis, Greenhill analyzed the following statistics of each of these selected companies for comparison purposes:

the ratio of
(1) enterprise
value, defined as the sum of market capitalization
and total debt
less cash and cash equivalents to
(2) EBITDA
for fiscal year 2007 and estimated fiscal year 2008; and

the ratio of share price to estimated
earnings for fiscal years 2008 and 2009.

This methodology resulted in a range of implied value per Wendy's common share of $21.69 to $26.20 based on Wendy's management's projections. Greenhill also compared this range to (i) the trading price of Wendy's common shares as of April 22, 2008, which was $25.08, (ii) the implied offer value per Wendy's common share based on an exchange ratio of 4.20 and the weighted average price of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock as of April 22, 2008, which was $27.47, and (iii) the implied offer value per Wendy's common share based on an exchange ratio of 4.20 and the 30-day average price of a weighted average of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock, which was $29.85. In light of possible risks to Wendy's management's projections, and the weakening macroeconomic environment since the development of Wendy's management's projections and Wendy's recent operating performance, Greenhill also provided an additional point of reference for the Wendy's board to illustrate certain downside sensitivities underlying Wendy's management projections, including changes to assumptions discussed with Wendy's management relating to U.S. company store growth and franchise store additions, transaction growth, gross margins and operating costs (referred to herein as the stand alone downside sensitivity point of reference). Using the stand alone downside sensitivity point of reference and the methodology described above, Greenhill calculated a range of implied value per Wendy's common share of $15.26 to $18.06.

Wendy's Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Using discounted cash flow methodology, Greenhill calculated the present values of the projected unlevered future cash flows for Wendy's to calculate a range of implied per share values. Greenhill used Wendy's management's projections for 2009 to 2012, which were extrapolated using Greenhill estimates for 2013 to 2017. Greenhill calculated values for Wendy's by utilizing perpetuity growth rates ranging from 1.5% to 3.5%, discount rates based on a weighted average cost of capital (referred to herein as WACC) analysis from 8.5% to 10.5% and terminal EBITDA multiples ranging from 6.0x to 8.0x. This methodology resulted in a range of equity values per Wendy's common share of $30.15 to $39.29, based on Wendy's management's projections. Greenhill also compared this range to (i) the trading price of Wendy's common shares as of April 22, 2008, which was $25.08, (ii) the implied offer value per Wendy's common share based on an exchange ratio of 4.20 and the weighted average price of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock as of April 22, 2008, which was $27.47, and (iii) the implied offer value per Wendy's common share based on an exchange ratio of 4.20 and the 30-day average price of a weighted average of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock, which was $29.85. Using the stand alone downside sensitivity point of reference and the methodology described above, Greenhill calculated a range of equity values per Wendy's common share of $18.94 to $25.24.

Precedent Transactions. Greenhill performed an analysis of selected business combinations involving target companies in the restaurant industry. Although Greenhill analyzed the multiples implied by the selected transactions, none of these transactions or associated companies is identical to the merger.

Using publicly available information, Greenhill reviewed recent transactions in the restaurant industry and analyzed the enterprise value as a multiple of the last 12 months EBITDA based on the acquisition price as of each transaction announcement date. From this data, Greenhill derived a valuation range of 8.0x to 10.0x, which, based on Wendy's 2007 adjusted EBITDA as provided by Wendy's management, suggested a range of values of Wendy's common shares of $22.94 to $29.57 per share.

Premia Analysis. Greenhill reviewed publicly available data from transactions involving U.S. listed companies since 2004 with transaction values between $1 billion and $7 billion. Specifically, Greenhill reviewed the premiums represented by the acquisition price per share compared to the closing share price of the target company one day, one week and one month prior to the announcement of the transaction. Based on this analysis, Greenhill applied a range of one day, one week and one month premiums to the comparable Wendy's share price metric to derive an implied valuation range for Wendy's common shares of $27.11 to 29.50 per share.

Stand-Alone Valuations of Triarc

Triarc Comparable Company Analysis. Greenhill undertook a comparable company analysis of Triarc similar to that described above under Wendy's Comparable Company Analysis. Greenhill reviewed implied enterprise value as a multiple of EBITDA for fiscal 2007 and estimated earnings for 2008 and 2009. This methodology resulted in a range of implied enterprise value per share (using a weighted average share price of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock) of $6.13 to $8.11, based on Triarc's management's projections (referred to herein as the Triarc management projections), and of $4.91 to $6.90, based on a downside sensitivity case developed by Wendy's management (referred to herein as the Triarc downside sensitivity case). Greenhill also compared these ranges to the (i) weighted average share price of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock as of April 22, 2008, which was $6.54 and (ii) 30-day average price of a weighted average of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock, which was $7.11.

Triarc Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Using discounted cash flow methodology, Greenhill calculated the present values of the projected unlevered future cash flows for Triarc to calculate a range of implied per share values. Greenhill used each of the Triarc management projections and the Triarc downside sensitivity case projections. The discounted cash flow analysis was based on the present value of projected unlevered free cash flows for the years 2009 through 2013. Greenhill calculated values for Triarc by utilizing perpetuity growth rates ranging from 1.5% to 3.5%, discount rates based on a WACC analysis from 8.5% to 10.5% and terminal EBITDA multiples ranging from 6.0x to 8.0x. This methodology resulted in a range of equity values per share of a weighted average of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock of $6.36 to $10.46, based on the Triarc management projections, and of $5.01 to $8.49, based on the Triarc downside sensitivity case. Greenhill also compared these ranges to the (i) weighted average share price of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock as of April 22, 2008, which was $6.54 and (ii) 30-day average price of a weighted average of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock, which was $7.11.

Relative Contribution of Wendy's and Triarc

Contribution Analysis. Greenhill examined the implied contribution of each of Wendy's and Triarc to the combined company's market capitalization, number of company-operated stores, number of franchisee-operated stores, as well as revenues, EBITDA and net income for the years 2009 and 2010, in each case using projections prepared by management of Wendy's and Triarc, respectively. The following table sets forth the results of this analysis:

	Wendy's	Triarc
Market Capitalization	78.4 %	21.6 %
Company-Operated Stores	54.7 %	45.3 %
Franchisee-Operated Stores	66.7 %	33.3 % Revenues
2009	65.2 %	34.8 %
2010	64.2 %	35.8 %
EBITDA
2009	63.7 %	36.3 %
2010	62.9 %	37.1 %
Net Income 2009	73.2 %	26.8 %
2010	69.7 %	30.3 %

Greenhill noted that based on an exchange ratio of 4.20 stockholders of Wendy's would have approximately 79.8% of the economic ownership and voting rights of the combined company.

Exchange Ratio Analysis

Greenhill analyzed the historical range of exchange ratios (the price of Wendy's common shares divided by the price of Triarc Class B common stock). Using the daily closing prices of Wendy's common shares and Triarc Class B common stock, Greenhill calculated the historical average exchange ratio for the periods indicated in the table below. Greenhill also calculated that an exchange ratio of 4.20 represented an 11.0% premium to the historical exchange ratio high of 3.80, which was the exchange ratio as of April 22, 2008.

As of April 22, 2008	Historical Exchange Ratio(1)
Three Year	2.085x
One Year	2.757x

Six Month	3.086x

Pro Forma Combined Company Valuation

Greenhill analyzed certain financial data on a pro forma basis for Wendy's and Triarc as a combined company following consummation of the merger. Greenhill based its valuation on (i) projections for the combined company provided by Triarc's management (referred to herein as the Triarc combination management case), and (ii) a Wendy's combination management sensitivity case, which assumed lower forecasted performance from Triarc relative to the Triarc combination management case. Wendy's results in line with Wendy's management's projections and achievement of 50% of the synergies projected in the Triarc combination management case (referred to herein as the Wendy's combination management sensitivity case). Greenhill also provided an additional point of reference for the Wendy's board that incorporated into the Wendy's combination management sensitivity case discussed above the stand alone downside sensitivity point of reference (referred to herein as the combined company downside sensitivity point of reference).

Combined Company Comparable Company Analysis. Greenhill undertook a comparable company analysis of the combined company similar to that described above under Wendy's Comparable Company Analysis and Triarc Comparable Company Analysis. Greenhill reviewed implied enterprise value as a multiple of estimated 2009 EBITDA and earnings. This methodology resulted in a range of pro forma implied value per Wendy's common share based on an exchange ratio of 4.20 of (i) $28.40 to $35.58, based on the Triarc combination management case, (ii) $25.73 to $30.14, based on the Wendy's combination management sensitivity case. Greenhill also compared these ranges to (i) the trading price of Wendy's common shares as of April 22, 2008, which was $25.08, (ii) the implied offer value per Wendy's common share based on an exchange ratio of 4.20 and the weighted average price of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock as of April 22, 2008, which was $27.47, and (iii) the implied offer value per Wendy's common share based on an exchange ratio of 4.20 and the 30-day average price of a weighted average of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock, which was $29.85. Using the combined company downside sensitivity point of reference and the methodology described above, Greenhill calculated a range of pro forma implied value per Wendy's common share based on an exchange ratio of 4.20 of $18.24 to $22.13.

Combined Company Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Using discounted cash flow methodology, Greenhill calculated the present values of the projected unlevered future cash flows for the combined company to calculate a range of implied per share values. Greenhill calculated values for the combined company by utilizing perpetuity growth rates ranging from 1.5% to 3.5%, discount rates based on a WACC analysis from 8.5% to 10.5% and terminal EBITDA multiples ranging from 6.0x to 8.0x. This methodology resulted in a range of value of pro forma implied value per Wendy's common share based on an exchange ratio of 4.20 of (i) $38.86 to $53.36, based on the Triarc combination management case and (ii) $26.20 to $36.57, based on the Wendy's combination management sensitivity case. Greenhill also compared these ranges to (i) the trading price of Wendy's common shares as of April 22, 2008, which was $25.08, (ii) the implied offer value per Wendy's common share based on an exchange ratio of 4.20 and the weighted average price of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock as of April 22, 2008, which was $27.47, and (iii) the implied offer value per Wendy's common share based on an exchange ratio of 4.20 and the 30-day average price of a weighted average of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock, which was $29.85. Using the combined company downside sensitivity point of reference and the methodology described above, Greenhill calculated a range of pro forma implied value per Wendy's common share of $16.86 to $24.43.

The summary set forth above does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Greenhill, but simply describes, in summary form, the material analyses that Greenhill conducted in connection with rendering its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Greenhill did not attribute any particular weight to any analyses or factors considered by it and did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor, considered in isolation, supported or failed to support its opinion. Rather, Greenhill considered the totality of the factors and analyses performed in determining its opinion. Accordingly, Greenhill believes that the summary set forth above and its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions thereof, without considering all of its analyses, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying its analyses and opinion. Greenhill based its analyses on assumptions that it deemed reasonable, including assumptions concerning general business and economic conditions and industry-specific factors. Analyses based on forecasts or projections of future results are inherently uncertain, as they are subject to numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their advisors. Accordingly, Greenhill's analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results that might be achieved, which values may be higher or lower than those indicated. Moreover, Greenhill's analyses are not and do not purport to be appraisals or otherwise reflective of the prices at which businesses actually could be bought or sold. In addition, no company or transaction used in Greenhill's analysis as a comparison is directly comparable to Wendy's or the contemplated transaction. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of Wendy's or Greenhill or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecasts or projections.

The consideration was determined through arms-length negotiations between Wendy's and Triarc and was recommended by Wendy's special committee to, and approved by, the Wendy's board of directors. Greenhill provided advice to Wendy's during these negotiations. Greenhill did not, however, recommend any specific amount of consideration to Wendy's, Wendy's special committee or Wendy's board of directors or that any specific amount of consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the merger. Greenhill's opinion did not in any manner address the underlying business decision to proceed with or effect the merger.

Wendy's special committee retained Greenhill based on its qualifications and expertise in providing financial advice and on its reputation as a nationally recognized investment banking firm. During the two years preceding the date of this opinion, Greenhill had no material relationship with Wendy's or Triarc. Greenhill is entitled to receive a fee of $5,000,000 from Wendy's in connection with the merger and no portion of the fee is dependent on consummation of the merger. Wendy's has also agreed to reimburse Greenhill for certain out-of-pocket expenses incurred by it in connection with its engagement and will indemnify Greenhill against certain liabilities that may arise out of its engagement.

Greenhill's opinion was one of the many factors considered by Wendy's board of directors in evaluating the merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of Wendy's board of directors with respect to the merger.

Interests of Triarc Directors and Wendy's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

Governance Structure and Management Positions

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, upon completion of the merger:

The board of directors of Wendy's/Arby's will initially be composed of 12 members, consisting of (i) ten (10) members of Triarc's current board of directors,

including Roland C.
Smith, the current Chief Executive Officer of Triarc and Nelson Peltz
and Peter W.
May, the current Chairman and Vice Chairman
of Triarc, respectively,
and (ii) two members of Wendy's
current board of directors designated by Wendy's and reasonably acceptable to Triarc.

At the first meeting of Wendy's/Arby's
board of directors
following the consummation
of the merger,
the board of directors will elect a chairman and a vice chairman.

The persons accepted by Triarc to be designated to the Wendy's/Arby's board of directors by Wendy's will be appointed as of the effective time of the merger and nominated by the Wendy's/Arby's board of directors at the next meeting of Wendy's/Arby's stockholders at which directors are elected.

It is currently expected that, subject to the completion of the merger:

Roland C.
Smith, the current Chief

Executive Officer of Triarc and Arby s and a member of Triarc s
board of directors
will be the Chief Executive Officer and a director of Wendy s/

Arby's,
resign as chief executive officer of the Arby's
brand and become the Chief Executive
the Wendy's
brand.

Tom Garrett,
the current president of Arby's, will become the Chief Executive Officer of the Arby's
brand.

Arby's will elect Mr. Garrett and Wendy's will elect Mr. Smith to these executive officer positions to become effective upon completion of the merger. Determination of other members of senior management of Wendy's/Arby's will be made using a best in class approach. For additional information concerning these officers, see Triarc Annual Meeting and Wendy's Special Meeting beginning on pages 102 and 170, respectively.

Interests of Triarc Directors in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of Triarc to approve the proposals relating to the adoption of the amendment of Triarc's certificate of incorporation and the proposal relating to the issuance of Wendy's/Arby's common stock required to be issued in the merger, as more fully described under Triarc Annual Meeting beginning on page 102, stockholders of Triarc should be aware that members of the Triarc board of directors have arrangements that provide them with interests in the merger that are in addition to the interests of Triarc stockholders. These interests include that as of the Wendy's record date, Messrs. Peltz, May and Garden, each of whom is a director of Triarc, may be deemed to beneficially own through their interests in the Triarc Funds, in the aggregate, approximately % of Wendy's common shares. During their deliberations in determining to recommend to the stockholders of Triarc that they vote in favor of the matters described above, Triarc's board of directors was aware of these interests.

Interests of Wendy's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of Wendy's board of directors with respect to the adoption of the merger agreement, shareholders of Wendy's should be aware that members of the Wendy's board of directors and certain of Wendy's executive officers have agreements or arrangements that provide them with interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interest of Wendy's shareholders generally. These interests, to the extent material, are described below. The board of directors of Wendy's was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the merger.

Treatment of Restricted Stock, Restricted Stock Units, Performance Shares, Performance Units and Stock Options upon Consummation of the Merger

Wendy's has previously awarded various types of equity awards to its directors and executive officers, including restricted stock, restricted stock units, performance shares, performance units and stock options. The consummation of the merger will constitute a change in control for the purposes of Wendy's equity and other benefit plans. As a result, all outstanding, unvested equity awards will vest as of the effective time of the merger and become vested equity of Wendy's/Arby's (except for certain stock options awarded to employees on May 1, 2008, which will vest over three years except as described in footnote 5 to the table below). The number of shares issuable under the unvested options and the exercise price for the unvested options will be adjusted based on the exchange ratio of 1:4.25. Outstanding performance units will be settled assuming that all performance objectives had been satisfied at the highest level by Wendy's and the executive will be paid in cash within 30 days following the effective time of the merger.

The following table sets forth the types and amounts of outstanding equity awards that are estimated to vest as a result of the merger, which solely for the purpose of this table is assumed to occur on September 28, 2008, which is the end of Wendy's fiscal third quarter and not necessarily representative of the actual effective time of the merger, and the number of common shares beneficially owned as of March 3, 2008 (except for Mrs. Anderson, which is as of May 22, 2008), for each director and executive officer. The assumed stock prices used for this calculation were $29.00 and $34.50 for Wendy's and Tim Hortons Inc., respectively, which may not be representative of Wendy's share price at the time the merger is consummated.

Treatment of Annual Incentive Plans, Supplemental Executive Retirement Plans and the Deferred Compensation Plan upon Change in Control and Termination

Under the terms of Wendy's annual incentive plans applicable to executive officers, the minimum amount payable to each participant for the year in which a change in control occurs will be the greatest of (i) the amount paid to the participant for the prior year, (ii) the amount payable for the year in which such change of control occurs, assuming the target level of the performance objectives is achieved and (iii) the amount that would be payable for the year in which such change of control occurs, based on Wendy's actual performance through the date of the change in control.

In addition, under the annual incentive plans, if following a change in control and prior to the payment of awards for the fiscal year in which the change in control occurs, a participant's employment is terminated by Wendy's without cause or by the participant for good reason (as such terms are defined in the plans), the participant will be entitled to the award otherwise payable for the fiscal year had the participant remained employed with Wendy's through the payment date of awards for such year. Further, if a participant's employment is terminated without cause prior to a change in control, but the participant can reasonably demonstrate that the termination arose in connection with, or in anticipation of, a change in control, the termination will be treated as if it occurred after a change in control, if a change in control actually occurs.

Under the terms of Wendy's non-qualified supplemental executive retirement plans, prior to a change in control Wendy's will be obligated to fund amounts payable under those plans, approximately $8,561,000, into a rabbi trust. Benefits under Wendy's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan are not affected by a change in control. For benefits earned under Wendy's other supplemental executive retirement plans, if a participant's employment is terminated by Wendy's without cause or by the participant for good reason (as such terms are defined in the plans) within three years following a change in control, the participant will be entitled to be paid in a single lump sum payable within 60 days of the first day of the calendar quarter following the six month anniversary of the termination. Additionally, if an unvested participant's employment is terminated without cause prior to a change in control, but the participant reasonably demonstrates that the termination of employment (i) was at the request of a third party who had indicated an intention or taken steps reasonably calculated to effect a change in control, or (ii) otherwise occurred in connection with, or in anticipation of, a change in control which had been threatened or proposed, then such termination will be deemed to have occurred after a change in control, provided that a change in control shall actually have occurred. The participant will become vested and be entitled to a distribution of benefits in accordance with the plan with the date of the change in control treated as the date of termination.

Under Wendy's Deferred Compensation Plan, a participant may elect to defer all or any part of his or her base compensation and/or annual bonus until termination of employment. A participant will be credited with earnings as if invested in the deemed investments selected by the participant from a variety of investments selected by Wendy's. The Deferred Compensation Plan generally does not permit distributions prior to a participant's termination. However, Wendy's expects to terminate the Deferred Compensation Plan immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and account balances will be distributed to participants as soon thereafter as is practicable.

In addition to the equity compensation described above, the following directors would be entitled to receive their benefits under the Deferred Compensation Plan calculated assuming that each director's service as a director terminated immediately following the effective time of the merger, which solely for the purpose of this paragraph is assumed to occur on September 28, 2008, which is the end of Wendy's fiscal third quarter and not necessarily representative of the actual effective time of the merger.

Change in Control Agreements with Executive Officers

Wendy's previously entered into key executive agreements with Mrs. Anderson and Messrs. Fitzsimmons, Foley, McCorkle and Near that provide for benefits to the executive if terminated without cause (as such term is defined in the key executive agreement) after a change in control of Wendy's, or by the executive officer for good reason (as such term is defined below). These agreements only result in severance benefits after a change in control if the executive is terminated within five years after such an event (or three years in the case of Mr. Fitzsimmons), for benefits other than unvested equity awards. Pursuant to the key executive agreements, unvested equity awards (stock options, restricted stock, restricted stock units, performance shares or performance units) will vest immediately upon consummation of the merger, including the options awarded to executive officers on May 1, 2008.

At the time of the merger, the executive officers will be entitled to continue to receive their annual salary, bonus and other benefits made available to them by Wendy's immediately prior to the merger for a period of five years (three years for Mr. Fitzsimmons) (the employment term).

An executive officer may terminate his or her employment after a change in control during the employment term for good reason if Wendy's (i) changes the executive officer's status, title, position or responsibilities in a way that does not represent a promotion, (ii) either reduces the executive officer's base salary or provides an annual salary increase less than the increase in a defined consumer price index, (iii) requires the executive officer to relocate beyond a 30 mile radius from the executive's business office location immediately prior to the change in control, (iv) takes action which results in a material reduction in compensation and benefits otherwise payable to the executive officer, (v) materially breaches the agreement, or (vi) fails to notify the executive officer within 30 days following a change of control that a successor to Wendy's has agreed to assume and perform Wendy's obligations under the agreement.

If an executive officer's employment is terminated by Wendy's without cause prior to a change in control, but the executive officer reasonably demonstrates that the termination of employment (i) was at the request of a third party who had indicated an intention or taken steps reasonably calculated to effect a change in control, or (ii) otherwise occurred in connection with, or in anticipation of, a change in control which had been threatened or proposed, then such termination will be deemed to have occurred after a change in control, provided that a change in control shall actually have occurred.

If the employment of an executive officer is terminated by the executive for good reason or by Wendy's other than for cause, Wendy's will be obligated to make a lump-sum payment to the executive officer of three times the sum of the executive officer's then-current salary plus average annual bonuses over the prior three years. If the executive officer had not previously received bonus payments for three full plan years under the annual bonus plans and was an eligible participant under such plans at the time his or her employment was terminated, he or she will be deemed to have received a bonus in prior years equal to the bonus paid to such executive officer's predecessor in the same position. If there was not a predecessor in the same position, the executive officer will be deemed to have received a bonus in prior years equal to the average of the bonuses paid to participants in positions comparable to the executive officer's then-current position. The lump-sum payment will not be subject to offset.

Also, if the employment of the executive officer is terminated by the executive for good reason or by Wendy's other than for cause, the executive officer will be entitled to (i) a pro rata portion of the bonus for the year in which termination of employment occurs, determined as if all of that year's performance targets had been fully met at the highest level by Wendy's and the executive officer, (ii) continuation of group insurance benefits for three years, subject to offset for any benefits from subsequent employment, if any, and (iii) a lump-sum payment equal to the present value of accrued retirement benefits after adding three additional years of benefit accrual, reduced by any vested benefits. In addition, any stock options or stock appreciation rights granted under plans of Wendy's will become immediately vested and exercisable, and any restrictions on any stock awarded to the executive officer by Wendy's shall lapse, as discussed above.

If any payments or other benefits payable to an executive officer (other than Mr. Fitzsimmons) under the agreements discussed above or otherwise is subject to the excise tax under Code Section 4999 or any similar tax, Wendy's is obligated to pay to the executive officer an additional amount which, after deduction of any income, withholding and excise tax thereon, equals the excise tax.

Wendy's has established a benefits protection trust to provide for the payment of the benefits to the executive officers and to provide for the payment of reasonable legal fees or expenses incurred in good faith by the executive officers in enforcing their rights.

The following table summarizes estimated benefits (other than equity compensation described above) that would be payable to each executive officer assuming such executive officer is terminated without cause immediately following the effective time of the merger, which solely for the purpose of this table is assumed to occur on September 28, 2008, which is the end of Wendy's fiscal third quarter and not necessarily representative of the actual effective time of the merger.

- (1) Severance provisions as stated in the agreement (as described above) between Wendy s and each executive officer are three times base salary and the average of each of the prior three years incentive payments.
- (2) Maximum incentive payable under the executive plan or the agreement (as described above) for 2008.
- (3) On termination for any reason, employees are entitled to receive their vested benefits in the two qualified retirement plans, the supplemental executive retirement

plans and the Deferred
Compensation Plan sponsored by Wendy s.

- (4) Present value of benefits under the qualified retirement and supplemental executive retirement plans calculated as of October 2, 2011 over the estimated value of those benefits (as of September 28, 2008) plus accelerated vesting of unvested benefits in the supplemental executive retirement plans.
- (5) Anticipated cost of continuing for three years of life insurance, disability, medical, dental and hospitalization benefits, plus vacation benefits earned prior to September 28, 2008.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that, following the completion of the merger, Wendy's, as the surviving corporation in the merger, will indemnify the current and former directors and officers of Wendy's and its subsidiaries, and certain of their employees who have executed individual indemnity agreements, for all claims arising prior to the completion of the merger until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations with respect to such claims. Additionally, Wendy's articles of incorporation and code of regulations after the merger will contain indemnification provisions no less favorable than those contained in the current Wendy's articles of incorporation and code of regulations prior to the consummation of the merger, which will not be modified in any manner that would adversely affect the rights of the indemnified individuals for a period of six years from the effective time of the merger.

The merger agreement also provides that, following the completion of the merger, Wendy's/Arby's will, and will cause Wendy's to, indemnify and hold harmless all of the Wendy's indemnified parties described above, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, in connection with any claims relating to the fact that those individuals are or were directors, officers or employees of Wendy's or any of its subsidiaries including with respect to the merger agreement or any transactions contemplated by it.

The merger agreement also provides that with Triarc's written consent Wendy's may obtain a prepaid directors and officers' tail insurance policy covering the six year period after the merger for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the merger, on terms not materially less favorable than the current insurance policies provided by Wendy's, as long as Wendy's, as the surviving corporation in the merger, will not be required to spend in any one year period an amount in excess of 250% of the annual premiums paid by Wendy's between September 30, 2007 and September 30, 2008 for such insurance. If Wendy's does not obtain this tail insurance, then Wendy's, as the surviving corporation in the merger, will maintain Wendy's current directors' and officers' insurance policies, or will substitute such policies with the policies of a different insurance provider (as long as such policies are on terms not materially less favorable than the policies of Wendy's currently in effect), covering the six year period after the merger for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the merger, as long as Wendy's, as the surviving corporation in the merger, will not be required to pay annual premiums in excess of 250% of the last annual premium paid by Wendy's and/or Triarc in respect of such coverage prior to signing of the merger agreement.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

United States Antitrust Laws

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act and the rules promulgated under that act by the Federal Trade Commission, the merger may not be completed until notifications have been given and information furnished to the Federal Trade Commission and to the Antitrust Division and the specified waiting period has been terminated or has expired. Triarc and Wendy's each filed notification and report forms under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act with the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division on May 14, 2008 and early termination of the waiting period was granted as of May 28, 2008. At any time before or after completion of the merger, the Federal Trade Commission or the Antitrust Division could take any action under the antitrust laws it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin completion of the merger or seeking divestiture of substantial assets of Triarc and Wendy's. The merger agreement requires Triarc and Wendy's to use reasonable best efforts to satisfy any conditions imposed upon them by regulatory authorities. The merger also is subject to review under state antitrust laws and could be the subject of challenges by private parties under antitrust laws.

Listing of Additional Shares of Class A Common Stock to be Issued

Before the completion of the merger, Triarc has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock to be issued in the merger and upon conversion of the Triarc Class B common stock to be authorized for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance Triarc will seek to have Wendy's/Arby's common stock trade on the NYSE under the ticker symbol WEN.

Dissenters' Rights

Section 1701.84 of the Ohio Revised Code, or ORC, provides that all of Wendy's shareholders entitled to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement may exercise dissenters' rights with respect to the merger. Each shareholder who does not vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and who complies with all of the requirements of Section 1701.85 of the ORC will be entitled to receive the fair cash value of his, her or its shares upon perfecting their right of appraisal.

The following is a summary of the principal steps a shareholder must take to perfect their dissenters' rights under the ORC. This summary is qualified by reference to Section 1701.85 and other provisions of the ORC. Any shareholder contemplating exercise of their dissenters' rights is urged to carefully review the provisions of Section 1701.85 and to consult an attorney, since failure to follow fully and precisely the procedural requirements of the statute may result in termination or waiver of such rights. A copy of Section 1701.85 of the ORC is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex I and is incorporated herein by reference.

To perfect the right of appraisal, a dissenting shareholder must satisfy each of the following conditions and must otherwise comply with Section 1701.85:

Must be a shareholder of record. A dissenting shareholder must be a record holder of the Wendy's common shares on , 2008, the record date established for determining those Wendy's shareholders entitled to vote on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement. Because only shareholders of record on the record date may exercise dissenters' rights, any person who beneficially owns shares that are held of record by a broker, fiduciary, nominee or other holder and who desires to exercise

dissenters' rights
must, in all cases, instruct the record holder of the shares to satisfy all of the requirements outlined under Section 1701.85
of the ORC.

*Does not vote in favor of the
merger agreement.* A dissenting
shareholder must not vote their shares in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger
agreement at the Wendy's
shareholders meeting. Failing to vote or abstaining from voting does not waive a dissenting
shareholder's rights. However, a proxy returned to Wendy's signed but not marked to specify voting instructions will be voted in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger
agreement and will be deemed a waiver of dissenters' rights.
A dissenting shareholder may

revoke their proxy at any time before its exercise by delivering to Wendy s prior to the special meeting a written notice of revocation addressed to Wendy s International, Inc., 4288 West Dublin-Granville Road, Dublin, Ohio 43017-0256, Attention: Secretary; delivering to the Secretary of Wendy s prior to the special meeting a properly executed proxy with a later date; or attending the special meeting and giving notice of revocation in person.

File a written demand. Not later than ten days after the date upon which the Wendy s shareholders vote upon the adoption of the merger agreement, any shareholder seeking to perfect the dissenting shareholder s rights must make a written demand upon Wendy s for the fair cash value of those Wendy's common shares so held by them. A negative vote alone is not sufficient to perfect rights as a dissenter. Any written demand must specify the shareholder's

name and address, the number and class of shares held by them on the record date, and the amount claimed as the fair cash value of the shares.
Wendy's will not notify shareholders of the expiration of this ten day period. Voting against the adoption of the
merger
agreement is not a written demand as required by Section 1701.85
of the ORC.

Deliver certificates for placement of a legend. If Wendy's so requests, a dissenting
shareholder must submit their share certificates to Wendy's within 15 days of such request for endorsement thereon by

Wendy s that a demand for appraisal has been made. Such a request is not an admission by Wendy s that a dissenting shareholder is entitled to relief. Wendy s will promptly return the share certificates to the dissenting shareholder. At the option of Wendy s, a dissenting shareholder who fails to deliver their certificate upon request from Wendy s may have their dissenting shareholder's

rights
terminated, unless a court for good cause shown
directs.

If Wendy's and any dissenting shareholder cannot agree upon the fair cash value of the common shares, then either Wendy's or the dissenting shareholder may, within three months after delivery of the dissenting shareholder's demand for fair cash value, file a petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin County, Ohio, for a determination that the shareholder is entitled to exercise dissenters' rights and to determine the fair cash value of the Wendy's common shares. The cost of the proceeding, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, will be assessed as the court considers equitable. Fair cash value is the amount that a willing seller, under no compulsion to sell, would be willing to accept, and that a willing buyer, under no compulsion to purchase, would be willing to pay. In no event will the fair cash value be in excess of the amount specified in the dissenting shareholder's demand. Fair cash value is determined as of the day before the meeting to adopt the merger agreement. The amount of the fair cash value excludes any appreciation or depreciation in market value of the shares resulting from the merger. The fair cash value of the shares may be higher, the same as or lower than the market value of the shares on the date of the merger. Shareholders should be aware that investment banking opinions as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration payable in a merger are not opinions as to, and do not in any way address, fair cash value under Section 1701.85 of the ORC.

Payment of the fair cash value must be made within 30 days after the later of the final determination of such value or the closing date of the merger. Such payment shall be made only upon simultaneous surrender to Wendy's of the share certificates for which such payment is made.

A dissenting shareholder's rights to receive the fair cash value of their Wendy's common shares will terminate if:

the
dissenting
shareholder
has not complied with Section 1701.85 of the ORC;

the merger is abandoned or is finally enjoined or prevented from being carried out,
or the
Wendy's

shareholders rescind their approval and adoption of
the merger
agreement;

the dissenting shareholder
withdraws
their demand
with the consent of Wendy's by its board of directors; or

the dissenting
shareholder
and Wendy's
board of directors
have not agreed on the fair cash value per share and the dissenting
shareholder
has not filed a timely complaint within three months after delivering his, her or its demand for fair cash value in the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin County, Ohio.

All rights accruing from Wendy's common shares, including voting and dividend and distribution rights, are suspended from the time a dissenting shareholder makes a demand for payment with respect to such shares until the termination or satisfaction of the rights and obligations of the dissenting shareholder and Wendy's arising from such demand. During this period of suspension, any dividend or distribution paid on the common shares will be paid to the record owner as a credit upon the fair cash value thereof. If a shareholder's dissenters' rights are terminated other than by purchase by Wendy's of the dissenting shareholder's common shares, then at the time of termination all rights will be restored and all distributions that would have been made, but for suspension, will be made.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

Federal Income Tax Consequences

General

The following general discussion describes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the conversion of each outstanding share of Triarc Class B common stock into a share of Wendy's/Arby's common stock, which is referred to herein as the conversion, and the merger that are generally applicable to U.S. Holders (as defined below) of Triarc common stock and of Wendy's common shares, respectively. However, this discussion does not address all aspects of taxation that may be relevant to particular U.S. Holders in light of their personal investment or tax circumstances or to persons that are subject to special tax rules. In addition, this discussion does not address the tax treatment of special classes of U.S. Holders, such as banks, insurance companies, tax-exempt entities, financial institutions, broker-dealers, persons holding Wendy's common shares and Triarc common stock as part of a hedging or conversion transaction or as part of a straddle, U.S. expatriates, persons subject to the alternative minimum tax, and non-U.S. Holders. This discussion may not be applicable to holders who acquired Wendy's or Triarc common stock pursuant to the exercise of options or warrants or otherwise as compensation. Furthermore, this discussion does not give a detailed discussion of any state, local or foreign tax considerations. We urge you to consult your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences of the merger, including the applicable federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences to you of the merger.

As used herein, a U.S. Holder means a holder of common stock or common shares who or that holds such stock or shares as capital assets within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) and is for U.S. federal income tax purposes (i) a citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation or other entity taxable as a corporation organized under the laws of the United States or any political subdivision thereof (including the States and the District of Columbia), (iii) a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary jurisdiction over its administration and one or more U.S. persons have authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust; or (iv) any person that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its worldwide income. As used herein, a Non-U.S. Holder means any holder of common stock who is not a U.S. Holder.

