DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

Common Shares

The holders of Common Shares are entitled to receive notice of, attend and vote at all annual and special meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation and to one vote in respect of each Common Share held at all such meetings, except at separate meetings of or on separate votes by the holders of another class or series of shares of the Corporation. The holders of the Common Shares are entitled to receive dividends if, as and when declared by CPRL's Board of Directors out of the assets of the Corporation properly applicable to the payment of dividends in such amounts and payable in such manner as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. Subject to the rights of the holders of any other class of shares of the Corporation entitled to receive dividends in priority to or rateably with the holders of the Common Shares, the Board of Directors may in its sole discretion declare dividends on the Common Shares to the exclusion of any other class of shares of the Corporation. In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation or other distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, the holders of the Common Shares will, subject to the rights of the holders of any other class of shares of the Corporation entitled to receive the assets of the Corporation upon such a distribution in priority to or rateably with the holders of the Common Shares, be entitled to participate rateably in any distribution of the assets of the Corporation.

First Preferred Shares

Subject to certain limitations, the Board of Directors of the Corporation may, from time to time, issue First Preferred Shares in one or more series and determine for any such series, its designation, number of shares and respective rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions. The Board of Directors may not issue First Preferred Shares if by doing so the aggregate amount payable to the holders of such shares as a return of capital in the event of the liquidation or dissolution or winding up of the Corporation or any other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purposes of winding up its affairs would exceed $500,000,000. The First Preferred Shares are entitled to preference over the Common Shares, the Second Preferred Shares and any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets of the Corporation in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation. Except with the consent in writing of all of the holders of First Preferred Shares which may be outstanding, no dividend can be declared and paid on or set apart for payment on the Second Preferred Shares or the Common Shares or on any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares unless and until all dividends (if any) up to and including any dividend payable for the last completed period for which such dividend is payable on each series of First Preferred Shares outstanding has been declared and paid or set apart for payment. Except as provided by the Canada Business Corporations Act, the holders of the First Preferred Shares will not have any voting rights nor will they be entitled to receive notice of or to attend shareholders' meetings.

Table of Contents

Second Preferred Shares

The rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Second Preferred Shares are substantially identical to those attaching to the First Preferred Shares, except that the Second Preferred Shares are junior to the First Preferred Shares, and are entitled to preference over the Common Shares with respect to the payment of dividends, repayment of capital and the distribution of assets of the Corporation in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation or any other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purposes of winding up its affairs.

Subscription Receipts

Subscription Receipts may be offered separately or together with Common Shares and/or other securities of the Corporation, including Warrants. The Subscription Receipts will be issued under a subscription receipt agreement that will be entered into by the Corporation and an escrow agent at the time of issuance of the Subscription Receipts.

A Subscription Receipt will entitle the holder thereof to receive a Common Share and/or other securities of the Corporation, for no additional consideration, upon the completion of a particular transaction or event, typically an acquisition of the assets or securities of another entity by the Corporation or one or more of its subsidiaries. The subscription proceeds from an offering of Subscription Receipts will be held in escrow by an escrow agent pending the completion of the transaction or the termination time (the time at which the escrow terminates regardless of whether the transaction or event has occurred). Holders of Subscription Receipts will receive Common Shares and/or other securities of the Corporation upon the completion of the particular transaction or event or, if the transaction or event does not occur by the termination time, a return of the subscription funds for their Subscription Receipts together with any interest or other income earned thereon. Holders of Subscription Receipts are not shareholders of the Corporation.

