Edgar Filing: KESTREL ENERGY INC - Form NT 10-K

Effective August 22, 2002, the Company engaged Wheeler Wasoff P.C. as its principal accountants. This new engagement delayed the completion of the Company's most recent year end financial statements and other information required for the Form 10-KSB. In addition, the Company's reserve reports were not completed by the Company's third party petroleum engineering firm in time to be utilized in the financial statements and other information. Accordingly, the Company cannot file the subject report within the prescribed time period without incurring unreasonable effort or expense.

PART IV - OTHER INFORMATION

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification.

Barry D. Lasker (303) 295-0344

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes                     No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operation from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes                     No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

While the Company has not finalized its calculations of year end revenues or the amount of the net loss for the year, it is relatively certain that, based on preliminary data as to production and sales and the prevailing prices for natural gas and crude oil during the Company's fourth quarter, the substantial downturn in revenues and resulting higher loss, compared to fiscal 2001, seen in the first three quarters of the year will continue into the fourth quarter and the year end results of fiscal 2002.