This discussion and the opinions set forth herein are based on the Code, applicable Department of Treasury regulations, judicial authority, and administrative rulings and practice, all as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, as well as representations and covenants (including representations and covenants regarding the absence of changes in existing facts and that the conversion and the merger will be completed in accordance with this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the merger agreement) and including the representations contained in representation letters of Triarc and Wendy's. Future legislative, judicial, or administrative changes or interpretations, which may or may not be retroactive, or the failure of any such factual representation to be true, correct and complete in all material respects, or the breach of any of the covenants, may adversely affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions described in this document. Neither Triarc nor Wendy's is currently aware of any facts or circumstances that would cause any representations made by it to Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP or Winston & Strawn LLP to be untrue or incorrect in any material respect. However, no ruling has been or will be sought from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the conversion or the merger, and the opinions of counsel will not be binding on the IRS or any court.

Material Tax Consequences of the Conversion

In the opinion of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP, the conversion will qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes either as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, a tax-free exchange of stock for stock of the same corporation under Section 1036 of the Code, or both. U.S. Holders who receive shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock in exchange for their Triarc Class B common stock in the conversion will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Each Triarc stockholder's aggregate tax basis in the Wendy's/Arby's common stock received in the conversion will be the same as his or her aggregate tax basis in the Triarc Class B common stock surrendered in the transaction. The holding period of the Wendy's/Arby's common stock received in the conversion will include the holding period of the stockholder's Triarc Class B common stock that such stockholder surrendered. If a Triarc stockholder has differing tax bases and/or holding periods in respect of such stockholder's Triarc Class B common stock, such stockholder should consult with a tax advisor in order to identify the tax bases and/or holding periods of the particular shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock that such stockholder receives.

Material Tax Consequences of the Merger

In the opinion of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP and in the opinion of Winston & Strawn LLP, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger will be as follows:

The merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and Wendy's, Triarc and Green Merger Sub, Inc. will each be a party to such reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code;

A Wendy's shareholder will not recognize gain or loss upon such shareholder's receipt of Wendy's/Arby's common stock in exchange for such shareholder's

Wendy's
common shares, except with respect to cash that is received instead of fractional
shares of Wendy's/Arby's
common stock;

The aggregate
tax basis of the shares of
Wendy's/Arby's
common stock
received in the
merger,
including fractional
shares for which cash is ultimately received, will be the same as the aggregate
tax basis of the
Wendy's
common shares exchanged
therefor;

The holding period for shares of Wendy's/Arby's
common stock
that a Wendy's
shareholder
receives in the merger will include the holding period of the Wendy's common shares
exchanged
therefor;

If a Wendy's
shareholder

receives cash instead of a fractional share of Wendy s/Arby s common stock, such shareholder will generally recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference, if any, between such shareholder s tax basis in the fractional share (as described in above) and the amount of cash received unless such shareholder actually or constructively owns Triarc stock before the merger and the distribution of cash to such shareholder has the effect of the distribution of a dividend. In that case, some or all of the cash received could be taxed as dividend income.

Dissenting Shares

A Wendy s shareholder who receives cash in respect of dissenting Wendy s common shares will generally recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and such shareholder s basis in the dissenting shares unless such shareholder actually or constructively owns Triarc common stock before the merger and the payment to such shareholder has the effect of a distribution of a dividend. In such case, some or all of the payment could be taxed as dividend income. Wendy s shareholders who dissent from the merger are urged to consult their own tax advisors.

Opinions Regarding Tax Treatment to be Delivered at the Time of Consummation of the Merger

The obligation of Triarc to complete the merger is conditioned upon its receipt at the time of the consummation of the merger of an opinion from Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The obligation of Wendy's to complete the merger is conditioned upon its receipt at the time of the consummation of the merger of an opinion from Winston & Strawn LLP that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions of counsel will be based in part upon representations, made as of the time of the consummation of the merger by Triarc, Green Merger Sub, Inc. and Wendy's, which counsel will assume to be true, correct and complete. If the representations are inaccurate, the opinions of counsel could be adversely affected.

Backup Withholding

Non-corporate holders of Wendy's common shares may be subject to backup withholding on cash payments received instead of a fractional share interest in Wendy's/Arby's common stock. Backup withholding will not apply, however, to a shareholder who:

furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies, under penalties of perjury, that such holder is not subject to backup withholding on a Form W-9, and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules;

is a corporation or otherwise exempt from backup withholding and, when required, demonstrates this fact; or provides a certification of foreign status on Form W-8BEN or a successor form.

A shareholder who fails to provide the correct taxpayer identification number on Form W-9 may be subject to penalties imposed by the IRS. We will provide a Form W-9 to you after the merger. Any amount withheld under these rules will be credited against the shareholder's U.S. federal income tax liability.

Reporting Requirements

Certain significant Wendy's shareholders and Triarc stockholders (generally those who own at least five percent of the relevant corporation) may be required to attach a statement to their tax returns for the taxable year in which the conversion and merger are completed that contains the information set forth in Section 1.368-3(b) of the Department of Treasury regulations. The statement attached by a Triarc stockholder would include such stockholder's tax basis in the Triarc Class B common stock surrendered and a description of the Wendy's/Arby's common stock received in the conversion. The statement attached by a Wendy's shareholder would include such shareholder's tax basis in the Wendy's common shares surrendered and a description of the Wendy's/Arby's common stock received in the merger. Wendy's shareholders and Triarc stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the necessity of attaching such a statement to their tax returns.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following discussion summarizes material provisions of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the express terms and conditions of the merger agreement and not by this summary or any other information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as well as this joint proxy statement/prospectus, before making any decisions regarding the merger.

Form and Effective Time of the Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with Ohio law, at the effective time of the merger, Green Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly owned Ohio subsidiary of Triarc and referred to herein as Merger Sub, will merge with and into Wendy's. Wendy's will survive the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Triarc, and Triarc will be renamed Wendy's/Arby's Group, Inc. upon completion of the merger.

The merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Ohio and making all other filings or recordings required under the Ohio General Corporation Law or at such later time as may be agreed upon by Triarc and Wendy's and as specified in the certificate of merger. The filing of the certificate of merger will occur immediately after the closing of the merger.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger

Wendy's Common Shares

Wendy's Common Shares. At the completion of the merger, each outstanding common share of Wendy's, including restricted shares, will be converted into and shall represent the right to receive 4.25 fully paid and non-assessable shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock.

Adjustments. If the number of shares of common stock of Triarc or Wendy's common shares changes between the date of the merger agreement and the effective time of the merger because of a reclassification, recapitalization, share split, share dividend or other similar event, then the exchange ratio will be equitably adjusted to reflect such change.

Fractional Shares

No fractional shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock will be issued in the merger. Holders of Wendy's common shares will receive cash (without interest) for any fractional shares which they might otherwise receive in the merger in an amount determined by multiplying the fractional share interest by the closing price of Wendy's/Arby's common stock on the NYSE on the date the merger becomes effective.

Procedures for Exchange of Certificates

The conversion of each Wendy's common share into 4.25 shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock, as described above under Consideration to be Received in the Merger, will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger. Prior to the mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, Triarc will engage an exchange agent reasonably acceptable to Wendy's to handle the exchange of Wendy's common share certificates for Wendy's/Arby's common stock certificates and the payment of cash for fractional shares in the merger. As soon as reasonably practicable after the merger, the exchange agent will send a transmittal letter to each holder of Wendy's common shares at the effective time of the merger. The transmittal letter will contain instructions with respect to obtaining the merger consideration in exchange for Wendy's common shares. Wendy's shareholders should not send stock certificates with the enclosed proxy.

At the effective time of the merger, each certificate that previously represented Wendy's common shares will represent only the right to receive the merger consideration described above under Consideration to be Received in the Merger, including cash for any fractional shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock, or the right to receive cash for the fair value of those shares for which dissenters' rights have been perfected.

Wendy's shareholders have the right to dissent from the merger and assert dissenters' rights under Ohio law. In order to assert dissenters' rights, Wendy's shareholders must comply with the requirements of Ohio law as described under The Merger Dissenters' Rights beginning on page 73.

None of Wendy's, Triarc, the exchange agent, or any other person will be liable to holders of Wendy's common shares for any amount properly delivered to a public official under applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

After completion of the merger, Wendy's will not register any transfers of the Wendy's common shares. Triarc stockholders need not exchange their stock certificates; however, Triarc stockholders may exchange their Triarc stock certificates for new stock certificates reflecting the Wendy's/Arby's Group, Inc. name after completion of the merger.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains customary representations and warranties made by Triarc, Merger Sub and Wendy's. The representations and warranties of Triarc, Green Merger Sub, Inc. and Wendy's are qualified in their entirety by the information filed by Triarc or Wendy's, as applicable, with the SEC in their respective Form 10-K Annual Reports, as amended, for the year ended December 30, 2007 and any Form 8-K filed between the date of the filing the Form 10-K Annual Report and April 16, 2008, excluding any documents incorporated by reference, any risk factor disclosure and any forward looking statement in such filings (which filings are available without charge at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov).

The assertions embodied in the representations and warranties were made for purposes of the merger agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed to by Triarc and Wendy's in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to stockholders or shareholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between Triarc and Wendy's rather than establishing matters as facts. For the foregoing reasons, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as statements of factual information. The representations and warranties in the merger agreement do not survive the merger or the termination of the merger agreement.

These representations and warranties relate to, among other things:

- qualification,
corporate
organization,
subsidiaries and

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

Under the merger agreement, each of Triarc and Wendy s has agreed that, from the date of the merger agreement until the completion of the merger, subject to certain exceptions, the business of it and its respective subsidiaries shall be conducted in the ordinary course of business and has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve substantially intact its current business organizations, to keep available the services of its current officers and employees and to preserve its relationships with significant franchisees, suppliers, licensors, licensees, distributors, lessors and others having significant business dealings with it.

In addition, each of Triarc and Wendy s has agreed to the following:

if any form of anti-takeover statute or regulation shall become applicable to the merger agreement, then Triarc and Wendy s shall take such actions as are reasonably necessary so that the merger occurs as promptly as practicable and otherwise act to eliminate or minimize the effects of such statute or regulation;

Wendy s and Triarc will consult with and provide each other the reasonable opportunity to review and comment upon any press release or public statement or comment prior to the issuance of such press release, public statement or comment relating to the merger or the merger agreement;

Triarc will not have the right to control Wendy's operations prior to the effective time of the merger and Wendy's will exercise complete control and supervision, consistent with the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, over its operations during such time period; in the case of Wendy's, take all actions necessary to render the shareholders rights plan inapplicable to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and deliver or cause to be delivered, such officers certificates, opinions of counsel and supplemental indentures, if any, required by the indentures governing Wendy s 6.25% senior notes due 2011, 6.20% senior notes due 2014 and 7.00% debentures due 2025, necessary to effect the merger without any default or event of default arising as a result of the merger.

In addition, each of Triarc and Wendy s has agreed that, from the date of the merger agreement until the completion of the merger, subject to certain exceptions, neither it nor any of its subsidiaries may, without the consent of the other party:

authorize, declare or pay any dividends on, or make any distribution with respect to, its outstanding shares of capital stock, except (1) for dividends and distributions paid by Wendy s or Triarc on a pro rata basis to shareholders or stockholders, as the case may be, by a subsidiary and (2) Triarc and Wendy s may pay regular quarterly cash dividends, which are declared, announced or paid prior to the consummation of the merger, consistent with past practice, but not to exceed $0.125 per share per quarter with respect to Wendy s common shares, $0.08 per share per quarter with respect to Triarc Class A common stock and $0.09 per share per quarter with respect to Triarc Class B common stock;

split, combine or reclassify any of its capital stock or other equity securities or issue or propose to issue any other equity securities; except as required by its employee benefit plans and benefit agreements or applicable laws or, in the case of Triarc as is considered commercially reasonable in connection with the merger and the integration of the business of Wendy's (and subject to certain other exceptions), (1) materially increase the compensation or benefits provided to current or former directors, officers or employees, other than in the ordinary course of business; (2) subject to certain exceptions enter into any employment, change of control, severance, retention, deferred compensation, indemnification or similar agreement with any director, officer or employee; or (3) establish, adopt, enter into or amend any employee benefit plan or agreements for the benefit of any current or former directors, officers or employees or any of their beneficiaries, except as would not result in a material increase in cost to Triarc or Wendy s, as applicable;

materially change financial accounting policies, procedures or methods of reporting income, deductions or other material items for financial accounting purposes except as required by applicable law;

amend its charter documents, in the case of Triarc, its bylaws, and, in the case of Wendy s, its code of regulations, except that Triarc may amend its certificate of incorporation and bylaws as explicitly contemplated by

the merger
agreement;

except for transactions among Triarc or Wendy s and
their respective wholly-owned subsidiaries,
issue, sell,
pledge, dispose of or encumber
any shares of their or their respective wholly-owned

the indebtedness
of any person,
other than in the ordinary course
of business
consistent with past practice;

except for transactions
among Triarc or Wendy s and
their respective wholly-owned
subsidiaries,
sell, lease,
license, transfer,
exchange or swap, mortgage
or otherwise encumber, or subject to any lien (other than certain
permitted liens)
or otherwise
dispose of, any

(including the capital stock of subsidiaries),
except pursuant to certain existing agreements or as may be required by applicable law or a government
entity in order to permit or facilitate the
merger;

modify, amend,
terminate or waive any rights under any material
contract, real

or joint venture
contract in a manner which is materially adverse to Triarc or Wendy s, as applicable;

enter into a material
contract, real property lease
or joint venture
contract other than in the ordinary course
of business
consistent with past practice;

acquire any entity or any assets having a value in excess of $10 million individually or $25 million in the aggregate,
other than purchases of assets in the ordinary course
of business
consistent with past practice;

authorize or make any capital expenditures,
other than in accordance with a capital expenditures plan previously provided to the other party or in connection with the repair or replacement of facilities destroyed or damaged due to casualty or accident and otherwise in an aggregate amount not to exceed $10 million; open or close (or commit to open or close) any restaurant locations other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice; make any loans, advances or capital contributions to, or investments in, any person other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, loans and advances between Triarc or Wendy's and their respective wholly-owned subsidiaries or loans, advances and capital contributions that do not exceed $5 million; enter into, amend, waive or terminate (other than termination in accordance with their terms) any affiliate transaction, provided that Triarc may enter into certain affiliate transactions and amendments to certain affiliate transactions so long as such transaction or amendment does not involve an amount in excess of $500,000; abandon, fail to maintain and renew, or otherwise let lapse, any material intellectual property; adopt or enter into a plan of complete or partial liquidation, dissolution, restructuring, recapitalization or other reorganization of Triarc or Wendy s or any of their respective subsidiaries (other than the merger or a merger of two or more wholly-owned subsidiaries);

write up, write down or write off the book value of any assets that are material to Wendy s or Triarc and their respective subsidiaries taken as a whole, as applicable, other than in the ordinary course of business or as may be required by GAAP or applicable laws; waive, settle, satisfy or compromise any action or pending or threatened action arising out of or related to the merger agreement for an amount which exceeds $3 million per individual action or $15 million in the aggregate;

subject to certain exceptions, enter into new franchise
relationships;

with respect to Wendy's only,
waive, modify,
supplement or otherwise
amend any franchisee's obligation to develop franchised restaurants or waive, modify,
supplement or otherwise
amend other material terms
of any franchise
agreement,
except in the ordinary course
of business;

subject to applicable
exemptions under United States laws,
offer or sell any franchise in a United States jurisdiction unless its franchise
disclosure documents have been amended to include disclosure, in a form
reasonably
acceptable to the other party, disclosing the merger and the merger agreement, or offer or sell any franchise in a non-United States jurisdiction except in compliance with applicable disclosure requirements; and with respect to Wendy's only, make certain payments, other than those payments permitted by the merger agreement, to financial advisors, counsel and other services professionals.

Reasonable Best Efforts; Other Agreements

Each of Triarc and Wendy's has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to:

promptly take all actions necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the merger, including obtaining all necessary actions or non-actions, waivers, consents and approvals from governmental entities, obtaining all necessary consents, approvals or waivers from third parties, defending any lawsuits or other legal proceeding challenging the

merger
agreement and executing and delivering any additional documents to consummate
the merger;

cooperate with each other in determining whether any filings are required to be made with, or consents,
permits,
authorizations,
waivers or approvals are required to be obtained from,
any third parties or other governmental entities in connection
with the execution and delivery of the
merger
agreement and timely making all such filings
and timely seeking all such consents,
permits,
authorizations
or approvals;

contest and resist any judicial or administrative action or proceeding

challenging the merger; and

cause the merger to qualify as a reorganization
as described in Section 368(a)
of the Internal Revenue Code.

Triarc has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock to be issued in the merger and upon the conversion of the Triarc Class B common stock into Wendy's/Arby's common stock to be authorized for listing on the NYSE prior to the effective time of the merger. Additionally, Triarc has agreed to take all requisite action to cause the board of directors of Triarc to consist of 12 members, all of whom shall be elected annually, 10 of which shall be current directors of Triarc and two of which shall be current Wendy's directors designated by Wendy's and reasonably acceptable to Triarc. The two Wendy's designees will be appointed as of the effective time of the merger and nominated for election at the next meeting of Triarc's stockholders at which directors are to be elected. At the first meeting of the board of directors of Triarc following the finalization of the merger, the board shall elect one of its members to the position of chairman. Triarc shall seek the approval of the NYSE to change the ticker symbol for Wendy's/Arby's common stock listed on the NYSE to WEN.

Triarc has also agreed to amend Section 3 of Article 1 of its bylaws which will provide that the Wendy's brand headquarters will be located in the greater Columbus, Ohio area for at least 10 years following the closing of the merger and agreed not to propose or recommend to its stockholders an amendment to Section 3 of Article 1 of its bylaws for a period of five years following the closing of the merger.

Subject to applicable law, between the date the merger agreement was executed and the earlier of the termination date of the merger agreement and the effective time of the merger, Triarc has also agreed to cause its key officers, including Roland C. Smith and the persons who are expected to be the chief operating officer and the chief marketing officer of Wendy's after the merger, to make themselves available for meetings with up to 20 Wendy's shareholders and 20 Wendy's franchisees, as identified by Wendy's, for the purpose of informing such shareholders and franchisees regarding the business of Triarc and its subsidiaries and the business plan and prospects for the combination of Wendy's and Triarc.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Each party's obligation to effect the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of various conditions at or prior to the time of completion of the merger, which include the following:

in the case of Wendy's, obtaining shareholder approval to adopt the merger agreement, and in the case of Triarc, obtaining stockholder

approval for the proposals relating to the adoption of the amendment of Triarc's certificate of incorporation and the proposal relating to the issuance of Wendy's/Arby's common stock required to be issued in the merger;

no law, judgment, injunction, order or decree by any court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction which prohibits the consummation of the merger shall have been adopted or entered and shall continue to be in effect;

obtaining all necessary legal and regulatory approvals, consents and waivers, including the expiration or termination of the waiting period applicable to the merger under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act (early termination was granted as of May 28, 2008) and a declaration of effectiveness by the SEC of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part; and approval for listing on the NYSE of Wendy's/Arby's common stock to be issued in the merger subject to official notice of issuance.

In addition, Wendy's obligation to effect the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of Triarc regarding corporate authority, capitalization and the stockholder vote required to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement being true and correct in all respects on the date of the merger agreement and on the date on which the merger is to be completed as if made as of that date or, if the representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date, then as of that earlier date (except for de minimis inaccuracies in the aggregate for the representations and warranties relating to capitalization);

the other representations and warranties of Triarc set forth in the merger agreement being true and correct on the date of the merger agreement and on the date on which the merger is to be completed as if made as of that date or, if these representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date, then as of that earlier date, except where the failure of these representations and warranties to be true and correct, without giving effect to any limitation as to materiality or material adverse effect, individually or in the aggregate, does not have, and would not be reasonably expected to have, a material adverse effect on Triarc;

Triarc having performed in all material respects all of its obligations and complied with all of the terms of the merger agreement;

Triarc having delivered to Wendy's a certification signed by a senior officer certifying that the conditions to which Triarc is subject have been satisfied;

Triarc having prepared amendments to all of its domestic and international franchise agreements and filed applications for registration of such amended franchise agreements where required by law;

Triarc having deposited with the exchange agent a sufficient amount of

Wendy s/Arby s
common stock
to issue the
merger
consideration;

receipt by Wendy s of the opinion of Winston & Strawn LLP, its legal counsel,
that the merger qualifies as a reorganization
as described in Section 368(a)
of the Internal Revenue Code;
and

effectiveness of an amendment to Triarc s
bylaws
providing that the Wendy s
brand will be headquartered in the greater Columbus, Ohio area for at least ten years
from the date
the merger is consummated.

In addition, Triarc s obligation to effect the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties
of Wendy s regarding corporate
authority,
capitalization,
the shareholder
vote required to consummate

the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and Ohio anti-takeover laws being true and correct in all respects on the date of the merger agreement and on the date on which the merger is to be completed as if made as of that date or, if the representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date, then as of that earlier date (except for de minimis inaccuracies in the aggregate for the representations and warranties relating to capitalization); the other representations and warranties of Wendy's set forth in the merger agreement being true and correct on the date of the merger agreement and on the date on which the merger is to be completed as if made as of that date or, if these representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date, then as of that earlier date, except where the failure of these representations and warranties to be true and correct, without giving effect to any limitation as to materiality or material adverse effect, individually or in the aggregate, does not have, and would not be reasonably expected to have, a material adverse effect on Wendy s;

Wendy's
having performed in all material
respects all of its obligations and complied with all of the terms of the
merger
agreement;

Wendy's
having delivered to Triarc a certification signed by a senior officer certifying that the conditions
to which Wendy's is subject have been satisfied;

Wendy's
having prepared amendments to all of its domestic and international
franchise agreements and filed applications for registration
of such amended franchise
agreements where required by law;

Receipt by Triarc of the opinion of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind,

Wharton & Garrison LLP, its legal counsel, that
the merger
qualifies as a reorganization
as described in Section 368(a)
of the Internal Revenue Code; and

number of Wendy's
dissenting
shares not exceeding 5%
of the aggregate
issued and outstanding Wendy's
common
shares as of the effective
time of the
merger.

The merger agreement provides that a "material adverse effect" means any change, effect, event, occurrence or state of facts that is materially adverse to the assets, properties, business or financial condition or results of operations of Wendy's or Triarc and their respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole, but will not include an effect arising from facts, circumstances, events or changes:

generally affecting the quick service restaurant industry in the United States or the economy or the financial or securities markets in the United States or elsewhere in the world, including regulatory, social or political conditions or developments

(including any outbreak or escalation of hostilities or acts of war, whether or not pursuant to the declaration of a national emergency or war, or acts of terrorism) or changes in interest rates, in each case, that does not have a disproportionate effect on Wendy's, Triarc or their respective subsidiaries;

to the extent resulting from (i) the announcement of, or compliance with, the merger agreement or the announcement of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement subject to certain exceptions, (ii) any litigation arising from allegations of a breach of fiduciary duty or other violation of applicable law relating to the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, (iii) changes in applicable law or accounting principles generally accepted in the United States or interpretations thereof (that do not have a materially disproportionate effect on Wendy's, Triarc or their respective subsidiaries), (iv) changes, solely in and of themselves, in the market price or trading volume of the common stock of either company, (v) changes, solely in and of themselves, in any analyst's recommendations, any financial strength rating or any other recommendations or ratings as to Triarc or Wendy's or any of their respective subsidiaries (including, in and of itself, any failure to meet analyst projections), (vi) the loss by Triarc or Wendy's or any of their respective subsidiaries of any of customers, suppliers, franchisees or employees as a result of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, (vii) weather (to the extent it does not have a materially disproportionate effect on Wendy's, Triarc or their respective subsidiaries), (viii) the seasonality of the business of each company, (ix) effects of public perceptions of food safety applicable to the quick service restaurant industry generally (that do not have a materially disproportionate effect on Wendy's, Triarc or their respective subsidiaries) or (x) the failure, in and of itself, of Triarc or Wendy's to meet any expected or projected financial or operating performance target; however, the facts, circumstances or events underlying the change or failure in clause (iv), (v) and (x) shall not be excluded to the extent such facts, circumstances or events would otherwise constitute a material adverse effect; or to the extent resulting from Wendy's or Triarc's results of operations for the quarter ended

March 30, 2008
and the trend reflected therein.

The merger agreement provides that any or all of the conditions described above may be waived, in whole or in part, by Triarc or Wendy s, as applicable, to the extent legally allowed. Neither Triarc nor Wendy s currently expects to waive any material condition to the completion of the merger. If after the receipt of stockholder or shareholder approval for the merger, applicable law or NYSE rule requires stockholder or shareholder approval of the amendment or waiver, then the amendment or waiver will not be effective until such stockholder or shareholder approval is obtained.

No Solicitation

In the merger agreement, each of Triarc and Wendy s has agreed that it will not directly or indirectly:

solicit,
initiate or knowingly encourage (including by furnishing non-public information),
or take any other action
designed to facilitate any proposal or offer that constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a takeover proposal, as described below;

enter into any
agreement,
letter of intent,
agreement in principle or other similar instrument with respect to a takeover
proposal;

provide non-public information regarding itself or its subsidiaries
to any third party in connection with a takeover

proposal;

engage in any negotiations
or discussions in connection with any takeover proposal or otherwise knowingly cooperate with, or assist or participate in, or knowingly encourage any such negotiations
or discussions;
or approve or recommend a takeover

proposal;

submit to the stockholders
or the shareholders
of the company, as applicable,
for their approval or adoption of any takeover proposal; or

agree or publicly announce any intention to take any of the foregoing
actions.

There is an exception to the foregoing limitations if, at any time before the date of the stockholder or shareholder vote, as the case may be, Triarc's or Wendy's board of directors determines in good faith (and after consultation with its outside counsel and outside financial advisor) that a takeover proposal that did not result from a breach of the obligations described above constitutes and is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal, as described below. Subject to providing prior or prompt notice to the other party of the receipt of a takeover proposal and of its decision to provide non-public information or engage in negotiations with respect to a takeover proposal and entering into a confidentiality agreement containing confidentiality terms substantially similar to those of the confidentiality agreement between Triarc and Wendy's, Triarc or Wendy's may:

furnish information to any person making any such takeover
proposal, and their respective representatives
and financing
sources; and engage in negotiations or discussions

with any such person and their respective representatives
and financing
sources.

The merger agreement provides that:

the term
takeover proposal means any proposal or offer from any person relating to any (1) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of a business or assets that constitutes 20% or more of the net revenues, net income or the assets of Triarc or Wendy's, as applicable, and their respective subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, (2) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of 20% or more of any class of equity securities of Triarc or Wendy s, as applicable, (3) tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning 20% or more of any class of equity securities of Triarc or Wendy s, as applicable, or (4) merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Triarc or Wendy s, as applicable, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and the term superior proposal means a bona fide written takeover proposal, which proposal was not the result of a breach of the non-solicitation provision, made by a third party that is not an affiliate of Triarc or Wendy s, as applicable, (1) on terms that the Triarc board of directors, or in the case of Wendy s, the special committee or the board of directors, determines in good faith, after consultation with its respective outside financial advisor and outside legal counsel, and considering all

timing,
financial,
legal,
regulatory and other aspects
of such proposal and the person making such proposal, (x)
would, if consummated,
be more favorable to the holders of Triarc's
common stock
or Wendy's
common shares, as applicable,
from a financial point of view than
the transactions
contemplated hereby (taking into account any changes proposed by Wendy's or Triarc, as applicable, to the terms of
the merger
agreement in response to a takeover
proposal) and
(y) is reasonably likely to be completed and
(2) for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed or reasonably

likely to be obtained;
except that, for the purposes of this definition of superior
proposal, the term takeover proposal have the meaning assigned to the term above, but the references to 20% or more in the definition of takeover
proposal are substituted with references to 50% or more.

The merger agreement also provides that, except as described below, the board of directors of Wendy's or Triarc may not:

withdraw,
qualify or modify
in a manner adverse to the other party its recommendation
that, in the case of Wendy's, the Wendy's
shareholders
adopt the merger
agreement or, in the case of Triarc, the Triarc
stockholders
approve the amended
certificate of incorporation
and the issuance of shares of

Wendy's/Arby's
common stock in
the merger;

propose publicly
to take any of those actions (each such action referred to herein as a recommendation
withdrawal).

Notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions, at any time before the vote required to be obtained from its stockholders or shareholders, as the case may be, in connection with the merger has been obtained, (1) if Triarc's or Wendy's board of directors, in the exercise of its fiduciary duties, determines in good faith (and after consultation with its outside financial advisor and its outside counsel) that to do otherwise would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, that board of directors may make a recommendation withdrawal and (2) in response to a superior proposal that did not result from a breach of the non-solicitation provisions described above, Triarc's or Wendy's board of directors may terminate the merger agreement in order to accept a superior proposal. Before making a recommendation withdrawal, Triarc or Wendy's, as the case may be, must provide the other party with at least one business day's notice of its intention to effect such recommendation withdrawal. Before terminating the merger agreement as a result of the receipt of a superior proposal, that party must provide written notice to the other party advising the other party that it has received a superior proposal, specifying the material terms and conditions of the superior proposal.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Wendy's may not terminate the merger agreement in favor of a superior proposal without providing written notice to Triarc at least three (3) business days in advance of its intention to terminate the merger agreement and enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal. To the extent that Triarc proposes changes to the terms of the merger agreement during the three business day period, Wendy's and Triarc will negotiate in good faith with respect to such changes during the three business day period.

The merger agreement also provides that each party will promptly provide to the other party any non-public information provided to such persons making such takeover proposal that was not previously provided to the other party, advise the other party of the receipt of any takeover proposal or any request or inquiry that would reasonably be expected to lead to a takeover proposal from any person and provide to the other party the identity of the person making the takeover proposal or request and the material terms of any takeover proposal. Each party shall promptly inform the other after beginning to provide non-public information or to engage in negotiations concerning a takeover proposal. Each party will keep the other informed, on a current basis, of any material changes in the status and any material changes or modifications in the terms of any takeover proposal or request and will provide to the other party any written takeover proposals received.

Termination Events; Expense Reimbursement Required

The merger agreement provides that if terminated by the parties in the circumstances described below, Wendy's will be required to reimburse Triarc and its contemplated financing sources expenses in the amount of $10 million. Specifically, the merger agreement may be terminated at any time before the completion of the merger, whether before or after the stockholder or shareholder approvals, as the case may be, have been obtained:

by Wendy's, if, prior to receiving the approval of the Wendy's shareholders, Wendy's board of directors approves a superior proposal and promptly following such termination, enters into a definitive agreement in connection with such superior proposal, provided that Wendy's has complied with its obligations under the non-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement. Please see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - No Solicitation" beginning on page 86; and by Triarc, if Wendy's (1) withdraws its recommendation that the shareholders of Wendy's adopt the merger agreement, (2) fails to include its recommendation in the joint proxy statement/prospectus, (3) recommends or approves any alternative takeover proposal of Wendy s, (4) fails to publicly reaffirm its recommendation following the receipt of an alternative takeover proposal or (5) materially breaches its obligations under the non-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement (see the section entitled The Merger Agreement No Solicitation beginning on page 86) or fails to hold the meeting of the Wendy s shareholders or to use reasonable best efforts to solicit proxies in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and to obtain the approval of the Wendy s shareholders.

Termination Events; No Expense Reimbursement

In addition to the termination events described above under Termination Events; Expense Reimbursement Required, above, the merger agreement may be terminated at any time before the completion of the merger, whether before or after the stockholder or shareholder approvals have been obtained:

by mutual written consent of Wendy s and Triarc; by either Wendy s or Triarc if the merger has not closed on or before December 31, 2008, provided that the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement has not breached in any material respect any of its obligations under the merger agreement in any manner that caused the failure to consummate the merger on or before such date;

by either Wendy s or Triarc if there exists any injunction, order, decree or ruling which would prohibit the consummation of the merger and such injunction, order, decree or ruling has become final and non-appealable, provided that the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement

has used reasonable best efforts to have such injunction,
order, decree or ruling lifted;

by either Wendy's
or Triarc if a breach by the other party has not or cannot be cured within 30 days' notice of such breach, if such breach would result in a failure of the conditions to closing set forth in the merger
agreement;

by either Wendy's
or Triarc if Wendy's
shareholders fail
to adopt the merger agreement
or Triarc's stockholders fail
to approve the proposals relating to the adoption of the amendment to Triarc's certificate of incorporation
or the proposal
relating to the issuance of the
Wendy's/Arby's
common stock
required to be issued in the
merger;

by Wendy's if Triarc (1)
withdraws its recommendations

to its stockholders to approve the proposals relating to the adoption of the amendment to Triarc's certificate of incorporation and the proposal relating to the issuance of the Wendy's/Arby's common stock required to be issued in the merger, (2) fails to include its recommendation in the proxy statement, (3) recommends or approves any alternative takeover proposal of Triarc, (4) fails to publicly reaffirm the stockholder recommendation following receipt of a takeover proposal or (5) materially breaches its obligations under the non-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement (see the section entitled The Merger Agreement No Solicitation beginning on page 86) or fails to hold the meeting of the Triarc stockholders or to use reasonable best efforts to solicit proxies in favor of the approval of the proposals relating to the adoption of the amendment to Triarc s certificate of incorporation and the proposal relating to the issuance of the Wendy s/Arby s common stock required to be issued in the merger; and by Triarc if prior to receiving the approval of the Triarc stockholders, Triarc s board of directors approves a superior proposal and promptly following such termination, enters into a definitive agreement in connection with such superior proposal, provided that Triarc shall have complied with its obligations under the non-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement. Please see the section entitled The Merger Agreement No Solicitation beginning on page 86.

If the merger agreement is terminated by either company for any of the reasons described in this section entitled Termination Events; No Expense Reimbursement, neither company will be required to pay the other party's expenses.

If the merger agreement is terminated upon the occurrence of certain events, the Triarc funds will be bound for up to three years by certain provisions that, among other things, restrict their ability to directly or indirectly acquire additional securities of Wendy's, enter or propose to enter into any business combination with Wendy's or make, or in any way participate or engage in, any solicitation of proxies or consents to vote with respect to any voting securities of Wendy's. See The Voting Agreements beginning on page 93.

