ING closes acquisitions of Santander's Latin American pension and annuity business

ING announced today that it has closed all five transactions to acquire 100 percent of Banco Santander's pension and annuity businesses in Mexico, Chile, Colombia, Uruguay and Argentina. Today's final approval from regulators in Chile completes this acquisition process. ING is now the second largest pension fund manager in Latin America. On July 27th and on November 14th 2007, ING signed agreements with Banco Santander to acquire these five mandatory pension fund management companies (AFPs) and an annuity company in Argentina for a total consideration of USD 1.6 billion (EUR 1.1 billion<sup>1</sup>).

With the closing of these five transactions, ING has doubled its pension assets under management in Latin America to more than EUR 35 billion (September 2007), and expects to double this figure again by 2011. ING's customer base in the region has increased to approximately 22 million customers. ING is now the number three pension provider in Mexico, number three in Chile, number five in Colombia, number two in Uruguay and number one in Argentina, where it has also become the number two annuity provider. Separately, ING is the number one pension provider in Peru.

Tom McInerney, ING Executive Board member and CEO for ING Insurance Americas said, "Completing this transaction is a major accomplishment for ING's growth strategy. ING Insurance looks forward to solidifying its position in Latin America through a combination of organic growth and strategic opportunities in its wealth management core competency (pension and life). We officially welcome our new employees and affiliates to ING. In 2006 the Santander LATAM business reported EUR 18.3 billion of assets under management by year end and after tax profits of EUR 81 million. Based on the purchase price of USD $1.6 billion (EUR 1.1 billion), the transaction reflects a Price/ Earnings multiple of 13.5 times the 2006 earnings.

All five transactions are booked in the Quarter of closing: the Mexico acquisition was booked in Q3 2007, the Colombia, Uruguay and Argentina acquisitions were booked in Q4 2007, and the Chile acquisition will be booked in Q1 2008. The four closings in 2007 have gone well, and the integrations are on track, especially in Mexico which was the first to close.
