The proxy that accompanies this statement is being solicited by the Board of Directors (the Board) of Brantley Capital Corporation (the Company) for use at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Meeting) to be held on March 30, 2004, or at any adjournment thereof. This proxy statement was first mailed on or about March 19, 2004 to stockholders of record on January 23, 2004.

Any stockholder giving a proxy for the Meeting may revoke it before it is exercised by giving a later dated proxy, submitting a new vote over the telephone or by giving notice of revocation to the Company in writing or at the Meeting. However, the mere presence at the Meeting of the stockholder does not revoke the proxy. Unless revoked as stated above, the shares of common stock represented by valid proxies will be voted on all matters to be acted upon at the Meeting. On any matter or matters with respect to which the proxy contains instructions for voting, such shares will be voted in accordance with such instructions. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be deemed to be present for the purpose of determining a quorum for the Meeting, but shares that are voted as abstentions and broker non-votes, together with any other shares not voted at the Meeting, will be deemed not voting on the issues or matters as to which abstention is applicable. A broker non-vote exists where a broker proxy indicates that the broker is not authorized to vote on a particular proposal. Brokers who have not received voting instructions from beneficial owners generally may vote in their discretion with respect to the election of directors and the ratification of the selection of the Company's independent public accountant. With respect to the election of directors, proxies cannot be voted for a greater number of persons than the number of nominees named.

The cost of solicitation of proxies in the form accompanying this statement will be borne by the Company. Proxies will be solicited by mail or by telephone or personal interview with an officer or regular employee of the Company, or by requesting brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward proxy soliciting material to the beneficial owners of shares of common stock held of record by such brokers, custodians, nominees or fiduciaries, each of whom will be reimbursed by the Company for its expenses in so doing. In addition, the Company has retained Georgeson Shareholder Communications, Inc., a professional proxy soliciting firm, to assist in the solicitation of proxies and will pay such firm a fee estimated to be $15,000, plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses.

The record date for determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the Meeting is January 23, 2004. As of January 23, 2004, the outstanding voting securities of the Company consisted of 3,810,535 shares of common stock. Each share of common stock has one vote. The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the common stock of the Company outstanding and entitled to be cast shall constitute a quorum for the purposes of the Meeting.

The Company's investment adviser, Brantley Capital Management, L.L.C., is located at 3201 Enterprise Parkway, Suite 350, Cleveland, Ohio, 44122. The Company's administrator, State Street Bank and Trust Company, is located at 225 Franklin Street, Boston, Massachusetts, 02110.

Each member of the Audit Committee is considered independent under the rules promulgated by the Nasdaq Stock Market. The Company's board of directors has determined that Peter Saltz is an audit committee financial expert as defined under Item 401 of Regulation S-K of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Peter Saltz, Gerald Hellerman and Phillip Goldstein meet the current independence and experience requirements of Rule 10A-3 of the Exchange Act, and, in addition, neither is an interested person of the Company as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the 1940 Act.

The audit committee performs its oversight functions and responsibilities pursuant to a written charter adopted by the board of directors. A copy of the audit committee charter is included as an appendix to this proxy statement.

Compensation Committee

The function of the compensation committee is to assist the board of directors in evaluating and recommending compensation of the senior executives of the Company and to administer the Company's stock option plan in accordance with the terms thereof, including the designation of which officers and employees of the Company shall receive stock options, and the number of shares which should be subject to each option so granted. The compensation committee, which is currently composed of Messrs. Bales and Saltz, held one meeting in connection with a meeting of the board of directors during 2002.

Executive Committee

The function of the executive committee is to assist the board in carrying out its responsibilities. The executive committee has and may exercise those rights, powers and authority as may be exercised by the full board, except where action by the full board is required by statute, an order of the Securities and Exchange Commission or the Company's charter or bylaws. The executive committee is composed of Messrs. Pinkas, Oliver and Cascio. The committee did not meet during 2002.

Nominating Committee

The function of the nominating committee is to recommend candidates for the board of directors. The board of directors currently acts as the Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee held one meeting in conjunction with a meeting of the board of directors during 2002. The full board of directors currently acts as the Nominating Committee and is composed of four independent directors and three directors who could be considered interested persons under the 1940 Act. The board of directors has not adopted a charter for the Nominating Committee. The Company believes that because decisions regarding nominations are made by the entire board, including the independent directors, that a separate charter is not necessary. In identifying and evaluating nominees, including shareholder nominees, the board will consider:

the appropriate size and composition of the Company's board of directors;

whether or not the person is an interested person of the Company as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the 1940 Act;

the needs of the Company with respect to the particular talents and experience of its directors;

the knowledge, skills and experience of nominees in light of prevailing business conditions and the knowledge, skills and experience already possessed by other members of the Board;

familiarity with national and international business matters;

experience with accounting rules and practices;

appreciation of the relationship of the Company's business to the changing needs of society;

the desire to balance the considerable benefit of continuity with the periodic injection of the fresh perspective provided by new members; and all applicable laws, rules, regulations and listing standards.

