On February 19, 2007, Vulcan Materials Company, a New Jersey corporation ( Vulcan Materials ), Florida Rock Industries, Inc., a Florida corporation ( Florida Rock ), Virginia Holdco, Inc., a New Jersey corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Vulcan Materials ( Holdco ), Virginia Merger Sub, Inc., a New Jersey corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Holdco ( Virginia Merger Sub ), and Fresno Merger Sub, Inc., a Florida corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Holdco ( Fresno Merger Sub ), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ), pursuant to which, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions therein, (i) Fresno Merger Sub will merge with and into Florida Rock (the Florida Rock Merger ), with Florida Rock surviving such merger as the surviving corporation, and (ii) Virginia Merger Sub will merge with and into Vulcan Materials (the Vulcan Merger ), and together with the Florida Rock Merger, the Mergers ), with Vulcan Materials surviving such merger as the surviving corporation.

Upon the consummation of the Mergers, (i) Florida Rock will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Holdco (which will be renamed Vulcan Materials Company ), (ii) Vulcan Materials will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Holdco and will be renamed VMC Corp. , (iii) each share of Florida Rock common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the Mergers will, at the election of the holder thereof and subject to pro-rata as described in the following paragraph, be converted into the right to receive (x) $67.00 in cash (the Cash Consideration ) or (y) 0.63 of a share of common stock of Holdco, (the Stock Consideration ), and (iv) each share of Vulcan Materials common stock will be automatically converted into one share of Holdco common stock.

The Merger Agreement provides that, in the aggregate, 70% of the Florida Rock common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the Mergers will be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and 30% of the Florida Rock common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the Mergers will be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration. In the event that the Cash Consideration or Stock Consideration is oversubscribed, the undersubscribed form of consideration will be payable to holders not making any election, and the consideration payable to holders electing to receive the more popular form of consideration will be ratably adjusted.

The transaction is conditioned upon clearance under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, approval of the Florida Rock Merger by the Florida Rock shareholders and other customary closing conditions.

In connection with the Mergers, Vulcan Materials entered into a support agreement (the Support Agreement ) with certain members and affiliates of the Baker family, pursuant to which such members and affiliates have agreed to vote certain of their shares of Florida Rock common stock in favor of the Florida Rock Merger and to elect to receive Stock Consideration with respect to certain of those shares. Vulcan Materials, Holdco, and certain members and affiliates of the Baker family have also entered into a shareholders agreement (the Shareholders Agreement ), to be effective following the closing of the Mergers, in which such members and affiliates of the Baker family agree, among other things, for a specified period following the closing not to transfer any beneficially owned shares of Holdco common stock received in the Mergers to a third party and certain other limitations on transfer and voting.

The Merger Agreement has been filed as an exhibit to this Form 8-K to provide you with information regarding the terms of the agreement and is not intended to modify or supplement any factual disclosures about Vulcan Materials or Florida Rock in Vulcan Materials public reports filed with the SEC. In particular, the Merger Agreement and related summary are not intended to be, and should not be relied upon as, disclosures regarding any facts and circumstances relating to Vulcan Materials and Florida Rock. The representations and warranties have been negotiated with the principal purpose of establishing the circumstances in which a party may have the right not to close the transaction if the representations and warranties of the other party prove to be untrue due to a change in circumstance or otherwise, and allocates risk between the parties, rather than establishing matters as facts. The representations and warranties may also be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to shareholders.