The particular terms and provisions of Subscriptions Receipts offered by any prospectus supplement, and the extent to which the general terms and provisions described below may apply to them, will be described in the prospectus supplement filed in respect of such Subscription Receipts. This description will include, where applicable: (i) the number of Subscription Receipts offered; (ii) the price at which the Subscription Receipts will be offered; (iii) the terms, conditions and procedures pursuant to which the holders of Subscription Receipts will become entitled to receive Common Shares and/or other securities of the Corporation; (iv) the number of Common Shares and/or other securities of the Corporation that may be obtained upon exercise of each Subscription Receipt; (v) the designation and terms of any other securities with which the Subscription Receipts will be offered, if any, and the number of Subscription Receipts that will be offered with each such security; (vi) the terms relating to the holding and release of the gross proceeds from the sale of the Subscription Receipts plus any interest and income earned thereon; (vii) the material income tax consequences of owning, holding and disposing of the Subscription Receipts; and (viii) any other material terms and conditions of the Subscription Receipts including, without limitation, transferability and adjustment terms and whether the Subscription Receipts will be listed on a stock exchange.

Warrants

Warrants will typically be offered with Common Shares, with such securities often referred to collectively as a "Unit", but may be offered with Subscription Receipts or separately. The Warrants either will be issued under a warrant indenture or agreement that will be entered into by the Corporation and a trustee at the time of issuance of the Warrants or will be represented by Warrant certificates issued by the Corporation.

A Warrant will entitle the holder thereof to receive a Common Share and/or other securities of the Corporation upon the exercise thereof and payment of the applicable exercise price. A Warrant will be exercisable for a specific period of time at the end of which time it will expire and cease to be exercisable. Holders of Warrants are not shareholders of the Corporation.

Table of Contents

The particular terms and provisions of Warrants offered by any prospectus supplement, and the extent to which the general terms and provisions described below may apply to them, will be described in the prospectus supplement filed in respect of such Warrants. This description will include, where applicable: (i) the title or designation of the Warrants; (ii) the number of Warrants offered; (iii) the number of Common Shares and/or other securities of the Corporation purchasable upon exercise of the Warrants and the procedures for exercise; (iv) the exercise price of the Warrants; (v) the dates or periods during which the Warrants are exercisable and when they expire; (vi) the designation and terms of any other securities with which the Warrants will be offered, if any, and the number of Warrants that will be offered with each such security; (vii) the material income tax consequences of owning, holding and disposing of the Warrants; and (viii) any other material terms and conditions of the Warrants including, without limitation, transferability and adjustment terms and whether the Warrants will be listed on a stock exchange.

Units

Units are a security comprised of one or more of the other Securities described in this prospectus offered together as a "Unit". A Unit is typically issued so that the holder thereof is also the holder of each Security included in the Unit. Thus, the holder of a Unit will have the rights and obligations of a holder of each Security comprising the Unit. The unit agreement under which a Unit is issued may provide that the Securities comprising the Unit may not be held or transferred separately at any time or at any time before a specified date.

The particular terms and provisions of Units offered by any prospectus supplement, and the extent to which the general terms and provisions described below may apply to them, will be described in the prospectus supplement filed in respect of such Units. This description will include, where applicable: (i) the designation and terms of the Units and of the Securities comprising the Units, including whether and under what circumstances those Securities may be held or transferred separately; (ii) any provisions for the issuance, payment, settlement, transfer or exchange of the Units or of the Securities comprising the Units; (iii) whether the Units will be issued in fully registered or global form; and (iv) any other material terms and conditions of the Units.

RISK FACTORS

Prospective purchasers of Securities should consider carefully the risk factors contained in and incorporated by reference into this prospectus including those described in a prospectus supplement relating to a specific offering of Securities.

Discussions of certain risks affecting the Corporation in connection with its business are provided in the Corporation's annual disclosure documents (annual information form and management's discussion and analysis) and interim management's discussion and analysis filed with the applicable regulatory authorities which are incorporated by reference into this prospectus.

CERTAIN INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The applicable prospectus supplement will describe certain material Canadian federal income tax consequences to an investor who is a resident of Canada or who is a non-resident of Canada of acquiring, owning and disposing of any Securities offered thereunder, including whether the payments of dividends or other distributions will be subject to Canadian non-resident withholding tax.

The applicable prospectus supplement will also describe certain material United States federal income tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of any Securities offered thereunder by an initial investor who is a United States person (within the meaning of the United States Internal Revenue Code).