The Nominating Committee's goal is to assemble a board of directors that brings to the Company a variety of perspectives and skills derived from high quality business and professional experience.

Other than the foregoing there are no stated minimum criteria for director nominees, although the Nominating Committee may also consider such other factors as it may deem are in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. The Nominating Committee also believes it appropriate for certain key members of the Company's management to participate as members of the board.

The Nominating Committee identifies nominees by first evaluating the current members of the board of directors willing to continue in service. Current members of the board with skills and experience that are relevant to the Company's business and who are willing to continue in service are considered for re-nomination, balancing the value of continuity of service by existing members of the board with that of obtaining a new perspective. If any member of the board does not wish to continue in service or if the Nominating Committee or the board decides not to re-nominate a member for re-election, the Nominating Committee identifies the desired skills and experience of a new nominee in light of the criteria above. Current members of the Nominating Committee and board of directors are polled for suggestions as to individuals meeting the criteria of the Nominating Committee. Research may also be performed to identify qualified individuals. To date, the Company has not engaged third parties to assist in the identification or evaluation of potential nominees although the Company reserves the right in the future to retain a third party search firm, if necessary.

The Nominating Committee will consider nominees recommended by stockholders; stockholders may send resumes of recommended persons to the attention of Paul H. Cascio, Vice President and Secretary Brantley Capital Corporation, 3201 Enterprise Parkway, Suite 350, Cleveland, Ohio 44122.

Stock Option Plan

The Company's 1996 Stock Option Plan (the "Stock Option Plan") permits the granting of nonqualified stock options to officers and employees of the Company. All officers of the Company are eligible to be selected to participate in the Stock Option Plan. At present, the Company has no employees. The Stock Option Plan is administered by the compensation committee of the board of directors, which selects the persons who are eligible to participate and determines the number of options to be granted.

The number of shares of common stock available for grant under the Stock Option Plan is 1,175,000, subject to certain adjustments. Options granted under the Stock Option Plan are exercisable at a price not less than the greater of (i) the current market value (as defined in the Stock Option Plan) on the date of option grant and (ii) the current net asset value of the shares of common stock. Options become exercisable to the extent of one-third of the subject shares after one year from the grant date, two-thirds of the subject shares after two years from the grant date and all subject shares after three years from the grant date.

The Company's Disinterested Director Option Plan (the "Director Option Plan") permits the granting of non-qualified stock options to the directors of the Company who are not employees or officers. All such directors of the Company are eligible to be selected to participate in the Director Option Plan, which is administered by the compensation committee of the board of directors. In order for options to be issued to the directors, the Company obtained exemptive relief from the SEC. Under the terms of the exemptive order and the Director Option Plan Agreement, each qualified director will be granted an option to purchase 2,000 shares upon their initial appointment to the board of directors. Throughout the term of the plan and immediately following each annual meeting of stockholders of the Company, each qualified director then serving on the Company's board of directors will be granted options to purchase 2,000 additional shares, subject to adjustment. Such option grants were made retroactively by the Company to its formation. As a result, the three original qualifying directors who served on the Company's board of directors since the Company's formation received options to purchase 6,000 shares each. The remaining qualifying directors who served on the Company's board of directors since 1998 each received options to purchase 2,000 shares of common stock.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Brantley Capital Management, L.L.C., pursuant to the terms of an investment advisory agreement, is responsible, on a day-to-day basis, for the selection and supervision of portfolio investments. Transactions between the Company and the Brantley Capital Management, including operational responsibilities, duties and compensation, are governed by the investment advisory agreement. Throughout the term of the investment advisory agreement, the Company will pay to Brantley Capital Management an annual management fee of 2.85% of the Company's net assets, determined at the end of each calendar quarter and payable in arrears. For the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company paid Brantley Capital Management an investment advisory fee in the aggregate amount of $477,860. Robert P. Pinkas, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, Treasurer and a director of the Company, Michael J. Finn, President and a director of the Company, and Paul H. Cascio, Vice President and a director of the Company are officers and managers of Brantley Capital Management, and together own 100% of Brantley Capital Management.

The Company co-invests in portfolio companies from time to time with affiliates of the Company and Brantley Capital Management, including certain venture capital investment partnerships. Certain officers and directors of the Company and officers of Brantley Capital Management also serve as general partners of the investment partnerships' general partner. The Company's co-investments with such affiliates are subject to the terms and conditions of the exemptive order granted by the Commission, which relieves the Company from certain provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and permits certain joint transactions with the investment partnerships.

