Riverview Bancorp, Inc. Reports Expected Increase In Its Provision for Loans Losses

Vancouver, WA – March 14, 2008 – Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ GSM: RVSB) today announced that it expects to record a provision for loan losses of between $1.5 million to $2.0 million (pre-tax), or $0.14 to $0.19 per diluted share, during the fourth quarter of its fiscal year ending March 31, 2008. As a result of this increase, it currently expects the provision for loan losses for the year to be between $2.6 million and $3.1 million. This anticipated quarterly provision for loan losses is significantly higher than the $650,000 it recorded during the third quarter ended December 31, 2007.

Riverview's decision to increase its provision for loan losses was prompted by a number of factors based on its methodology for determining the level of its allowance for losses. Riverview has experienced strong growth in commercial real estate loans and, to a lesser extent, commercial business loans during the quarter ending March 31, 2008 with total loan growth during the quarter expected to be approximately $40 million.

Non-performing assets are currently $3.3 million, or 0.37% of total assets, and were $1.1 million, or 0.14% of total assets, at December 31, 2007. In addition, as a result of the slowdown in sales of both residential lots and single family residences, Riverview completed a review of land development and speculative construction loans. Land development and speculative construction loans currently comprise approximately 9% and 11%, respectively of Riverview's total loan portfolio. Based on the increase in total loans, the decreases in home sales and the decline in home prices Riverview reassessed the allowance for loan and lease losses and determined the increase was merited.

Riverview has also determined to limit its land development and construction lending in the future and has made minor modifications to its underwriting guidelines and review procedures in response to the current market conditions. As a result, during the quarter ending March 31, 2008, we anticipate a decrease in Riverview's portfolio of land developments and speculative construction loans.

Commenting on the announcement, Patrick Sheaffer, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Riverview Bancorp, Inc. stated, "Clearly changes in the economy have affected the markets we serve. While loan growth has remained strong, we have seen a marked slowdown in residential real estate sales in all our markets which directly impacted our land development and speculative construction lending. We believe our actions to strengthen our allowance for loan losses demonstrates our resolve to address these issues as quickly and as completely as we can based on the current information available to us. This, as always, is an ongoing process that is a high priority for Riverview and its entire management team. Importantly, even with these aggressive steps to meet credit quality concerns, our fourth quarter results will show that Riverview remains well positioned to pursue its strategies for growth over the long term."

The Company expects to report earnings for its fourth quarter and year ending March 31, 2008 in May 2008.