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Corporation may sell the Securities and the Selling Shareholder may sell Common Shares (i) to underwriters purchasing as principal; (ii) directly to one or more purchasers in accordance with applicable securities laws; or (iii) through agents. The Securities may be sold at fixed prices or non-fixed prices, such as prices determined by reference to the prevailing price of the Securities in a specified market, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale or at prices to be negotiated with purchasers, which prices may vary as between purchasers and during the period of distribution of the Securities.

Table of Contents

The prospectus supplement relating to each offering of Securities will set forth the terms of the offering of those Securities, including the name or names of any underwriters or agents, the purchase price of the Securities, the proceeds to the Corporation and/or the Selling Shareholder, any underwriters' or agents' fees or other compensation, any public offering price, and any discounts or concessions allowed or re-allowed or paid. Only underwriters or agents named in the relevant prospectus supplement are deemed to be underwriters or agents in connection with the Securities offered by that prospectus supplement.

If underwriters purchase Securities as principal, the Securities will be acquired by the underwriters for their own account and may be resold from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. The obligations of the underwriters to purchase those Securities will be subject to certain conditions precedent, and the underwriters will be obligated to purchase all the Securities offered by the prospectus supplement if any of such Securities are purchased. Any public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or re-allowed or paid may be changed from time to time.

The Securities may also be sold directly by the Corporation, or in the case of Common Shares, the Selling Shareholder, at prices and upon terms agreed to by the purchaser and the Corporation or purchaser and the Selling Shareholder or through agents designated by the Corporation and/or the Selling Shareholder from time to time. Any agent involved in the offering and sale of the Securities pursuant to a particular prospectus supplement will be named, and any commissions payable by the Corporation and/or the Selling Shareholder to that agent will be set forth, in such prospectus supplement. Unless otherwise indicated in the prospectus supplement, any agent would be acting on a reasonable commercial efforts basis for the period of its appointment.

The Corporation and/or the Selling Shareholder may agree to pay the underwriters a commission for various services relating to the issue and sale of any Securities offered by this prospectus. Any such commission will be paid out of general funds. Underwriters, dealers and agents who participate in the distribution of the Securities may be entitled under agreements to be entered into with us and/or the Selling Shareholder to indemnification by us and/or the Selling Shareholder against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the U.S. Securities Act or to contribution with respect to payments which those underwriters, dealers or agents may be required to make in respect thereof. Those underwriters, dealers and agents may be customers of, engage in transactions with or perform services for us in the ordinary course of business.

Any offering of First Preferred Shares, Second Preferred Shares, Subscription Receipts, Warrants or Units will be a new issue of Securities with no established trading market. Unless otherwise specified in the applicable prospectus supplement, the First Preferred Shares, Second Preferred Shares, Subscription Receipts, Warrants or Units will not be listed on any stock exchange. Certain dealers may make a market in such Securities, but will not be obligated to do so and may discontinue any market making at any time without notice. No assurance can be given that any dealer will make a market in such Securities or as to the liquidity of the trading market, if any, for such Securities.

The prospectus supplement will set forth the intention of any underwriters or agents who participate in the distribution of the Securities to over-allot or effect transactions which stabilize the Securities' price at a higher level than that which might exist in the open market. Such transactions may be commenced, interrupted or discontinued at any time.

SELLING SHAREHOLDER

As at the date hereof, based on publicly available information, the Selling Shareholder beneficially owns 24,159,888 Common Shares, which is approximately 13.8% of the outstanding Common Shares.

On June 3, 2013, the Selling Shareholder announced its plans to sell up to 7,000,000 of the Common Shares that it owns over a 6 to 12 month period which began on June 10, 2013. The Selling Shareholder may from time to time sell Common Shares pursuant to this prospectus or under Rule 144 or another exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act or, if required, from the prospectus requirements under Canadian securities legislation. The Selling Shareholder does not expect the aggregate number of Common Shares it sells by any means over such period to exceed 7,000,000 Common Shares.

