PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra Sheets if Needed)

Delphi Corporation's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2004 (Form 10-Q) could not be filed within the prescribed time period because the Company could not complete the preparation of the required information without unreasonable effort and expense. As previously announced in our Form 8-K filed on October 18, 2004 (the October 8-K), the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors is conducting an internal review into the accounting treatment accorded to certain transactions with suppliers, including those for information technology services. The internal review was initiated in response to an investigation commenced by the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission that was disclosed on a Form 8-K filed on September 29, 2004. The decision to delay filing of the Form 10-Q was made in light of the ongoing SEC investigation and internal review, as well as the fact that Deloitte & Touche LLP (Deloitte), the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, had informed the Company that due to the ongoing status of the internal review by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, Deloitte has been unable to complete its review of the unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2004. In lieu of filing a complete Form 10-Q, the Company included updated financial information for the nine months ended September 30, 2004, including Consolidated Financial Statements for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2004 and the related management's discussion and analysis in its October 8-K. The Company will not be in a position to file a Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q without unreasonable effort or expense prior to the time at which the Audit Committee's internal review is completed.