Expenses

Except as described in the section entitled Termination Events; Expense Reimbursement Required beginning on page 88, whether or not the merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses, except that expenses incurred in connection with the printing, filing and mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and all filing or other fees paid to the SEC or under Hart-Scott-Rodino Act in connection with the merger shall be shared equally by Triarc and Wendy's.

Treatment of Wendy's Stock Options and Other Stock Based Awards

The merger agreement provides that Wendy's will take those actions that are necessary to:

upon completion of the merger, convert each outstanding option to purchase Wendy's common shares into an option to purchase the number of shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock equal to the number of Wendy's common shares for which the option was exercisable multiplied by 4.25 (generally rounded up to the nearest whole share) with the per share exercise price of the Wendy's/Arby's option being equal to the per share exercise price of the corresponding Wendy's option divided by 4.25 (rounded down to the nearest cent);

with respect to the Wendy's share based awards, subject to certain exceptions for (i) restricted common shares, (ii) options, (iii) common shares held in the Wendy's profit sharing and saving plan, and (iv)

Wendy's performance units, each Wendy's share-based award (including restricted share units, performance units, deferred share units and dividends) will cease to be convertible into common shares of Wendy's and will represent the right to receive shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock equal to the total number of Wendy's common shares for which such share-based award was exercisable multiplied by 4.25 rounded down to the nearest whole share; prior to completion of the merger, each award of Wendy's restricted common stock will be converted into the right to receive the same amounts of Wendy's/Arby's

common stock
as described above, less such amounts as are required to be withheld or deducted under the Internal Revenue Code
or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law
with respect to the making of such payment.

Wendy's will ensure that each performance unit granted under the Wendy's share plans, whether vested or unvested, which is outstanding immediately prior to the merger, will be converted into the right to receive within 30 days following the completion of the merger an amount in cash in U.S. dollars equal to the fair market value of the common shares (as defined in such Wendy's share plan) multiplied by the number of Wendy's common shares underlying such performance units that are deemed to have vested in connection with the merger, less any amounts required to be withheld or deducted under the Internal Revenue Code or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law with respect to the making of such payment.

Wendy's compensation committee of the board of directors will make the necessary adjustments and amendments (with Triarc's consent) to Wendy's options, restricted shares, stock-based awards and Wendy's share plans as are necessary to take actions described above and ensure that no holder of a Wendy's option or Wendy's share-based award has any right to receive Wendy's common shares following the completion of the merger.

the consummation of the merger agreement will constitute a change in control for the purposes of Wendy's equity and other benefit plans.

As a result, substantially all of the outstanding unvested equity awards will vest as of the effective time of the merger (except for certain stock options awarded to employees on May 1, 2008, which will vest over three years except as noted above).

Employee Matters

The merger agreement provides that through December 31, 2008, subject to applicable collective bargaining agreements, Wendy's/Arby's will provide for those Wendy's employees who remain employed by Wendy's/Arby's, base salary (or wages) and annual cash bonus opportunities (adjusted to prevent inappropriate dilution or enlargement) that are no less favorable than those for each Wendy's employee immediately prior to the merger, and existing employee benefits (excluding (1) benefits under plans providing for the issuance of Wendy's common shares or based on the value of Wendy's common shares and (2) extended health care coverage other than pursuant to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1995, which is referred to as COBRA). From January 1, 2009 through December 31, 2009, subject to applicable collective bargaining agreements, Wendy's/Arby's will provide for those Wendy's employees who remain with Wendy's/Arby's (1) base salary (or wages) and annual cash bonus opportunities in the aggregate that are substantially equivalent to those in effect for each Wendy's employee immediately prior to the merger and (2) employee benefits (excluding extended health care coverage other than pursuant to COBRA) that, in the aggregate, are not less favorable than the employee benefits (excluding extended health care coverage other than pursuant to COBRA) provided to Wendy's employees immediately prior to the merger.

For all purposes under the employee benefit plans of Wendy's/Arby's and its subsidiaries providing benefits to any Wendy's employees after the merger, referred to in this section as the new plans, each Wendy's employee will be credited with his or her years of service with Wendy's and its subsidiaries, to the same extent as such Wendy's employee was entitled before the merger, to credit for such service under any similar Wendy's employee benefit plan in which such Wendy's employee participated or was eligible to participate immediately prior to the merger (but excluding any benefit accrual under any defined benefit pension plan or to the extent that it would result in a duplication of benefits). Each Wendy's employee will be immediately eligible to participate, without any waiting time, in any and all new plans to the extent coverage under such new plan is comparable to a Wendy's benefit plan in which such Wendy's employee participated immediately before the consummation of the merger.

The merger agreement does not require Wendy's/Arby's to maintain the employment of any Wendy's employees or maintain any specific benefit plan or arrangement.

Prior to the merger, each of the Triarc board of directors and Wendy's board of directors will adopt a resolution so that the disposition by any officer or director of Wendy's who is considered a covered person of Wendy's for purposes of Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder of common shares or options or other rights to acquire common shares will constitute an exempt transaction for purposes of Section 16.

Prior to the merger becoming final, Wendy's will ensure that the Wendy's defined benefit pension plans that are to be terminated are not underfunded by an amount in excess of $10 million as of the closing of the merger.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that, following the completion of the merger, Wendy's, as the surviving corporation in the merger, will indemnify the current and former directors and officers of Wendy's and its subsidiaries, and certain of their employees who have executed individual indemnity agreements, for all claims arising prior to the completion of the merger until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations with respect to such claims. Additionally, Wendy's articles of incorporation and regulations after the merger will contain indemnification provisions no less favorable than those contained in the current Wendy's articles of incorporation and regulations prior to the consummation of the merger, which will not be modified in any manner that would adversely affect the rights of the indemnified individuals for a period of six years from the effective time of the merger.

The merger agreement also provides that, following the completion of the merger, Wendy's/Arby's will, and will cause Wendy's to, indemnify and hold harmless all of the Wendy's indemnified parties described above, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, in connection with any claims relating to the fact that those individuals are or were directors, officers or employees of Wendy's or any of its subsidiaries including with respect to the merger agreement or any transactions contemplated by it.

The merger agreement also provides that with Triarc's written consent Wendy's may obtain a prepaid directors and officers' tail insurance policy covering the six year period after the merger for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the merger, on terms not materially less favorable than the current insurance policies provided by Wendy's, as long as Wendy's, as the surviving corporation in the merger, will not be required to spend in any one year period an amount in excess of 250% of the annual premiums paid by Wendy's between September 30, 2007 and September 30, 2008 for such insurance. If Wendy's does not obtain this tail insurance, then Wendy's, as the surviving corporation in the merger, will maintain Wendy's current directors' and officers' insurance policies, or will substitute such policies with the policies of a different insurance provider (as long as such policies are on terms not materially less favorable than the policies of Wendy's currently in effect), covering the six year period after the merger for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the merger, as long as Wendy's, as the surviving corporation in the merger, will not be required to pay annual premiums in excess of 250% of the last annual premium paid by Wendy's and/or Triarc in respect of such coverage prior to signing of the merger agreement.

Amendment; Waiver

Subject to applicable law, at any time prior to the completion of the merger, any provision of the merger agreement may be amended or waived only if such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of an amendment, by Wendy's, Triarc and Green Merger Sub, Inc., or in the case of a waiver, by the party against whom the waiver is to be effective. If after receipt of stockholder or shareholder approval, as the case may be, any such amendment or waiver shall by applicable law or in accordance with the rules and regulations of the NYSE require further approval of the shareholders of Wendy's or the stockholders of Triarc, the effectiveness of such amendment or waiver will be subject to the approval of the shareholders of Wendy's and/or the stockholders of Triarc, as applicable.

Governing Law

The merger agreement is governed by and will be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, except to the extent the provisions of the laws of the State of Ohio are mandatorily applicable with respect to the

merger.

THE VOTING AGREEMENTS

The following discussion summarizes material provisions of (i) the voting agreement dated as of April 23, 2008, by and among Nelson Peltz and Peter W. May and Triarc, which we refer to as the Triarc voting agreement, and (ii) the voting agreement dated as of April 23, 2008, by and among Trian Partners Master Fund, L.P., Trian Partners GP, L.P., Trian Partners, L.P., Trian Partners Parallel Fund I, L.P., Trian Partners Parallel Fund II, L.P. and Trian Fund Management, L.P., which are collectively referred to as the Trian funds, and Wendy's, which we refer to as the Wendy's voting agreement. A copy of each of the Triarc voting agreement and the Wendy's voting agreement are attached as Annexes J and K, respectively, to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the express terms and conditions of the respective voting agreements and not by this summary or any other information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read each of the voting agreements carefully and in their entirety, as well as this joint proxy statement/prospectus, before making any decisions regarding the merger.

Triarc Voting Agreement

Pursuant to the Triarc voting agreement, Mr. Peltz and Mr. May have agreed that until the earlier of (i) the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms and (ii) the consummation of the merger, at any meeting of the Triarc stockholders and at every adjournment or postponement thereof, Mr. Peltz and Mr. May will vote (or cause to be voted) the shares of Triarc stock they beneficially own, which as of the Triarc record date represents % of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class A common stock and % of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class B common stock, which as of the Triarc record date represents in the aggregate approximately % of the total voting power of Triarc, together with any shares of Triarc stock that are issued or otherwise acquired by them prior to the termination of the Triarc voting agreement and any shares of Triarc stock for which they have the right to exercise or direct the vote:

in favor of the proposals relating to the adoption of the amendment to Triarc's certificate of incorporation and in favor of the issuance of Wendy's/Arby's common stock required to be issued in the merger; against the approval of any matter or proposal submitted to the stockholders of Triarc for approval, if approval of such matter or proposal would result in a breach in any material respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation of Triarc under the merger agreement; and against (a) any merger, rights offering, reorganization, recapitalization or liquidation involving Triarc or any of its subsidiaries (other than the merger contemplated by the merger agreement), (b) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets or capital stock of Triarc or any of its subsidiaries or (c) any action that is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to materially impede, interfere with, delay, postpone or adversely affect the merger and the other transactions

by the merger
agreement.

Mr. Peltz and Mr. May have also agreed that until the earlier of (i) the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms and (ii) the consummation of the merger, other than as permitted or required under existing documentation in connection with the grant of a security interest in shares of Triarc stock and any refinancing thereof containing similar terms to those currently in place, Mr. Peltz and Mr. May will not, directly or indirectly:

sell, transfer,
pledge,
encumber,
assign or otherwise dispose of, or enter into any contract, option or other arrangement
or understanding
with respect to the sale,
transfer,
pledge,
encumbrance,
assignment or
other disposition of shares that are subject to the Triarc voting
agreement or any interest
contained therein;

grant any proxies or powers of attorney or enter into a voting
agreement or other arrangement
with respect to their shares
that are subject to the Triarc voting

agreement,
other than pursuant to the Triarc voting
agreement;

enter into,
or deposit
their shares
that are subject to the Triarc voting
agreement
into, a voting trust
or take any other action
which would, or could reasonably be expected to, result in a diminution
of the voting power represented by any of such shares;
or commit or agree to take any of

the foregoing
actions.

Wendy s Voting Agreement

The Trian funds have agreed that until the earlier of (i) the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms and (ii) the consummation of the merger, at any meeting of the shareholders of Wendy s and at every adjournment or postponement thereof, the Trian funds will vote (or cause to be voted) the Wendy s common shares beneficially owned by the Trian funds that are listed on the schedule to the Wendy s voting agreement, which as of the Wendy s record date represent in the aggregate approximately % of the total voting power of Wendy s, together with any Wendy s common shares that are issued to or otherwise acquired by them prior to the termination of the Wendy s voting agreement and any Wendy s common shares for which any Trian fund has the right to exercise or direct the vote:

in favor of the proposal to adopt the
merger

agreement;

against the approval of any matter or proposal submitted to the shareholders of Wendy s for approval, if approval of such matter or proposal would result in a breach in any material respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation of Wendy s under the merger agreement; and

against (a) any merger, rights offering, reorganization, recapitalization or liquidation involving Wendy s or any of its subsidiaries (other than the merger), (b) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets or capital stock of Wendy s or any of its subsidiaries or (c) any action that is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to

impede,
interfere with,
delay, postpone or adversely affect the merger and the other transactions
contemplated
by the merger
agreement.

The Trian funds have also agreed that until the earlier of (i) the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms and (ii) the consummation of the merger, no Trian fund will directly or indirectly:

sell, transfer,
pledge,
encumber,
assign or otherwise
dispose of, or enter into any contract,
option or other arrangement
or understanding
with respect to the sale,
transfer,
pledge,
encumbrance,
assignment or
other
disposition of shares that are subject to the Wendy s
voting
agreement (except that Sandell Asset Management Corp., a joint filer of the Schedule 13D,
as amended,
filed by the Trian funds, and its affiliates may sell shares) or any interest

contained therein;

grant any proxies or powers of attorney or enter into a
voting
agreement or other arrangement
with respect to the shares that are subject to the Wendy s
voting
agreement,
other than pursuant to the Wendy s
voting
agreement;

enter into, or deposit the shares that are subject to the Wendy s
voting
agreement
into, a voting trust or take any other action which would, or could reasonably be expected to,
result in a diminution of the voting power represented by any of the shares that are subject to the Wendy s

voting
agreement; or

commit or agree to take any of the foregoing
actions.

Under the Wendy's voting agreement, the Triarc funds will become subject to certain standstill restrictions if the merger agreement is terminated by either party as a result of:

the failure to obtain
Wendy's
shareholder approval to adopt the merger
agreement
and the
merger;

the failure to obtain Triarc
stockholder
approval to adopt the proposals relating to the adoption of
the amendment to Triarc's
certificate of incorporation
the proposal
to issue the Wendy's/Arby's
common stock required to be issued
in the merger;

the total number of dissenting shares exceeding 5% of the issued and outstanding
Wendy s
common
shares.

Upon the occurrence of an event triggering the standstill restrictions, until the date that is the third anniversary of the date of the termination of the merger agreement, none of the Trian funds will, directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of the Wendy s board of directors:

acquire, agree to acquire,
propose, seek or offer to acquire any securities or assets of Wendy s or any
of its subsidiaries, any warrant or option to purchase such securities or assets, any security convertible into any such securities, or any other right to acquire such securities, other than the purchase by any Trian fund of any such securities that were owned on the date of the Wendy s voting agreement by any other person that was a member of a group (within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3)

of the Exchange Act with any Trian funds with respect to Wendy s on the date of the Wendy s voting
agreement);

enter, agree to enter, propose,
seek or offer to enter into any merger, share
exchange,
exchange offer,
liquidation,
dissolution,
business
combination,
recapitalization,
restructuring, or other extraordinary transaction involving Wendy s or any
of its
subsidiaries;

make, or in any way participate
or engage in,
any solicitation
of proxies or consents to vote,
or seek to advise or influence any person with respect to the voting of, any voting securities
of Wendy s,
other than any voting rights
pursuant to the
agreement,
dated as of November 4,

2005 by and among Sandell Asset Management Corp. and Trian Fund Management, L.P., and any amendments thereto; form, join or in any way participate in a group (as defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) with respect to any voting securities of Wendy s, other than any Trian fund s participation in a group with a member that was a member of a group (as defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) on the date of the Wendy s voting agreement with such Trian fund with respect to Wendy s;

call, request the calling of, or otherwise seek or assist in the calling of a special meeting of the shareholders of Wendy s;

seek to make, or make, a shareholder proposal at any meeting of the shareholders of Wendy s or make a request for a list of Wendy s shareholders or otherwise acting alone, or in concert with others, seek to control or influence the governance or policies of Wendy s;

disclose any intention, plan or arrangement prohibited by the foregoing; advise, assist or encourage or enter into any discussions, negotiations, agreements or arrangements with any other persons, other than officers, directors, partners, members, employees, advisors (including without limitation, financial and legal advisors and accountants) and representatives with respect to

the foregoing;

make any request directly or indirectly, to amend or waive any provision of the standstill; or take any action that would require Wendy's to make a public announcement regarding the possibility of a business combination, merger or other type of transaction described in this paragraph.

The restrictions set forth above will terminate prior to the third anniversary of the event triggering the standstill restrictions upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

the execution by Wendy's or one of its subsidiaries of a definitive agreement with a third party and the transactions provided for in such agreement would result in any other person or group (as defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) acquiring or entering into a definitive

agreement (approved by the Wendy's
board of directors) to acquire beneficial
ownership of more than 50% of the outstanding
voting securities of Wendy's or assets of Wendy's or
its subsidiaries representing more than 50% of the consolidated earning power of Wendy's and
its subsidiaries;

any other person or group (as defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) acquires beneficial
ownership of more than 50% of the outstanding
voting securities of Wendy's or

assets of Wendy s or its subsidiaries representing beneficial
ownership of more than 50%
of the consolidated
earning power of Wendy s and its subsidiaries;

the commencement
by any other person or group (as defined in Section 13(d)(3)
of the Exchange Act), other than by one or more affiliates of the Trian funds, of a bona fide tender or exchange
offer to acquire beneficial
ownership of more than 50%
of the outstanding
voting securities
of Wendy s;

any merger,
consolidation,
share exchange,
recapitalization
or other business
combination,
the effect of which would result in the current
shareholders of Wendy s failing to own a majority of the outstanding

shares of Wendy s; and

any liquidation, dissolution or sale of all or substantially all of the assets of Wendy s, in each case that is subject to
Wendy s
shareholder
approval.

THE AMENDMENT TO TRIARC S CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

The amendment to Triarc s certificate of incorporation, if approved, will (i) increase the number of authorized shares of Triarc Class A common stock to 1,500,000,000 shares, (ii) convert each issued and outstanding share of Triarc Class B common stock into one share of Wendy s/Arby s common stock and provide that there shall only be one class of common stock of Wendy s/Arby s, (iii) change the name of Triarc to Wendy s/Arby s Group, Inc. , (iv) prohibit the issuance of preferred stock of Wendy s/Arby s to affiliates of Wendy s/Arby s, unless offered ratably to the holders of Wendy s/Arby s common stock, subject to an exception in the case that Wendy s/Arby s is in financial distress and the issuance is approved by the audit committee of Wendy s/Arby s board of directors, (v) amend the definition of Interested Stockholder , which is used in Triarc s current certificate of incorporation in connection with requiring increased stockholder approval thresholds for specified business combination transactions with affiliates, to remove the exception for DWG Acquisition Group L.P., a dissolved partnership formerly controlled by Nelson Peltz and Peter W. May, (vi) provide that Triarc s board of directors shall not have the power or authority to amend, alter or repeal Section 3 of Article I of Wendy s/Arby s bylaws, which provides that the headquarters of the Wendy s brand will be in the greater Columbus, Ohio area for a ten-year period following the completion of the merger and (vii) provide that the purpose of Wendy s/Arby s is to engage in the restaurant business and complementary, incidental and ancillary businesses.

In the judgment of the Triarc board of directors, the amendment is desirable for the following reasons:

The amendment, by committing Triarc to the restaurant business and complementary, incidental and ancillary businesses and creating a single class of common stock will increase investor interest in the combined company and will help Wendy s/Arby s develop into a pure-play best-in-class restaurant company.

The shares of Triarc Class A common stock currently authorized is less than the total number of shares that will result after the issuance of Wendy's/Arby's common stock to Wendy's shareholders in the merger and the conversion of all outstanding shares of Triarc Class B common stock into shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock in connection with the merger. Accordingly, Triarc must increase the authorized Triarc Class A common stock in order to have sufficient authorized capital to meet its obligation to issue Wendy's/Arby's common stock to the Wendy's shareholders following the merger. The increased share authorization will also provide greater flexibility in the capital structure of the combined company by allowing it to raise capital that may be necessary to further develop its business, to fund potential acquisitions, to have shares available for use in connection with stock plans and to pursue other corporate purposes that may be identified by the board of directors.

The change of its corporate name is desirable to reflect the merger with Wendy's. Triarc's board of directors believes that renaming Triarc as

Wendy's/Arby's Group, Inc. will enable industry and financial market participants to more closely associate the company with its two major operating businesses. The new name will allow for further expansion of the companies' businesses, Wendy's and Arby's, but will not adversely affect the products or services offered to customers in the markets presently served.

The amendment ensures that Wendy's brand headquarters will remain in the greater Columbus, Ohio area for at least 10 years unless an amendment to Wendy's/Arby's bylaws is approved by its stockholders, allowing Wendy's and Arby's to operate as independent business units, resulting in stability and minimal intrusion into Wendy's current operations.

Under the merger agreement, approval of the proposals relating to the adoption of the amendments of Triarc's certificate of incorporation is a condition to the consummation of the merger. If the proposals are not approved, the merger will not be consummated even if the merger proposal is approved by the Wendy's shareholders.

Under the merger agreement, Triarc agreed not to pursue stockholder approval of any change to Section 3 of Article I of Wendy's/Arby's bylaws for the 5-year period following the consummation of the merger.

A copy of the form of amendment is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex E.

Dividends and Other Distributions

Triarc paid aggregate cash dividends of $0.32 per share on Triarc Class A common stock and $0.36 per share on Triarc Class B common stock in 2007. In accordance with the certificate of designation for Class B common stock, and resolutions adopted by the board of directors on June 5, 2007, Triarc Class B common stock was entitled, through December 30, 2007, to receive regular quarterly cash dividends equal to at least 110% of any regular quarterly cash dividends paid on Triarc Class A common stock. However, the Triarc board of directors subsequently determined that for the first and second fiscal quarters of 2008 it would continue to pay regular quarterly cash dividends at that higher rate on Triarc Class B common stock when regular quarterly cash dividends are paid on Triarc Class A common stock. Thereafter, each share of Class B common stock is entitled to at least 100% of the regular quarterly cash dividend paid on each share of Triarc Class A common stock. In addition, Triarc Class B common stock has a $0.01 per share preference in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Triarc and, after each share of Triarc Class A common stock also receives $0.01 per share in any such liquidation, dissolution or winding up, Triarc Class B common stock would thereafter participate equally on a per share basis with Triarc Class A common stock in any remaining assets of Triarc.

On March 14, 2008, Triarc paid regular quarterly cash dividends of $0.08 and $0.09 per share on Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock, respectively, to holders of record on March 1, 2008. On May 8, 2008, Triarc declared quarterly cash dividends of $0.08 and $0.09 per share on Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock, respectively, payable on June 16, 2008 to holders of record as of June 2, 2008. In addition, on April 4, 2008, Triarc paid a special dividend on its Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock consisting of 0.106028 shares of Deerfield Capital Corp. common stock for each share of Triarc Class A common stock outstanding and each share of Triarc Class B common stock outstanding to holders of record on March 29, 2008. This dividend represented the distribution of 9,629,368 shares of Deerfield Capital Corp. common stock Triarc had received in connection with the sale of its majority interest in Deerfield, an asset management firm, to Deerfield Capital Corp. and all other shares of Deerfield Capital Corp. common stock held by Triarc.

Wendy s paid aggregate cash dividends of $0.46 per share in 2007. In February 2007, Wendy s announced that based on its cash position and strategic direction, it intended to increase its aggregate annual common stock dividend rate by 47% to $0.50 per share from the aggregate annual rate of $0.34 per share established in the fourth quarter of 2006 following the spin-off of Tim Hortons Inc. Prior to the spin-off, Wendy's aggregate annual common stock dividend rate had been $0.68 per share. On May 19, 2008, Wendy's paid a cash dividend of $0.125 per share to shareholders of record as of May 5, 2008.

There can be no assurance that any regular quarterly cash dividends will be declared or paid by Wendy's/Arby's or the amount or timing of such dividends, if any. Any future dividends will be made at the discretion of Wendy's/Arby's board of directors and will be based on such factors as earnings, financial condition, cash requirements and other factors. See Risk Factors Risk Factors Relating to the Merger There can be no assurance regarding whether or to what extent Wendy's/Arby's will pay dividends on its common stock in the future.

card);

to ratify the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for 2008 (Item 8 on the proxy card); and to conduct other business properly raised before the meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the meeting.

Each of the first four proposals listed above relating to the merger is conditioned upon approval of each of the other three and the approval of each such proposal is required for completion of the merger. None of the three proposals relating to the adoption of the amendment to Triarc's certificate of incorporation or the proposal to issue Wendy's/Arby's common stock in the merger will be implemented unless all four proposals related to the merger are approved by the Triarc stockholders and the merger is completed.

Triarc Record Date; Stock Entitled to Vote

The close of business on , 2008, which we refer to as the Triarc record date, has been fixed as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Triarc annual meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the Triarc annual meeting.

As of the Triarc record date the following shares were outstanding and entitled to vote:

Designation	Outstanding	Class Vote per Share(1)	Votes per Share Class A common stock		1.0000	1.0000 Class B common stock		1.0000	0.1000

(1)

Holders of Triarc Class A common stock will be entitled to a class vote on Proposal 1 (relating to the adoption of the amendment to Triarc s certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Triarc Class A common stock to 1,500,000,000 in connection with the merger), and holders of Triarc Class B common stock will be entitled to a class vote on Proposal 2 (relating to the adoption of the amendment to Triarc s certificate of incorporation to convert each issued and outstanding share of Triarc Class B common stock into one share of Wendy s/Arby s common stock and to provide that there shall only be one class of authorized common stock of Wendy s/Arby s).

The relative voting power of Triarc s different classes of voting stock is set forth in Triarc s certificate of incorporation.

A complete list of stockholders entitled to vote at the Triarc annual meeting will be available for examination by any Triarc stockholder at Triarc's headquarters, 1155 Perimeter Center West, Atlanta, Georgia, 30338, for purposes pertaining to the Triarc annual meeting, during normal business hours for a period of ten days before the Triarc annual meeting, and at the time and place of the Triarc annual meeting.

Attendance at the Triarc Annual Meeting

Only holders of Triarc Class A common stock, and holders of Triarc Class B common stock, at the close of business on , 2008, their authorized representatives and guests of Triarc will be able to attend the Triarc annual meeting. For your comfort and security, admission to the Triarc annual meeting will be by ticket only. If you are a registered stockholder (your shares are held in your name) and plan to attend the Triarc annual meeting, please check the appropriate box on the enclosed proxy card. Your admission ticket can be detached from the bottom portion of the proxy card. If you are a beneficial owner (your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker or other holder of record) and plan to attend the Triarc annual meeting, your admission ticket is the left side of your voting information form. In addition, you can obtain an admission ticket in advance by writing to Corporate Secretary, Triarc Companies, Inc., 1155 Perimeter Center West, Atlanta, Georgia 30338. Please be sure to enclose proof of ownership, such as a bank or brokerage account statement or a letter from the bank or broker verifying such ownership. Stockholders who do not obtain tickets in advance may obtain them upon verification of ownership at the registration desk on the day of the Triarc annual meeting.

Tickets may be issued to others at Triarc's discretion.

Quorum

In order to carry on the business of the meeting, Triarc must have a quorum. The presence, in person or by proxy, of stockholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes that all stockholders are entitled to cast at the meeting will constitute a quorum. Broker non-votes and the shares as to which a stockholder abstains are included for purposes of determining whether a quorum of shares is present at the meeting. A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to that proposal and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

Treatment of Abstentions, Broker Non-Votes, Not Voting and Incomplete Proxies

If a Triarc stockholder abstains from voting on any proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote against that proposal, except for Proposals 4, 6 and 7 where it will have no effect. Broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against Proposals 1, 2 and 3. Broker non-votes will not be included in the tabulation of the voting results on Proposal 4 and 7. If a Triarc stockholder does not vote, it will have no effect with respect to Proposals 5, 6 and 8 and will have the effect of a vote against Proposals 1, 2 and 3. If a proxy is returned to Triarc without indication as to how to vote, the Triarc stock represented by that proxy will be considered to be voted in favor of all matters for consideration at the Triarc annual meeting.

Voting by Triarc Directors and Executive Officers

On the Triarc record date, Messrs. Peltz and May, directors of Triarc, were entitled to vote shares of Triarc Class A common stock, representing approximately % of outstanding shares of Triarc Class A common stock and shares of Triarc Class B common stock, representing approximately % of outstanding shares of Class B common stock, representing, in the aggregate approximately % of the total voting power of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock entitled to vote at the Triarc annual meeting. When a proxy is returned properly dated and signed, the shares represented thereby will be voted by the persons named as proxies in accordance with each stockholder's directions. Stockholders may specify their choices by marking the appropriate boxes on the enclosed proxy. Triarc stockholders may also choose to vote electronically by accessing the internet site or by using the toll-free telephone number stated on the form of proxy. Without affecting any vote previously taken, the proxy may be revoked by the stockholder by giving notice of revocation to Triarc in writing, by accessing the internet site, by using the toll-free telephone number stated on the form of proxy, or by attending the annual meeting and revoking the earlier vote or proxy. A stockholder may also change his or her vote by executing and returning to Triarc a later-dated proxy, by a later-dated electronic proxy through the internet site, by using the toll-free telephone number stated on the form of proxy, or by voting at the annual meeting. All properly executed proxies received by the board of directors, and properly authenticated electronic proxies recorded through the internet or by telephone, will be voted as directed by the stockholder. Under Triarc's By-Laws, business transacted at the Triarc annual meeting is confined to the purposes stated in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The proxy being solicited does, however, convey discretionary authority to the persons named therein as proxies to vote on matters incident to the conduct of the Triarc annual meeting.

Every Triarc stockholder's vote is important. Accordingly, each Triarc stockholder should sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card promptly or otherwise submit their proxy by using the toll-free number or visiting the website listed on the proxy card if eligible to do so, whether or not planning to attend the Triarc annual meeting in person.

Solicitation of Proxies

This solicitation is made on behalf of the Triarc board of directors. Triarc and Wendy's will generally each pay one-half of the cost and expenses of printing and mailing this joint proxy statement/prospectus and all fees paid to the SEC. Triarc will pay the costs of soliciting and obtaining the proxies of Triarc stockholders, including the cost of reimbursing brokers, banks and other financial institutions for forwarding proxy materials to their customers. Proxies may be solicited, without extra compensation, by Triarc's directors, officers and employees by mail, telephone, fax, personal interviews or other methods of communication. Triarc has engaged the firm of Innisfree M&A Incorporated to assist Triarc in the distribution and solicitation of proxies and will pay Innisfree M&A Incorporated an estimated fee of . Wendy's will pay the costs of soliciting and obtaining its proxies and all other expenses related to the Wendy's special meeting.

Householding of Annual Meeting Materials

Some banks, brokers and other nominees are participating in the practice of householding proxy statements and annual reports. This means that beneficial owners of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock who share the same address or household may not receive separate copies of this proxy statement and Triarc's 2007 Annual Report. Triarc will promptly deliver an additional copy of either document to you if you write or call: Triarc Companies, Inc., 1155 Perimeter Center West, Atlanta, GA 30338, Attention: Corporate Secretary; Telephone: (678) 514-4100.

Stockholders may also call or write to Triarc at the above address or contact Triarc's transfer agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company at 59 Maiden Lane, New York, NY 10038, (800) 937-5449 or (718) 921-8124 if they wish to receive a separate annual report or proxy statement either now or in the future.

If you and other stockholders of record with whom you share an address currently receive multiple copies of Triarc's Annual Report and proxy statement, or if you hold stock in more than one account and, in either case, you wish to receive only one copy of each of these documents for your household, you may contact Triarc's transfer agent at the above address or through its website at www.amstock.com.

Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners

The following table sets forth the beneficial ownership as of April 21, 2008 by each person known by Triarc to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of the outstanding shares of Triarc Class A common stock and/or Triarc Class B common stock (constituting the only classes of voting

PROPOSAL 1.
AMENDMENT TO TRIARC S CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF AUTHORIZED SHARES OF TRIARC CLASS A COMMON STOCK

(Item 1 on Triarc Proxy Card)

Triarc is proposing to increase the number of authorized shares of Class A common stock from 100,000,000 shares to 1,500,000,000 shares. To effect this change, Triarc must amend its certificate of incorporation.

Triarc currently has 350,000,000 shares of Triarc capital stock authorized for issuance, consisting of 100,000,000 shares of Triarc Class A common stock, 150,000,000 shares of Triarc Class B common stock and 100,000,000 shares of Triarc preferred stock. On May 29, 2008, Triarc had outstanding approximately 28,911,358 shares of Triarc Class A common stock and approximately 410,607 shares of Triarc Class A common stock issuable based on outstanding options and stock-based awards. In addition, an aggregate of approximately 53,419 shares of Triarc Class A common stock are issuable in connection with the conversion of Triarc s outstanding 5% convertible notes due 2023. Based on the number of Wendy s common shares and options to acquire Wendy s common shares outstanding as of the Triarc record date, as a result of the merger, Wendy s/Arby s can expect to issue up to approximately 372,846,788 additional shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock to Wendy s shareholders. Also in connection with the merger, upon the conversion of each share of Triarc Class B common stock into one share of Wendy s/Arby s common stock, approximately 63,895,070 additional shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock will be issued, based upon the number of shares of Triarc Class B common stock outstanding as of May 29, 2008. After the merger is completed, Wendy s/Arby s will reserve for issuance additional shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock issuable upon conversion of all currently outstanding Triarc and Wendy s options. Triarc is proposing to increase the number of authorized shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock to give it sufficient authorized shares to complete the merger. In addition, the increased share authorization will also provide greater flexibility in the capital structure of the resulting company by allowing it to raise capital that may be necessary to further develop its business, to fund potential acquisitions, to have shares available for use in connection with stock plans and to pursue other corporate purposes that may be identified by the board of directors.

For a description of the terms of the Wendy s/Arby s common stock, please see Authorized Capital Stock of Wendy s/Arby s Description of Wendy s/Arby s Common Stock, beginning on page 193.

The Wendy s/Arby s board of directors will determine whether, when and on what terms the issuance of shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock may be warranted in connection with any future actions. No further action or authorization by Wendy s/Arby s stockholders will be necessary before issuance of the additional shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock authorized under the Wendy s/Arby s certificate of incorporation, except as may be required for a particular transaction by the certificate of incorporation, by applicable law or regulatory agencies or by the rules of the NYSE or of any stock exchange on which the Wendy s/Arby s common stock may then be listed.