Registration Rights Agreement

The following description of certain provisions of the registration rights agreement dated as of July 29, 2013 between the Corporation and the Pershing Square Funds (the "Registration Rights Agreement") is a summary only, is not comprehensive and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Registration Rights Agreement, a copy of which is available at www.sedar.com and which has been filed as an exhibit to the registration statement on Form F-10.

The Registration Rights Agreement provides the Pershing Square Funds with the right (the "Demand Registration Right") to require the Corporation to qualify the distribution of up to 7,000,000 Common Shares held by the Pershing Square Funds, by prospectus filed with the applicable Canadian securities regulatory authorities and/or the SEC (a "Demand Distribution"). The Pershing Square Funds are entitled to request up to four Demand Distributions in respect of underwritten offerings. The Corporation must use reasonable commercial efforts to assist the Pershing Square Funds in making a Demand Distribution, provided that each request for a Demand Distribution for an underwritten offering must relate to such number of Common Shares having an aggregate market price of at least US$150 million based on the average trading price of the Common Shares over the prior 15 days.

In addition, the Registration Rights Agreement provides the Pershing Square Funds with the right (the "Piggy-Back Registration Right"), among others, to require the Corporation to include Common Shares held by the Pershing Square Funds, in any future public distribution undertaken by the Corporation (a "Distribution"). The Corporation must use reasonable commercial efforts to cause to be included in the Distribution all of the Common Shares the Pershing Square Funds requests to be sold pursuant to the Piggy-Back Registration Right; provided, however, that if the Distribution involves an underwriting and the lead underwriter determines that the total number of Common Shares to be included in such Distribution should be limited for certain prescribed reasons, the Common Shares to be included in the Distribution will be first allocated to the Corporation.

The Piggy-Back Registration Right and Demand Registration Right are subject to various conditions and limitations, and the Corporation is entitled to defer any Demand Distribution in certain circumstances for a limited period.

The Registration Rights Agreement provides that expenses relating to a Demand Distribution that would not have otherwise been incurred by the Corporation shall be borne by the Pershing Square Funds and expenses relating to a Piggy-Back Distribution (or a Demand Distribution in which the Corporation also offers its own securities) shall be allocated to the parties in proportion to the number of Common Shares sold, directly or indirectly, by such party as part of the distribution.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the Corporation is obliged to indemnify the Pershing Square Funds or any underwriters for any misrepresentation in this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement (other than in respect of any information provided by the Pershing Square Funds or the underwriters for inclusion in the prospectus). The Pershing Square Funds are obliged to indemnify the Corporation and any underwriters for any misrepresentation in this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement arising from information furnished in writing by the Pershing Square Funds for inclusion in the prospectus. The Registration Rights Agreement (other than the indemnity provisions) will terminate upon the earlier of (i) the sale by the Pershing Square Funds, by distribution or otherwise, of 7,000,000 Common Shares; (ii) expiry of this short form base shelf prospectus and (iii) three months following the date the Corporation provides a legal opinion to the Pershing Square Funds that the Pershing Square Funds cannot reasonably be considered to be either a 10% holder of Common Shares or an affiliate or control person of the Corporation.

The Pershing Square Funds may also sell Common Shares other than pursuant to this short form base shelf prospectus under available exemptions from the prospectus and registration requirements of Canadian and U.S. securities legislation. The Corporation cannot predict when or in what amounts the Pershing Square Funds may sell any of the Common Shares qualified for distribution by this short form base shelf prospectus.

LEGAL MATTERS

Unless otherwise specified in the prospectus supplement relating to a particular offering of Securities, certain legal matters relating to Canadian law will be passed upon on behalf of the Corporation by Norton Rose Fulbright Canada llp, Calgary, Alberta and certain legal matters relating to United States law will be passed upon on behalf of the Corporation by Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison llp, New York, New York.

