Item 8.01 Other Events.

General Cable Corporation (the Company) has determined that it will correct an immaterial footnote disclosure error in its 2008 Annual Report on Form 10-K, as amended (the 2008 Form 10-K), by making an adjustment in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 (the 2009 Form 10-K). The immaterial correction involves the classification within its guarantor footnote of an intercompany dividend for the year ended December 31, 2008 between a guarantor subsidiary and the parent company. This correction has no effect on the Company's 2009 or 2008 consolidated statement of operations, consolidated balance sheet, consolidated statement of cash flows or its liquidity for any prior comparative period and only impacts the parent company's statement of cash flow presentation in the guarantor footnote as further described below.

The intercompany dividend of $34.8 million was recorded within the parent company's intercompany transactions and classified as an investing cash flow activity as disclosed in the Supplemental Guarantor and Parent Company Condensed Financial Information footnote to the 2008 Form 10-K. The Company determined that under ASC 230-10-45-12(b), the payment from the subsidiary was a return on investment and should have been classified as an inflow from operating activities. The Company will present the dividend payment as an operating cash flow for 2008 in its 2009 Form 10-K and will include all disclosures as required by ASC 250-10-50-7 through ASC 250-10-50-10.

As disclosed, this is a nonrecurring transaction and is the only intercompany dividend in the three years presented in the 2008 Form 10-K. Additionally, there has been no such dividend activity in 2009.