Although an increase in the authorized shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock could, under certain circumstances, also be construed as having an anti-takeover effect (for example, by permitting easier dilution of the stock ownership of a person seeking to effect a change in the composition of the board of directors or contemplating a tender offer or other transaction resulting in the acquisition of Wendy s/Arby s by another company), the proposed increase in shares authorized is not in response to any effort by any person or group to accumulate Triarc Class A common stock or to obtain control of Triarc by any means. In addition, the proposal is not part of any plan by the Triarc board of directors to recommend or implement a series of anti-takeover measures.

The increase in the number of authorized shares of Triarc Class A common stock is necessary to effect the merger. The amendment to Triarc s certificate of incorporation reflected in this Proposal 1 will become effective only in connection with and immediately before the time of completion of the merger. This Proposal 1 is conditioned on the approval of Proposals 2, 3 and 4, and the approval of all four of these Proposals is required for completion of the merger.

Triarc is asking its stockholders to approve this amendment. The amendment reflecting the amendments to Triarc's certificate of incorporation in Proposals 1, 2 and 3 is set forth in Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. For a more detailed description of the amendment, see "The Amendment to Triarc's Certificate of Incorporation" beginning on page 97. For a more detailed description of the terms of the Wendy's/Arby's certificate of incorporation, see "Authorized Capital Stock of Wendy's/Arby's" beginning on page 193.

THE TRIARC BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS DECLARED THIS AMENDMENT ADVISABLE AND RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THIS PROPOSAL 1.

PROPOSAL 2.

AMENDMENT OF TRIARC'S CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO CONVERT EACH ISSUED AND OUTSTANDING SHARE OF CLASS B COMMON STOCK INTO ONE SHARE OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK AND PROVIDE THAT CLASS A COMMON STOCK SHALL BE THE SOLE CLASS OF AUTHORIZED COMMON STOCK OF TRIARC

(Item 2 on Triarc Proxy Card)

Triarc is proposing to convert each issued and outstanding share of Triarc Class B common stock into a share of Wendy's/Arby's common stock and provide that there shall only be one class of authorized common stock of Wendy's/Arby's.

As of May 29, 2008, Triarc had approximately 63,895,070 shares of Triarc Class B common stock outstanding, and approximately 4,712,988 shares of Triarc Class B common stock issuable based on option and stock-based awards and approximately 106,744 shares of Triarc Class B common stock reserved for issuance upon the conversion of Triarc's 5% convertible notes due 2023. Holders of Triarc Class B common stock are entitled to 1/10 vote for each share held on record on all matters on which stockholders are entitled to vote, including the election of directors, and are entitled to share equally in any dividends declared payable on Triarc Class A common stock, on a per share basis, subject to certain limitations.

It is a condition to completion of the merger that Triarc convert each issued and outstanding share of Triarc Class B common stock into one share of Wendy's/Arby's common stock and provide that there shall only be one class of authorized common stock of Wendy's/Arby's. This will eliminate the existing dual-class structure, and post-merger, Wendy's/Arby's will have a single class of common stock, each entitled to one vote per share. As a result, Wendy's/Arby's will have 1,600,000,000 shares of capital stock authorized for issuance, consisting of 1,500,000,000 shares of common stock and 100,000,000 shares of preferred stock. Wendy's/Arby's common stock is expected to be listed and trade on the NYSE under the symbol WEN.

The amendment reflected in this Proposal 2 will become effective only in connection with and immediately before the time of completion of the merger. This Proposal 2 is conditioned on the approval of Proposals 1, 3 and 4, and the approval of all four of these Proposals is required for completion of the merger.

Triarc is asking its stockholders to approve this amendment. The amendment reflecting the amendments to Triarc's certificate of incorporation in Proposals 1, 2 and 3 is set forth in Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. For a more detailed description of the amendment, see "The Amendment to Triarc's Certificate of Incorporation" beginning on page 97. For a more detailed description of the terms of the Wendy's/Arby's certificate of incorporation, see "Authorized Capital Stock of Wendy's/Arby's" beginning on page 193. For a comparison of the terms of Triarc Class A common stock and the terms of Triarc Class B common stock, please see "Comparison of Rights of Stockholders/Shareholders of Triarc, Wendy's and Wendy's/Arby's" beginning on page 199.

Triarc is proposing to change its name in connection with the merger so that the resulting company can benefit from the brand recognition of both companies and their combined products and services. The new name will allow for further expansion of the companies' businesses, but will not adversely affect the respective brands in the markets presently served.

The amendments to Triarc's certificate of incorporation reflected in this Proposal 3 will become effective only in connection with and immediately before the time of completion of the merger. This Proposal 3 is conditioned on the approval of Proposals 1, 2 and 4, and the approval of all four of these Proposals is required for completion of the merger.

Triarc is asking its stockholders to approve these amendments. The amendment reflecting the amendments to Triarc's certificate of incorporation in Proposals 1, 2 and 3 is set forth in Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. For a more detailed description of the amendment, see "The Amendment to Triarc's Certificate of Incorporation" beginning on page 97. For a more detailed description of the terms of the Wendy's/Arby's certificate of incorporation, see "Authorized Capital Stock of Wendy's/Arby's" beginning on page 193.

PROPOSAL 4.
ISSUANCE OF COMMON STOCK IN THE MERGER

(Item 4 on Triarc Proxy Card)

It is a condition to completion of the merger that shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock be issued to Wendy's shareholders in the merger. Under Rule 312.03 of the NYSE, a company listed on the NYSE is required to obtain stockholder approval before the issuance of common stock, or securities convertible into or exercisable for common stock, if the common stock issued in the merger exceeds 20% of the shares of common stock of the corporation outstanding immediately before the effectiveness of the merger. If the merger is completed, approximately 372.7 million shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock will be issued to holders of Wendy s common shares. In addition, approximately 8.8 million shares of Wendy s/Arby s common stock will become subject to stock options as a result of the conversion of options to acquire Wendy s common shares then outstanding. The aggregate number of shares of common stock to be issued in the merger will exceed 20% of the shares of Triarc Class A common stock outstanding on the record date for the Triarc annual meeting, and for this reason Triarc must obtain the approval of Triarc stockholders for the issuance of these securities to Wendy s shareholders in the merger.

Triarc is asking its stockholders to approve the issuance of Wendy s/Arby s common stock to Wendy s shareholders in the merger. The issuance of these securities to Wendy s shareholders is necessary to effect the merger. This Proposal 4 is conditioned on the approval of Proposals 1, 2 and 3, and the approval of all four of these Proposals is required for completion of the merger.

AND RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THIS PROPOSAL 4.

PROPOSAL 5.
POSSIBLE ADJOURNMENT OF THE TRIARC ANNUAL MEETING

(Item 5 on Triarc Proxy Card)

The Triarc annual meeting may be adjourned to another time or place to permit further solicitation of proxies if necessary to obtain additional votes in favor of the proposals related to the merger.

AND RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THIS PROPOSAL 5.

PROPOSAL 6.
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

(Item 6 on Triarc Proxy Card)

Except as provided below, each of the twelve nominees, if elected, will hold office until the next annual meeting of Triarc s stockholders and until his successor is elected and qualified or until his prior death, resignation or removal.

The persons named in the accompanying proxy will vote for the election of the nominees named below unless a Triarc stockholder directs otherwise. Each nominee has consented to be named and to continue to serve if elected. If any of the nominees become unavailable for election for any reason, the proxies will be voted for the other nominees and for any substitutes.

Nominees for Director

It is recommended that the twelve (12) nominees named below be elected as directors of Triarc, with each director to hold office until the next annual meeting of Triarc s stockholders and until his successor is elected and qualified or until his prior death, resignation or removal. All of the twelve (12) nominees are presently serving as directors of Triarc and were elected directors at Triarc s annual meeting of stockholders held on June 5, 2007, to serve until the next annual meeting of Triarc s stockholders and until such director s successor is duly chosen and qualified or until his prior death, resignation or removal. Triarc is unaware of any reason why any of the nominees named herein would be unwilling or unable to serve as a director. Should, however, any nominee for director be unwilling or unable to serve at the time of the annual meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, the persons named in the proxy will vote for the election of such other person for such directorship as the board of directors may recommend. At the effective time of the merger, two of the Triarc directors elected at the annual meeting will resign and Wendy's/Arby's will take all requisite action to cause two nominees, who shall be current Wendy's directors, to be designated by Wendy s and reasonably acceptable to Triarc, to be appointed to the Wendy s/Arby s board of directors to fill the vacancies caused by the resignations.

Certain information regarding each person nominated by the board of directors, including his principal occupation during the past five years and current directorships, is set forth below. Unless otherwise indicated, all nominees have had the indicated principal occupations for the past five years.

Name of Director	Business Experience During Past Five Years, Age and Other Information

TRIARC CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Independence of Triarc Directors

Under the New York Stock Exchange's listing requirements, the board of directors must have a majority of directors who meet the criteria for independence required by the New York Stock Exchange. Pursuant to Triarc's Corporate Governance Guidelines (the "Guidelines"), the Board is to determine whether each director satisfies the criteria for independence based on all of the relevant facts and circumstances. No director qualifies as independent unless the board of directors affirmatively determines that such director has no material relationship with Triarc. In accordance with the Guidelines, the board of directors has adopted categorical standards ("Independence Standards") to assist it in determining the independence of Triarc's directors. Pursuant to the Independence Standards, any relationship described below will be deemed to be material if:

the director is,
or has been within the last three years, an employee of Triarc, or an immediate family member of the director is, or has been within the last three years, an executive

Triarc;

the director
has received,
or has an immediate family member who has received,
during any twelve-month period within the last three years, more than $100,000 in direct compensation
from Triarc as an executive officer, other than director and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service (provided that such compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service);

(i) the director or an immediate family member of the director is a current partner of a firm that is Triarc's internal or external auditor; (ii) the director is a current employee of such a firm; (iii) the director has an immediate family member who is a current employee of such a firm and who participates in the firm's audit, assurance or tax compliance (but not tax planning)

practice; or
(iv) the director or an immediate family
member of the director was within the last three years (but is no longer) a partner or employee of such a firm and personally worked on Triarc s audit within that time;

the director or an immediate the director is a current employee, or an immediate family member of the director is a current executive officer, of another company that has made payments to, or received payments from, Triarc for property or services in an amount that, in any of the last three fiscal years, exceeds the greater of $1.0 million or 2% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues. Both the payments and the consolidated gross revenues to be measured will be those of such other company's last completed fiscal year. Also, the three year look-back period referred to above applies only to the financial relationship between Triarc and the director s or immediate family member s current employer (i.e., former employment of the director

directors and employees)
that, in any fiscal year of such

non-profit organization,
foundation or university, exceeded the greater of $1.0 million or 2%
of such entity's consolidated
gross revenues.

The foregoing clauses are to be interpreted by the board of directors taking into account any commentary or other guidance provided by the New York Stock Exchange with respect to Section 303A of the New York Stock Exchange Listed Company Manual.

The Independence Standards further provide that the relationship between Triarc and an entity for which a director serves solely as a non-management director is not material. The Independence Standards also provide that employment as an interim Chairman or CEO or other executive officer will not disqualify a director from being considered independent following that employment. In addition, any other relationship not described above will not be deemed material unless (i) the director would have thereby a direct or indirect material interest within the meaning of Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K and the material terms of the relationship were materially more favorable than those that would be offered at the time and in comparable circumstances to persons unaffiliated with Triarc or (ii) the board of directors, in exercising its judgment in light of all the facts and circumstances, determines that the relationship should be considered to be material and to affect the independence of the director in question. For purposes of the Independence Standards, the term Company includes any subsidiary in Triarc's consolidated group.

In April 2008, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the board of directors considered and reviewed the various commercial and charitable transactions and relationships identified through directors' responses to annual questionnaires that they are required to complete, as well as data collected by management and presented to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and to the board of directors related to transactions during the last three years between Triarc and a director, immediate family member of a director or business or charitable affiliation of a director. As a result of this review, the board of directors determined that none of the identified transactions or relationships with Messrs. Carey, Chajet, Levato, Schwab, Troubh, Tsai and Wasserman was material and that each of such nominees is independent of Triarc. In making its independence determinations, the Board considered the following transactions that occurred during the last three years, each of which, as noted above, was deemed not to be material: for Mr. Chajet, contributions to two charities for which he or his spouse serves as a director; for Mr. Troubh, contributions to a charity for which his spouse serves as a director; for Mr. Tsai, payments to an entity affiliated with a university of which he serves as a trustee for health related services and training for Company employees, and the reimbursement of Triarc by an affiliate of a company for which Mr. Tsai serves as a director for legal and other expenses incurred by Triarc in connection with an unsuccessful joint bid for a potential acquisition; and for Mr. Wasserman, a contribution to a charity for which he serves as a director.

Triarc Board Meetings and Certain Committees of the Triarc Board

Thirteen meetings of the full board of directors were held during the fiscal year ended December 30, 2007. Each incumbent director who served on the board of directors in 2007 and is a nominee for reelection, attended at least 75% or more of the meetings of the board of directors and its committees that he was eligible to attend in 2007. While Triarc does not have a formal policy requiring them to do so, directors are expected to attend Triarc's annual meeting of stockholders. All persons then serving as directors attended the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders.

Triarc has standing audit, nominating and corporate governance and compensation committees whose current functions and members are described below. As noted above, the board of directors has determined that each of the current members of such committees is independent as required by the New York Stock Exchange listing requirements. In addition, Triarc has a special committee and standing capital and investment and corporate social responsibility committees, the current functions and members of which are also described below. It is anticipated that at its first meeting following the Triarc annual meeting, the Board will designate the directors to serve on each of these committees until the next annual meeting of stockholders.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is composed of Messrs. Joseph A. Levato (Chairman), David E. Schwab II, Raymond S. Troubh and Jack G. Wasserman. The primary purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the board of directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibility relating to: (i) the integrity of Triarc's financial statements and financial reporting process, Triarc's systems of internal accounting and financial controls and other financial information provided by Triarc; (ii) the performance of the internal audit function; (iii) the annual independent audit of Triarc's financial statements, the engagement of the independent registered public accounting firm and the evaluation of the independent registered public accounting firm's qualifications, independence and performance; (iv) the compliance by Triarc with legal and regulatory requirements, including Triarc's disclosure controls and procedures; (v) the evaluation of risk assessment and risk management policies; and (vi) the fulfillment of the other responsibilities set out in its charter. The board of directors has determined that each of the committee members are financially literate and at least one member, Mr. Levato, qualifies as an audit committee financial expert within the meaning of the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee met ten times during 2007. The formal report of the Audit Committee with respect to fiscal year 2007 begins on page 155.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is composed of Messrs. Raymond S. Troubh (Chairman), Hugh L. Carey, David E. Schwab II and Gerald Tsai, Jr. This committee is charged with the responsibility of: (i) identifying individuals qualified to become members of the board of directors, consistent with any guidelines and criteria approved by the board of directors; (ii) considering and recommending director nominees for the Board to select in connection with each annual meeting of stockholders; (iii) considering and recommending nominees for election to fill any vacancies on the board of directors and to address related matters; (iv) developing and recommending to the board of directors corporate governance principles applicable to Triarc; and (v) overseeing an annual evaluation of the board of directors and management's performance.

The board of directors has adopted general criteria for nomination to the board of directors, which, as part of the Guidelines, can be found on Triarc's website at www.triarc.com. The board of directors seeks members from diverse professional and personal backgrounds who combine a broad spectrum of experience and expertise with a reputation for integrity. The Board's assessment of potential candidates includes consideration of diversity, age, educational background, other board experience and commitments, business and professional achievements, skills and experience in the context of the needs of the Board. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers suggestions from any source, including stockholders, regarding possible candidates for directors. Possible candidates who have been suggested by stockholders are evaluated by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee in the same manner as are other possible candidates.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has adopted the following rules with respect to considering nominations by stockholders: (i) the nominating stockholder must have owned, for at least six months prior to the date the nomination is submitted, shares of (x) Class A common stock, (y) Class B common stock or (z) other classes of common stock or preferred stock, if any, entitled to vote for directors; (ii) the nomination must be received by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee at least 120 days before the anniversary of the mailing date for proxy material mailed in connection with the previous year's annual meeting; and (iii) a detailed statement setting forth the qualifications, as well as the written consent, of each party nominated must accompany each nomination submitted. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met twice during 2007.

Compensation Committee and Performance Compensation Subcommittee. The Compensation Committee is composed of Messrs. David E. Schwab II (Chairman), Clive Chajet, Joseph A. Levato and Jack G. Wasserman. The Compensation Committee is charged with discharging the responsibility of the board of directors relating to compensation of Triarc's directors and executive officers, administering the Triarc Companies, Inc. Amended and Restated 1997 Equity Participation Plan (the 1997 Plan), the Deferral Plan for Senior Executive Officers of Triarc Companies, Inc. (the Deferral Plan), such other salary, compensation or incentive plans as the Compensation Committee is designated to administer, and related matters. The Compensation Committee met 16 times during 2007.

The Performance Compensation Subcommittee (the Subcommittee or the Performance Committee) is composed of Messrs. David E. Schwab II (Chairman), Clive Chajet and Jack G. Wasserman. The Subcommittee was established in August 1997 to assume certain functions that were previously the responsibility of the Compensation Committee. The purpose of the Subcommittee is limited to administering Triarc's compensation plans that are intended to meet the requirements of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), including the Amended and Restated 1998 Equity Participation Plan (the 1998 Plan), the Amended and Restated 2002 Equity Participation Plan, as amended (the 2002 Plan), the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan (the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan or the 1999 Plan), such other salary, compensation or incentive plans as the Subcommittee is designated to administer, and related matters. The Subcommittee met nine times in 2007.

The processes and procedures that are employed in connection with the consideration and determination of the compensation of Triarc's executives are discussed in the section below entitled, Corporate Governance Matters Activities of the Compensation Committee.

Charters for the Audit Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, the joint charter for the Compensation Committee and Performance Committee, as well as the Guidelines and Triarc's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (including code of ethics provisions that apply to Triarc's principal executive, financial and accounting officers) may be found under the Investor Relations section of Triarc's website at www.triarc.com and are also available in print, free of charge, to any stockholder who requests them.

Special Committee. In May 2005, Triarc announced that it was evaluating a potential corporate restructuring of Triarc. In June 2005, the Board formed a Special Committee to evaluate potential related party matters in connection with the potential corporate restructuring. The Special Committee is composed of David E. Schwab II (Chairman), Clive Chajet, Joseph A. Levato and Raymond S. Troubh. The Special Committee met ten times during 2007. See the Compensation Discussion and Analysis below for a description of the contractual settlements and other related agreements that were reached with Messrs. Peltz and May in connection with the corporate restructuring of Triarc.

Capital and Investment Committee. In August 2007, in connection with Triarc's corporate restructuring, the Board formed a Capital and Investment Committee to be responsible for (i) approving the investment of excess funds (i.e., funds not currently required for operations or acquisitions) of Triarc and its direct and indirect subsidiaries and (ii) exercising approval authority for certain transactions (such as capital expenditures, acquisitions, dispositions and borrowings) within amounts specified by the Board. The Capital and Investment Committee is composed of Nelson Peltz (Chairman), Peter W. May and Roland C. Smith. The Capital and Investment Committee did not have any meetings in 2007.

Corporate Social Responsibility Committee. In January 2008, the Board formed a Corporate Social Responsibility Committee with responsibility for reviewing and approving the charitable contributions that are to be made on behalf of Triarc (subject to the review and approval by the Audit Committee of any proposed charitable contribution that would constitute a related party transaction) and recommending to the Board such changes to the maximum amount of charitable contributions that may be made by Triarc in any fiscal year as such committee may deem appropriate. The Corporate Social Responsibility Committee is composed of Nelson Peltz (Chairman), Peter W. May and Joseph A. Levato.

Executive Sessions of the Triarc Board of Directors

The Triarc board of directors holds executive sessions whereby non-management directors meet in regularly scheduled sessions. The chairpersons of the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee rotate presiding over these sessions.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), requires Triarc's directors, executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of Triarc's common stock, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership on Forms 3, 4 and 5 with the SEC and the New York Stock Exchange. Directors, executive officers and greater than 10% stockholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish Triarc with copies of all Forms 3, 4 and 5 they file.

Based solely on Triarc's review of the copies of such forms it has received, including amendments thereto, or written representations from certain reporting persons regarding Form 5s required for those persons, Triarc believes that all its directors, executive officers and greater than 10% beneficial owners complied with all filing requirements applicable to them with respect to 2007, with four exceptions. During 2007 it was determined that the following were inadvertently filed late: (i) a Form 4 filed on May 23, 2007, reporting the disposition of shares by Roland Smith to Triarc to settle withholding on a tax obligation on restricted shares that vested on April 17, 2007; (ii) a Form 4 filed on May 9, 2007, reporting the exercise of stock options by Mr. Carey on May 4, 2007; (iii) a Form 4 filed on September 5, 2007, reporting the acquisition by Mr. Wasserman of shares of Triarc's common stock on August 29, 2007; and (iv) a Form 5 filed on February 15, 2008, reporting the gift of shares by Clive Chajet on April 2, 2007.

Corporate Governance Matters Activities of the Triarc Compensation Committee

Scope of Authority of the Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee of Triarc's board of directors (which is referred to as the Compensation Committee) discharges the responsibility of the board of directors on compensation matters relating to Triarc's directors and executive officers.

The Compensation Committee has responsibility for reviewing and approving the goals and objectives for compensating Triarc's Chief Executive Officer (Triarc's CEO) and for evaluating the performance of Triarc's CEO and determining and approving the compensation level of Triarc's CEO based on such evaluation. The Compensation Committee reviews and approves the overall compensation policy for Triarc's other executive officers, including the use of employment agreements, severance plans and arrangements, deferred compensation plans and other executive benefits and perquisites, incentive programs and equity based plans. The Compensation Committee also has the authority to review and approve the Compensation Discussion and Analysis (which is referred to as the CD&A) prepared by management and to determine whether to recommend to Triarc's Board that it be included in Triarc's annual report and proxy statement.

The Compensation Committee has a charter, a current copy of which is available to stockholders at Triarc's website (www.triarc.com).

The Compensation Committee also reviews and makes recommendations to Triarc's board of directors with respect to directors' compensation and perquisites.

The Compensation Committee as a whole consists of four directors (Messrs. Schwab (Chairman), Chajet, Levato and Wasserman), all of whom the Triarc board of directors has determined are independent for purposes of the New York Stock Exchange rules.

The Compensation Committee has a Performance Compensation Subcommittee (which is referred to as the Performance Committee) that was established in August 1997 to assume certain functions that were previously the responsibility of the Compensation Committee, and whose purpose is to administer those Company compensation plans that are intended to meet the requirements of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which is referred to as the Code). The members of the Performance Committee are Messrs. Schwab (Chairman), Chajet and Wasserman. Apart from matters within the responsibility of the Performance Committee, the Compensation Committee may not delegate its authority to any other persons.

The Compensation Committee and Performance Committee meet as needed. The meetings are chaired by the Chairman, and the Compensation Committee and Performance Committee, often in consultation with management, set their own meeting agendas. The Compensation Committee met 16 times in 2007 and the Performance Committee met nine times in 2007.

Each year, with respect to its administration and implementation of the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan, as discussed further in the CD&A below, the Performance Committee determines those employees that are eligible to receive awards under the plan, evaluates the achievement of the goals and objectives under such plan for the previously completed fiscal year and also establishes the financial goals and objectives for the current year. In addition, the Compensation Committee also has in the past considered recommendations from senior management as to participants for bonuses under the ARG incentive bonus plan and discretionary bonuses for certain other executives who have not been designated as eligible to receive awards under the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan or the ARG incentive bonus plan. This activity takes place in the first quarter of each year.

Throughout the year the Compensation Committee or Performance Committee (as the case may be) also takes under consideration various compensation related proposals from senior management and takes action with respect to its own initiatives and its responsibilities under various compensation and benefit plans. For example, in 2007, in connection with the restructuring of Triarc into a pure play restaurant company, the Compensation Committee (along with the Special Committee of the Board) reviewed the existing employment arrangements of Messrs. Peltz and May, Triarc's former CEO and President, respectively, and the alternatives available to Triarc in light of the advantages to Triarc of consolidating its corporate and headquarters operations with its Arby's operations in Atlanta. The Compensation Committee and Special Committee met together on several occasions regarding these matters and the Compensation Committee reviewed the payment obligations of Triarc under the then existing employment agreements with Messrs. Peltz and May and the proposed contractual settlement payments in connection with the termination by Triarc of these employment agreements and the resignation of Messrs. Peltz and May as executive officers of Triarc as of June 29, 2007. Subject to and consistent with the overall resolution of these matters by the Special Committee, the Compensation Committee recommended approval of the contractual settlements with Messrs. Peltz and May, and the Special Committee approved the settlements. In the same manner, the Compensation Committee also reviewed Triarc's payment obligations under the other compensation arrangements with senior officers of Triarc whose employment also was terminating as a result of the restructuring, including the employment agreement with Mr. Brian Schorr, formerly the Executive Vice President and General Counsel of Triarc, and the separation agreement with Mr. Frank McCarron, formerly the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Triarc, and approved separation arrangements with these former executives. (See the CD&A below for a description of the arrangements reached with Messrs. Peltz, May, Schorr and McCarron).

The Compensation Committee also makes recommendations to the Board with respect to director compensation, works with senior management to formulate succession plans, and annually reviews and reassesses the adequacy of its charter, proposing changes as necessary to the Board for approval.

In the course of its activities, and where appropriate for purposes under Section 162(m) of the Code, the Performance Committee may act with respect to other particular tasks relating to performance based compensation for Triarc's executives.

Compensation Consultants and Outside Counsel

To help it fulfill its mission, the Compensation Committee periodically evaluates the competitiveness of Triarc's executive compensation programs, using information drawn from a variety of sources, including information supplied by consultants and its own experience in recruiting and retaining executives. The Compensation Committee has the authority to retain outside advisors and consultants in connection with its activities, and has the sole authority to approve any such advisors' and consultants' fees. Funding for such fees is provided by Triarc at a level determined by the Compensation Committee.

In 2007 the Compensation Committee continued to use the services of independent compensation consultants retained by it (Johnson Associates, Inc.) as needed and continued to retain independent legal counsel. These outside service providers were considered to be independent by the Compensation Committee because the Compensation Committee was solely responsible for their hiring and firing and because in 2007 they performed no other work for Triarc.

In March, 2008, the Compensation Committee engaged Towers Perrin as its independent compensation consultant. Towers Perrin has over the years provided compensation advice with respect to Arby's and is familiar with both the operations of Arby's and compensation matters in the restaurant industry. Towers Perrin reports directly to the Compensation Committee and provides assistance to the Compensation Committee in developing Triarc's executive compensation programs and executive pay levels and generally provides advice to the Compensation Committee on executive compensation matters. Outside of the services performed for the Compensation Committee, Towers Perrin may perform additional consulting services for Triarc, subject to prior notification to, and the approval of, the Chairman of the Compensation Committee in the case of services for senior management or services with respect to Company matters that require any material expenditures (e.g., projects exceeding $50,000).

Role of Executives in Compensation Decisions

Triarc's executives play a variety of roles in assisting the Compensation Committee on compensation matters. At the commencement of the fiscal year, the CEO and Chief Financial Officer (Triarc's CFO) provide the Performance Committee with proposed performance goals and objectives for that year with respect to the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan and proposed participants eligible to receive performance goal bonus awards under the plan for that year and, following the completion of the year, provide the Performance Committee with proposed bonuses calculated under the plan's terms. Under the terms of the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan, the Performance Committee may exercise negative discretion and determine to reduce any such proposed bonuses, notwithstanding the fulfillment of any or all of the performance goals. Triarc's CFO provides the Performance Committee with a certificate attesting to the satisfaction of various financial performance elements under the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan with respect to the recently completed fiscal year and the proposed compensation attributable to such performance. The CEO also recommends participants in the ARG annual incentive bonus plan and the CFO provides the Compensation Committee with data with respect to achievement levels under the ARG bonus plan. Triarc's senior management also proposes discretionary performance bonuses for other executives who do not participate in the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan or the bonus plans maintained by ARG.

The Compensation Committee may also take under consideration proposed forms of employment, severance or other compensatory arrangements with Triarc's executives. Upon invitation of the Compensation Committee, certain members of senior management and outside counsel to Triarc attend portions of Compensation Committee and Performance Committee meetings which are not conducted in executive session. In 2007, prior to the corporate restructuring, these members included Triarc's former President, CFO, General Counsel, and Associate General Counsel. Following the corporate restructuring, the CEO and members of Triarc's senior management with expertise in compensation, benefit, human resource and legal matters make recommendations to the Compensation Committee relating to compensation matters and present information regarding Triarc's financial and operating goals and actual performance, legal developments affecting the Compensation Committee's duties and Triarc's compensation plans, and information and proposals regarding employee compensation and benefits.

During 2007, in connection with Triarc's corporate restructuring, Messrs. Peltz and May, the former CEO and President of Triarc, respectively, and their outside counsel, met with the Special Committee and Compensation Committee, and their respective outside counsel, regarding various matters relating to the contractual settlements of the employment agreements with Messrs. Peltz and May.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee consists of four non-management directors (Messrs. Schwab, Chajet, Levato and Wasserman). None of these directors has ever served as an officer or employee of Triarc, except that from 1993 to 1996 Mr. Levato served as an officer of Triarc. As indicated above under the caption Election of Directors Nominees For Election, Messrs. Peltz, May and Garden are principals and founding partners of Triarc Partners, and until June 29, 2007, they concurrently served as executive officers and directors of Triarc.

REPORT OF THE TRIARC COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed the following Compensation Discussion and Analysis with Triarc's management, and has recommended to the board of directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in Triarc's annual report on Form 10-K and this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

TRIARC COMPENSATION DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

OVERVIEW

The most recently completed fiscal year, 2007, was a year of restructuring for Triarc as it completed its transition into a pure play restaurant company, focused on the Arby's® restaurant system. Consistent with the implementation of this strategy, the Compensation Committee focused on two central objectives: first, administering, reviewing and developing the executive compensation arrangements for the senior executive team in Atlanta responsible for the future operations of Triarc; and second, addressing Triarc's obligations with respect to executive compensation arrangements for senior executives who would no longer be employed by Triarc as a result of the restructuring to a pure play restaurant company. Consequently, this discussion and analysis will first address steps taken with respect to executive compensation matters for those executives with Triarc whose employment continues as executives of both Triarc and ARG, and then address those steps taken with respect to executives of Triarc whose employment terminated as a result of the restructuring.

Objectives of ARG's Compensation Philosophy

Introduction

Since 2007 marked a transition year for Triarc, the compensation policies and objectives for senior executives comprising both ARG and Company management incorporate provisions from plans and policies historically maintained by Triarc, as well as elements of compensation taking into account the particular circumstances associated with the transition to a pure play restaurant company in 2007.

Historically, Triarc's total compensation package for ARG executive officers has consisted of the following elements: base salary, annual cash incentives, long term equity incentives and broad based retirement and health and welfare plans. Generally, ARG senior management's base salary compensation is targeted at the 50th percentile of peer group companies, and through the operation of an annual incentive plan, total annual cash compensation and total direct compensation targeted at the 75th percentile. With respect to annual incentive awards, senior ARG management has participated in an ARG level bonus incentive plan with a performance goal based on the achievement of Adjusted EBITDA, and in 2007 the CEO participated in the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan with a performance goal tied to Modified EBITDA under the plan. Long term equity incentive awards for 2007 and prior years have been awarded under Triarc's equity plans and for 2007 resulted in total direct compensation at approximately the 50th percentile for the CEO, and at lower levels for the other named executive officers. Consistent with its charter, the Compensation Committee will continue to evaluate compensation levels for future years.

In determining the appropriate compensation for each executive in fiscal 2008 and in future years, including Triarc's named executive officers, the Compensation Committee, in consultation with its new outside compensation consultant competitive market practice, relative importance of role, individual performance, compensation history (including pay levels prior to the restructuring), internal pay equity and alignment with shareholders' interests and the creation of long term shareholder value. To some extent, the Compensation Committee anticipates that fiscal 2008 will serve as a transition year, as executive compensation practices are reviewed in light of their alignment with the above objectives as well as the merger. At the same time, the Compensation Committee anticipates that compensation policies used in the past for former senior management, when Triarc historically functioned both in the manner of an acquisition vehicle/private equity firm involved in the acquisition and growth of undervalued businesses, and as a manager of companies in diverse business sectors, will be superseded in the future by policies that are consistent with Triarc operating solely in the restaurant industry.

(Towers Perrin), will consider a number of factors:

ARG Elements of Compensation

Throughout 2007, for its ARG executives, Triarc's overall compensation programs (which is referred to as the Executive Compensation Program) were designed to achieve Triarc's business objectives, with particular emphasis on attracting and retaining top quality talent in a highly competitive market and rewarding Triarc's senior executives for achieving operational and other performance targets. As a historical matter, Triarc provided its ARG executive officers with a total compensation package that at expected levels of performance and consistent with an executive's area of responsibility was generally intended to be competitive with compensation opportunities that might otherwise be available to executives of similar experience and standing in the competitive market.

Triarc has established three primary components of executive compensation to satisfy its compensation objectives: base salary; annual performance-based bonus awards, including cash bonuses under the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan, and a separate ARG bonus plan; and long-term equity compensation under Triarc's equity plans. ARG has historically targeted pay against the quick serve restaurant and broader chain restaurant industry using disclosed pay practices of 20 publicly-traded companies (Proxy Peer Group) and the Chain Restaurant Compensation Association (CRCA) executive compensation surveys. The CRCA survey includes pay data on 101 restaurant companies managing 185 concepts. The data from the Proxy Peer Group and the CRCA survey was supplemented by broader retail and general industry market pay data from Towers Perrin surveys where restaurant industry data were not available or were insufficient. The Proxy Peer Group is listed below. This peer group was established by Triarc pre-restructuring, and during 2008 the Compensation Committee anticipates reviewing the appropriate peer group with its compensation consultant. Triarc's policies with respect to these components are discussed below.

Proxy Peer Group

AFC Enterprises Inc.	CKE Restaurants Inc.	PF Chang's China Bistro Inc.
Brinker International Inc.	Darden Restaurants Inc.	Ruby Tuesday Inc.
Burger King Holdings Inc.	Denny's Corp.	Sonic Corp.
CBRL Group Inc.	Bob Evans Farms Inc.	Starbucks Corp.
CEC Entertainment Inc.	IHOP Corp.	Wendy's International, Inc.
The Cheesecake Factory Inc.	Jack In The Box Inc.	Yum! Brands Inc.
Chipotle Mexican Grill Inc.	McDonald's Corp.

