The Company currently has an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating Committee.

The following is a description of the functions performed by each of the Committees:

Audit Committee

The Company's Audit Committee presently consists of Messrs. Simonson (Chairman), Andresen, Carlson, Harris, Severance and Ms. Erickson. All of the members of the Audit Committee are independent as that term is defined in the applicable listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market and Rule 10A-3 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). In addition, the Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Simonson is an audit committee financial expert as defined by applicable regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee provides assistance to the Board of Directors in fulfilling the Board's duties relating to corporate accounting, reporting practices of the Company and the quality and integrity of the Company's financial reports. Among other things, the Audit Committee selects and appoints the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, meets with the independent registered public accounting firm and financial management to review the scope of the audit and the audit procedures and reviews annually the responsibilities of the Audit Committee and recommends to the Board of Directors any changes to these responsibilities. The responsibilities of the Audit Committee are set forth in the Audit Committee Charter, adopted by the Company's Board of Directors on February 23, 2004. A copy the Audit Committee Charter is included as Exhibit A to this Proxy Statement. The Audit Committee met four times during fiscal 2009, once each quarter.

Compensation Committee

The Company's Compensation Committee presently consists of Messrs. Andresen (Chairman), Simonson, Harris, Severance, Carlson and Ms. Erickson. All of the members of the Compensation Committee are independent as that term is defined in the applicable listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market. The Compensation Committee annually reviews and acts upon a compensation package for the Chief Executive Officer and the Company's other executive officers, and sets compensation policy for the other employees of the Company. In addition, the Compensation Committee acts upon management recommendations concerning employee stock options, bonuses and other compensation and benefit plans. The Compensation Committee also administers the IKONICS Corporation 1995 Stock Incentive Plan. The responsibilities of the Compensation Committee are set forth in the Compensation Committee Charter, adopted by the Company's Board of Directors on February 23, 2004. Pursuant to the Compensation Committee Charter, the Committee has authority to delegate any of its responsibilities to subcommittees as the Committee may deem appropriate, provided that the subcommittees are composed entirely of independent directors. A copy of the Compensation Committee Charter is included as Exhibit B to this Proxy Statement. The Compensation Committee met three times during fiscal 2009.

Nominating Committee

The Company's Nominating Committee presently consists of Ms. Erickson (Chairperson) and Messrs. Andresen, Simonson, Harris, Severance, and Carlson. All of the members of the Nominating Committee are independent as that term is defined in the applicable listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market. The purposes of the Nominating Committee are to identify individuals qualified to become Board members and to approve director-nominees to be considered for election by shareholders and for election by the Board to fill any vacancy or newly created directorship. The responsibilities of the Nominating Committee are set forth in the Nominating Committee which was included as Exhibit A to the Proxy Statement for the 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The Nominating Committee met three times during fiscal 2009.

The Nominating Committee has established a policy with regard to the consideration of any director candidates recommended by the Company's shareholders. The Nominating Committee will consider director candidates recommended by a Company shareholder provided that the shareholder sends the Company a written notice received by the Secretary of the Company that (i) states the name and address of the shareholder identifying the candidate as that information appears on the Company's books and records and the number of shares of the Company owned by the recommending shareholder and (ii) provides the following information about the candidate:

1. name, age, and business and residential addresses;
2. principal occupation or employment;
3. number of shares of the Company beneficially owned;
4. statement of the person's citizenship; and
5. any other information that must be disclosed about nominees in proxy solicitations pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (including the candidate's written consent to be named as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected).

