Item 4.02. Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review.

In connection with the preparation of OPKO Health Inc.'s (the Company) financial statements for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010, the Company reevaluated its accounting for the September 28, 2009 Series D Convertible Preferred Stock (the Preferred Stock) offering and determined that it did not properly account for the beneficial conversion feature of the Preferred Stock. In connection with the issuance of 1,209,667 shares of Preferred Stock, it issued warrants to purchase up to an aggregate of 3,024,194 shares of its common stock at an exercise price of $2.48 per share. The Company should have allocated the $30 million in proceeds received from the issuance of the Preferred Stock and warrants to those instruments based on their relative fair values, which would have resulted in a $3.9 million beneficial conversion feature. Because the Preferred Stock was immediately convertible into common stock, the beneficial conversion feature should have been immediately recognized as a deemed dividend and should have increased the loss attributable to common shareholders. In addition, the Company is correcting the classification of the Preferred Stock from a component of equity to the mezzanine section of the balance sheet.

As a result, on November 8, 2010, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors concluded that the Company's previously issued consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2009, and interim condensed consolidated financial statements for the quarterly and year-to-date periods ended September 30, 2009, and as of March 31, 2010 and June 30, 2010, should no longer be relied upon. The Company is restating its previously issued consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2009, and interim condensed consolidated financial statements for the quarterly and year-to-date periods ended September 30, 2009, and as of March 31, 2010 and June 30, 2010, in amendments to its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, and its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the interim periods ended March 31, 2010 and June 30, 2010. The Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors has discussed the matters disclosed in this report with Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

The Company's restated consolidated financial statements will reflect the following changes:
