Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On January 6, 2010, Halifax Corporation of Virginia, a Virginia corporation (the Company), entered into an agreement and plan of merger (the Merger Agreement) with Global Iron Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Parent), and Global Iron Acquisition, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Merger Sub).

Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, the Company will merge with and into Merger Sub with Merger Sub continuing as the surviving company (the Merger). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time and as a result of the Merger, each share of common stock, par value $.24 per share, of the Company, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, other than shares as to which appraisal rights are properly asserted under Virginia law and shares owned by the Company, Merger Sub, Parent or any affiliate of Parent, will be converted into the right to receive a cash amount of $1.20 (the Merger Consideration). Additionally, at the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding in-the-money option to purchase the Company's common stock will be converted into the right to receive a cash amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price per share for each share subject to the option, less any applicable withholding taxes, resulting in a cash payment to the holders of such options of approximately $17,000. In-the-money options are options that have an exercise price per share less than $1.20 per share. Each outstanding out-of-the-money option immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be cancelled without consideration. The aggregate Merger consideration is approximately $3.8 million.

The Company, Parent and Merger Sub have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. Among others, the Company covenanted (i) to conduct its business in the ordinary course during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger, (ii) not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during such period, (iii) to file a proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission within 14 days of the date of the Merger Agreement which will provide for the solicitation of proxies in connection with shareholder approval of the Merger and adoption of the Merger Agreement and (iv) that, subject to certain exceptions, the Company's Board of Directors (the Board) will recommend adoption by its shareholders of the Merger Agreement. In addition, the Company made certain additional customary covenants, including, among others, covenants not to: (i) solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or, (ii) subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions concerning or provide confidential information in connection with any proposals for alternative business combination transactions.

The representations and warranties of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made solely for purposes of risk allocation and to provide contractual remedies to the Company, Parent and Merger Sub and such representations and warranties should not be relied on by any other person. In addition, such representations and warranties (i) have been qualified by disclosure schedules that the Company has provided to Parent in connection with signing the Merger Agreement, (ii) will not survive consummation of the Merger, (iii) are subject to materiality standards that may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors, (iv) were made only as of the dates specified in the Merger Agreement and (v) are not intended to provide any factual information about the Company. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or conditions of the Company or Parent. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosure.

Table of Contents

Each party's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain conditions, including (i) approval of the holders of the Company's common stock by at least two-thirds vote of the votes entitled to be cast, (ii) absence of any law or order prohibiting the completion of the Merger and receipt of required consents to complete the Merger, defined in part as a decrease in net assets of more than $400,000 from September 30, 2009, (iii) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, and (iv) material compliance of the other party with its covenants. In addition, Parent's and Merger Sub's obligations to consummate the Merger are also subject to certain additional conditions, including: (i) the absence of any event that has resulted in a material adverse effect on the Company since the date of the Merger Agreement, (ii) the holders of the Company's 8% promissory notes must have exchanged such notes for notes issued by the entity surviving the Merger and (iii) holders of not more than 5% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock entitled to vote at the 2009 annual meeting of shareholders have not properly made or withdrawn a demand for appraisal.

The Company may not directly or indirectly, (a) solicit, initiate or encourage the submission of any acquisition proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or (b) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any information with respect to, or agree to or endorse, or take any other action to facilitate any acquisition proposal or any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any acquisition proposal. The Company may, however, furnish information concerning its businesses, properties or assets to any person or group (as defined in the Exchange Act and the rules promulgated thereunder) and may negotiate and participate in discussions and negotiations with such person or group concerning a superior proposal (as defined below), provided (i) that such person or group shall have entered into a confidentiality agreement (which shall be no less restrictive than the confidentiality agreement executed by Parent in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby) and (ii) that:

(1) such person or group has submitted an acquisition proposal that the Board has determined in good faith is or would reasonably be expected to result in a Superior Proposal;

(2) in the good faith opinion of the Board, after consulting with independent legal counsel to the Company, such action is required to discharge the Board's fiduciary duties to the Company shareholders under applicable law; and

(3) the Company has notified Parent in writing of its intention to engage in such discussions or negotiations or to provide such confidential information not less than 24 hours prior to so doing.

Except after receipt by the Company of a superior proposal, the Board shall not, among other things, withdraw or modify the Board recommendation regarding the Merger, or propose to approve or recommend, any other acquisition proposal. A superior proposal as defined in the Merger Agreement means any unsolicited offer, proposal or other indication of interest for a merger, consolidation, tender offer, exchange offer, acquisition or similar transaction or any other unsolicited business combination involving the Company, any unsolicited proposal, offer or other indication of interest to acquire in any manner a substantially equity interest in, or a substantial portion of the business assets of the Company, any unsolicited proposal, offer or other indication of interest with respect to any recapitalization or restructuring of the Company, or any unsolicited proposal, offer or other indication of interest with respect to any other transaction similar to any of the foregoing with respect to the Company that the Board determines in good faith, taking into consideration such matters that it deems relevant to be more favorable to the Company shareholders than the Merger (based on advice of the Company's financial advisor that the value of the consideration provided for in such proposal is superior to the value of the Merger Consideration), for which financing (which shall be no less certain than the financing secured or expected to be secured by Parent), to the extent required, is (based upon the advice of the Company's financial advisor) capable of being obtained in a reasonable time period.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Parent. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including failure to obtain the requisite shareholder vote in favor of the Merger, failure to timely hold a shareholder meeting and the Company accepting a superior proposal, the Company is required to pay Parent a termination fee of $240,000 and up to $200,000 of the reasonable expenses incurred by Parent in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement by the Company due to Parent's or Merger Sub's representations and warranties not being correct or Parent's or Merger Sub's failure to perform covenants contained in the Merger Agreement and such failure was not cured in all material respects within ten business days following receipt of written notice of such breach by the Company, Parent is required to pay the Company up to $120,000 of the reasonable expenses incurred by Parent in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference. As previously disclosed on a Form 8-K filed on January 11, 2010, the Company issued a press release relating to the Merger, dated January 7, 2010. A copy of this press release was filed as exhibit 99.1 to such Form 8-K.

The Board of Directors of the Company (the Board of Directors) approved the Merger Agreement. The Woodward Group served as the financial advisor to the Board of Directors. On January 6, 2010, The Woodward Group delivered a written opinion to the Board of Directors that, as of the date of the opinion, from a financial point of view, the consideration to be offered to the shareholders of the Company in the Merger is fair to such shareholders.