The Company may require any proposed candidate to furnish such other information as may reasonably be required by the Nominating Committee to determine the eligibility of the proposed nominee to serve as a director. Provided a shareholder satisfies the requirements described above, the Nominating Committee will consider director candidates recommended by shareholders in the same manner that it considers all other director candidates. All director candidates must meet certain minimum qualifications established by the Nominating Committee from time to time, and the Nominating Committee will assess the experience, integrity, competence, diversity, skills, and dedication to the Company of all director candidates. The Nominating Committee does not have an independent policy with regard to considering the diversity of the Company's directors. The Nominating Committee will consider a number of features when evaluating diversity, including age, gender, ethnicity and professional experiences. As indicated above, diversity is one factor in the total mix of information the Board of Directors considers when evaluating director candidates. Shareholders who wish to suggest qualified candidates should write to the Office of the Corporate Secretary of IKONICS Corporation, at 4832 Grand Avenue, Duluth, Minnesota 55807, stating the information described above and any other relevant details concerning the candidate's qualifications for consideration by the Nominating Committee.

Board Leadership Structure and Role in Risk Oversight

Mr. Ulland has served in the combined roles of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer since 2000. Mr. Ulland's combined service as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer creates unified leadership for the Company. This leadership structure, which is common among U.S.-based publicly-traded companies, demonstrates to customers and shareholders that the Company is under strong leadership and minimizes the potential duplication of efforts among management and the directors. The Board of Directors does not have a lead independent director and does not believe that one is necessary in light of the Company's size and the lengthy experience the majority of the directors have working with Mr. Ulland. The Board of Directors believes its leadership structure allows the Company to operate most efficiently and is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

The Company's management is responsible for day-to-day risk management of the Company. Management reports to the Board of Directors on the material risks the Company faces when management determines that the Company's risk profile materially changes. The Board of Directors uses management's reports to evaluate the Company's exposure to risks in light of the Company's business plan and growth strategies. The Board of Directors primarily focuses on risks in the areas of operations, liquidity and regulatory changes and compliance, which the Board of Directors believes are the areas most likely to potentially impact on the Company in a material way.

Director Compensation

Each non-employee director of the Company receives a quarterly retainer of $2,000, plus per meeting fees of $2,000 for each meeting of the Board of Directors. Fees are not paid for committee meetings. From time to time, the Company's non-employee directors have been awarded options to purchase the Company's Common Stock under the 1995 Stock Incentive Plan and Mr. Ulland has been awarded stock options under such plan in connection with his position as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. No such grants of stock options have been made since 2003. The following table sets forth the total compensation paid to each director for fiscal 2009. Mr. Ulland did not receive separate compensation for his service as a director during fiscal 2009.

The Board provides a process for shareholders to send communications to the Board or any of the directors. Shareholders may send written communications to the Board of Directors or specified individual directors by addressing their communication to Chief Financial Officer, IKONICS Corporation, 4832 Grand Avenue, Duluth, Minnesota 55807, by U.S. mail. The Company does not have a formal policy regarding attendance by members of the Board of Directors at the Company's Annual Meetings of Shareholders. The Company has always encouraged its directors to attend its annual meeting of shareholders and expects to continue this policy. In 2009, five Company directors attended the Company's Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Table of Contents*REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The role of the Company's Audit Committee, which is composed of six independent non-employee directors, is one of oversight of the Company's management and the Company's outside auditors in regard to the Company's financial reporting and the Company's controls with respect to accounting and financial reporting. In performing its oversight function, the Audit Committee relied upon advice and information received in its discussions with the Company's management and independent registered public accounting firm.

The Audit Committee has (i) reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009 with the Company's management; (ii) discussed with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, regarding communication with audit committees (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, AU sec. 380); (iii) received the written disclosures and the letter from the Company's independent registered public accounting firm required by applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding the independent registered public accounting firm's communications with the Audit Committee concerning independence; and (iv) discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm the independent registered public accounting firm's independence.

Table of Contents

- (1) Audit Fees consist of fees for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's financial statements and review of financial statements included in the Company's quarterly reports and filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and fees related to the 2009 audit of internal controls prior to the deferral of Sarbanes-Oxley Section 404(b), which eliminated the requirement for an independent audit of the Company's internal controls for that year.

- (2) Audit-Related Fees are fees principally for professional services rendered for the review procedures performed in connection with the registration of additional shares on Form

S-8, and consultations regarding response to an SEC comment letter.

