SENIOR MANAGEMENT AND BOARD ENTRENCHMENT

- o Willamette Board and Management have never tried to inform themselves on the Weyerhaeuser offer
 - o Refusal to engage in meaningful dialogue
- o Willamette has never indicated how or when they will generate value equal to Weyerhaeuser's premium offer
- o Active and emotional entrenchment
 - o Change-in-control agreements
 - o Incitement of employees and local constituencies
- o Despite the fact that Willamette shareholders have endorsed the Weyerhaeuser proposal, the Willamette Board has continued to ignore the wishes of its shareholders

[Weyerhaeuser Company logo]

MARKET VIEWS ON WILLAMETTE SENIOR MANAGEMENT AND BOARD ENTRENCHMENT (1)

MARK CONNELLY, CREDIT SUISSE FIRST BOSTON, 5/10/01

"The absence of a cogent, economically-based response to the Weyerhaeuser bid is both troubling and disappointing. Willamette seems to be saying "we're worth a lot more, but we can't think of a way to explain why in a manner that you will understand". A counter-bid from management would make sense if the value is there; we haven't seen one."

GUY WYSER-PRATTE, WYSER-PRATTE MANAGEMENT, INC., 3/16/01

"From all indications, it seems that the majority of the Willamette's shareholders want to accept a premium offer for their shares, and want you and your board to maximize shareholder value. I note that more than half of Willamette's shares have been tendered into Weyerhaeuser's tender offer. Yet Willamette has chosen to ignore the wishes of the majority and force its shareholders into a proxy fight."

THE PORTLAND BUSINESS JOURNAL, 3/9/01

"Willamette's management team is acting like it has been living in the woods the last century. Have any of its directors heard of shareholder rights? How about fiduciary responsibility? Or just plain common sense? The directors seem to be completely lacking in the latter... Willamette's Board has apparently forgotten that when you go to the public for money, you become responsible to the public for your actions... sometimes the financial interests of the shareholders supercedes the job-security interests of the members of Management and the Board."

MONEY MANAGER QUOTED IN BRAINSTORM NW MAGAZINE, MAY 2001

"What is unreasonable is that Willamette has not suggested a price. They make light of how shareholders have been voting. After all, 51 percent of the stock has at one point been offered - and of the remaining shares, 20 to 30 percent of them are tied to people who are family insiders. So don't tell me people don't support this bid - they do."

Edgar Filing: WILLAMETTE INDUSTRIES INC - Form DFAN14A

PROXY VOTE IS ABOUT BOARD ACCOUNTABILITY

- o Vote is about electing directors who:
 - o Will listen to shareholders
 - o Believe their duty is to maximize shareholder value
- o Weyerhaeuser nominees
 - o Experienced business people
 - o Committed to maximizing value for ALL Willamette shareholders

17

[Weyerhaeuser Company logo]

WHY WE ARE ASKING FOR YOUR SUPPORT

- o Weyerhaeuser nominees are committed to implementing a value-maximizing process for all Willamette shareholders
 - o If Willamette is prepared to negotiate a definitive merger agreement, Weyerhaeuser is willing to increase its offer
 - o Independent financial analysts have indicated that absent Weyerhaeuser's offer, the value of Willamette shares could fall significantly
 - o Willamette itself has acknowledged likely "dislocation" in its stock price absent the Weyerhaeuser offer
- | | |
|---|--|
| o If the Weyerhaeuser nominees are not elected, Weyerhaeuser will | |
| withdraw its offer | |

To All Willamette Shareholders:

WILLAMETTE REFUSES TO DISCUSS
POSSIBILITY OF AN INCREASED PRICE WITH WEYERHAEUSER

William Swindells, chairman of Willamette Industries, and his board have refused to negotiate or even discuss with us details of our offer to acquire Willamette or our willingness to pay an increased price. We think that the Willamette board has made it crystal clear that the company they have been entrusted to manage for you is simply not for sale, at any price.

If Willamette is prepared to negotiate a definitive merger agreement promptly, Weyerhaeuser is willing to increase its offer above $50 per share. Meanwhile, William Swindells, his board and management continue to hide behind a staggered board and poison pill. Now is the time for Willamette shareholders to take control of their company to maximize the value of their shares.

