and Consumers. Mr. Joos will continue in his position of president of CMS Energy, but has relinquished that position at Consumers.

Ken Whipple will continue in his role as chairman of CMS Energy and Consumers. In connection with Mr. Whipple's relinquishment of his prior positions as chief executive officer of CMS Energy and Consumers, his employment as an executive officer of both companies terminated effective September 30, 2004. Mr. Whipple's prior compensation and awards will be paid out to him in accordance with the terms of his First Amended and Restated Employment Agreement effective as of September 1, 2003, as previously filed as an exhibit to a Form 8-K filed on October 24, 2003.

Also effective October 1, 2004, the Board of Directors of Consumers elected John G. Russell to the position of president and chief operating officer. Mr. Russell is 46 years old. He joined Consumers in 1986 and has received a succession of increasingly responsible management positions at the companies. During the past five years, Mr. Russell has held the following positions at Consumers:

- Executive Vice President, President and Chief Executive Officer - Electric
- Senior Vice President
- Vice President

Mr. Russell previously had entered in to an executive severance agreement with Consumers in the Tier I form disclosed as part of Exhibit (10) (b) to CMS Energy's and Consumers' Forms 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2004. The Tier I agreement applicable to senior officers, which has an initial three-year term subject to further extension, provides for change-in-control severance benefits when there is a change in control of the company and general severance benefits for senior officers outside of such a change in control.

There are no family relationships between Mr. Russell and any other executive officer or director of CMS Energy or Consumers, nor does Mr. Russell have a direct or indirect material interest in any transaction or series of transactions to which CMS Energy or Consumers or any of their subsidiaries are a party.

ITEM 5.03. AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OR BYLAWS; CHANGE IN FISCAL YEAR.

Effective October 1, 2004, CMS Energy and Consumers have adopted changes to their respective bylaws. CMS Energy amended its bylaws to separate the roles of chairman and chief executive officer (Article X, Sections 3 and 4) and to reflect the New York Stock Exchange requirement that officer compensation be fixed by a committee of independent directors (Article VIII, Section 5). Consumers amended its bylaws for the aforementioned reasons (Article X, Sections 3 and 4 and Article VIII, Section 5) as well as redefining the position of president, such that the president shall be the chief operating officer of the company (Article X, Section 5). CMS Energy's and Consumers' respective bylaws are attached as exhibits hereto.
