Metrocall Redeems $20 Million Preferred Stock
Today; Remaining Preferred Shares to be
Redeemed May 17, 2004

Final $6.8 Million Redemption will Complete All Post-Reorganization Debt & Preferred Stock Obligations

Alexandria, VA, Wednesday, March 31, 2004 Metrocall Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ:MTOH), a leading provider of paging and wireless messaging, today announced the voluntary redemption of approximately 1.8 million shares of its 15% cumulative series A preferred stock (series A preferred), on a pro-rata basis from all holders of record on March 1, 2004 for approximately $11.13 per share. The redemption constituted approximately 75% of the remaining outstanding shares of the series A preferred. The redemption is being funded from $20.0 million of cash balances generated from operations.

Metrocall also announced today that it would redeem the remaining series A preferred shares on May 17, 2004 for an aggregate redemption amount of approximately $6.8 million, or approximately $11.13 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends of approximately $0.21 per share. Upon such redemption, Metrocall shall have retired all of the long-term debt incurred and preferred stock issued by it under its chapter 11 reorganization.

The final installment of the $81.5 million aggregate principal amount of long-term debt incurred under its Chapter 11 plan was repaid on June 30, 2003 and, with the redemption on May 17, 2004, Metrocall shall have redeemed all $60 million of the preferred stock originally issued under its Chapter 11 plan. The retirement of the preferred stock will fulfill one of Metrocall's obligations under its recently announced merger agreement with Arch Wireless, Inc. dated as of March 29, 2004.

Additionally today, Metrocall paid a cash dividend on the series A preferred stock of approximately $0.42 per share to holders of record on March 15, 2004. Please refer to the Company's most recent annual report on Form 10-K for details on these securities.

About Metrocall Wireless, Inc.

Metrocall Wireless, Inc., headquartered in Alexandria, Virginia, is a leading provider of paging products and other wireless services to the business, government and healthcare communities. In addition to its reliable, nationwide one-way networks, Metrocall's two-way network has the largest high-powered terrestrial ReFLEX footprint in the United States with roaming partners in Canada, Mexico and the Caribbean. Metrocall Wireless is the preferred ReFLEX wireless data network provider for many of the largest telecommunication companies in the United States that source network services and resell under their own brand names. In addition to traditional numeric, one-way text and two-way paging, Metrocall also offers wireless e-mail solutions, as well as mobile voice and data services through AT&T Wireless and Nextel. Also, Metrocall offers Integrated Resource Management Systems with wireless connectivity solutions for medical, business, government and other campus environments. Metrocall focuses on the business-to-business marketplace and supports organizations of all sizes. On March 29, 2004, Metrocall and Arch Wireless, Inc. announced a merger agreement that would result in a combination of the two businesses. That transaction is subject to several conditions, including shareholder and regulatory approvals.
