SEC POSITION ON INDEMNIFICATION

Under Bermuda law, a company is permitted to indemnify any officer or director, out of the funds of the company, against (a) any liability incurred by him or her in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his or her favor, or in which he or she is acquitted, or in connection with any application under relevant Bermuda legislation in which relief from liability is granted to him or her by the court and (b) any loss or liability resulting from negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, save for his or her fraud and dishonesty. Our bye-laws provide for our indemnity of our officers, directors and employees to the fullest extent permitted by law. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling us pursuant to the foregoing provisions, we have been informed that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable. We believe that the limitation of liability provisions in our by-laws will facilitate our ability to continue to attract and retain qualified individuals to serve as our officers and directors.

- (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;
- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

- (5) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and persons controlling us pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by us of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or person controlling us in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling

For the purposes of giving this opinion, we have examined and relied on a copy of the Registration Statement.

We have also reviewed a copy of the memorandum of association and the bye-laws of the Company and such other documents and made such enquiries as to questions of law as we have deemed necessary in order to render the opinions set forth below.

We have made no investigation of and express no opinion in relation to the laws of any jurisdiction other than Bermuda. This opinion is to be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Bermuda and is limited to and is given on the basis of the current law and practice in Bermuda.

The Registration Statement contemplates the sale by the Selling Shareholders (as referred to in the Registration Statement) of common shares in the Company issued or issuable to the Selling Shareholders pursuant to the Plans (as defined in the Registration Statement). Such shares are hereinafter referred to as the "Relevant Shares".

On the basis of and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that the Relevant Shares have been validly issued, fully paid and not subject to further calls or, when issued, will have been validly issued and fully paid and not subject to further calls.

We consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to the Registration Statement. In giving such consent, we do not thereby admit that we are acting within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the United States Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder.

Yours faithfully,
