PROVIDENT FINANCIAL HOLDINGS, INC. COMPLETES
ACQUISITION OF DEPOSITS AND APPOINTS NEW MANAGER

Riverside, California, December 16, 2002 -- Provident Savings Bank, FSB, a subsidiary of Provident Financial Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: PROV), is pleased to announce the successful acquisition of the deposits of Valley Bank's Sun City Office pursuant to the Deposit Purchase and Assumption Agreement signed with Valley Bank of Moreno Valley, California, earlier this year. "We welcome our new customers from Valley Bank to Provident, and invite them to visit their new branch," stated Craig Blunden, President and CEO of Provident Bank. During the week of December 16, 2002, the bank's Sun City branch will be hosting a "Welcome To Provident" celebration, complete with refreshments and gifts. Blunden went on to state, "This acquisition represents our continued efforts and business initiatives to increase our market share in the communities we serve. These customers will benefit from our longer banking hours, On Line Banking, and 24 hour telephone banking services along with a full range of financial products and services designed to meet their financial goals."

Provident is also pleased to announce the appointment of Annette Morales, previously the Manager of Valley Bank's Sun City Office at the time of the acquisition, to the position of Manager of Provident Bank's Sun City Office. "With her involvement within the community and personal commitment to her customers, Morales' addition to the Provident team will offer a familiar face to the bank's newest customers, while our current customers will benefit from her commitment to "Customer Service," stated Blunden.