Base Salary

Triarc's base salary program is intended to provide base salary levels that are not subject to performance related risk and that are competitive, in the judgment of management, to the external market for executive talent and reflect an executive's ongoing performance. Generally, base salaries are benchmarked on average at the 50th percentile of the Proxy Peer Group. Base salaries for Triarc's executives, including the named executive officers, for fiscal 2007 were established by Triarc prior to the restructuring and during fiscal 2008, base salaries for the senior management team generally remained constant, though in some cases certain minor upward adjustments have been made.

Annual Bonus Awards

Triarc maintains two plans for bonus awards to its senior executives. Annual incentive cash bonuses under the stockholder approved 1999 Executive Bonus Plan are designed to reward and motivate those senior executives designated by the Performance Committee to be participants over a one-year time frame based on the achievement of financial and business objectives that increase the value and prospects of Triarc. For fiscal year 2008, all of the currently-serving named executive officers participate in the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan. Alternatively, for those senior executives not participating in the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan, Triarc has historically maintained an ARG annual cash bonus plan and has benchmarked cash bonus compensation at the 75th percentile of peer companies. As indicated above, following the restructuring the Compensation Committee will continue to evaluate these past compensation levels and make any adjustments determined to be warranted under the circumstances.

1999 Executive Bonus Plan

Overview

Under one part of the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan (Part II), eligible executives are designated each year by the Performance Committee to receive an annual Performance Goal Bonus Award that is tied to the achievement of various Performance Goals (i.e., objective quantifiable measures for Triarc or its operating units). (No ARG executives were eligible for payments under another part of the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan (Part I) in fiscal 2007, which by its express terms only applied to two executives, the former CEO and the former President, and it is not anticipated that in future years any senior executives of Triarc will be designated as participants under Part I of the plan).

Under the terms of the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan, individual performance and individual contributions are not recognized as separate compensable elements, and participants are eligible for bonus compensation based only on Company results. Each year, the Performance Committee is responsible for establishing the Performance Goals in a timely manner and may exercise negative discretion with respect to the payment of all or a portion of any Performance Goal Bonus Award even if all Performance Goals have been achieved. No such negative discretion was exercised with respect to the bonus payable to Mr. Smith for fiscal 2007, but during the two preceding fiscal years (2006 and 2005) the Performance Committee has exercised negative discretion with respect to bonuses payable to all named executive officers eligible for such bonuses under Part II of the plan. Under the terms of the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan no payment under Part II of the 2002 Plan to any participant can exceed $5 million.

Performance Goal Bonus Awards may result in payment if actual results satisfy or exceed designated performance goals. The size of the payment is expressed as a percentage of the participants base salary as determined by the Performance Committee, with payments keyed to various percentages of base salary, depending on the level of achievement. In cases where the Performance Committee has denominated multiple performance goals, achievement of multiple goals could result in an incentive bonus payment in excess of 100% of an executive s base salary, subject to reduction by the Performance Committee.

At the time that the Performance Goals are established for any fiscal year the compensation that would be payable if the goals were to be achieved is intended to be qualified performance based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code, in that the goals that are selected are substantially uncertain of being achieved at the time they are established and there can be no guarantee that all or any one of the performance goals will be satisfied based on actual fiscal year results.

With respect to Part II payments under the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan, Triarc has in the past met minimum or target levels for certain performance goals. Fiscal 2007 was the first year in which the plan included the Modified EBITDA performance goal, which was applied to ARG operating unit results, and as discussed below, based on fiscal Year 2007 results the level of achievement for the ARG operating unit exceeded the minimum threshold for performance.

In connection with the administration of the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan, Triarc's CFO provides the Performance Committee with a certificate regarding the computation of the various components of the Part II bonus awards and Triarc's outside accountants confirm the amount of the bonus awards to the underlying financial statement detail.

Fiscal 2007 Awards

Performance Goals for 2007 included a Modified EBITDA goal for the ARG operating unit. In March 2007, the Performance Committee approved an amendment to the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan (as well as Triarc's 2002 Equity Participation Plan), which was approved by stockholders at the 2007 annual meeting, to provide for this additional performance goal based on the achievement of Modified EBITDA for Triarc as a whole or the operating units of Triarc. Under the amendment, Modified EBITDA is defined as consolidated net earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortization expenses, excluding interest income and other income not included in operating profit under generally accepted accounting principles, and further adjusted to exclude (i) the impact of financing costs associated with capital leases (as opposed to operating leases) entered into in connection with new stores opened under Arby's annual operating plan, (ii) acquisitions and dispositions, (iii) all items of gain, loss or expense determined to be extraordinary or unusual in nature or infrequent in occurrence, as determined in accordance with the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan; and (iv) all items of expense related to equity based compensation determined in accordance with the standards established by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 (R), and any amendment, modification or successor thereto. The selection of a modified EBITDA performance goal for Arby's was intended to encourage senior management to focus on profitability and operational efficiencies in connection with the consolidation of Arby's existing company owned stores with those acquired from RTM in 2005, as well as to provide added incentive to Arby's management to manage the ongoing expansion of Arby's stores in a profitable manner.

For fiscal 2007, Mr. Roland Smith was the only senior executive at ARG who was a participant under the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan. His performance award was conditioned on the achievement of a Modified EBITDA goal relating to the ARG operating unit, with a minimum achievement level of 89% resulting in a payout of 25% of base salary, a target level achievement of 100% resulting in a payout of 100% of base salary and a maximum achievement level of 130% or more resulting in a maximum payout of 175% of his base salary. As provided for under the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan because actual results for the ARG operating unit fell between the minimum and target achievement levels, the relevant payout percentage was interpolated to 54% of base salary. Based on fiscal 2007 results the Modified EBITDA goal for the ARG operating unit was achieved at a 90.5% level, resulting in a payout to Mr. Smith of 54% of his base salary ($540,000), which was approved by the Performance Committee.

Fiscal 2008 Awards

In February 2008, the Performance Committee designated six ARG executives (Messrs. Smith, Garrett, Hare and Okeson and Mesdames Barton and Barre) as participants for the 2008 plan year under the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan and, in March 2008, set the performance goal bonus targets for the 2008 plan year for each participant. In conjunction with its independent compensation consultant, and consistent with its efforts to develop performance goals under the bonus plan tailored to the business operations of ARG, the Performance Committee established three performance metrics for determining bonus payments under the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan: (i) Modified EBITDA for Triarc as a whole, which applies to the entire Company and takes into account Company wide expenses not associated with the prior year's Modified EBITDA target for the ARG operating unit; (ii) Earnings Per Share (EPS); and (iii) Stock Price Appreciation on Triarc's Class B common shares (SPA).

Under the terms of the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan, the Performance Committee also has the authority to adjust or modify the calculation of performance goals to take into account unusual corporate transactions or other unusual or nonrecurring events affecting Triarc. In light of the possible accounting impact in fiscal 2008 resulting from the disposition by Triarc of its interest in Deerfield and fees and expenses incurred in connection with ongoing strategic and financing matters initiated in prior years, the Performance Committee determined that the impact of such matters should be excluded from the determination of the achievement of performance goals for 2008. The intent of this adjustment is to ensure the management team's compensation is tied to Triarc's operations and results rather than to other events outside of their direct control.

As adopted by the Performance Committee, each executive is assigned to a category providing for a target payout as a percentage of base salary: 100% for the CEO, 90% for the COO and 75% for the other participants. Threshold, target and maximum achievement of each of the three designated performance goals is correlated with a percentage of executive's target payout percentage. In the case of the Modified EBITDA and EPS goals, the levels of achievement include threshold at 85% of target (resulting in a 25% payout), target (resulting in a 50% payout) and maximum achievement at 130% of target (resulting in a 100% payout). In the case of SPA, threshold achievement is 10% appreciation (resulting in a 25% payout), target (resulting in a 50% payout) and maximum achievement (resulting in a 100% payout).

Based on the target payout percentages designated for the participants, assuming target performance for all three metrics, the CEO would qualify for a bonus payment of 150% of his base salary ($1.5 million), the COO would qualify for a bonus payment of 135% of his base salary ($1.013 million), and the other participants would qualify for bonus payments of 112.5% of their base salaries (ranging from $377,000 to $731,000). Assuming maximum performance for all three metrics, the CEO would qualify for a bonus payment of 300% of his base salary, the COO would qualify for a bonus payment of 270% of his base salary, and the other participants would qualify for bonus payments of 225% of their base salaries. If actual performance falls between designated achievement levels the relevant payout percentage is interpolated. While all such bonus payments could be subject to negative discretion (and reduction) by the Performance Committee, the performance goal awards for fiscal 2008 have been designed so that, assuming target level achievement for all three metrics, the participant's total cash compensation (base salary and bonus) would be consistent with the 75th percentile of peer company practices.

ARG 2007 Bonus Incentive Plan

During fiscal 2007, certain of the named executive officers (Messrs. Hare, Garrett and Okeson, and Ms. Barton) were participants in the Arby's Restaurant Group, Inc. 2007 Bonus Incentive Plan. Under this plan, these executives were assigned a target percentage of 75% of their annual base salary (except for Mr. Garrett, who was assigned a target percentage of 90%), and could qualify for a multiple of that amount depending on the achievement of Adjusted EBITDA (i.e., 25% of the target percentage at minimum performance (89% achievement), 100% of the target percentage at target performance and 175% of the target percentage at maximum performance (120% or more achievement)). Adjusted EBITDA is defined in the plan as earnings for the fiscal year before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, as adjusted to exclude the impact of (i) rent expense variances attributable to changes in financing strategy, (ii) acquisitions and dispositions, and (iii) specific non-recurring and unusual items to the extent approved by the Compensation Committee. In addition, participating employees may have their bonus adjusted up or down a maximum of 20% based on their individual performance, which in the case of senior management is based on a recommendation from the CEO and final approval by the Compensation Committee.

With respect to fiscal year 2007 results, the Adjusted EBITDA goal was achieved at a 90.5% level resulting in a 54% payout of designated target bonuses. For Messrs. Garrett, Hare and Okeson, and Ms. Barton, their bonus payments under the ARG bonus plan were $364,500, $208,575, $187,718 and $263,250, respectively. (As discussed below, some executives also received discretionary bonuses for fiscal 2007.)

Fiscal 2007 Discretionary Bonuses

In light of the corporate restructuring that took place in fiscal 2007, and in recognition of the special demands placed on ARG senior management in connection with acquisition and financing activities, the Compensation Committee approved certain one time discretionary bonuses. In the view of the Compensation Committee the combined and incrementally significant performance demands associated with the ongoing possible acquisition of a leading restaurant chain by Triarc, the sale by Triarc of Deerfield to DFR, and the review and consideration by ARG of various financing opportunities, which were exacerbated by the significant disruptions in the financial markets in the latter part of 2007, warranted consideration of such an additional bonus. In the case of Messrs. Smith, Hare and Okeson, they received an additional $460,000, $177,675 and $159,908 respectively, which brought Mr. Smith to his 100% targeted bonus payout, and Messrs. Hare and Okeson to their 75% targeted bonus payouts. In the case of Mr. Garrett, he received an additional $141,750, which brought him to 75% of his projected 90% targeted bonus payout. The Compensation Committee views these as non-recurring bonus payments that were warranted by the overall facts and circumstances surrounding the restructuring and related events for fiscal 2007. Based on compensation data provided by the Committee's compensation consultant, total cash compensation paid to these executives as a group for 2007, including the discretionary 2007 bonus, generally approximated the 75th percentile for peer companies.

Long-term Incentive Compensation

The Compensation Committee uses long-term incentive compensation to deliver competitive compensation, retain executive talent and encourage a focus on long term growth and stock appreciation. These compensation objectives are also impacted by the nature of the business operations conducted by Triarc and the executive pool from which it recruits, and as a result of the restructuring that occurred in fiscal 2007, the Compensation Committee, assisted by its compensation consultant, is reviewing the long term incentive component of compensation for ARG executives. As a result, historical practices with respect to option and restricted stock grants to senior management of Triarc may not be indicative of future grants to members of the ARG senior executive team. The Compensation Committee currently anticipates, to the extent it decides to provide for equity grants in 2008, that they will be made following the 2008 annual meeting.

As indicated below in connection with Proposal 7 (Approval of an Amendment to Triarc's Amended and Restated 2002 Plan), there is a limited amount of equity currently available for issuance to senior management and other employees under the 2002 Plan. The Performance Committee supports Proposal 7 in recognition of the value of that equity awards play in attracting, retaining and motivating senior management and other employees, and aligning management with the creation of shareholder value. At the same time, even assuming that Proposal 7 is approved by Triarc's stockholders, the Performance Committee intends to continue to monitor annual grants (and the corresponding burn rate associated with grants as a percentage of shares outstanding) to ensure that equity awards are not excessive.

What follows is a description of the existing equity plans and developments under those plans with respect to Triarc's senior executive officers.

Triarc provides officers and key employees of Triarc and its principal business units with equity-based incentives linked to longer-term business unit and corporate performance through the 2002 Plan, which provides for the grant of options to purchase shares of Company stock and the award of restricted stock, restricted stock units and/or stock appreciation rights of Triarc. The Compensation Committee believes equity ownership among executives aligns management's interests with those of stockholders and provides long-term incentives for Triarc's officers. As part of its post-restructuring review of compensation practices with Towers Perrin, the Committee will be reviewing share ownership guidelines.

As to the timing of equity grants generally, newly hired executives are granted options or equity effective as of the later of their first date of employment and the date of approval of the annual grant by the Compensation Committee. In past years, with respect to Company senior executives, when there have been annual grants, they have generally been made either near the end of the fourth quarter or during the first quarter of the fiscal year. In the case of ARG executives, in past years option grants were made in the first or second quarter, but for fiscal 2008 and subsequent years, the Compensation Committee has not yet determined when and to what extent it will provide for annual equity grants.

In fiscal 2007, the Compensation Committee (and the Performance Committee in the case of performance based awards relating to Mr. Smith) authorized the grant of options and restricted shares to Mr. Smith, pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, and to Messrs Garrett, Hare and Okeson, and Ms. Barton (in the amounts reflected in Grants of Plan-Based Awards below). In the case of Mr. Smith, the value of the awards were slightly above median peer company practices. In the case of the other executives, the value of their equity awards ranged from the 4th to 42nd percentile. There has not been any determination made with respect to such grants to named executive officers in connection with 2008 performance, and the size of any future equity and/or option grants cannot now be determined.

In fiscal 2007, the Compensation Committee and the Performance Committee approved the terms of an amendment to an employment agreement with ARG's CEO, Mr. Smith, extending the performance vesting target date of Mr. Smith's outstanding restricted shares from January 31, 2007 to March 25, 2007. In 2006, ARG had entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Smith, in which Mr. Smith was to receive a grant of 100,000 restricted shares of Triarc Class B common stock, Series 1 (Class B common stock), 50% of which were to have performance vesting targets and 50% of which were to have time vesting targets. The employment agreement provides that such vesting targets were to be agreed upon by ARG's board of directors and Mr. Smith within 90 days following execution of the employment agreement. The employment agreement further provided that if the vesting targets were not set by that date, then Mr. Smith would instead receive options to acquire shares of Class B common stock having a Black-Scholes value equal to the market price of such number of restricted shares as of the commencement date of Mr. Smith's employment. Mr. Smith previously agreed to extend the date for setting such vesting targets first to August 31, 2006 and then to September 30, 2006, November 13, 2006 and January 31, 2007. The Compensation Committee and the Performance Committee approved the agreement between ARG and Mr. Smith to further extend the date for setting such targets to March 25, 2007.

In March 2007, on the recommendation of the then senior management of Triarc, the Performance Committee approved the terms of an amendment to Mr. Smith's employment agreement relating to an award of 100,000 shares of restricted stock. Under the terms of the original grant contemplated by the employment agreement, there would be a 50/50 allocation between time vesting and performance vesting shares. Given the circumstances surrounding the operations of Triarc in 2007, management recommended that the proposed award be reallocated so that 66,667 (as opposed to 50,000) restricted shares would vest over a three year period, from April 2007 to April 2009 and 33,333 restricted shares, in two tranches of 16,666 (Performance A Shares) and 16,667 shares (Performance B Shares), would vest based on the attainment of specified levels of Modified EBITDA (on an individual year basis, and with a cumulative catch-up feature based on the attainment of cumulative Modified EBITDA for the 2007 and 2008 fiscal years).

In March 2008, the Performance Committee determined that based on actual fiscal 2007 EBITDA, 50% of the Performance A shares had vested. At that time the Performance Committee also revised the Modified EBITDA target with respect to vesting of the Performance B Shares and eliminated the catch-up vesting feature.

Severance and Change in Control Benefits

Senior members of the ARG management team have existing provisions in their respective employment agreements that provide for certain severance payments upon a termination by Triarc without cause, termination by the executive as a result of a triggering event and, in the case of Mr. Smith, a termination by him within a designated period following a change of control.

Under these agreements, generally upon a termination of employment for any reason, including for cause by Triarc or as a result of the executive's death or disability, or a resignation by an officer without good reason, the officer will be entitled to receive base salary through his termination date, accrued vacation pay, any deferred compensation payable in accordance with the applicable plans, reimbursement of expenses incurred but not paid and any other benefits that the officer is eligible to receive under any of Triarc's plans or programs (collectively, these benefits are referred to as the accrued obligations). In the case of a termination due to the executive's disability, unvested stock options and restricted stock become vested based on the following formula: in the case of Mr. Smith, he is credited with service, for vesting purposes for his options, for the remainder of the initial term or two years (whichever is later) and he is automatically vested in 50% of his remaining unvested restricted shares; in the case of the other executives, they automatically vest in that number of options that would have been vested through the earlier of the third anniversary of their employment or expiration of their severance payment period.

Severance payments under these executive agreements arises if the executive is terminated by Triarc without cause or if the executive terminates employment as the result of a triggering event. For all named executive officers, a triggering event includes material reductions in responsibilities or a change in reporting lines, a reduction in base salary or target bonus opportunity, or relocation of their work situs outside of the Atlanta metropolitan area. In the case of Mr. Smith, the definition of triggering event includes the following additional features: non-renewal of his employment agreement after a change of control and his notice of termination during a thirty (30) day period commencing 270 days following a change of control (which termination would be effective no earlier than 90 days after such termination notice and no later than the earlier of 120 days after such termination notice or the last day of the employment term). Mr. Smith's employment agreement also provides that upon the occurrence of a change of control, all his unvested stock options and restricted shares will vest and that he will be paid a gross-up payment to reimburse him (on a fully grossed-up basis) for any excise taxes he may incur as a result of any excess parachute payments received in connection with a change of control.

For purposes of Mr. Smith's employment agreement, change of control includes the acquisition by any person of 50% or more of the combined voting power of Triarc (or its Arby's subsidiary), a majority of the board of directors of Triarc (or its Arby's subsidiary not being nominated by the Board of Triarc (or its Arby's subsidiary) or a majority of the board of directors of Triarc (or its Arby's subsidiary) not consisting of Messrs Peltz, May or individual's nominated or recommended by them. (The definition of change of control excludes certain transactions in which Messrs. Peltz, May or their affiliates continue to control or influence the management or policies of Arby's or any merger or sale of Triarc to entities controlled by Messrs. Peltz, May or their affiliates).

Triarc's severance payment obligations generally include the payment of either a lump sum (in the case of Mr. Smith) or payment in monthly installments in the case of the other executives (subject to offset for outside earnings after the first year of payments) of a multiple of base salary and pro rata bonus (and in some cases a guaranteed bonus), and continued payment by Triarc of its share of health and medical insurance coverage for eighteen (18) months following the executive's termination of employment (in the case of Mr. Smith) or, for the other executives, the greater of eighteen (18) months following the executive's termination of employment and the period during which the executive receives severance payments (but not to exceed two years from such termination). With respect to vesting of stock options and restricted stock, Mr. Smith would qualify for additional vesting through the greater of April 2009 or two years from the date of termination; the other executives would qualify for additional vesting through the end of the severance payment period. Severance payments are conditioned on the executive's execution and delivery of a general release in favor of Triarc.

As to the quantitative nature of these payments, assuming that the triggering event took place on the last business day of Triarc's 2007 fiscal year (and that the price per share of Triarc's stock was the closing price on that date), Triarc estimates (based on the additional assumptions discussed below) that Messrs. Smith, Hare, Garrett, and Okeson and Ms. Barton would be entitled to receive the following payments and benefits from Triarc:

Other Benefits and Perquisites

Consistent with Triarc's Executive Compensation Program, and to enable Triarc to attract and retain superior executives for key positions, Triarc's executives are provided with certain benefits and perquisites. For example, Triarc's executive officers are entitled to participate in the various benefits made available to Triarc's employees, such as Triarc's 401(k) plan (although highly compensated employees (for IRS purposes) had not been eligible to participate in the 401(k) plan during 2007, effective January 1, 2008 they will be eligible to participate in a safe harbor plan adopted by ARG), group health plans, vacation and sick leave, life insurance and short-term and long-term disability benefits, and all of the officers are covered by directors and officers liability insurance and indemnification agreements. Senior executive officers (as well as certain employees at various levels) are also provided with cellular phones, PDAs, and laptops that are intended primarily for business use.

Other Material Considerations

Impact of Accounting, Tax and Legal Considerations

With respect to taxes, Section 162(m) of the Code imposes a $1.0 million limit on the deduction that Triarc may claim in any tax year with respect to compensation paid to each of the named executive officers. Accordingly, the Performance Committee monitors which executive officers may qualify as named executive officers in order to maximize the amount of that compensation paid to these officers that will be deductible under Section 162(m).

Certain types of performance-based compensation are exempted from the $1.0 million limit. Performance-based compensation can include income from stock options, performance-based restricted stock, and certain formula driven compensation that meets the requirements of Section 162(m) (such as the provisions of the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan). The Performance Committee seeks to structure performance-based and equity compensation for the named executive officers in a manner that complies with Section 162(m) in order to provide for the deductibility of such compensation. At the same time, there may be circumstances in which the Compensation Committee and/or Performance Committee determines, in the exercise of its independent judgment that it is in the best interests of Triarc to provide for compensation that may not be deductible.

Another section of the Code, Section 409A, affects the manner by which deferred compensation opportunities are offered to Triarc's employees because Section 409A requires that nonqualified deferred compensation be structured in a manner that limits employees' abilities to accelerate or further defer certain kinds of deferred compensation. Triarc has undertaken the necessary steps to ensure that its existing deferred compensation plans are operated in accordance with Section 409A.

Compensation Elements of Restructuring

Contractual Settlements with Nelson Peltz and Peter May

In April 2007, as Triarc considered restructuring alternatives related to the sale by Triarc of its interest in Deerfield, the Compensation Committee and Special Committee undertook a further review of the options available to Triarc regarding the employment arrangements with Messrs. Peltz and May and the advantages to Triarc of ultimately consolidating its corporate and headquarters operations with its Arby's operations in Atlanta. The Compensation Committee and Special Committee met together on several occasions regarding these matters and the Compensation Committee reviewed the payment obligations of Triarc under the then existing employment agreements with Messrs. Peltz and May and the proposed contract settlement payments in connection with the termination by Triarc of these employment agreements and the resignations of Messrs. Peltz and May as executive officers of Triarc as of June 29, 2007. Their employment agreements would otherwise have expired on April 30, 2012 (had they not otherwise been extended). Triarc decided to enter into contractual settlements with Messrs. Peltz and May due to the desirability of ultimately consolidating Triarc's corporate operations and headquarters in Atlanta with its Arby's operations and relying upon the skills and experience of the senior executive team of Atlanta-based Arby's. After June, 29, 2007, Messrs. Peltz and May continued as directors of Triarc, with Mr. Peltz serving as non-executive Chairman and Mr. May serving as non-executive Vice Chairman.

The steps taken by Triarc in connection with the contractual settlements with Messrs. Peltz and May included the following:

A joint review by the Special Committee
and Compensation Committee (with the assistance of
the independent
compensation
consultant to
the Compensation Committee
and outside counsel to each of the Special Committee
and Compensation Committee) of
(i) the compensation
and other expenses that would be incurred in connection
with continued operations of the New York City
headquarters through the end of the then current term of the Peltz and May agreements (April, 2012, assuming no further extension) and (ii) the rights and obligations of Triarc and the executives under their existing employment agreements for the remainder of the then current term. Specifically, an independent compensation consultant (Johnson Associates, Inc.) projected that the contractual settlement of the obligations of Triarc under these employment agreements, in conjunction with the consolidation of Triarc's corporate and headquarters operations with its Arby's operations in Atlanta, would result in significant annual corporate savings and concluded that the contractual settlement represented a reasonable alternative, based on the economics, that was fair to Triarc.

Subject to and consistent with the overall resolution of these matters by the Special Committee, and following its review of the payment obligations of Triarc under the existing employment agreements and the proposed contract settlement payments, the Compensation Committee recommended approval of the contractual settlements with Messrs. Peltz and May, and the Special Committee approved the settlements. The contractual settlements provided for the termination of their employment agreements and their resignations as executive officers as of June 29, 2007, in return for payments of $50,213,753 and $25,106,877 to Messrs. Peltz and May, respectively, subject to applicable taxes and withholding. These payments were 25% less than the cash payments estimated to be owed to each of these executives under their employment agreements if their employment had been terminated as of June 29, 2007 by Triarc. Triarc agreed to fund these payment obligations, net of withholding taxes, in separate rabbi trusts for the benefit of Messrs. Peltz and May and the payment of amounts in the trusts (which reflected a reduction in value from the initial funding as a result of investment performance of the trust assets) was made to the executives after six months following their June 29, 2007 separation of employment from Triarc. At the time of the termination of their employment, and in connection with their contractual settlements, their outstanding unvested restricted stock in Triarc and their unvested Class B Units of Triarc Deerfield Holdings, LLC (TDH) and Jurl Holdings, LLC (Jurlique) vested in full.

In December 2007, the Special Committee approved the terms of an amendment to the separation agreements with Messrs. Peltz and May. Under the terms of the separation agreements entered into earlier that year, the full amounts that Triarc otherwise would have been required to deposit into rabbi trusts for Messrs. Peltz and May in June 2007 were reduced by amounts equal to the aggregate estimated withholding tax payments due at the time the funds were to be released to Messrs. Peltz and May in late December 2007. This accommodation provided Triarc with additional operating liquidity during the six month period between the date that Messrs. Peltz and May ceased serving as executive officers and the date that the funds were released from the rabbi trusts, but reduced the amount of funds that otherwise would have been in the rabbi trusts and invested for the benefit of Messrs. Peltz and May. The amendments provided for the payment to Messrs. Peltz and May of $1,096,752.06 and $548,376.03, respectively, which was intended to represent an interest component on the amounts that would have been included in the rabbi trusts but for the funding accommodation.

Restructuring Initiatives Other Senior Executives

Francis T. McCarron

During 2007, and in connection with the restructuring initiatives, the Compensation Committee and Mr. McCarron addressed certain matters relating to his existing separation agreement and entered into a new consulting agreement under which Mr. McCarron continued to provide services to Triarc through March 31, 2008.

Mr. McCarron resigned as an executive of Triarc immediately prior to end of fiscal year 2007 and terminated his services with Triarc effective January 1, 2008. Under the terms of Mr. McCarron's separation agreement dated April 28, 2006, Triarc will make severance and bonus payments to him in the aggregate amount of $7,976,000 in cash, plus interest, less applicable withholding taxes. Those payments will commence six months after the expiration of a three-month consulting agreement entered into between Mr. McCarron and Triarc, effective January 2, 2008, with such payments continuing through December 31, 2008. Consulting services provided by Mr. McCarron commencing January 1, 2008 and continuing through to March 31, 2008 included a range of financial and accounting matters with respect to which he had responsibility while CFO, with monthly consulting payments of $200,000. Under his separation agreement he is also entitled to the continuation of certain health and welfare benefits (as in effect at the time of his separation), and to related tax gross-up payments in connection with such benefits for a two year period. At the time of his termination of employment, all unvested equity awards previously granted to Mr. McCarron by Triarc and its subsidiaries vested immediately upon the termination of his employment, and all stock options or other stock-based awards previously granted to him will remain exercisable for specified periods of up to two years following the termination of his consulting agreement, in each case subject to compliance with his post-termination obligations under the severance agreement. Triarc's payment obligations to Mr. McCarron are subject to reduction by 12.5% and 6.25% (and Mr. McCarron has a corresponding repayment obligation to the extent that amounts may have been previously paid to him) if he accepts fulltime employment in 2008 or 2009, respectively, with Triarc Partners.

Brian L. Schorr

In fiscal 2007, in connection with the restructuring initiative, the Compensation Committee and Mr. Schorr addressed certain matters arising under the pre-existing employment agreement with Mr. Schorr, whose employment as Triarc's Executive Vice President and General Counsel terminated on June 30, 2007. Under the terms of his employment agreement, Triarc paid to Mr. Schorr a lump sum payment of $5,627,414.76, with additional payments to be made between January 1, 2008 and September 30, 2008 of $853,150.07; provided, however, that if a change of control of Triarc occurs during such period, this additional payment is to be accelerated and made on the date of such change of control. As a result of an agreement between the Compensation Committee and Mr. Schorr in connection with Triarc's corporate restructuring, the amounts payable to Mr. Schorr are approximately 12.5% less than the cash payments that would have been payable by Triarc under the pre-existing terms of Mr. Schorr's employment agreement. In addition, each outstanding stock option previously granted to Mr. Schorr will remain exercisable until the earlier of (i) one year following the termination of his services as a consultant to Triarc, whether under the management services agreement with Triarc Partners or otherwise (other than his termination for cause) or (ii) the earlier of the latest date upon which such stock option could have expired by its original terms under any circumstances or the tenth anniversary of the original date of grant and (iii) immediately upon termination of Mr. Schorr's services to Triarc as a consultant under the management services agreement or otherwise for cause.

Vesting of Restricted Stock/Deerfield and Jurlique Profit Sharing Interests

In connection with the restructuring initiative and the termination of employment as of June 30, 2007 of two officers of Triarc Messrs. Garden and Schorr and the termination of Mr. McCarron as of the fiscal year end, the Performance Committee approved the vesting on June 29, 2007 of the final one-third of the restricted stock awards made in March 2005 to them and other employees of Triarc. In the case of Messrs Schorr and McCarron they were entitled to accelerated vesting in connection with their termination of employment under their employment and/or separation agreements. Absent such acceleration, such shares may have been eligible for vesting on March 14, 2008 if certain performance targets were met or, if such performance targets were not met, on March 14, 2010 if an additional performance target was met. As a result of the foregoing, 39,762, 14,910 and 14,248 restricted shares of Class B common stock previously granted to Messrs. Edward Garden, Brian Schorr and Francis McCarron, respectively, vested on June 29, 2007.

In fiscal 2007, the Compensation Committee approved the vesting as of close of business on June 29, 2007 of the final one-third of the Class B Units of TDH and Jurlique, subsidiaries of Triarc, that were subscribed for by certain officers of Triarc in November 2005, conditioned, in each case, on the officer not having resigned or been terminated by Triarc for cause prior to June 29, 2007. Under the terms of applicable plan, such Class B Units would have vested upon the termination of employment of the holders or if later, the contemplated sale of Deerfield. As a result of the foregoing, Class B Units held by Messrs. Garden, Schorr and McCarron representing the following percentages of the net income and investment gain generated by TDH and Jurlique (subject to a return of Triarc's invested capital and a preferred return) vested on June 29, 2007: (A) TDH: Garden 1.55%; Schorr 0.45%; and McCarron 0.35%; and (B) Jurlique: Garden 0.75%; Schorr 0.45%; and McCarron 0.35%.

2007 Bonus Determinations

The Compensation Committee and/or Performance Committee made certain bonus determinations with respect to certain senior executives of Triarc whose services to Triarc terminated in 2007 or 2008 in connection with the restructuring, but who had either participated in the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan or otherwise made contributions during fiscal 2007 warranting a bonus consideration.

During 2007, the Performance Committee had designated Mr. Edward Garden, formerly Vice Chairman of Triarc, as a participant in Part II of the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan. He received performance goal awards relating to ten metrics and based on varying levels of achievement for six metrics (EBITDA margins for the ARG and Deerfield businesses, return on investment, net investment income, sale of Deerfield, and net realized capital gains), he was eligible to receive a bonus payment under the plan. The potential award was pro-rated to reflect Mr. Garden's service through June 30, 2007. In addition, the Performance Committee exercised negative discretion under the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan with respect to Mr. Garden's award, resulting in a payment to Mr. Garden of $1,338,000. In addition, with respect to senior management of Triarc who provided services with respect to legal, tax and accounting matters through 2007 the Compensation Committee approved aggregate bonuses of $1,190,000.

Introduction to Triarc Summary Compensation Table

The Summary Compensation Table sets forth salary, cash bonus awards, deferred compensation awards as well as awards granted under the 2002 Plan and the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan with respect to the fiscal year ended December 30, 2007 to (i) the two persons serving as Triarc's Chief Executive Officer (CEO) during the 2007 fiscal year: Nelson Peltz, CEO from January 2007 until June 2007, and Roland C. Smith, CEO since June 2007; (ii) the two persons serving as Triarc's Chief Financial Officer (CFO) during the 2007 fiscal year: Francis T. McCarron, CFO from January 2007 until September 2007, and Stephen E. Hare, CFO since September 2007; (iii) Triarc's three most highly compensated executive officers other than the CEO and CFO who were serving as executive officers at the end of the 2007 fiscal year: Thomas A. Garrett, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, Sharron L. Barton, Chief Administrative Officer of ARG, and Nils H.

Okeson, Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary; and (iv) two additional persons for whom disclosure would otherwise have been provided but for the fact that they were not serving as executive officers of Triarc at the end of the 2007 fiscal year: Peter W. May, President and Chief Operating Officer from January 2007 until June 2007, and Brian L. Schorr, Executive Vice President and General Counsel from January 2007 until June 2007 (collectively, the Named Officers). Additional information with respect to the compensation arrangements for Triarc s executive officers is set forth below under the caption Certain Employment Arrangements with Executive Officers.

* Messrs. Hare, Garrett and Okeson and Ms. Barton were not executive officers of Triarc in 2006, and therefore compensation information for them is provided only for the 2007 fiscal year.