CONTRACTUAL RIGHTS OF RESCISSION

Original purchasers of Subscription Receipts or Warrants offered separately will have a contractual right of rescission against the Corporation in respect of the conversion, exchange or exercise of such a Subscription Receipt or Warrant. The contractual right of rescission will entitle such original purchasers to receive the amount paid upon conversion, exchange or exercise, upon surrender of the underlying securities gained thereby, in the event that this prospectus (as supplemented or amended) contains a misrepresentation, provided that: (i) the conversion, exchange or exercise takes place within 180 days of the date of the purchase of the convertible, exchangeable or exercisable security under this prospectus; and (ii) the right of rescission is exercised within 180 days of the date of the purchase of the convertible, exchangeable or exercisable security under this prospectus. This contractual right of rescission will be consistent with the statutory right of rescission described under section 203 of the Securities Act (Alberta), and is in addition to any other right or remedy available to original purchasers under section 203 of the Securities Act (Alberta) or otherwise at law. Original purchasers are further advised that in certain provinces the statutory right of action for damages in connection with a prospectus misrepresentation is limited to the amount paid for the convertible, exchangeable or exercisable security that was purchased under a prospectus, and therefore a further payment at the time of conversion, exchange or exercise may not be recoverable in a statutory action for damages. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser's province for the particulars of these rights, or consult with a legal advisor.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 124 of the Canada Business Corporations Act (the “CBCA”) provides as follows:

124. (1) Indemnification. A corporation may indemnify a director or officer of the corporation, a former director or officer of the corporation or another individual who acts or acted at the corporation’s request as a director or officer, or an individual acting in a similar capacity, of another entity, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by the individual in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding in which the individual is involved because of that association with the corporation or other entity.

(2) Advance of Costs. A corporation may advance moneys to a director, officer or other individual for the costs, charges and expenses of a proceeding referred to in subsection (1). The individual shall repay the moneys if the individual does not fulfill the conditions of subsection (3).

(3) Limitation. A corporation may not indemnify an individual under subsection (1) unless the individual

(a)acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the corporation, or, as the case may be, to the best interests of the other entity for which the individual acted as director or officer or in a similar capacity at the corporation's request; and

(b)in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the individual had reasonable grounds for believing that the individual's conduct was lawful.

(4) Indemnification in derivative actions. A corporation may with the approval of a court, indemnify an individual referred to in subsection (1), or advance moneys under subsection (2), in respect of an action by or on behalf of the corporation or other entity to procure a judgment in its favour, to which the individual is made a party because of the individual's association with the corporation or other entity as described in subsection (1) against all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by the individual in connection with such action, if the individual fulfills the conditions set out in subsection (3).

(5) Right to indemnity. Despite subsection (1), an individual referred to in that subsection is entitled to indemnity from the corporation in respect of all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by the individual in connection with the defence of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding to which the individual is subject because of the individual's association with the corporation or other entity as described in subsection (1), if the individual seeking indemnity

committed any fault or omitted to do anything that the individual ought to have done; and (b)fulfills the conditions set out in subsection (3).

(6) Insurance. A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of an individual referred to in subsection (1) against any liability incurred by the individual

(a)in the individual's capacity as a director or officer of the corporation; or

(b)in the individual's capacity as a director or officer, or similar capacity, of another entity, if the individual acts or acted in that capacity at the corporation's request.

(7) Application to court. A corporation, an individual or an entity referred to in subsection (1) may apply to a court for an order approving an indemnity under this section and the court may so order and make any further order that it sees fit.

(8) Notice to Director. An applicant under subsection (7) shall give the Director notice of the application and the Director is entitled to appear and be heard in person or by counsel.

(9) Other notice. On an application under subsection (7) the court may order notice to be given to any interested person and the person is entitled to appear and be heard in person or by counsel.

The by-laws of the Registrant provide that the Registrant shall indemnify a director or officer of the Registrant, a former director or officer of the Registrant, or a person who acts or acted at the Registrant's request as a director or officer of a body corporate of which the Registrant is or was a shareholder or creditor, and the heirs and legal representatives thereof, to the extent permitted by the CBCA or otherwise by law.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and is therefore unenforceable.