The Company is an investor in Disposable Products Company, LLC, a non-woven paper products manufacturer. Grand River Industries, Ltd. owns approximately 35% of Disposable Products' outstanding capital stock. Grand River is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Objective Industrial Investments Partners, L.P. Robert P. Pinkas, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, is a managing member in Objective Industrial. As a result of his investment commitment in Objective Industrial, Mr. Pinkas owns 20% of Grand River.

James P. Oliver has been a director of the Company since 1998 and is a partner with the law firm of Squire Sanders & Dempsey L.L.P., which has represented the Company as counsel since shortly after its formation in 1996.

On March 19, 2003, we entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (the "MOU") with Phillip Goldstein, a director of the Company, pursuant to which Mr. Goldstein agreed to dismiss the lawsuit he filed against the Company in September 2002, subject to compliance with the Investment Company Act of 1940. The court approved the proposed settlement on February 26, 2004.

On June 4, 2003, the Company filed an application for exemptive relief from certain provisions of the 1940 Act in order to effect the provisions of the MOU. On June 18, 2003, the Company received comments on its application from the staff of the Division of Investment Management (the "Staff") of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). On August 14, 2003 the Company responded to those comments. With such response, the Company proposed a MOU that was submitted to the Staff. On November 12, 2003, the Company received comments regarding its August 14, 2003 response. The Company responded to the comments on December 18, 2003. On February 11, 2004, the Staff requested a response from the Board of Directors, which the Board provided on February 25, 2004. We are in the process of responding to additional oral comments from the Staff.

Table of Contents

The MOU is subject to approval by the stockholders, and the receipt of exemptive relief from the SEC. There can be no assurances that this exemptive relief would be granted by the SEC staff.

Pursuant to the MOU, we would agree, among other things:

to cause there to be four (4) directors who are not interested persons as defined under the 1940 Act and cause the board to be exactly seven (7) directors in total;

if Mr. Goldstein or Gerald Hellerman is no longer a director of the Company, then whichever of Mr. Goldstein or Mr. Hellerman remains on the board shall have the right to select a nominee;;

to not convert the Company from being an advised fund to an internally managed fund unless a majority of the independent directors agree;

to allow any independent director to request independent counsel, subject to the approval of the board, which cannot be unreasonably withheld; and to refrain from making defamatory remarks about any party to the agreement.

In addition, the MOU provides that at the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders following SEC approval:

the Company would ask shareholders to approve a plan of orderly disposition of the assets of the Company or a sale of the assets with the goal of prompt cash distribution to stockholders;

the Company would ask shareholders to approve a new investment advisory agreement pursuant to which, prospectively:

the advisor's fees would be reduced from 2.85% to 2.5% of our net asset value;

all stock options would be forfeited and cancelled; and the advisor would be entitled to receive a fee equal to 20% of the aggregate distributions made by the Company in excess of $10.00 per share; however, none of the amount would be paid until aggregate distributions totaled $12.50 per share.

The MOU also includes provisions that would require the parties to take all steps necessary to accomplish the goals of the Memorandum, including voting their shares in favor of the proposals when and if they are presented at a meeting of stockholders. Under the MOU, the Company would also be required to reimburse Mr. Goldstein for certain expenses (not to exceed $275,000) he incurred in connection with the proxy solicitation and litigation related to the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on September 17, 2002. Mr. Goldstein would also agree not to engage in, lead or fund a proxy contest while the agreement is in effect. The term of the MOU would run until December 31, 2006.

PROPOSAL 2: RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

The board of directors has selected KPMG LLP as independent public accountants for the Company for the year ending December 31, 2003. The decision to retain KMPG LLP was made by the board of directors upon the recommendation of the audit committee and is subject to ratification or rejection by the stockholders of the Company.

KPMG LLP has advised the Company that neither the firm nor any present member or associate of it has any material financial interest, direct or indirect, in the Company. The Company also has not consulted with KPMG LLP during the last two years or subsequent interim periods on either the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction either completed or proposed or the type of audit opinion KPMG LLP might issue on the Company's financial statements. KPMG LLP has also been selected to serve as the accountants for Brantley Venture Partners I, Brantley Venture Partners II, Brantley Venture Partners III and Brantley Partners IV.

It is expected that a representative of KPMG LLP will be present at the Meeting and will have an opportunity to make a statement if he or she so chooses and will be available to answer questions.

