Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Effective as of April 22, 2013, Customers Bancorp, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an Amendment to Agreement and Plan of Merger (“Amendment”) to that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 10, 2012 (“Merger Agreement”), by and between the Company and CMS Bancorp, Inc. (“CMS”).

The Amendment extended from April 30, 2013 to December 31, 2013 the initial date at which, if the merger of the Company with and into the Company pursuant to the Merger Agreement, as amended, has not closed, either the Company or CMS may terminate the Agreement, subject to the termination date being extended until March 31, 2014 under certain specified circumstances.

The Amendment also updated the definitions of “CMS Valuation” and “Customers Valuation,” establishing the valuation date for book value as of March 31, 2013. The exchange ratio will remain fixed for the pendency of the transaction, using the multiples of 0.95x for CMS common equity, and 1.25x for Customers common equity for purposes of calculating the exchange ratio.

Other key terms agreed to by the Company and CMS under the Amendment provide for:

- CMS’s ability to terminate the Merger Agreement, as amended, exercisable at any time after May 20, 2013, if either (i) the Company has not made an investment in CMS of $1.5 million of CMS Preferred Stock, or (ii) the Company and CMS have not agreed upon the terms of a $2.0 million senior secured lending facility that the Company will make available to CMS;
- the Company to pay $300,000 to CMS as partial reimbursement for merger-related expenses incurred as of March 31, 2013; and
- the Company to pay to CMS a termination fee of $1.0 million in the event the Merger Agreement, as amended, is terminated under certain provisions primarily relating to failure to consummate the Parent Merger due to non-receipt of required government approvals.

The foregoing summary of the Amendment is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Amendment, which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference in its entirety into this Item 1.01.

For information about the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 10, 2012, by and between CMS Bancorp, Inc. and Customers Bancorp, Inc., see the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on August 10, 2012.

SAFE HARBOR

In addition to historical information, this information may contain “forward-looking statements” which are made in good faith by the Company, pursuant to the “safe harbor” provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include statements with respect to the Company’s strategies, goals, beliefs, expectations, estimates, intentions, and financial condition, results of operations, future performance and business. Statements preceded by, followed by or that include the words “may,” “could,” “should,” “pro forma,” “looking forward,” “would,” “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “intend,” “plan,” or similar expressions generally indicate a forward-looking statement. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that are subject to change based on various important factors (some of which, in whole or in part, are beyond the Company’s control). Numerous competitive, economic, regulatory, legal and technological factors, among others, could cause the Company’s financial performance to differ materially from the goals, plans, objectives, intentions and expectations expressed in such forward-looking statements. In addition, important factors relating to the proposed merger with CMS also could cause The Company’s actual results to differ from those in the forward-looking statements, including: the possibility that the anticipated benefits from the merger will not be realized, or will not be realized within the expected time period; the possibility that the merger does not close, including, but not limited to, due to the failure to receive regulatory approval or satisfy the closing conditions; the risk that CMS’s operations will not be integrated successfully with the Company; and potential disruption from the merger making it more difficult to maintain business and operational relationships. The Company cautions that the foregoing factors are not exclusive, and neither such factors nor any such forward-looking statement takes into account the impact that any future acquisition may have on the Company and any such forward-looking statement. The Company does not undertake to update any forward-looking statement whether written or oral, that may be made from time to time by the Company or by or on behalf of Customers Bank.