(1) Represents the expense recorded by Triarc under FAS 123(R) in the year shown with respect to the award of restricted stock of Triarc made to such Named Officer and, with respect to Messrs. Peltz, May, McCarron and Schorr, the expense recorded by Triarc with respect to the Class B Units of Triarc Deerfield Holdings LLC and Jurl Holdings LLC subscribed for by them in 2005, rather than an amount paid to or realized by the Named Officer. See

statements set forth in the 2007 Form 10-K for the assumptions made in determining FAS 123(R) values.

- (3) Includes with respect to each Named Officer amounts for dividends (and interest thereon) with respect to the restricted stock awards referred to in note (1) above, and automobile and other transportation services and group term life insurance. Also includes with respect to Messrs. Peltz and May incremental costs to Triarc associated with unreimbursed personal use of Company aircraft, based on actual expenses invoiced to Triarc by its outside vendors and suppliers. For Company airplanes, those costs are flight specific and include aircraft fuel and oil, landing fees, ground transportation for passengers to and from airports, crew expenses during layovers (including lodging and meals), rental cars for the crew and on-board catering costs. Other costs related to Company airplanes, such as pilot and aviation employee salaries, hangar costs, depreciation, maintenance, the costs of deadhead flights (empty pick-up or return flights) and insurance on the aircraft are not included. For a helicopter in which Triarc has a fractional interest, the aggregate incremental costs are the costs of each flight as charged to Triarc by the helicopter operator.

- (4) Includes $15,378 for dividends (and interest thereon) with respect to the restricted stock award referred to in note (1)
above.

- (5) Mr. Smith began his employment in April 2006 at an annual base salary of $1,000,000.
- (6) Includes (i) $156,982 for relocation expenses and (ii) automobile and other transportation services and group term life insurance.
- (7) Includes (i) $45,165,589 for amounts distributed pursuant to the contractual settlement with Mr. Peltz and $24,271,781 from prior deferred compensation arrangements (see Compensation Discussion and Analysis Contractual Settlements with Nelson Peltz and Peter May above, Certain Employment Arrangements with Executive Officers Separation Agreements with Messrs. Peltz and May below and Certain Relationships and Related Transactions and Director Independence below), (ii) $370,869 for security measures, (iii) $58,064 for unreimbursed personal use of corporate aircraft, (iv) $27,690 for dividends (and interest thereon) with respect to the restricted stock award referred to in note (1) above, and (v) $26,667 for financial advisory services.

- (8) The reported amount includes a cash payment made by Triarc to the Named Officer in lieu of contributions that would have been made by Triarc to the Named Officer's account in Triarc's 401(k) plan had such Named Officer been eligible to participate in such plan in the year shown.
- (9) Triarc Partners paid the following Named Officers or reimbursed Triarc for the following portions of the reported non-equity incentive plan compensation:
Mr. McCarron $126,000; and Mr. Schorr $612,000. The reported non-equity incentive plan compensation paid to the Named Officers by Triarc was paid pursuant to the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan. The Performance Committee, in exercising its negative discretion with respect to, and in determining the total amount of, the Performance Goal Bonus Awards to be paid to Messrs. Peltz, McCarron, May and Schorr, took into account, among other things, the amount of each such Named Officer's time spent on matters relating to Trian Partners and, in the case of Messrs. McCarron and Schorr, the agreement by Trian Partners to either pay the Named Officer directly or reimburse Triarc for an allocated portion of the approved compensation awards (see Compensation Discussion and Analysis above and Certain Relationships and Related Transactions and Director Independence below).

- (10) Includes $6,252,408 for amounts paid or payable in conjunction with Mr. McCarron's separation agreement (see Compensation Discussion and Analysis Restructuring Initiatives Other Senior Executives Francis T. McCarron above and Certain Employment Arrangements with Executive Officers Separation Agreement with Francis T. McCarron below).
- (11) Includes (i) $22,585,685 for amounts distributed pursuant to the contractual settlement with Mr. May and $12,135,304 from prior deferred compensation arrangements (see Compensation Discussion and Analysis Contractual Settlements with Nelson Peltz and Peter May above, Certain Employment Arrangements with Executive Officers Separation Agreements with Messrs. Peltz and May below and Certain Relationships and Related Transactions and Director Independence below), (ii) $12,224 for unreimbursed personal use of corporate aircraft, (iii) $76,579 for automobile and other transportation services, (iv) $27,721 for security measures, and (v) $26,667 for financial advisory services.

- (12) Includes an aggregate of $6,223,165 for amounts paid or payable in conjunction with Mr. Schorr's separation agreement, consisting of $5,627,415 paid in December 2007 and $595,750 of an additional $853,150 payable by September 2008 (the remaining $257,400 of which has been treated as a bonus payment for 2007) (see Compensation Discussion and Analysis Restructuring

The following table provides information concerning the annual performance bonus and long term incentive awards made to each of Triarc's Named Officers in 2007, other than Messrs. Peltz, May, McCarron and Schorr, to whom no payments were made with respect to any awards granted in 2007 as a result of the termination of their employment and related contractual settlements. There can be no assurance that the Grant Date Fair Value of a stock option award will ever be realized.

(1) Under the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan, Mr. Smith was eligible for a Performance Goal Bonus Award for fiscal 2007, which entitled him to a bonus payment conditioned on the achievement of a Modified EBITDA goal relating to the operations of ARG for fiscal 2007, with a minimum achievement level of 89% resulting in a payout of 25% of base salary, a target level achievement of 100% resulting in a payout of 100% of base salary and a maximum achievement level of 130% or more resulting in a maximum payout of 175% of his base salary. Under the terms of the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan, the maximum annual payment that can be made with respect to a Performance Goal Bonus

Award for any plan year is $5.0 million per participant. The Performance Committee also has negative discretion to reduce any payments associated with a Performance Goal Bonus Award. Because actual results for the ARG operating unit fell between the minimum and target achievement levels in fiscal 2007, the relevant payout percentage was interpolated to 54% of base salary. Based on such results the Modified EBITDA goal for ARG was achieved at a 90.5% level, resulting in a payout to Mr. Smith of 54% of his base salary ($540,000). In light of Triarc's corporate restructuring and in recognition of the special demands placed on ARG senior management in fiscal 2007, Mr. Smith also received an additional discretionary bonus of $460,000, which brought him to his 100% targeted payout. For more information regarding the 2007 performance targets and discretionary bonuses, see the Compensation Discussion and Analysis above.

- (2) Based on the closing price of the Class B common stock on June 5, 2007, which was the date of approval by Triarc's stockholders of Amendment No. 2 to the 2002 Plan. The grant of these shares was conditioned upon such approval.
- (3) Under the 2007 Arby's

Restaurant Group, Inc. 2007 Bonus Incentive Plan (the ARG 2007 Bonus Plan), Messrs. Hare, Garrett and Okeson and Ms. Barton were eligible for an incentive bonus for fiscal 2007, which entitled them to a bonus payment conditioned on the achievement of an Adjusted EBITDA goal relating to the operations of ARG for fiscal 2007, with a minimum achievement level of 89% resulting in a payout of 25% of target bonus, a target level achievement of 100% resulting in a payout of 100% of target bonus and a maximum achievement level of 130% or more resulting in a maximum payout of 175% of target bonus. Under the terms of the ARG 2007 Bonus Plan, each executive's target bonus is calculated as a percentage of base salary, with Messrs. Hare and Okeson and Ms. Barton each having a target bonus of 75% of base salary and Mr. Garrett having a target bonus of 90% of base salary. Triarc also has discretion to adjust the incentive bonus for such executives (up or down) by a maximum of 20% based on individual performance. With respect to fiscal 2007 results, the Adjusted EBITDA goal was achieved at a 90.5% level resulting in a 54% payout of designated target bonuses. For Messrs. Garrett, Hare and Okeson, and Ms. Barton, their bonus payments under the ARG 2007 Bonus Plan were $364,500, $208,575, $187,718 and $263,250, respectively. In light of Triarc's corporate restructuring and in recognition of the special demands placed on ARG senior management in fiscal 2007, some of these executives also received additional discretionary bonuses for fiscal 2007. In the case of Messrs Hare and Okeson, they received an additional $177,675 and $159,908 respectively, which brought them to their 75% targeted bonus payouts. In the case of Mr. Garrett, he received an additional $141,750, which brought him to 75% of his 90% targeted bonus payout. For more information regarding the 2007 performance targets and discretionary bonuses, see the Compensation Discussion and Analysis above.

The following table provides information concerning the unexercised stock options and unvested restricted stock awards as of the end of fiscal 2007 for each of Triarc's Named Officers, other than Messrs. Peltz and May for whom no such equity awards were outstanding.

- (1) All such options
have vested.

- (2) Each package option entitles the holder to receive one share of Class A common stock and two shares of Class B common stock upon exercise of the option.
- (3) On March 26, 2007, Triarc granted a total of 100,000 restricted shares of Triarc Class B common stock to Mr. Smith pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement. Such restricted shares have both time vesting targets (66,667 shares) and performance vesting targets (33,333 shares). During 2007, 33,333 of the time-vesting shares vested on the first anniversary of the date of commencement of Mr. Smith's employment. During 2008, (i) an additional 16,667 of the time-vesting shares vested on the second anniversary of the date of commencement of his employment, (ii) 8,333 of the performance-vesting shares vested upon the Performance Committee's determination that certain performance targets had been met, and (iii) 8,333 unvested performance-vesting shares were forfeited as a result of elimination of a catch-up vesting feature in the 2007 grant.

- (4) On May 23, 2007, Triarc granted certain officers and key employees, other than Triarc's current CEO, Mr. Smith, a total of 159,300 restricted shares of Class B common stock under the 2002 Plan. The 2007 Restricted Shares vest ratably over three years, subject to continued employment through each of the anniversary dates. The price of Triarc Class B common stock on the May 23, 2007 grant date was $15.84 and the resulting grant-date fair value is being recognized as compensation expense ratably over the vesting periods net of an anticipated amount of forfeitures. No 2007 Restricted Shares were forfeited or vested during 2007.

The following table provides information concerning the vesting during 2007 of restricted stock awards previously made to each of Triarc's Named Officers. None of Triarc's Named Officers exercised any stock options during 2007.

Compensation of Triarc Directors

Each non-management director of Triarc receives an annual retainer (payable quarterly) of $30,000 for serving on the Board. In addition, each non-management director of Triarc receives $1,500 for each meeting of the Board or of a committee (or subcommittee) of the Board that such director attends. Under the 2002 Plan, each non-management director may elect to have all or a portion of the annual retainer and these meeting attendance fees paid in shares of Class A common stock and/or Class B common stock rather than in cash.

In addition, pursuant to the 2002 Plan, each director of Triarc who is not also an employee of Triarc or any subsidiary receives options to purchase an aggregate of 15,000 shares of Class A common stock and 30,000 shares of Class B common stock on the date of such director's initial election or appointment to the board of directors. On the date of each subsequent annual meeting of stockholders of Triarc at which a director is reelected, such director receives options to purchase 4,000 shares of Class A common stock and 8,000 shares of Class B common stock.

The chart below summarizes the compensation paid to Triarc's non-employee directors for their services as directors during fiscal 2007. (Although the employment of Messrs. Peltz, May and Garden with Triarc ended on June 29, 2007, they were not compensated as non-employee directors in 2007.)

- (3) Represents the expense recorded by Triarc in 2007 with respect to 1,761 shares of Class A common stock issued, in the aggregate, to Mr. Schwab in lieu of his annual retainer, rather than an amount paid to or realized by Mr. Schwab.
- (4) Represents the expense recorded by Triarc in 2007 with respect to 1,502 shares of Class A common stock and 1,553 shares of Class B common stock issued, in the aggregate, to Mr. Umphenour in lieu of meeting attendance fees and his annual retainer, rather than an amount paid to or realized by Mr.

Umphenour.

Certain Employment Arrangements with Executive Officers

Triarc has entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Smith, Hare, Garrett and Okeson, and Ms. Barton that include the terms described below. Additional information regarding the severance benefits provided under the employment agreements may be found under Compensation Discussion and Analysis Severance and Change in Control Benefits above.

Roland Smith. Mr. Smith, Triarc's Chief Executive Officer, is a party to an employment agreement with Triarc entered into effective as of April 17, 2006. The agreement provides for a three year term unless otherwise terminated as provided therein. Following the initial three year term, the agreement may be extended for additional one year periods if Mr. Smith gives Triarc notice at least one year prior to expiration of the employment term of his desire to extend his employment, and Triarc returns notice of acceptance of such extension. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Smith's current annual base salary is $1,000,000 per year. In addition, Mr. Smith is eligible to receive annual bonuses from time to time as appropriate, subject to achievement of certain performance objectives mutually agreed to annually by Mr. Smith and Triarc, and to participate in the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan. Mr. Smith is also entitled to participate in savings, retirement and welfare plans and programs offered by Triarc to senior executives from time to time. Mr. Smith received an initial grant of options for 220,000 shares of Triarc Class B common stock, subject to a ten year term and vesting one-third per year on the day before each of the three consecutive anniversary dates from the date of his employment. Mr. Smith also received an initial grant of 100,000 restricted shares of Triarc Class B common stock, one-third of which are subject to performance vesting targets and two-thirds of which are subject to time vesting targets.

Messrs. Hare, Garrett and Okeson and Ms. Barton. Employment agreements with Messrs. Hare, and Okeson were effective as of June 6, 2006 and October 17, 2005, respectively. Employment Agreements with Mr. Garrett and Ms. Barton were effective as of consummation of Triarc's acquisition of RTM Restaurant Group on July 25, 2005. Each agreement provides for a three year term unless otherwise terminated as provided therein. Following the initial three year term, the agreement may be extended for additional one year periods if the party thereto gives Triarc notice at least one year prior to expiration of the employment term of his or her desire to extend his or her employment, and Triarc returns notice of acceptance of such extension. Pursuant to the agreement, Messrs. Hare, Garrett and Okeson and Ms. Barton's current annual base salary is $515,000, $750,000, $463,500 and $650,000, respectively, per year. In addition, each executive is eligible to receive annual bonuses from time to time as appropriate, subject to achievement of certain performance objectives mutually agreed to annually by the executive and Triarc, and to participate in the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan, provided that Mr. Garrett and Ms. Barton are guaranteed a minimum annual bonus of $250,000 and $150,000, respectively. Also, pursuant to Mr. Hare's agreement, he received an initial grant of options for 75,000 shares of Triarc Class B common stock that vest one-third per year on the day before each of the three consecutive anniversary dates from the date of his employment. Each executive is also entitled to participate in savings, retirement and welfare plans and programs offered by Triarc to senior executives from time to time.

Post-Termination Payments and Benefits

Mr. Smith's Agreement

Termination for Cause; Termination at End of Employment Period; Termination Due to Disability. If Mr. Smith is terminated for cause (as such term is defined in the agreement), or if Mr. Smith's employment is terminated at the end of the employment period, he will receive only the salary that is accrued through the date of termination. No special severance benefits would be payable. In the event employment is terminated due to disability (as such term is defined in the agreement), all unvested stock options then owned by Mr. Smith or that would have vested during the period up to two years after such termination due to disability will, subject to certain limitations, vest immediately, and each vested stock option will remain exercisable until the earlier of one year following termination or the award's stated expiration date, or be forfeited. In addition, fifty percent of Mr. Smith's unvested shares of restricted stock will vest upon termination of his employment due to disability, and the remainder of such shares will be forfeited.

Termination without Cause; Following a Triggering Event or Change of Control. In the event his employment is terminated by Triarc without cause (as such term is defined in the agreement) or by Mr. Smith following a triggering event (as such term is defined in the agreement), the agreement provides that Mr. Smith will be entitled to receive a lump sum severance payment in an amount equal to one and a half times Mr. Smith's then current base salary. Mr. Smith shall also be entitled to receive a pro rata bonus for the year in which the termination occurs, payable at such time as the bonus would otherwise have been payable. All unvested stock options then owned by Mr. Smith or that would have vested during the period up to two years after his termination will, subject to certain limitations, vest immediately, and all of such awards granted on or after April 17, 2006 will remain exercisable until the earlier of one year following termination or the award's stated expiration date. Pursuant to the employment agreement, fifty percent of Mr. Smith's unvested shares of restricted stock will vest upon termination of his employment without cause or upon a triggering event, and the remainder of such shares will be forfeited. Mr. Smith may also elect to continue coverage under all health and medical insurance policies maintained by Triarc for a period of eighteen months following his termination.

In the event of a change of control (other than the acquisition by any means by Mr. Peltz, Mr. May and/or any person affiliated with such persons), Mr. Smith may terminate his employment for any reason during the 30-day period immediately following the 270-day anniversary of the change in control and receive the severance benefits provided by the employment agreement as if he had been terminated without cause. Mr. Smith would also be entitled to such severance benefits described above upon the non-renewal of his employment at the expiration of the employment term that follows a change of control.

Under the agreement, in the event that any benefit paid to Mr. Smith becomes subject to excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Code, Triarc will indemnify Mr. Smith so that after payment of such excise taxes, Mr. Smith will be in the same after-tax position as if no excise tax had been imposed.

Restrictive Covenants. Mr. Smith's employment agreement contains confidentiality, noncompetition and employee nonsolicitation covenants that apply during his employment with Triarc and for 24 months after his termination of employment.

Agreements with Messrs. Hare, Garrett and Okeson and Ms. Barton

Termination for Cause; Termination at End of Employment Period; Termination Due to Disability. The provisions of each of Messrs. Hare, Garrett and Okeson and Ms. Barton's employment agreements relating to termination for cause or disability or at the end of the employment term are the same as the provisions in Mr. Smith's employment agreement described above with the exception that, upon termination due to disability, none of Messrs. Hare, Garrett and Okeson or Ms. Barton would become vested in any unvested restricted shares. (Their separate restricted stock award agreements do, however, provide for acceleration of vesting upon termination due to permanent disability.)

Termination without Cause; Following a Triggering Event. In the event an executive's employment is terminated by Triarc without cause (as such term is defined in the agreement) or by the executive following a triggering event (as such term is defined in the agreement), the agreement provides that the executive will be entitled to receive, commencing upon termination, continuation of his or her base salary rate for a period of two years, which, during the second year following the termination, may be reduced by an amount equal to any compensation earned by the executive through consulting or subsequent employment. In addition, the executive will be entitled to receive a pro rata bonus for the year in which the termination occurs. The agreement also provides that in the event that employment is terminated without cause by Triarc or by the executive upon a triggering event, the executive will become vested in all unvested stock options that would have vested assuming the executive remained employed with Triarc through the third anniversary of the effective date of the employment agreement, subject to certain limitations, and all of such awards granted on or after the effective date of the executive's employment agreement will remain exercisable until the earlier of one year following termination or the award's stated expiration date. (Their separate restricted stock award agreements govern acceleration of vesting of restricted stock in such events.) The executive may also elect to continue coverage under all health and medical insurance policies maintained by Triarc for a period ending at the earlier of the cessation of post-termination salary payments or eighteen months following his or her termination.

Restrictive Covenants. Each executive's employment agreement contains confidentiality, noncompetition and employee nonsolicitation covenants that apply during his employment with Triarc and for 24 months after his termination of employment.

Separation Agreements with Messrs. Peltz and May

In connection with the corporate restructuring, on April 30, 2007, Triarc entered into separation agreements with Mr. Peltz, the former Chief Executive Officer, and Mr. May, the former President and Chief Operating Officer, evidencing the termination of their employment agreements and providing for their resignation as executive officers as of June 29, 2007. Under the terms of the separation agreements, Mr. Peltz agreed to Triarc's payment obligation consisting of cash and investments with a fair value of $50,289,000 as of July 1, 2007 and Mr. May agreed to a payment obligation consisting of cash and investments with a fair value of $25,144,000 as of July 1, 2007, both subject to applicable withholding taxes, collectively referred to herein as the Contractual Settlements. The amounts payable to Messrs. Peltz and May under the separation agreements were 25% less than the cash payments that would have been payable to each of them under their respective employment agreements had their employment been terminated by Triarc.

Triarc funded the payment obligations to Messrs. Peltz and May by the transfer of cash and investments to deferred compensation trusts held by Triarc. Severance payments in the amount of the fair values of the trusts at their distribution on December 30, 2007 were $47,429,000 for Mr. Peltz and $23,705,000 for Mr. May. As Triarc did not fund the applicable withholding taxes on the Contractual Settlements until December 30, 2007 in an accommodation that provided Triarc with additional operating liquidity through the end of 2007, on December 30, 2007 Messrs. Peltz and May were paid an additional $1,097,000 and $548,000 (net of applicable withholding taxes), respectively, representing an interest component on the amount that would have been included in the trusts but for the funding accommodation. In addition, upon termination of their employment, Messrs. Peltz and May were paid the amounts held in their deferred bonus accounts under the Deferral Plan.

Treatment of Restricted Shares and Stock Options. At the time of the termination of the employment of Messrs. Peltz and May, and in connection with their separation agreements, Messrs. Peltz and May's outstanding unvested restricted shares of Class A common stock and Class B common stock of Triarc and their unvested Class B Units of TDH and Jurlique vested in full.

Restrictive Covenants. Messrs. Peltz and May are each subject to confidentiality, noncompetition and employee nonsolicitation covenants that apply through June 29, 2008.

Right of Participation. Subject to certain conditions, Messrs. Peltz and May have agreed that, before Triarc Partners and its affiliates acquire more than 50% of the outstanding securities of a company in the quick service restaurant segment in which Triarc operates, Triarc Partners and its affiliates will offer Triarc the opportunity to participate in such acquisition.

Separation Agreement with Brian L. Schorr

In connection with the corporate restructuring, on August 10, 2007, Triarc entered into a separation agreement with Mr. Schorr, its former Executive Vice President and General Counsel, with respect to the cessation of Mr. Schorr's services as an officer of Triarc and the termination of his employment by Triarc. Pursuant to the agreement, in December 2007 Triarc paid Mr. Schorr a lump sum of $5,627,415 (less applicable withholding taxes). In addition, between January 1, 2008 and September 30, 2008, Triarc must pay to Mr. Schorr an additional lump sum payment of $853,150 (less applicable withholding taxes); provided, however, that if a change of control of Triarc occurs during such period, this additional payment is to be made on the date of such change of control.

Treatment of Restricted Shares and Stock Options. Each outstanding stock option previously granted to Mr. Schorr will remain exercisable until the earlier of (i) one year following the termination of his services to Triarc as a consultant (whether under the terms of the Services Agreement dated April 30, 2007, between Triarc and Triarc Partners or otherwise) for reasons other than cause, (ii) the earlier of the latest date upon which such stock option could have expired by its original terms under any circumstances or the tenth anniversary of the original date of grant and (iii) immediately upon termination of Mr. Schorr's services to Triarc as a consultant for cause.

Restrictive Covenants. Certain provisions of Mr. Schorr's former employment agreement survive the termination of such agreement, including the confidentiality restrictions, the indemnification rights of Mr. Schorr and the provisions relating to certain gross-up payments that are to be made to Mr. Schorr if any of the payments made pursuant to the agreement are subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code.

Separation Agreement with Francis T. McCarron

In connection with the corporate restructuring, on December 13, 2007, Triarc entered into a separation agreement with Mr. McCarron, its former Executive Vice President and former Chief Financial Officer, with respect to the cessation of Mr. McCarron's services as an officer of Triarc and the termination of his employment by Triarc. Triarc will make severance and bonus payments to Mr. McCarron in the aggregate amount of $7,976,000 in cash, plus interest, less applicable withholding taxes. Those payments will commence six months after the expiration of a short-term consulting agreement effective January 2, 2008 (pursuant to which Mr. McCarron provided consultation and advice in connection with the preparation of Triarc's 2007 Annual Report on Form 10-K and the completion of the transition of Triarc's corporate headquarters functions to Atlanta and related matters), and are to be completed by the end of calendar year 2008. Triarc's cash payment obligations to Mr. McCarron are subject to reduction by 12.5% and 6.25%, and Mr. McCarron has a corresponding repayment obligation, in the event that he accepts fulltime employment in 2008 or 2009, respectively, with Triarc Partners.

Treatment of Restricted Shares and Stock Options. All unvested equity awards previously granted to Mr. McCarron by Triarc and its subsidiaries vested upon the termination of his employment, and all stock options or other stock-based awards previously granted to him will remain exercisable until the earlier of two years following the termination of his consulting agreement, their stated expiration date, or ten years from the date of the grant, in each case subject to compliance with his post-termination obligations under the separation agreement. Mr. McCarron and his dependents will also be entitled to the continuation of certain health and welfare benefits (as in effect at the time of his separation), and to related tax gross-up payments in connection with such benefits.

Restrictive Covenants. Mr. McCarron's separation agreement contains confidentiality, noncompetition and employee nonsolicitation covenants that apply through January 1, 2009.

Triarc 1999 Executive Bonus Plan

Triarc's 1999 Executive Bonus Plan is designed to provide incentive compensation for designated executive officers and key employees of Triarc and its subsidiaries that is directly related to the financial performance of Triarc. The plan was approved by Triarc's stockholders on September 23, 1999, the Performance Goal Bonus Awards portion of the plan was re-approved by Triarc's stockholders on June 9, 2004 and an amendment to the Performance Goal Bonus Awards portion of the plan was approved by Triarc's stockholders on June 1, 2005. An additional amendment to the plan was approved by Triarc's stockholders on June 5, 2007. The 1999 Executive Bonus Plan, which became effective as of May 3, 1999, provides for two types of bonuses to be awarded to designated participants: under Part I there are Formula Bonus Awards and under Part II there are Performance Goal Bonus Awards. Formula Bonus Awards are based solely on Triarc's financial performance using certain predetermined earnings and capitalization related criteria outlined in the plan. Messrs. Peltz and May were, however, the only persons eligible for Formula Bonus Awards, and since they are no longer employed by Triarc no executives or other employees are currently eligible to receive Formula Bonus Awards. Performance Goal Bonus Awards are based on Triarc (or operating units of Triarc) achieving certain specific levels of performance with reference to one or more objective criteria outlined in the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan. Performance bonus award targets are established annually by the Performance Committee, based on specific categories of criteria set forth in the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan. Such criteria include the successful completion of acquisitions, dispositions, recapitalizations, financings and refinancings, return on Triarc's investment portfolio and other market and operating performance measures, including, among other things, earnings per share, market share, margins, productivity improvement, stock price and EBITDA. The Performance Committee establishes the performance goals as to each participant for each plan year and, if more than one performance goal is established, the weighting of the performance goals. Each of Messrs. Smith, Garrett, Hare and Okeson and Ms. Barton, and Barre has been designated by the Performance Committee as being eligible to receive Performance Goal Bonus Awards for plan year 2008. Performance Goal Bonus Awards may not exceed $5,000,000 to any single participant for any plan year. The Performance Committee may, in its sole and absolute discretion, adjust or modify the calculation of the performance goals in certain circumstances. In addition, the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan provides that the Performance Committee may reduce or eliminate a Performance Goal Bonus Award even if certain performance goals have been achieved if the Performance Committee, in its sole discretion, determines to do so. The Performance Committee may also amend, suspend, or terminate the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan or any portion thereof at any time; provided that no such amendment or alteration shall be made that would impair the rights of any participant without the participant's consent. Payments of awards under the 1999 Executive Bonus Plan are intended to be exempt from the tax deduction limitation of Section 162(m) of the Code, which generally limits deductions for compensation paid to senior executive officers to $1,000,000 per year.

Discretionary Bonuses

From time to time, the Compensation Committee of the Board may award discretionary or special bonuses or deferred compensation based on performance to certain executive officers. The amounts of such bonuses or deferred compensation will be based on the Compensation Committee's evaluation of each such individual's contribution.

Deferral Plan For Senior Executive Officers of Triarc Companies, Inc.

The Deferral Plan for Senior Executive Officers of Triarc Companies, Inc. (the Deferral Plan) was approved by the Compensation Committee effective December 14, 2000. Pursuant to the Deferral Plan, Triarc establishes one or more bookkeeping accounts to reflect bonuses awarded to participants the payment of which has been deferred. These accounts are adjusted from time to time for earnings and investment gains and losses. Deferred bonus accounts for each participant are deemed invested in certain approved investments selected by the participant or an investment manager chosen by Triarc and reasonably acceptable to the participant. Triarc may replicate any deferred bonus account in a trust, in which event the value of the deferred bonus account on the books of Triarc will be equal to the value of the actual approved investments related to such account in the trust. A participant may receive the value of a deferred bonus account, in cash or approved investments, or any combination thereof, from Triarc upon the earliest of: (i) the first business day in January of the fourth calendar year following the calendar year in which the related bonus was awarded to the participant; (ii) no later than five business days following the participant's separation from service (as defined in the Deferral Plan); and (iii) such time as the payment would be deductible by Triarc for Federal income tax purposes without regard to the limitation of Section 162(m) of the Code. On or before the June 30 preceding the payment date specified in clause (i) above, a participant may elect to defer such date for up to three additional whole years. A participant may make such an election more than one time. Although a participant is at all times fully vested in his or her deferred bonus accounts, participants have the status of general unsecured creditors of Triarc with respect to Triarc's obligation to make payment to them under the Deferral Plan and any assets contained in a trust formed under the Deferral Plan are subject to claims by creditors of Triarc. Messrs. Peltz and May were the only participants in the Deferral Plan during 2007, and upon termination of their employment they were paid the amounts held in their deferred bonus accounts under the plan and withdrew from the plan. As a result, there are currently no participants in the Deferral Plan.

Triarc Equity Participation Plan Information

In connection with the dividend of the Class B common stock that was declared in August 2003 (the Stock Dividend), each stock option outstanding under Triarc's equity participation plans as of August 21, 2003 was adjusted so as to become exercisable for a package (the Package Options) consisting of one share of Class A common stock and two shares of Class B common stock. All stock options that were granted subsequent to August 21, 2003, other than options to acquire shares of Class A common stock (Class A Options) issued to non-employee directors as described in Compensation of Directors above, are exercisable each for one share of Class B common stock (the Class B Options).

The following table gives information about Triarc's equity participation plans as of December 30, 2007.

they held to purchase shares of RTM (the Replacement Options). These Replacement Options have a weighted average exercise price of $8.47.

Triarc s Amended and Restated 1997 Equity Participation Plan

The Triarc Companies, Inc. 1997 Equity Participation Plan was approved by the Executive Committee of Triarc s board of directors on December 11, 1997 and was amended and restated in May 2005. The 1997 Plan provided for the granting of stock options to purchase shares of Class A common stock. Participants in the 1997 Plan were limited to selected key employees and consultants of Triarc, its subsidiaries and affiliates who are important to the success and growth of Triarc, its subsidiaries and affiliates, but who were not directors, executive officers or officers of Triarc. A maximum of 500,000 shares of Class A common stock were authorized to be issued under the 1997 Plan. The term during which options could be granted under the 1997 Plan expired on December 11, 2002. As a result of the Stock Dividend, all outstanding options under the 1997 Plan at August 21, 2003 were adjusted so as to be exercisable for one share of Class A common stock and two shares of Class B common stock (i.e. Package Options). As of April 21, 2008, Package Options to acquire a total of 9,600 shares of Class A common stock and 19,200 shares of Class B common stock, were outstanding under the 1997 Plan. The 1997 Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee.

Triarc s Amended and Restated 1998 Equity Participation Plan

The Triarc Companies, Inc. 1998 Equity Participation Plan was approved by Triarc s board of directors on March 10, 1998, was approved by Triarc s stockholders on May 6, 1998 and was amended and restated in May 2005. The 1998 Plan replaced a 1993 Equity Participation Plan pursuant to which awards could no longer be granted after April 24, 1998. The 1998 Plan provided for the granting of stock options, stock appreciation rights (SARs), and restricted stock to officers and key employees of, and consultants to, Triarc and its subsidiaries and affiliates. The 1998 Plan provided for automatic awards of options to non-employee directors of Triarc and permitted non-employee directors to elect to receive shares of Class A common stock in lieu of all or a portion of the annual retainer fees and/or board of directors or committee meeting attendance fees (Fees) that would otherwise be payable to them in cash. A maximum of 5,000,000 aggregate shares of Class A common stock (subject to certain adjustments) were authorized to be delivered on the exercise of options or SARs or upon a director's election to receive Fees in Triarc shares pursuant to the 1998 Plan. The term during which awards could be granted under the 1998 Plan expired on April 30, 2003. As a result of the Stock Dividend, all outstanding options under the 1998 Plan at August 21, 2003 were adjusted so as to be exercisable for one share of Class A common stock and two shares of Class B common stock (i.e., Package Options). As of April 21, 2008, Package Options to acquire a total of 195,443 shares of Class A common stock and 390,886 shares of Class B common stock were outstanding under the 1998 Plan. The 1998 Plan is administered by the Performance Committee.

Triarc's Amended and Restated 2002 Equity Participation Plan

The Triarc Companies, Inc. 2002 Equity Participation Plan was approved by Triarc's board of directors on April 25, 2002, was approved by Triarc's stockholders on June 4, 2002, was amended and restated in May 2005 and an amendment was approved by Triarc's stockholders on June 7, 2006. A second amendment was approved by Triarc's stockholders on June 5, 2007. The 2002 Plan provides for the granting of stock options, SARs, restricted stock and restricted share units to officers, key employees of, and consultants to, Triarc and its subsidiaries and affiliates. The 2002 Plan also provides for automatic awards of options to non-employee directors of Triarc and permits non-employee directors to elect to receive all or a portion of their Fees, in shares of Class A common stock. Subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments, a maximum of 2,000,000 aggregate shares of Class A common stock and 13,000,000 aggregate shares of Class B common stock may be granted as restricted shares or restricted share units or to be delivered on the exercise of options or SARs or upon a director's election to receive Fees in Triarc shares pursuant to the 2002 Plan. In addition, the maximum number of shares of Class A common stock and Class B common stock that may be granted as restricted shares, options or SARs to any individual in a calendar year is 1,000,000 shares and 2,000,000 shares, respectively. The 2002 Plan replaced the 1997 Equity Participation Plan, the term during which options may be granted thereunder expired on December 11, 2002, and the 1998 Equity Participation Plan, the term during which options may be granted thereunder expired on April 30, 2003. As a result of the Stock Dividend, all outstanding options under the 2002 Plan at August 21, 2003 were adjusted so as to be exercisable for one share of Class A common stock and two shares of Class B common stock (i.e., Package Options). As of April 21, 2008, (i) Package Options to acquire a total of 20,000 shares of Class A common stock and 40,000 shares of Class B common stock, (ii) options to acquire 200,564 shares of Class A common stock, (iii) options to acquire 4,295,302 shares of Class B common stock; and (iv) 205,201 restricted shares of Class B common stock were outstanding under the 2002 Plan. The 2002 Plan is administered by the Performance Committee. The term during which awards may be granted under the 2002 Plan will expire on June 4, 2012. Triarc is proposing an amendment to the 2002 Plan that would increase the number of shares reserved for issuance under the plan by an additional 7,400,000 shares of Class B common stock, prohibit the repricing of outstanding awards without prior stockholder approval and eliminate the ability of Triarc to grant reload option awards or stock options or SARs with exercise prices below fair market value.