Table of Contents

On June 11, 2002, we dismissed Arthur Andersen (AA) as our independent auditors. AA 's reports on the Company 's financial statements for the past two years did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. The decision to change accountants was approved by the Audit Committee of the Company 's Board of Directors and was submitted for ratification by its stockholders.

During the Company 's two most recent fiscal years and any subsequent interim period preceding the dismissal of AA, there were no disagreements with AA on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of AA, would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter of such disagreements in connection with their reports.

During the Company 's two most recent fiscal years and any subsequent interim period preceding AA 's dismissal:

(1) AA did not advise the Company that the internal controls necessary for the Company to develop reliable financial statements did not exist;

(2) AA did not advise the Company that information had come to AA 's attention that let them to no longer be able to rely on management 's representations, or that made them unwilling to be associated with the financial statements prepared by management;

(3) AA did not advise the Company of the need to expand significantly the scope of their audit, or that information had come to their attention during such period that, if further investigated, may (i) materially impact the fairness or reliability of previously issued financial statements and Reports of Independent Auditors, or the financial statements issued or to be issued covering the fiscal period(s) subsequent to the date of the most recent financial statements covered by an audit report, or (ii) cause AA to be unwilling to rely on management 's representations or be associated with the Company 's financial statements; and

(4) AA did not advise the Company that information had come to their attention that they had concluded materially impacted the fairness or reliability of previously issued financial statements and Reports of Independent Auditors, or the financial statements issued or to be issued covering the fiscal period(s) subsequent to the date of the most recent financial statements covered by an audit report.

The Company engaged KPMG LLP (KPMG) to act as its independent auditors, effective June 11, 2002. During the Company 's two most recent fiscal years and any subsequent interim period prior to engaging KPMG, the Company did not consult KPMG regarding either: (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company 's financial statements, and KPMG did not provide either a written report or oral advice to the Company that KPMG concluded was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to the accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue; or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement or a reportable event, each as defined in Item 304 of Regulation S-K.

Table of ContentsReport of the Audit Committee

The audit committee has reviewed and discussed with the Company's management the audited financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002. The audit committee has also discussed with KPMG LLP, the Company's independent public accountants, all matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61. The audit committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from KPMG LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and has discussed with KPMG LLP its independence.

Based on the review and discussions noted above, and consistent with the roles and responsibilities referred to above and in the audit committee's charter, the audit committee recommended to the board of directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 for filing with the SEC.

Commission. Consider and approve, if appropriate, major changes in accounting principles or material estimates as suggested by the independent auditors or management.

8. Review with the independent auditors: (a) all critical accounting policies and practices to be used; (b) all alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed with management, including ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatment preferred by the independent auditors; (c) other material written communications between the independent auditors and management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences. Such review is to occur before any audit report is filed with the SEC pursuant to the securities laws, including prior to the filing of annual reports and proxy statements, registration statements, and other periodic or current reports that contain audit reports.

9. Periodically consult with the independent auditors without members of management present. Among the items to be discussed in these meetings are the independent auditors' evaluation of the Company's financial, accounting and auditing personnel, and the cooperation that the independent auditors receive during the course of the audit.

10. Review disclosures made to the Committee by the Company's CEO and CFO during their certification process for the Form 10-K and Form 10-Q about any significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls or material weaknesses therein and any fraud involving management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's internal controls.

11. Periodically consult with the independent auditors, and financial and accounting personnel the integrity of the Company's financial reporting processes, both internal and external and elicit any recommendations for the improvement of such internal control procedures or particular areas where new or more detailed controls or procedures are desirable. Particular emphasis should be given to the adequacy of such internal controls to expose any payments, transactions, or procedures that might be deemed illegal or otherwise improper. Further, the Committee should periodically review and update the Company's code of ethics to ensure that management has established a system to enforce adherence to its written code of conduct.

ETHICAL AND LEGAL COMPLIANCE

12. Perform any other activities consistent with this Charter, the Company's By-laws and governing law as the Committee or the Board deems necessary or appropriate.

13. Obtain from the independent auditors assurance that Section 10A(b) of the Exchange Act has not been implicated.

14. Establish procedures relating to the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

15. Review accounting and financial human resource and succession planning within the Company.

16. Submit the minutes of all meetings of the Committee to, or discuss the matters discussed at each Committee meeting with, the Board.

17. Investigate any matter brought to its attention within the scope of its duties.

Meetings

The Committee shall meet as often as it determines, but not less frequently than quarterly. As part of its job to foster open communication, the Committee should meet periodically with management and the independent auditors in separate executive sessions to discuss any matters that the Committee or each of these groups believe should be discussed privately. The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company or the Company's outside counsel or independent auditors to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Committee. Minutes shall be kept of each meeting of the Committee.
