CVRD Hires Executive Director

Rio de Janeiro, April 22, 2004 – Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD) informs that Mr. José Carlos Martins will join CVRD as the Executive Director for Business Development and Holdings starting in May 2004. Mr. Antonio Miguel Marques, the current Executive Director for Business Development and Holdings, will become the Executive Director for Non-Ferrous Minerals.

Mr. Martins has over 30 years of ample and solid experience in the metals industry. In 1999, he became President of Latasa, one of the largest aluminum can producers in Latin America, being responsible for placing the company in a strong competitive position in the marketplace. Upon the purchase of Latasa by Rexam, of the United Kingdom, at the end of 2003, Mr. Martins became President and CEO of Rexam's South American beverage can division (Rexam Beverage Can South America).

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