IF THE WEYERHAEUSER NOMINEES ARE NOT ELECTED
WE WILL WITHDRAW OUR OFFER

If our slate is elected at the June 7th meeting and Willamette continues to refuse to negotiate, Weyerhaeuser intends to nominate a slate of directors for election at Willamette's 2002 Annual Meeting. HOWEVER, IF THE WEYERHAEUSER NOMINEES ARE NOT ELECTED ON JUNE 7TH, WE WILL WITHDRAW OUR OFFER, SINCE IT WILL TAKE AT LEAST TWO MORE YEARS, UNTIL THE 2003 ANNUAL MEETING, TO EFFECT A TRANSACTION NOT APPROVED BY THE CURRENT WILLAMETTE BOARD.

SEND A MESSAGE TO THE WILLAMETTE BOARD
DON'T DELAY-VOTE GOLD TODAY

You deserve a board of directors that will act in your best interests. We are seeking your support for the election of our three nominees to Willamette's board at the Willamette Annual Meeting. Please vote FOR the election of the Weyerhaeuser nominees on your GOLD proxy card.

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Edgar Filing: WILLAMETTE INDUSTRIES INC - Form DFAN14A

WEYERHAEUSER EXTENDS TENDER OFFER FOR WILLAMETTE INDUSTRIES
UNTIL JUNE 7, 2001

ENCOURAGES SHAREHOLDERS TO SUPPORT ELECTION OF
WEYERHAEUSER NOMINEES AT JUNE 7TH ANNUAL MEETING

FEDERAL WAY, Wash., May 21, 2001 - Weyerhaeuser Company (NYSE: WY) today announced that it has extended its $50 per share cash tender offer for all of the outstanding common stock of Willamette Industries, Inc. (NYSE: WLL). The offer, which was scheduled to expire at midnight New York City time on May 18, 2001, has been extended until midnight New York City time on June 7, 2001.

As of midnight on May 18, 2001, Willamette shareholders had tendered and not withdrawn 49,239,993 shares pursuant to Weyerhaeuser's tender offer.

Steven R. Rogel, chairman, president, and chief executive officer of Weyerhaeuser, stated, "Given the fact that Willamette's poison pill and other defensive measures prevent Weyerhaeuser from purchasing any shares pursuant to our tender offer, we are pleased with the level of support we have received. The Willamette board has undertaken a six-month effort to prevent us from consummating our tender offer and delivering premium value to shareholders. At Willamette's long-delayed annual meeting on June 7th, shareholders will have an opportunity to send a message that the Willamette board of directors cannot ignore. Shareholders will be able to elect directors who are committed to maximizing value for shareholders now. We believe the only way to facilitate the proposed combination is to vote the GOLD proxy card for the election of the Weyerhaeuser nominees.

"If Willamette is prepared to negotiate a definitive merger agreement promptly, Weyerhaeuser is willing to increase its offer above $50 per share. Now is the time for Willamette shareholders to take control of their company to maximize the value of their shares," Rogel continued.

"If the Weyerhaeuser nominees are not elected on June 7th, we will withdraw our offer, since it will take at least two more years, until the 2003 Annual Meeting, to effect a transaction not approved by the current Willamette board," Rogel concluded.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This news release contains statements concerning the company's future results and performance that are forward looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Any such forward looking statement made by Weyerhaeuser with respect to the Willamette tender offer is not entitled to the benefit of the safe harbor protections of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The accuracy of such statements is subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions that may cause actual results to differ materially from those projected, including, but not limited to, the effect of general economic conditions, including the level of interest rates and housing starts; market demand for the company's products, which may be tied to the relative strength of various US business segments; performance of the company's manufacturing operations; the types of logs harvested in the company's logging operations; the level of competition from foreign producers; the effect of forestry, land use, environmental and other governmental regulations; and the risk of losses from fires, floods and other natural disasters. The company is also a large exporter and is affected by changes in economic activity in Europe and Asia, particularly Japan, and by changes in currency exchange rates, particularly the relative value of the US dollar and the Euro, and restrictions on international trade. These and other factors that could cause or contribute to actual results differing materially from such forward looking statements are discussed in greater detail in the company's Securities and Exchange Commission filings.