- (3) Tax Fees consist of compliance fees for the preparation of tax returns. Tax fees for 2009 also include consultations for state and local tax queries and an audit by the Minnesota Department of Revenue ($9,300). The Audit Committee's current practice on pre-approval of services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm is to approve annually all audit services and, on a case-by-case basis, all permitted non-audit services to be provided by the independent registered public accounting firm during the fiscal year. The Audit Committee reviews each non-audit service to be provided and assesses the impact of the service on the auditor's independence. In addition, the Audit Committee may pre-approve other non-audit services during the year on a case-by-case basis.

Relationship with Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Audit Committee has selected McGladrey & Pullen, LLP to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010. It is the judgment of the Audit Committee that McGladrey & Pullen, LLP has and will conduct its affairs in an appropriate manner and warranted selection as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The Board of Directors is not required to submit the selection of McGladrey & Pullen, LLP for ratification by the Company's shareholders and is not doing so for ease of administration and to maintain the Audit Committee's flexibility to select an independent registered public accounting firm that it believes is best suited to serve the Company. A representative of McGladrey & Pullen, LLP is not expected to be present at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders or be afforded an opportunity to make a statement or respond to questions during the meeting.

The Company has not entered into employment agreements with any of the Named Executive Officers. The amounts portrayed in the table above under All Other Compensation represent the Company's contribution to its salary deferral plan adopted under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Company's executive officers are eligible to participate in a 401(k) defined contribution plan. All of the Named Executive Officers participated in the 401(k) plan during fiscal 2009 and 2008 and received contributions.

Amounts shown in the Non-Equity Incentive Plan Compensation column represent payments pursuant to the Company's bonus program for the applicable fiscal year. Under the program, executive officers were eligible to receive cash bonuses equal to a percentage of the year's bonus pool. The fiscal 2009 and fiscal 2008 bonus pools were set at 10% of the amount by which net income before income taxes (as adjusted for unusual items of income or expense) (EBT) for the applicable fiscal year exceeded the EBT target for that fiscal year. For fiscal 2009 and fiscal 2008, Mr. Ulland was eligible to receive a bonus equal to 30% of the pool, and Mr. Piguet, the Company's Executive Vice President, was eligible to receive a bonus equal to 20% of the pool. management and the outside auditors in regard to the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company and the audits of the financial statements of the Company.

The Company's management, and its independent auditor, in the exercise of their responsibilities, acquire greater knowledge and more detailed information about the Company and its financial affairs than members of the Audit Committee. Consequently, the Audit Committee is not responsible for providing any expert or special assurance as to the Company's financial statements and other financial information or any professional certification as to the independent auditor's work, including without limitation its reports on and reviews of the Company's financial statements and other financial information.

Oversight of Independent Auditor

1. The Audit Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, retention, compensation, evaluation, termination and oversight of the work of the independent auditor (including resolution of disagreements between management and the independent auditor regarding financial reporting) for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work. The independent auditor shall report directly to the Audit Committee. The Company shall provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Audit Committee, for payment of compensation to any accounting firm engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company.

The Audit Committee may delegate authority to one or more members of the Audit Committee, who are independent directors, the authority to grant pre-approvals of audit and permitted non-audit services, provided that decisions of such member(s) shall be presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. The Audit Committee may establish policies and procedures regarding the engagement of the independent auditor to render services to the Company, provided that the policies and procedures are detailed as to the particular service, the Audit Committee is informed of each service and the pre-approval policies and procedures do not include the delegation of the Audit Committee responsibilities to management. If pre-approval policies and procedures are adopted, the Company may engage the independent auditor to perform services consistent with the policies and procedures. When pre-approving non-audit services, the Audit Committee should consider whether the provision of the non-audit services by the independent auditor is compatible with maintaining the independent auditor's independence.

Authority to Engage Independent Advisors

The Audit Committee shall have the authority to retain independent counsel and other legal, accounting or other advisors as it determines necessary to carry out its duties. The Company shall provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Audit Committee, for payment of compensation to any advisors employed by the Audit Committee.