TRIARC AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT*

In accordance with its written charter, the Audit Committee assists Triarc's board of directors in oversight of the accounting, auditing, and financial reporting practices of Triarc. The Audit Committee consists of four independent members (as independence is defined by the rules of the

- * This Audit Committee Report does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any Company filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent Triarc specifically incorporates this Audit Committee Report by reference into such other filing.

New York Stock Exchange). Triarc's management is responsible for the financial reporting process and for preparing Triarc's financial statements and Triarc's outside auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of such financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and for issuing a report thereon. The members of the Audit Committee are not professionally engaged in the practice of accounting or auditing. The Audit Committee relies, without independent verification, on the information provided to it and on the representations made by management and the independent registered public accounting firm that the financial statements have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In performing its oversight function, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements of Triarc as of and for the fiscal year ended December 30, 2007 with management and Deloitte & Touche LLP, Triarc's independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee also discussed with Deloitte & Touche all matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended, and, with and without management present, discussed and reviewed the results of Deloitte & Touche's examination of Triarc's financial statements.

Pursuant to Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, management is required to prepare a report as to its assessment of the effectiveness of Triarc's internal control over financial reporting as of December 30, 2007 and Deloitte & Touche is to prepare an attestation report with respect to the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. During the course of fiscal 2007, management completed the documentation, testing and evaluation of Triarc's internal control over financial reporting of Triarc and its subsidiaries. The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with management its report regarding its assessment of the effectiveness of Triarc's internal control over financial reporting as of December 30, 2007, and reviewed and discussed with Deloitte & Touche its report as to the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. Management's report and Deloitte's report are each included in Triarc's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 30, 2007.

The Audit Committee received from Deloitte & Touche a written statement regarding all relationships between Deloitte & Touche and Triarc that might bear on Deloitte & Touche's independence consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as amended. The Audit Committee discussed with Deloitte & Touche any relationships that may have an impact on their objectivity and independence and satisfied itself as to Deloitte & Touche's independence. The Audit Committee also considered whether the provision of services by Deloitte & Touche to Triarc not related to the audit of the financial statements referred to above and to the reviews of the interim financial statements included in Triarc's Forms 10-Q is compatible with maintaining Deloitte & Touche's independence.

Based on the above-mentioned review and discussions with management and Deloitte & Touche and subject to the limitations on the role of the Audit Committee and the Audit Committee's responsibility described above and in the Audit Committee's written charter, the Audit Committee recommended to the board of directors that Triarc's audited consolidated financial statements be included in Triarc's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 30, 2007.

The Audit Committee:

Joseph A. Levato (Chairman)

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PERSON TRANSACTIONS OF TRIARC

Review and Approval of Related Person Transactions

In accordance with the terms of its charter, Triarc's Audit Committee has the responsibility for the review and approval or ratification of all related party and conflict of interest transactions involving any director, executive officer, nominee for director, any holder of 5% or more of any class of Triarc's common stock or any non-executive officer (or any member of the immediate family of any of the foregoing persons), if such related party or conflict of interest transaction involves more than $10,000, in each case using appropriate specialists and counsel as necessary. Triarc's legal department is primarily responsible for obtaining information from the applicable related person with respect to a proposed related person transaction and then determining, based on the facts and circumstances, whether Triarc or a related person has a direct or indirect material interest in the transaction. To the extent required by the terms of the Audit Committee charter, the legal department then presents information relating to such transaction for the review and approval of the Audit Committee. In the course of its review and approval or ratification of a proposed related person transaction, the Audit Committee may consider: (i) the nature of the related person's interest in the transaction; (ii) the material terms of the transaction, including, without limitation, the amount involved and type of transaction; (iii) the importance of the transaction to the related person; (iv) the importance of the transaction to Triarc; (v) whether the transaction would impair the judgment of a director, executive officer or non-executive officer, as applicable, to act in the best interests of Triarc; (vi) if applicable, whether such transaction would compromise a director's status as an independent director under the Independence Guidelines or the New York Stock Exchange Listing Standards; and (vii) any other matters that the Audit Committee deems appropriate. To the extent that a proposed related person transaction involves any member of the Audit Committee (or an immediate family member), such director would not participate in the deliberations or vote respecting the approval or ratification of the proposed transaction.

Certain Related Person Transactions

Prior to 2005, Triarc provided aggregate incentive compensation of $22,500,000 to Messrs. Peltz and May that was invested in two deferred compensation trusts (the Deferred Compensation Trusts) for their benefit. This obligation was settled effective July 1, 2007 as a result of their resignations as employees of Triarc. As of the settlement date, the aggregate obligation was $38,195,000, which represented the then fair value of the assets held in the Deferred Compensation Trusts. The assets in the Deferred Compensation Trusts were either distributed to them or used to satisfy withholding taxes. In addition, they paid $801,000 to Triarc during 2007, which represented the balance of withholding taxes payable on their behalf. In October 2007, a lawsuit related to an investment that had been held in the Deferred Compensation Trusts was settled. The terms of the Contractual Settlements between Triarc and Messrs. Peltz and May included provisions pursuant to which they would be responsible for any settlement amounts under this lawsuit. As a result, they were responsible for the approximate $1,500,000 settlement cost. Triarc received the reimbursements from Messrs. Peltz and May, net of the tax withheld during 2007 and an adjustment of the settlement amount, in the first quarter of 2008.

Pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Sachs, a former director and executive officer of Triarc, was entitled when traveling for business purposes to be reimbursed by Deerfield for up to $4,000 for each actual hour of flying time on an aircraft owned or leased by Mr. Sachs or an entity controlled by him (the Aircraft) or, if the Aircraft was not available, up to $4,000 for documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Mr. Sachs for each hour of actual flying time on a substitute aircraft, plus, in the case of either the Aircraft or a substitute aircraft, the reasonable cost of any food consumed on board and any overnight meals and lodging for aircraft crew members. In 2007, Deerfield reimbursed Mr. Sachs for $170,000 of such expenses.

Immediately prior to the sale of Deerfield to DFR (the Deerfield Sale), Triarc and Mr. Sachs entered into an agreement whereby Mr. Sachs agreed to resign as an officer and director of Deerfield upon the completion of the Deerfield Sale (the Deerfield Severance Agreement). In exchange, Triarc agreed to a severance package of approximately $2,600,000. That severance package is, however, a continuing liability of Deerfield and it will not be paid by Triarc. In addition, Mr. Sachs and his affiliates waived their right to require Triarc to purchase their capital interests in Deerfield but maintained their existing member rights, including their right to participate in the Deerfield Sale transaction.

In connection with the Deerfield Sale, Triarc sold the 63.6% capital interest in Deerfield that it owned as of December 31, 2006 to DFR. The remaining Deerfield capital interests at December 31, 2006 that were owned directly or indirectly by executives of Deerfield, including Mr. Sachs, were also sold to DFR in connection with the Deerfield Sale. All related rights that Triarc had to acquire the capital interests of Deerfield owned by two of Deerfield's executives, including Mr. Sachs, were cancelled at that time. In addition, the rights of those two executives to require Triarc to acquire their economic interests were also cancelled in connection with the Deerfield Sale.

Triarc was being reimbursed by Messrs. Peltz and May for incremental operating expenses related to certain personal usage of corporate aircraft through the date of the Contractual Settlements. Such reimbursements in 2007 for flights taken in 2006 and 2007 through July 1, 2007 amounted to $1,179,000.

In connection with the restructuring of Triarc into a pure play restaurant company (the Corporate Restructuring), Triarc entered into a series of agreements with Messrs. Peltz and May and Trian Partners., which is a management company for various investment funds and accounts that was formed by Messrs. Peltz, May and Garden. These agreements are described in the paragraphs set forth below.

On November 1, 2005, Messrs. Peltz, May and Garden started a series of equity investment funds (the Equity Funds) that are separate and distinct from Triarc and that are being managed by Messrs. Peltz, May and Garden and certain other former senior executives of Triarc (the Management Company Employees) through Trian Partners. Until June 29, 2007, the Management Company Employees still employed by Triarc continued to receive their regular compensation from Triarc and Triarc made their services available, as well as certain support services including investment research, legal, accounting and administrative services, to Trian Partners. Through June 29, 2007 (see below) Triarc was reimbursed by Trian Partners for the allocable cost of these services, including an allocable portion of salaries, rent and various overhead costs for periods both before and after the launch of the Equity Funds. Such allocated costs for 2007 through June 29, 2007 amounted to $2,515,000. As discussed further below, effective June 29, 2007 the Management Company Employees became employees of Trian Partners and are no longer employed by Triarc. Subsequent to June 29, 2007, Triarc continued to provide, and was reimbursed for, some minimal support services to Trian Partners. In addition, in July 2007, Triarc paid $171,000 to Trian Partners representing the obligation assumed by Trian Partners for accrued vacation of the Management Company Employees still employed by Triarc as of June 29, 2007.

In connection with the Corporate Restructuring, Triarc entered into a two-year transition services agreement (the Services Agreement) with Trian Partners beginning June 30, 2007 pursuant to which Trian Partners provides Triarc with a range of professional and strategic services. Under the Services Agreement, Triarc is paying Trian Partners $3,000,000 per quarter for the first year of services and $1,750,000 per quarter for the second year of services. Triarc incurred $6,000,000 of such service fees for 2007. In addition, effective as of December 28, 2007, Triarc and Trian Partners entered into an amendment to the Services Agreement providing for the payment to Trian Partners of additional fees of $2,750,000, for which the services were rendered during 2007, which will be payable during 2008.

In December 2005, Triarc invested $75,000,000 in an account (the Equities Account) which is managed by Trian Partners and generally co-invests on a parallel basis with the Equity Funds and had a carrying value of $99,320,000 as of December 30, 2007. Through June 29, 2007, Trian Partners had agreed not to charge Triarc any management fees with respect to the Equities Account. In April 2007, in connection with the Corporate Restructuring, Triarc entered into an agreement under which Trian Partners will continue to manage the Equities Account until at least December 31, 2010, Triarc will not withdraw its investment from the Equities Account prior to December 31, 2010 and, beginning January 1, 2008, Triarc will pay management and incentive fees to Trian Partners in an amount customary for unaffiliated third party investors with similarly sized investments.

In July 2007, as part of the Corporate Restructuring, Triarc sold substantially all of the properties and other assets it owned and used at its former New York headquarters to Trian Partners for an aggregate purchase price of $1,808,000, including $140,000 of sales taxes. The assets sold included computers and other electronic equipment and furniture and furnishings. Triarc recognized a loss of $835,000, with respect to the assets sold, principally reflecting assets for which the fair value was less than book value.

In July 2007, Triarc entered into an agreement under which Trian Partners is subleasing (the Sublease) one of the floors of Triarc s former New York headquarters effective July 1, 2007. Under the terms of the Sublease, Trian Partners is paying Triarc approximately $113,000 per month which includes an amount equal to the rent Triarc pays plus a fixed amount reflecting a portion of the increase in the fair market value of Triarc s leasehold interest as well as amounts for property taxes and the other costs related to the use of the floor. Either Trian Partners or Triarc may terminate the Sublease upon sixty days notice. Triarc recognized $680,000 from Trian Partners under the Sublease for 2007.

As of June 30, 2007, Triarc assigned the lease for a corporate facility to Trian Partners such that after that date, other than with respect to Triarc s security deposit applicable to the lease, Triarc has no further rights or obligations with respect to the lease. The security deposit of $113,000 will remain the property of Triarc and, upon the expiration of the lease on July 31, 2010, is to be returned to Triarc in full.

In August 2007, Triarc entered into time share agreements whereby Messrs. Peltz, May and Garden and Trian Partners may use Triarc s corporate aircraft in exchange for payment of certain incremental flight and related costs of such aircraft. Such reimbursements for the period from July 2, 2007 through December 30, 2007 amounted to $1,095,000. As of December 30, 2007, Triarc was owed $408,000 and $197,000 by Messrs. Peltz, May and Garden and Trian Partners, respectively, which amounts were received in 2008. Other costs, such as pilot and aviation employee salaries, hangar costs, depreciation, maintenance, the costs of deadhead flights (empty pick-up or return flights) and insurance on the aircraft are not included in such reimbursement obligations.

Triarc has granted Trian Partners the right, at its option, to assume Triarc s 25% fractional interest in a helicopter (the Helicopter Interest) on October 1, 2008. If Trian Partners assumes the Helicopter Interest, it will pay Triarc a lump sum amount equal to what Triarc would have received under the relevant agreement if Triarc exercised its right to sell its Helicopter Interest on October 1, 2008, which is equal to the then fair value, less a remarketing fee. Trian Partners has been paying the monthly management fee and all other costs related to the Helicopter Interest to the operator of the helicopter since July 1, 2007 on behalf of Triarc and will continue to pay such expenses through October 1, 2008. Should Trian Partners determine not to exercise its assumption option on October 1, 2008, Triarc will exercise the option available to it on the same date to terminate the Helicopter Interest and will receive the then fair value payment from the operator, less a remarketing fee. In either case, subsequent to October 1, 2008, Triarc will have no further rights or obligations under the agreements applicable to the Helicopter Interest. At December 30, 2007, the estimated value of the Helicopter Interest was approximately $1,800,000.

All of the foregoing agreements with Messrs. Peltz and May and Trian Partners were negotiated and approved by the Special Committee of the board of directors. The Special Committee was advised by independent outside counsel and consulted with the Compensation Committee and the Performance Committee of Triarc s board of directors and its independent outside counsel and independent compensation consultant.

During 2007 Triarc paid the sellers of RTM $1,600,000 to settle a post-closing purchase price adjustment provided for in the agreement and plan of merger pursuant to which Triarc acquired RTM. The sellers of RTM included Mr. Garrett and Ms. Barton, current executive officers of Triarc, and Mr. Umphenour, a current director of Triarc.

In 2007 Triarc made a charitable contribution of $575,000 to The Arby's Foundation, Inc., a not-for-profit charitable foundation in which Triarc has non-controlling representation on the board of directors.

PROPOSAL 7.
APPROVAL OF AN AMENDMENT TO THE TRIARC AMENDED AND RESTATED 2002 EQUITY PARTICIPATION PLAN

(Item 7 on Triarc Proxy Card)

The Triarc Amended and Restated 2002 Equity Participation Plan (the "2002 Plan") is designed to promote the interests of Triarc and its stockholders by providing to selected officers, directors and key employees of Triarc an opportunity to receive ownership interests in Triarc's capital stock. The 2002 Plan allows for the use of awards in the form of stock options, restricted stock and other forms of equity to deliver competitive compensation that recognizes recipients for their contribution to Triarc's success, serves to retain and attract key personnel and aligns executive officers with shareholders in focusing on long-term growth and stock performance.

At the time of its adoption in 2002, the 2002 Plan provided for a maximum aggregate number of shares equal to 15,000,000 (consisting of 5,000,000 shares of Triarc Class A common stock and 10,000,000 of Class B common stock). Currently, the 2002 Plan has 397,321 shares of Triarc Class A common stock remaining available for grant and 866,524 shares of Triarc Class B common stock remaining available for grant (collectively, the "Current Reserve"). As of May 29, 2008, 2008, Triarc had outstanding combined Triarc Class A and Triarc Class B common stock totaling 92,806,428 shares.

Triarc believes that the Current Reserve does not provide for adequate capacity for ongoing use of the 2002 Plan for compensation purposes for a number of reasons. The Performance Committee views long term incentive awards as a key part of Triarc's executive compensation program, and historical equity grants to ARG executives have been made to a broad group of employees and not limited to senior executives. The Current Reserve is less than the aggregate equity grants made to ARG executives for Fiscal 2007 without the proposed increase in the shares available for grant, there would not be enough shares available to allow for equity grants equal in size to those made to ARG management in 2007. In order to provide for additional capacity, the Compensation Committee and the Performance Committee are proposing that the Current Reserve be increased by an additional 7,400,000 shares of Class B common stock. (In the event that the proposals relating to the adoption of the amendment to Triarc's certificate of incorporation in connection with the merger are approved, such additional shares will consist of Wendy's/Arby's common stock and will be available for employees of both Wendy's and ARG).

Triarc, through its Compensation Committee and its Performance Committee, has committed that the average annual burn rate for grants of options or stock awards under the 2002 Plan to employees or non-employee directors for the period covered by the 2008, 2009 and 2010 fiscal years, will not exceed the mean (average) plus one standard deviation of the industry threshold (which is 3.33% for 2008) of the number of shares of common stock that will be outstanding over such three-year period (upon consummation of the merger such outstanding shares will include the shares issued in connection with the merger as well as previously outstanding shares of Triarc common stock). The annual burn rate will be calculated by dividing (i) the number of shares granted to employees and non-employee directors in each fiscal year by the Performance Committee and reported in Triarc's (or Wendy's/Arby's, as applicable) periodic reports filed with the SEC, including options, stock awards and performance share awards actually earned and delivered in shares of Triarc's common stock or deferred, by (ii) the fiscal year-end weighted average basic shares outstanding. For purposes of calculating the number of shares granted in a year, stock awards will count as equivalent to 2.0 option shares. The burn rate calculation may be impacted by different volatility assumptions.

The Performance Committee has also approved amendments to the 2002 Plan which prohibit the repricing of outstanding awards without prior shareholder approval and eliminate the ability of Triarc to grant reload option awards or to issue stock options or SARs with an exercise price below the stock's fair market value.

In furtherance of these objectives, the board of directors, upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee and the Performance Committee, has adopted the 2002 Plan Amendment to the 2002 Plan (the "2002 Plan Amendment"), subject to approval by the stockholders at the Triarc annual meeting. A copy of the 2002 Plan Amendment is attached as Annex H to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Set forth below is a further description of the material provisions of the 2002 Plan and the 2002 Plan Amendment.

General

The 2002 Plan Amendment was approved by the board of directors on April 22, 2008 and if approved by the stockholders will become effective as of , 2008. The 2002 Plan provides for the granting of stock options, SARs, shares of restricted stock and restricted stock units to officers, key employees of, and consultants to, Triarc and its subsidiaries and affiliates. The 2002 Plan provides for automatic awards of options to nonemployee directors of Triarc and permits non-employee directors to elect to receive all or a portion of their annual retainer fees and/or board of directors or committee meeting attendance fees, if any ("Fees"), in shares of Class A common stock and/or Class B common stock, as described below. The 2002 Plan replaced the 1997 Equity Participation Plan, the term during which options may be granted thereunder expired on December 11, 2002, and the 1998 Plan, the term during which options may be granted thereunder expired on April 30, 2003. The term during which options may be granted under the 2002 Plan expires on June 4, 2012.

Summary of the Triarc 2002 Equity Participation Plan

The following description of the 2002 Plan is merely a summary of certain provisions thereof and is qualified in its entirety by the text of the 2002 Plan, which was filed as Exhibit A to Triarc's 2002 Proxy Statement, the text of Amendment No. 1 to the 2002 Plan, which was filed as Annex A to Triarc's 2006 Proxy Statement and the text of Amendment No. 2 to the 2002 Plan, which was filed as Annex A to Triarc's 2007 Proxy Statement, and should be read in conjunction with the following summary. Stockholders may request a copy of the 2002 Plan, as amended, by contacting Triarc at: Triarc Companies, Inc., 1155 Perimeter Center West, Atlanta, Georgia 30338, Attention: Corporate Secretary, (678) 514-4100.

Purpose. The purpose of the 2002 Plan is to promote the interests of Triarc and its stockholders by (i) securing for Triarc and its stockholders the benefits of the additional incentive inherent in the ownership of the capital stock of Triarc by directors and selected officers, key employees of, and consultants to, Triarc and its subsidiaries and affiliates, including the individuals named in the Summary Compensation Table, who are important to the success and growth of the business of Triarc and its subsidiaries and (ii) assisting Triarc to secure and retain the services of such persons. The 2002 Plan provides for granting such persons (a) options for the purchase of shares of Class A common stock and/or Class B common stock, (b) tandem SARs, (c) restricted shares of Class A common stock and/or Class B common stock that are both restricted as to transferability and subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture ("Restricted Shares") and (d) restricted stock units each of which is a hypothetical investment equivalent to one share of capital stock ("Restricted Share Units"). The 2002 Plan also provides for automatic grants of options to non-employee directors and for non-employee directors to elect to have their Fees paid in shares. All of Triarc's employees and eight non-employee directors currently are eligible to participate under the 2002 Plan.

Administration. The 2002 Plan is administered by the Performance Compensation Subcommittee (the "Performance Committee") consisting of two or more directors appointed from time to time by the board of directors of Triarc. It is intended that the directors appointed to serve on the Performance Committee be non-employee directors within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act and outside directors within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Code, to the extent Rule 16b-3 and Section 162(m), respectively, are applicable to Triarc and the 2002 Plan; however, the fact that a Performance Committee member shall fail to qualify under either of the foregoing requirements will not invalidate any award which is otherwise validly made under the 2002 Plan. The current members of the Performance Committee are Messrs. Schwab (Chairman), Chajet and Wasserman. The members of the Performance Committee may be changed at any time and from time to time in the discretion of the board of directors. Subject to the limitations and conditions of the 2002 Plan, the Performance Committee has authority to determine the amounts, times, forms and terms and conditions of grants under the plan, except with respect to automatic grants to non-employee directors, as discussed below. The Performance Committee has the authority to construe and interpret the 2002 Plan and any related award agreement, and its determinations on all matters related to the 2002 Plan shall be conclusive.

Shares Subject to the 2002 Plan. Subject to certain antidilution adjustments, the maximum number of shares of Triarc Class A common stock that may be granted as Restricted Shares, in respect of which Restricted Share Units may be granted or that may be delivered on the exercise of options or SARs or upon a Director's election to receive Fees in shares pursuant to the 2002 Plan is currently an aggregate of 2,000,000. Subject to certain antidilution adjustments, the maximum number of shares of Triarc Class B common stock that may be granted as Restricted Shares, in respect of which Restricted Share Units may be granted, or that may be delivered on the exercise of options or SARs or upon a Director's election to receive Fees in shares pursuant to the 2002 Plan is an aggregate of 13,000,000. In addition, in no event may Restricted Shares intended to qualify as 162(m) Performance-Based Awards (as defined below), options and/or SARs be granted under the 2002 Plan to any individual in any one calendar year in an amount exceeding an aggregate of 1,000,000 shares of Triarc Class A common stock or 2,000,000 shares of Triarc Class B common stock. The shares of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock issued under the 2002 Plan may be either authorized but unissued shares or treasury shares, including such shares reacquired by Triarc. If an option expires or terminates for any reason during the term of the 2002 Plan and prior to the exercise in full of such option or the related SAR, if any, or if Restricted Shares or Restricted Share Units are forfeited as provided in the grant of such Restricted Shares or Restricted Share Units, the number of shares of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock previously subject to but not delivered under such option, related SAR or grant of Restricted Shares or Restricted Share Units shall be available for awards thereafter. An option that terminates upon the exercise of a tandem SAR shall be deemed to have been exercised at the time of the exercise of such tandem SAR, and the shares of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock subject thereto shall not be available for further grants under the 2002 Plan.

Certain Provisions Relating to Options and SARs Granted to Officers. For Federal income tax purposes, options granted pursuant to the 2002 Plan will be nonqualified options, i.e., they will not be incentive stock options as such term is defined in Section 422 of the Code. The price per share to be paid by the optionee on the date an option is exercised may not be less than 85% of the fair market value (as defined in the 2002 Plan) on the date such option is granted. The period after which options granted under the 2002 Plan may not be exercised shall be determined by the Performance Committee with respect to each option granted but may not exceed ten years from the date on which the option is granted and further provided that each option will expire upon the termination of the optionee's employment or services if such termination constitutes or is attributable to a breach by the optionee of any employment agreement or if the optionee is discharged or terminated for cause (as determined by the Performance Committee or the board of directors of Triarc). The purchase price of the shares of Triarc Class A common stock and/or Triarc Class B common stock as to which an option is exercised is to be paid in cash or by check, except that the Performance Committee may in its discretion allow such payment to be made by surrender of shares of capital stock of Triarc (at their fair market value on the date of exercise) which have been held for at least six months, are not subject to a pledge or other security interest and are not Restricted Shares subject to the transferability restrictions set forth in Section 13 of the 2002 Plan (Mature Shares), or by a combination of cash, check and such shares of capital stock. If determined by the Performance Committee, an optionee may also elect to purchase shares of Triarc Class A common stock and/or Triarc Class B common stock on exercise of an option by assigning to Triarc a sufficient amount of the proceeds from the sale of shares upon such exercise to pay for the purchase price of all such exercised options, through a cashless exercise program (as more fully described in the 2002 Plan) or by any combination of the foregoing. In December 2006, the Performance Committee amended all agreements relating to outstanding awards of stock options issued pursuant to the 2002 Plan to provide that each such optionee would not be required to tender the purchase price of the shares being acquired under the option, but rather, upon exercise, the optionee would receive only such number of shares as is equal in value to the excess of the aggregate fair market value of the shares being purchased over the aggregate purchase price for those shares and to add a similar feature whereby an optionee could choose to have shares withheld from the shares that would otherwise be issued upon exercise of the option in order to pay minimum statutory withholding taxes. No option or SAR granted under the 2002 Plan will be assignable or otherwise transferable by the optionee, neither voluntarily or involuntarily, except by will or the laws of descent and distribution and an option or SAR shall be exercisable during the optionee's lifetime only by the optionee; provided, however, that the Performance Committee may in the applicable option agreement or at any time thereafter in an amendment to an option agreement provide that options may be transferred with or without consideration by the optionee, subject to such rules as the Performance Committee may adopt to preserve the purpose of the 2002 Plan, (i) pursuant to a domestic relations order or (ii) to certain Permitted Transferees (as defined in the 2002 Plan), pursuant to the terms of the plan. The Performance Committee may in its discretion grant SARs in connection with any option, either at the time the option is granted or at any time thereafter while the option remains outstanding, to any person who at that time is eligible to be granted an option. The number of SARs granted to a person that will be exercisable during any given period of time shall not exceed the number of shares of Triarc Class A common stock and/or Triarc Class B common stock which he or she may purchase upon the exercise of the related option or options during such period of time. Upon the exercise of an option pursuant to the 2002 Plan the SARs relating to the shares of Triarc Class A common stock and/or Triarc Class B common stock covered by such exercise shall terminate. Upon the exercise of SARs pursuant to the 2002 Plan, the related option to the extent of an equal number of shares of Triarc Class A common stock and/or Triarc Class B common stock shall terminate. Upon an optionee's exercise of some or all of his or her SARs, the optionee will receive in settlement of such SARs an amount equal to the value of the stock appreciation for the number of SARs exercised payable in cash, shares of Triarc Class A common stock and/or Triarc Class B common stock or a combination thereof, as determined in the sole discretion of the Performance Committee. The stock appreciation for an SAR will be the difference between (i) the fair market value of the underlying share of Triarc Class A common stock and/or Triarc Class B common stock on the date of the exercise of such SAR and (ii) the option price per share of Triarc Class A common stock and/or Triarc Class B common stock specified for the related option. An SAR will be exercisable only during the period determined by the Performance Committee, which must be within the period that the option to which it is related is also exercisable. The Performance Committee, at its discretion, may issue replacement or reload options to an option holder who has utilized shares of Triarc Class A common stock and/or Triarc Class B common stock to pay the exercise price of an option granted under the 2002 Plan and/or to pay any withholding taxes applicable to such exercise. If granted, a replacement or reload option will be exercisable for the same number of shares as were utilized by the exercising option holder to pay such exercise price and/or withholding taxes. Any such replacement or reload option will have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of a share of Triarc Class A common stock and/or a share of Triarc Class B common stock on the date such replacement or reload option is granted, and, unless the Performance Committee determines otherwise, all other terms and conditions of such replacement or reload option (including the date or dates on which such option shall become exercisable and the term of the option) will be identical to the terms and conditions of the exercised option with respect to which the replacement or reload option is granted. No replacement or reload option may be granted in respect of the exercise of any option granted pursuant to the 2002 Plan as an automatic grant to a non-employee director (see Automatic Grants to Non-Employee Directors, below). The replacement or reload option will be eliminated in its entirety pursuant to the proposed Amendment No. 3 to the Amended and Restated 2002 Equity Participation Plan attached as Annex H to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Automatic Grants to Non-Employee Directors. Each director of Triarc who is initially elected or appointed as a director who is not then an employee of Triarc or any subsidiary or affiliate will receive under the 2002 Plan on the date of his or her initial election or appointment to the board of directors nonqualified options to purchase 15,000 shares of Triarc Class A common stock and 30,000 shares of Triarc Class B common stock. On the date of each annual meeting of stockholders of Triarc at which a director is reelected, such director will receive options to purchase 4,000 shares of Triarc Class A common stock and 8,000 shares of Triarc Class B common stock. Each such option will have a term of ten years, subject to earlier termination upon the option holder's termination of service to Triarc, as provided in the 2002 Plan. Each such option will become exercisable to the extent of one-half thereof on each of the two immediately succeeding anniversaries of the date of grant, subject to continued Triarc board membership. The exercise price per share of Triarc Class A common stock and Triarc Class B common stock to be paid by the holder of such an option is equal to the fair market value (as defined in the plan) of one share of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock on the date the option is granted. The purchase price of the shares of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock as to which such an option is exercised may be paid in cash, and, by check, by delivery of Mature Shares, through the cashless exercise program described above under "Certain Provisions Relating to Options and SARs Granted to Officers" or by a combination of the foregoing at the director's election.

Elective Purchase of Shares. Triarc directors may elect to receive in shares of Triarc Class A common stock and/or shares of Triarc Class B common stock all or any portion of the annual retainer fees and/or Board or Performance Committee meeting attendance fees that otherwise would be payable to him or her in cash pursuant to the procedures set forth in the 2002 Plan. Any election other than an "Initial Election" (as defined in the 2002 Plan) to receive shares of Triarc Class A common stock and/or shares of Triarc Class B common stock rather than cash must be made at least six months in advance of payment and shall continue in effect until revoked by an election made at least six months in advance. There will be no limit on the number of elections or revocations that may be made by a director, except that no such election (other than an Initial Election) or revocation may take effect until at least six months after such election or revocation shall have been delivered to the Secretary of Triarc. Any shares of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock payable under such an election will be issued on the same date that the Fees would have been paid in cash. The number of shares of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock to be issued on account of an election to receive shares of stock as payment of Fees will be based on the average of the closing prices of the shares of Triarc Class A common stock, or Triarc Class B common stock, as applicable, for the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date as of which the Fees are payable. Cash will be paid in lieu of issuing any fractional share of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock.

Certain Provisions Applicable to Restricted Shares. The Performance Committee may grant Restricted Shares to certain eligible persons at any time. In granting Restricted Shares, the Performance Committee will determine in its sole discretion the period or periods during which the restrictions on transferability applicable to such Restricted Shares will be in force (the "Restricted Period"). During the Restricted Period applicable to each grant of Restricted Shares, such Restricted Shares may not be sold, assigned, transferred or otherwise disposed of, or mortgaged, pledged or otherwise encumbered. Furthermore, a grantee's eventual right, if any, to such Restricted Shares may not be assigned or transferred except by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. With respect to each grant of Restricted Shares, the Performance Committee will determine in its sole discretion the restrictions on vesting which will apply to the Restricted Shares for the Restricted Period. If the Performance Committee deems restrictions on vesting inappropriate for any grantee, it may approve the award and delivery to such grantee of all or any portion of the Restricted Shares free and clear of all restrictions on transferability. Triarc will not be obligated to deliver any Restricted Shares free and clear of the restrictions on transferability until Triarc has satisfied itself that such delivery complies with all applicable laws and regulations.

Certain Provisions Applicable to Restricted Share Units. The Performance Committee may grant Restricted Share Units to certain eligible persons at any time. In granting Restricted Share Units the Performance Committee will determine in its sole discretion the Restricted Period. During the Restricted Period applicable to each grant of Restricted Share Units, such Restricted Share Units may not be sold, assigned, transferred or otherwise disposed of, or mortgaged, pledged or otherwise encumbered. Furthermore, a grantee's eventual right, if any, to such Restricted Share Units may not be assigned or transferred except by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. With respect to each grant of Restricted Share Units the Performance Committee will determine in its sole discretion the restrictions on vesting which will apply to the Restricted Share Units for the Restricted Period. If the Performance Committee deems restrictions on vesting inappropriate for any grantee, it may approve the award and delivery to such grantee of all or any portion of the Restricted Share Units free and clear of all restrictions on transferability. Triarc will not be obligated to deliver any Restricted Share Units free and clear of the restrictions on transferability until Triarc has satisfied itself that such delivery complies with all applicable laws and regulations. Each Restricted Share Unit may, at the discretion of the Performance Committee, be credited with cash and stock dividends paid by Triarc in respect of one share of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock, as applicable (Dividend Equivalents). Upon the expiration of the Restricted Period and the lapse of the vesting requirements, if any, with respect to any outstanding Restricted Share Units, Triarc shall deliver to the grantee, or his or her beneficiary, one share of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock as applicable, for each outstanding Restricted Share Unit and cash equal to any Dividend Equivalents credited with respect to such vested Restricted Share Unit or the Performance Committee may, in its discretion, pay cash or a combination of cash and shares in lieu of delivering shares for such vested Restricted Share Units. The Performance Committee also may, in its discretion, delay delivery of the shares, cash or combination thereof in respect of such vested Restricted Share Unit beyond the expiration of the Restricted Period.

Stockholder Rights. A grantee of shares and, except for the restrictions on transferability, a grantee of Restricted Shares will have the rights of a holder of the shares of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock, as applicable, including the right to receive dividends paid on such shares and the right to vote such shares at meetings of stockholders of Triarc. However, no optionee will have any of the rights of a stockholder with respect to any shares of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock unless and until he or she has exercised his or her option with respect to such shares of Triarc Class A common stock or Triarc Class B common stock and has paid the full purchase price therefore.

Changes in Shares. In the event of a change in the class or series of shares which may be delivered pursuant to the 2002 Plan due to a split, reverse split, combination of shares, reclassification, recapitalization, or similar event (including, without limitation, any spin-off of a subsidiary), dividend or distribution payable in shares, extraordinary dividend payable in cash, merger, consolidation or other reorganization, the Performance Committee shall, to the extent it deems it to be consistent with such event and necessary or equitable to carry out the purposes of the 2002 Plan, appropriately adjust (a) the maximum number of shares of and the classes or series of shares which may be delivered pursuant to the 2002 Plan, (b) the number of shares and the classes or series of shares subject to outstanding options, SARs, Restricted Share Units or grants of Restricted Shares, (c) the option price per share of outstanding options, (d) any performance based vesting restrictions on any plan agreement that are based on stock price and (e) any other provisions of the 2002 Plan, provided that (i) any adjustments made in accordance with clauses (b) and (c) shall make any such outstanding option or SAR as nearly as practicable, equivalent to such option or SAR, as the case may be, immediately prior to such change and (ii) no such adjustment shall give any optionee any additional benefits under any outstanding option. Further, with respect to awards intended to qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code, such adjustments or substitutions shall be made only to the extent that the Performance Committee determines that such adjustments or substitutions may be made without causing such awards to fail to qualify as performance-based compensation for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Code.

Changes in Control or Reorganizations. The 2002 Plan also provides that upon (i) the acquisition by any person of 50% or more of the combined voting power of Triarc's outstanding securities entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, or (ii) a majority of the directors of Triarc being individuals who are not nominated by the Triarc board of directors (a Plan Change of Control), any outstanding options granted under the 2002 Plan shall become fully and immediately exercisable and any restrictions on vesting applicable to any Restricted Shares or Restricted Share

Units will lapse and such Restricted Shares or Restricted Share Units will be delivered free and clear of all transferability restrictions. The acquisition of any portion of the combined voting power of Triarc by Nelson Peltz or Peter W. May or by any person affiliated with such persons will not constitute a Plan Change of Control. In addition, the 2002 Plan provides that in the event that Triarc is merged or consolidated with another corporation, or in the event that all or substantially all of the assets of Triarc are acquired by another corporation, or in the event of a reorganization or liquidation of Triarc (each such event being hereinafter referred to as a Reorganization Event) or in the event that the board of directors shall propose that Triarc enter into a Reorganization Event, then the Performance Committee may in its discretion take any or all of the following actions: (i) by written notice to each optionee, provide that his or her options and/or SARs will be terminated or repurchased by Triarc unless exercised within thirty days (or such longer period as the Performance Committee shall determine in its sole discretion) after the date of such notice (without acceleration of the exercisability of such options); and (ii) advance the date or dates upon which any or all outstanding options shall be exercisable.

162(m) Performance-Based Awards. The Performance Committee may determine that an award of Options, SARs, Restricted Shares or Restricted Share Units which would not otherwise qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code shall be made to so qualify by the implementation of additional vesting conditions based on the attainment of performance standards in accordance with rules set forth in the 2002 Plan. No award under the 2002 Plan that is intended to qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code will vest in respect of a period in which performance fails to attain or exceed the minimum level for any of the performance standards.

Amendment and Discontinuance. The 2002 Plan provides that Triarc board of directors may amend, alter, suspend, discontinue, or terminate the 2002 Plan or any portion thereof at any time; provided that no such amendment, alteration, suspension, discontinuation or termination shall be made without stockholder approval if such approval is necessary to comply with any regulatory requirement applicable to the 2002 Plan and, provided further, that any such amendment, alteration, suspension, discontinuance or termination that would impair any rights under any award theretofore made under the 2002 Plan shall not to that extent be effective without the consent of the person to whom such award was made.

Effective Date and Duration of the 2002 Plan. The 2002 Plan was approved by the Triarc board of directors on April 25, 2002 and became effective on June 4, 2002, the date of its approval by Triarc's stockholders. The term during which awards may be granted under the 2002 Plan will expire on June 4, 2012.

Federal Tax Consequences of Options. The following summary of the Federal income tax consequences of the grant and exercise of nonqualified options awarded under the 2002 Plan, and the disposition of shares purchased pursuant to the exercise of such stock options, is intended to reflect the current provisions of the Code and the regulations thereunder. This summary is not intended to be a complete statement of applicable law, nor does it address state and local tax considerations. No income will be realized by an optionee upon grant of a nonqualified stock option. Upon exercise of a nonqualified stock option, the optionee will recognize ordinary compensation income in an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the fair market value of the underlying stock over the option exercise price (the Spread) at the time of exercise. The Spread will be deductible by Triarc for federal income tax purposes subject to the possible limitations on deductibility under sections 280G and 162(m) of the Code of compensation paid to executives designated in those sections. The optionee's tax basis in the underlying shares acquired by exercise of a nonqualified stock option will equal the exercise price plus the amount taxable as compensation to the optionee. Upon sale of the shares received by the optionee upon exercise of the nonqualified stock option, any gain or loss is generally long-term or short-term capital gain or loss, depending on the holding period. The optionee's holding period for shares acquired pursuant to the exercise of a nonqualified stock option will begin on the date of exercise of such option. Pursuant to currently applicable rules under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act, the grant of an option (and not its exercise) to a person who is subject to the reporting and short-swing profit provisions under Section 16 of the Exchange Act (a Section 16 Person) begins the six-month period of potential short-swing liability. However, the six month period of potential short-swing liability may be eliminated if the option grant (i) is approved in advance by Triarc's board of directors (or a committee composed solely of two or more non-employee directors) or (ii) approved in advance, or subsequently ratified, by Triarc's stockholders no later than the next annual meeting of stockholders. If the grant satisfies either of the conditions described in clauses (i) or (ii) above, the taxable event will ordinarily be the date of exercise. However, if an option is exercised by a Section 16 Person within six months after the date of grant and neither of the conditions described in clauses (i) or (ii) above are satisfied, taxation will be deferred until the date which is six months after the date of grant, unless the person has filed a timely election pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Code to be taxed on the date of exercise. The payment by an optionee of the exercise price, in full or in part, with previously acquired shares will not affect the tax treatment of the exercise described above. No gain or loss generally will be recognized by the optionee upon the surrender of the previously acquired shares to Triarc, and shares received by the optionee, equal in number to the previously surrendered shares, will have the same tax basis as the shares surrendered to Triarc and will have a holding period that includes the holding period of the shares surrendered. The value of shares received by the optionee in excess of the number of shares surrendered to Triarc will be taxable to the optionee. Such additional shares will have a tax basis equal to the fair market value of such additional shares as of the date ordinary income is recognized, and will have a holding period that begins on the date ordinary income is recognized.

Benefits to Triarc Named Officers and Others

Future awards under the 2002 Plan will be made at the discretion of the Performance Committee. Therefore, it is not presently possible to determine the benefits or amounts that will be received by such persons or groups pursuant to the plan in the future.

The following table sets forth the number of stock options and shares of restricted stock that were granted under the 2002 Plan during 2007 to Triarc's Named Officers, all Triarc executive officers as a group, all of Triarc's non-employee directors as a group, and all of Triarc's non-executive employees, respectively:

Individual or Group	Stock Options	Weighted Ave. Price($)	Restricted Stock	Aggregate Value($)(1)

THE TRIARC BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF THE AMENDMENT TO THE AMENDED AND RESTATED 2002 EQUITY PARTICIPATION PLAN.

PROPOSAL 8.
RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

(Item 8 on Triarc Proxy Card)

Triarc's Audit Committee has voted to appoint Deloitte & Touche LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm to examine the consolidated financial statements of Triarc and its subsidiaries for the fiscal year ending December 27, 2008. Triarc stockholders are asked to ratify that appointment at the Triarc annual meeting. In keeping with good corporate governance, the Audit Committee will periodically assess the suitability of its incumbent independent registered public accounting firm taking into account all relevant facts and circumstances, including the possible consideration of the qualifications of other accounting firms.

Representatives of Deloitte & Touche LLP will be present at the Triarc annual meeting and will have the opportunity to make a statement and to respond to appropriate questions. If the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP is not ratified at the meeting, the Audit Committee will consider the selection of another accounting firm.

The following is a description of the fees billed to Triarc by Deloitte & Touche LLP during the fiscal years ended December 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006:

Audit Fees: Audit fees paid by Triarc to Deloitte & Touche LLP in connection with Deloitte & Touche LLP's review and audit of Triarc's annual financial statements, Deloitte & Touche LLP's review of Triarc's interim financial statements included in Triarc's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and for services that are normally provided by Deloitte & Touche LLP in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements totaled approximately $3,452,170 for fiscal 2007 and $4,035,900 for fiscal 2006.

Audit-Related Fees: The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte & Touche LLP for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of Triarc's financial statements and are not reported under the Audit Fees above were $2,877,659 for fiscal 2007 (principally for work done by Deloitte & Touche LLP in connection with the sale of Deerfield and due diligence with respect to the merger transaction with Wendy's) and $500,717 for fiscal 2006 (principally for work done by Deloitte & Touche LLP in connection with a Current Report on Form 8K and a registration statement on Form S-3 that were filed in connection with Triarc's acquisition of the RTM Restaurant Group, standalone financial statements for certain subsidiaries of Triarc and audits of certain frozen defined benefit plans).

Tax Fees: The aggregate fees billed by Deloitte & Touche LLP for professional services rendered by Deloitte & Touche LLP for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning were $374,043 for fiscal 2007 (principally for income tax services and research, advice and consultation regarding tax-related matters) and $128,935 for fiscal 2006 (principally related to tax-related research and matters related to the acquisition of the RTM Restaurant Group).

All Other Fees: Fees billed to Triarc by Deloitte & Touche LLP for all other products and services provided to Triarc and not reported under the three prior headings were $0 for both fiscal 2007 and fiscal 2006.

As noted in the Triarc Audit Committee Report (see page 155) the Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of services by Deloitte & Touche LLP that were not related to the audit of Triarc's consolidated financial statements referred to above and to the reviews of the interim financial statements included in Triarc's Forms 10-Q is compatible with maintaining Deloitte & Touche LLP's independence.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

The Audit Committee has adopted a pre-approval policy that provides that Triarc's independent registered public accounting firm may provide only those services that are pre-approved by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee must also pre-approve any services provided to Triarc or any subsidiary by any separate firm that audits the financial statements of any subsidiary if Triarc's independent registered public accounting firm expressly relies on the audit report of such separate firm in its own report on Triarc's financial statements. In general, predictable and recurring covered services may be approved by the Audit Committee (and not any delegate of the committee) on an annual basis. Pre-approval in such circumstances will generally be by reference to classes of covered service, provided that the pre-approval is sufficiently detailed to identify the scope of service to be provided. The policy includes a list of covered services that may be pre-approved, by class, on annual basis. Any engagement of the independent registered public accounting firm to perform a pre-approved non-audit service is to be reported by management to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting following the engagement of the independent registered public accounting firm for such service.

Services proposed to be provided by the independent registered public accounting firm that have not been pre-approved, by class, and the fees for such proposed services must be pre-approved on an individual basis by the Audit Committee or its delegate. Commencing in 2006, the total payments that may be made with respect to covered services that constitute Tax Fees and All Other Fees (as shown above) that have been pre-approved by class may not exceed $200,000 per year. Once such amount has been expended in any year, any additional services (including any additional payments for services pre-approved that constitute Tax and Other services) that constitute Tax or Other services must be pre-approved on an individual basis unless otherwise authorized by the Audit Committee (or its delegate(s)).

The Audit Committee may delegate to one or more of its members the authority to grant specific pre-approvals under its policy with respect to audit, review, attest and permitted non-audit services (subject to the limitation on Tax and Other services noted above), provided that the aggregate estimated fees for the current and all future periods in which the service is to be rendered will not exceed $100,000 for any applicable fiscal year and that the aggregate estimated fees of all covered services approved by the delegate(s) during any fiscal year may not exceed $1,000,000 for any applicable fiscal year. Any pre-approval granted by a delegate(s) is to be reported to the full Audit Committee no later than its next scheduled meeting.

None of the non-audit services provided by Deloitte & Touche LLP in 2007 were approved under the Securities and Exchange Commission's de minimis exception to audit committee approval.

THE TRIARC BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF DELOITTE & TOUCHE LLP IN THIS PROPOSAL 8.

Other Matters to Come Before the Triarc Annual Meeting

No other matters are intended to be brought before the meeting by Triarc, and Triarc does not know of any matters to be brought before the Triarc annual meeting by others. If, however, any other matters properly come before the meeting, the persons named in the proxy will vote the shares represented thereby in accordance with the judgment of management on any such matter.

WENDY S SPECIAL MEETING

Date, Time and Place

These proxy materials are delivered in connection with the solicitation by Wendy s board of directors of proxies to be voted at the Wendy s special meeting, which is to be held at in at . On or about , 2008, Wendy s commenced mailing this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the enclosed form of proxy to its shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting.

Purpose of the Wendy s Special Meeting

At the Wendy s special meeting, Wendy s shareholders will be asked to:

adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 23, 2008, among Triarc, Green Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Triarc and Wendy s, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus; and approve any motion to adjourn the Wendy s special meeting to another time or place, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Wendy s special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

General Information about Proxies and Voting

The enclosed proxy, for use at the Wendy s special meeting of shareholders to be held on , 2008, and any adjournments thereof, is being solicited on behalf of the Wendy s board of directors. A Wendy s shareholder may also choose to vote electronically by accessing the internet site or by using the toll-free telephone number stated on the form of proxy. Without affecting any vote previously taken, the proxy may be revoked by the shareholder by giving notice of revocation to Wendy s in writing, by accessing the internet site, by using the toll-free telephone number stated on the form of proxy, or by attending the special meeting and revoking the previously executed proxy. A shareholder may also change his or her vote by executing and returning to Wendy s a later- dated proxy, by a later-dated electronic vote through the internet site, by using the toll-free telephone number stated on the form of proxy, or by voting at the special meeting. All properly executed proxies received by the board of directors, and properly authenticated electronic votes recorded through the internet or by telephone, will be voted as directed by the

shareholder.

All properly executed proxies received by the board of directors which do not specify how shares should be voted will be voted FOR the adoption of the merger agreement and FOR any possible adjournment of the Wendy's special meeting.

If a Wendy's stockholder abstains from voting on any proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote against that proposal. If a Wendy's stockholder does not vote, it will have the effect of a vote against the merger proposal and no effect on the adjournment proposal.

Solicitation of proxies may be made by mail, electronic mail, facsimile personal interview and telephone by officers, directors and employees of Wendy's, and by employees of Wendy's transfer agent, American Stock Transfer and Trust Company. In addition, Wendy's has retained, at an estimated cost of $ plus reasonable expenses, Georgeson Inc., a firm specializing in proxy solicitations. All costs related to the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the board of directors will be borne by Wendy's, except as noted below. Wendy's will reimburse its transfer agent, banks, brokers, and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable costs in sending proxy materials to shareholders.

The internet and telephone procedures for voting and for revoking or changing a vote are designed to authenticate shareholders' identities, to allow shareholders to give their voting instructions and to confirm that shareholders' instructions have been properly recorded. Shareholders who vote through the internet should understand that there may be costs associated with electronic access, such as usage charges from internet access providers and telephone companies, that will be borne by the shareholder.

Voting Requirements

Required Vote to Adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, Dated as of April 23, 2008, among Triarc, Green Merger Sub, Inc. and Wendy s (Proposal 1; Item 1 on the Proxy Card)

The affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding Wendy s common shares entitled to vote at the Wendy s special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof is required to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 23, 2008, among Triarc, Green Merger Sub, Inc. and Wendy s.

Required Vote to Approve an Adjournment of the Wendy s Special Meeting (Proposal 2; Item 2 on the Proxy Card)

If necessary, the affirmative vote of a majority of the Wendy s common shares represented at Wendy s special meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, is required to adjourn the Wendy s special meeting to another time or place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Wendy s special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

Voting Rights

The total number of outstanding shares entitled to vote at the Wendy s special meeting is , and only shareholders of record at the close of business on , 2008, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting or any adjournments thereof. Each shareholder is entitled to one vote for each share held.

Householding of Special Meeting Materials

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries such as brokers to satisfy delivery requirements for proxy statements with respect to two or more shareholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement addressed to those shareholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as householding , potentially provides extra convenience for shareholders and cost savings for companies. Wendy s and some brokers household proxy materials, delivering a single proxy statement to multiple shareholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected shareholders. Once you have received notice from your broker or from Wendy s that they or Wendy s will be householding materials to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate joint proxy statement/prospectus, or if you are receiving multiple copies of the joint proxy statement/prospectus and wish to receive only one, please notify your broker if your shares are held in a brokerage account or Wendy s if you hold registered shares. You can notify Wendy s by sending a written request addressed to Investor Relations Department, 4288 West Dublin-Granville Road, Dublin, Ohio 43017-0256, by calling Investor Relations at (614) 764-3138 or by sending an e-mail to Investor Relations at investor_relations@wendys.com. Wendy s will deliver promptly, upon written or oral request, a separate copy of the joint proxy statement/prospectus to a registered shareholder at a shared address to which a single copy of the document was delivered.

Voting Power of Wendy s Directors and Executive Officers

On the Wendy s record date, directors and executive officers of Wendy s owned and were entitled to vote Wendy s common shares, representing % of the outstanding Wendy s common shares.

L.P. (Trian Management), Trian Fund Management GP, LLC (Trian Management GP , and together with the foregoing, the Trian Entities), Triarc Companies, Inc. (Triarc), Nelson Peltz, Peter W. May, Edward P. Garden (the Trian Entities and Messrs. Peltz, May and Garden are hereinafter referred to collectively as the Trian Filing Persons), Castlerigg Master Investments Ltd. (CMI), Sandell Asset Management Corp. (SAMC), Castlerigg International Limited (CIL), Castlerigg International Holdings Limited (CIHL), Thomas E. Sandell (Sandell , and collectively with CMI, SAMC, CIL and CIHL, the Sandell Filing Persons and, together with the Trian Filing Persons, the Trian/Sandell Filing Persons) and Jerry W. Levin (with respect to only the February 11, April 18, 2008 and April 30, 2008 filings).

On November 4, 2005, SAMC and Trian Management entered into an agreement (the Trian/Sandell Agreement) pursuant to which the parties agreed to coordinate their efforts with respect to (i) the purchase of up to a 9.9% beneficial ownership interest in Wendy s and (ii) the proposal of certain actions and/or transaction to Wendy s. As a result, the Trian/Sandell Filing Persons may be deemed to be a group for purposes of the Exchange Act and each Trian/Sandell Filing Person may be deemed to beneficially own all of the common shares of Wendy s owned by each other Trian/Sandell Filing Person. The Trian/Sandell Agreement was to terminate at the conclusion of the 2006 annual meeting of Wendy s shareholders (including any adjournments or postponements thereof) or earlier if Wendy s shall have announced that it has entered into a definitive agreement whereby all of Wendy s common shares are to be acquired by a third party.

On April 27, 2006, Trian Management and SAMC entered into an amendment to the Trian/Sandell Agreement (the First Amendment) pursuant to which the termination date of the Trian/ Sandell

Agreement was extended until the earlier to occur of (i) December 31, 2006 and (ii) the announcement by Wendy's that it has entered into a definitive agreement with respect to the sale of all of its common shares to a third party.

On December 1, 2006, Trian Management and SAMC entered into a second amendment to the Trian/Sandell Agreement (the Second Amendment) pursuant to which (a) on or after January 1, 2007, Section 1 of the Trian/Sandell Agreement, which provides in part that Trian Management has final approval with respect to the timing, amounts and prices of purchases and sales of common shares of Wendy's and that all common shares acquired and sold in accordance with the Trian/Sandell Agreement will be allocated on a pro rata basis to the Sandell Filing Persons and the Trian Filings Persons, will no longer be effective, and (b) subject to the procedures and limitations set forth in the Second Amendment, (i) SAMC granted to Trian Management certain rights of first refusal and rights of first offer in the event that on or after January 1, 2007 SAMC elects to transfer any of the common shares of Wendy s that any Sandell Filing Person beneficially owns and (ii) each of Trian Management and SAMC granted to one another certain tag-a-long rights in the event that a Trian Filing Person or a

Sandell Filing Person elects to transfer at least 155,000
common shares
of Wendy s in one or more related private sale transactions
with an unaffiliated third party. The Second Amendment
further provides that
the Trian/Sandell Agreement will terminate at the time that either the Trian Filing Persons or the Sandell Filing
Persons no longer beneficially own any common shares
of Wendy s.

On August 27, 2007, Triarc
and Trian entered into a Confidentiality Agreement (the Confidentiality
Agreement),
pursuant to which, Wendy s agreed to provide to Triarc and Trian certain confidential
and proprietary information concerning the business and properties of the Issuer (the Evaluation Material). Triarc and Triarc intended to review the Evaluation Material in order to evaluate their interest with respect to one or more possible transactions with Wendy s, including, the possible purchase of all or a portion of the stock, assets or business of the Issuer, or any related transactions.

On September 14, 2007, SAMC and Wendy s entered into a Confidentiality Agreement (the SAMC Agreement), pursuant to which, Wendy s agreed to provide to SAMC certain confidential and proprietary information concerning the business and properties of the Issuer (the SAMC Evaluation Material).

SAMC intended to review the SAMC Evaluation
Material

in order to evaluate its interest with respect to the provision of financing to Triarc in connection with a possible purchase by Triarc of all or a portion of the stock, assets or business of Wendy s, or any related transactions.

* Represents beneficial ownership of less than 1% of the outstanding common shares of Wendy's.

The amounts reflected in this column include common shares owned directly or indirectly in which there is voting and/or investment power, in addition to restricted shares, which have voting rights. As of March 3, 2008, to Wendy's knowledge, none of these shares had been pledged.

- (b) In accordance with SEC rules, the amounts reflected in this column include options and restricted stock units with the right to acquire the underlying common shares within 60 days following March 3, 2008, in addition to options and restricted stock units vesting within 60 days following March 3, 2008.

- (c) Includes 128,827 common shares held in a trust for which Mr. Lauer, in his capacity as one of the trustees, has shared voting and investment power.

In addition to the amounts shown above, as of March 3, 2008, Dr. Kirwan held 5,862 phantom shares under Wendy's Deferred Compensation Plan. Under that plan, phantom shares are payable in common shares of Wendy's not earlier than six months after termination as a Director with Wendy's. Phantom shares do not have voting rights.

The information with respect to beneficial ownership is based upon information furnished by each director or executive officer, or information contained in filings made with the SEC.

Subsequent to March 3, 2008, Mrs. Anderson exercised stock options previously awarded to her and pledged 255,022 Wendy's common shares to a third party lender. The lender has agreed that it cannot sell or otherwise dispose of the Wendy's common shares, or the Wendy's/Arby's common stock that will be issued in conversion of Wendy's shares upon consummation of the merger, until the date on which Mrs. Anderson is no longer an employee of Wendy's.

PROPOSAL 1.
ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

(Item 1 on Wendy's Proxy Card)

Holders of Wendy's common shares are being asked to adopt the merger agreement among Triarc, Green Merger Sub, Inc. and Wendy's. Holders of Wendy's common shares should read carefully this joint proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety, including the annexes, for more detailed information concerning the merger agreement and the merger. In particular, holders of Wendy's common shares are directed to the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

THE WENDY'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT IN THIS PROPOSAL 1.

PROPOSAL 2.
POSSIBLE ADJOURNMENT OF THE WENDY'S SPECIAL MEETING

(Item 2 on Wendy's Proxy Card)

The Wendy's special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement discussed in Proposal 1 above.

THE WENDY'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THIS PROPOSAL 2.

Important

To assure the representation of Wendy's shareholders and a quorum for the transaction of business at the Wendy's special meeting, each Wendy's shareholder is urged to please complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card promptly or otherwise vote by using the toll-free number or visiting the website listed on the proxy card if eligible to do so.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF WENDY S/ARBY S

The following unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements are based upon the historical consolidated financial statements and management's discussion and analysis thereto of Triarc and Wendy's and have been prepared to illustrate the effect of the merger in which Wendy's will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Triarc, and Triarc will be renamed Wendy's/Arby's Group, Inc.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed balance sheet combines the historical consolidated balance sheets of Triarc and Wendy's as of March 30, 2008 as if the merger had been consummated on that date. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed statements of operations for the three months ended March 30, 2008 and for the year ended December 30, 2007 combine the historical statements of operations of Triarc and Wendy's and assume the merger had been consummated on December 31, 2006. The historical statements referred to above for each company were included in their respective Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 30, 2008 and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 30, 2007. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements give effect to transactions and events that are (a) directly attributable to the merger, (b) factually supportable and (c) with respect to the statement of operations, expected to have a continuing impact on the combined results. The pro forma adjustments are described in the accompanying notes to the unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements.

In addition, the adjusted Triarc historical information for the year ended December 30, 2007 reflects the December 21, 2007 sale of Deerfield as if it had occurred on December 31, 2006. As a result, the adjusted Wendy's/Arby's unaudited pro forma combined condensed statements of operations do not include any effect of Deerfield's operations or of its sale.

The merger will be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 141, Business Combinations. In accordance with this standard, Triarc has concluded that Wendy's/Arby's will be the acquirer for financial accounting purposes. While Wendy's shareholders will own approximately 80% of the outstanding common stock of Wendy's/Arby's upon consummation of the merger, Triarc has considered the following factors which support this conclusion:

- (1) Triarc, which will be renamed Wendy's/Arby's, is the entity that is issuing the equity interests, its Class A common stock, to effect the merger;
- (2) Wendy's board of directors determined in early 2007 to evaluate strategic alternatives including a possible sale of

Wendy's;

- (3) Messrs Peltz and May, Triarc's Chairman and Vice-Chairman, respectively, along with their affiliates, are expected to represent the largest minority voting interest group in the combined company as of the date of the merger. After the completion of the merger, Messrs. Peltz, May and their affiliates will hold approximately 13.1% of the voting power of the combined entity;
- (4) Triarc's current board of directors will maintain 10 of 12 positions on the post-merger board. As a result of the merger, Wendy's/Arby's board of directors will include two new members, designated by Wendy's and reasonably acceptable to Triarc;

- (5) Triarc's chief executive officer and chief financial officer will continue in similar leadership roles of the post-merger company. Roland C. Smith, Triarc's Chief Executive Officer, will continue as chief executive officer of the combined entity and will also become chief executive officer of the Wendy's brand. While the Wendy's brand headquarters will continue to be located in the Columbus, Ohio area post-merger, Wendy's/Arby's corporate functions will be consolidated at Triarc's current corporate office location in Atlanta, Georgia.
- (6) Triarc will pay an acquisition premium for Wendy's common shares. Wendy's and Triarc's closing per share prices were $25.32 and $6.30 (Triarc

Class A
common stock),
respectively, on the day
preceding the
merger
announcement.
Wendy s
shareholders
will receive 4.25

shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock for each common share of Wendy's upon consummation of the merger. This fixed merger consideration represents:

- a. a premium of approximately 8.1% over the closing price per share of Wendy's common shares on April 23, 2008, the last trading day prior to announcement of the execution of the merger agreement;
- b. a premium of approximately 13.2% over the average closing price per share of Wendy's common shares over the five trading days prior to announcement of the execution of the merger agreement; and
- c. a premium of approximately 26.7% over the average

closing price
per share of Wendy's
common
shares over the 30 trading days prior to announcement
of the execution of
the merger
agreement.

As a result, under the purchase method of accounting, the total estimated merger consideration, calculated as described in Note 2 to these unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements, has been preliminarily allocated to Wendy's net tangible and intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their estimated fair values with the excess recognized to goodwill. Triarc's management has made a preliminary allocation of the estimated merger consideration to the tangible and intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on various preliminary estimates. Since these unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements have been prepared based on preliminary estimates of merger consideration and fair values attributable to the merger, the actual amounts recorded for the merger may differ from the information presented. The estimation and allocations of merger consideration are subject to change pending further review of the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed and actual transaction costs. A final determination of fair values will be based on the actual net tangible and intangible assets and liabilities of Wendy's that will exist on the date of completion of the merger.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements do not reflect future events that may occur after the merger, including the potential realization of operating cost savings, margin improvements, general and administrative synergies or restructuring or other costs relating to the integration of the two companies nor do they include any other non-recurring costs related to the merger. The unaudited combined condensed pro forma financial statements were prepared in accordance with Article 11 of Regulation S-X of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The unaudited pro forma information reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements is provided for informational purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the financial position or results of operations that would have occurred if the merger had been completed on March 30, 2008 and December 31, 2006, respectively, nor are they necessarily indicative of the future operating results or financial position of the combined company. In addition, the unaudited pro forma financial information does not purport to indicate the financial position or results of operations as of any future date or any future period. The pro forma adjustments are preliminary, subject to change and are based upon available information and certain assumptions that Triarc believes are reasonable on the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The accompanying unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements should be read in conjunction with the historical financial statements and the managements' discussion and analysis of Triarc and Wendy's, which are incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information," beginning on page 216.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Amounts in thousands except per share data)

SALE OF DEERFIELD & COMPANY LLC

1. Elimination of effect of Deerfield & Company LLC

Triarc sold its majority interest in Deerfield, its former asset management business, to Deerfield Capital Corp. on December 21, 2007 (the Deerfield Sale), as further described in Note 3 to Triarc's consolidated financial statements included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 30, 2007, as amended, which is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The Deerfield Sale resulted in a pretax gain of approximately $40,193 which was included in Gain on sale of consolidated business in Triarc's 2007 historical consolidated statement of operations. The Triarc 2007 adjusted historical consolidated statement of operations reflects the Deerfield Sale as if it had occurred at December 31, 2006 as derived from Triarc's financial records. As a result, the unaudited pro forma combined condensed 2007 results of operations presented above eliminates any effect of Deerfield's operations or of its sale.

PRO FORMA ADJUSTMENTS

1. Description of transaction and basis of presentation

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements are based upon the historical consolidated financial statements, as adjusted for the elimination of the effect of Deerfield described above, of Triarc and Wendy's and have been prepared to illustrate the effect of the proposed merger.

On April 23, 2008, Triarc and Wendy's entered into a definitive merger agreement in a transaction to be accounted for as a purchase under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States with Triarc deemed to be the acquirer for accounting purposes. Under the purchase method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of Wendy's will be recorded as of the merger date, at their fair values. Under the terms of the merger agreement, each Wendy's common share outstanding at the closing of the merger, including currently outstanding restricted common shares and the shares granted under Wendy's share plans or Wendy's benefit plans as described elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, except for long-term performance units issued under Wendy's 2007 Stock Incentive Plan which will be settled in cash as of the merger closing date, will be exchanged for a fixed ratio of 4.25 shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock. In addition, all options to purchase Wendy's common shares outstanding on the closing date will become fully vested as of the date of the merger, and will be converted into options to purchase Wendy's/Arby's common stock based on the 4.25:1 exchange ratio. The merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including regulatory approvals, as well as approval by Triarc's stockholders and Wendy's shareholders. In addition, Triarc's stockholders will be asked to approve a charter amendment pursuant to which each share of Triarc Class B common stock will be converted into one share of Wendy's/Arby's common stock.

2. Merger consideration

The computation of the total preliminary merger consideration, the excess of the merger consideration over the book values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed, and the resulting adjustment to goodwill are as follows:

Value of Wendy's stock options

In accordance with SFAS No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment, the fair value of the Wendy's stock options that will be converted into Wendy's/Arby's options in the merger (the converted options) will be recognized as a component of the purchase price, based on the fair value of the options as of April 23, 2008.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements assume that all of the 2,076 Wendy's stock options outstanding as of March 30, 2008, will become fully vested at the merger date and will be converted into options to acquire 8,821 shares of Wendy's/Arby's common stock based on the 4.25:1 exchange ratio.

The additional merger consideration of $17,523 was calculated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model as of April 24, 2008. The Black-Scholes model has limitations on its effectiveness including that it was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options which have no vesting restrictions and are fully transferable. The model requires the use of highly subjective assumptions including expected stock price volatility. Wendy's stock option awards to employees have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options and changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimates of the as if converted Wendy's options.

Purchase price allocation details

For the purpose of preparing the unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements, the total estimated merger consideration is allocated to Wendy's net tangible and intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their estimated fair values as of March 30, 2008. Final allocation of the merger consideration will be based on the actual fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed as of the completion date of the merger. Accordingly, the fair value of these assets and liabilities included in the table above is preliminary, and is subject to change. An increased allocation of the merger consideration to depreciable or amortizable assets may result in increased depreciation and/or amortization expense.

The premium in the merger consideration reflects the creation of what is anticipated to be the third largest quick service restaurant operation in the United States with total system-wide sales of more than $12.0 billion. Wendy's/Arby's anticipates realizing, over time, significant operational improvements and general and administrative cost efficiencies and synergies. Anticipated improvements, which include increased margins for Wendy's company-owned restaurants, and the elimination of duplicate corporate functions through the establishment of a shared support center, are not reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined condensed statements of operations.

In addition, United States and international expansion is planned for the Wendy's and Arby's brands. Also, both companies are currently exploring day part expansion focused primarily on breakfast. The concept of dual-brand unit development may be explored in high-cost real estate and certain international markets. These combined factors primarily contributed to a merger consideration in excess of the fair value of the net tangible assets acquired.

Triarc has allocated approximately $991,000 to trade names, primarily related to the Wendy's name. Triarc's management took many factors into consideration including the current market position of the brand as well as its consumer and industry recognition worldwide in coming to the determination that it will account for the asset as an indefinite lived intangible asset. Therefore, in accordance with SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, trade names will not be amortized but instead will be tested for impairment at least annually (more frequently if certain indicators occur).

Triarc has allocated approximately $223,000 to franchise agreements, primarily related to the current estimated fair value of existing franchise agreements based on many factors, including estimates and assumptions of future operating performance and historical experience. Amortization of $10,372 and $2,593 for the year ended December 30, 2007 and the quarter ended March 30, 2008, respectively, related to the fair value of the franchise agreements, accounted for on the straight-line method over an average life of 21.5 years are reflected as pro forma adjustments to the unaudited pro forma combined condensed statements of operations. The average life is based on the weighted average remaining term of existing Wendy's franchise agreements and the one ten-year historically supported renewal of the term included in the agreements.

Triarc-related merger transaction costs have been accounted for as follows:

Included in Triarc's historical balance sheet as deferred costs and other assets	$ 8,610
Included in Triarc's historical balance sheet as accrued expenses and other current liabilities	(3,600)
Merger costs paid	5,010
